

Baby Brained Entertainment

by ChampTehOtter (<https://champtehotter.com/>)

Description

Maybe that baby show isn't so boring after all. In fact, it's sort of fun. You're not sure why you didn't notice it before, but actually, you're kind of becoming a superfan. No, really... it's not because you listened to Champ... it's totally a good show if you give it a chance!

Intro

This file is intended for adults 18 or older, so if you are a minor, please stop the recording and go elsewhere.

You are listening to another hypnosis file from Champ. If you are here with me, then you must want to be hypnotized. That means you are ready to spend some time in trance, listen to my words, and accept all that you hear.

I cannot guarantee that you will go into trance as you listen to this file, but even if you don't immediately go into trance, it's okay to pretend. Sometimes, as you are pretending to go into trance, your subconscious will follow suit and before you know it, you may find you have already entered a state of trance without even realizing it.

Before we begin, please make sure you are in a safe place where you can relax and listen to my words uninterrupted. A reclining position is best, where you cannot roll or fall over. Once you are situated, turn off any cell phones, lights, or anything else that may distract you as you listen to my words. If you need time to prepare yourself to listen to my words uninterrupted, please pause the recording and do so now. I'll be here when you return. Are you ready to be hypnotized? Good.

Induction

And now, I want you to close your eyes and listen. Listen to that voice in your head that tells you it's time to be little. Listen to that voice that tells you it's time to be a big baby. Listen to the voice in your head that tells you to watch baby shows. Listen to that voice in your head that tells you what you really want and need... [I to watch baby shows]

That's good. You need to smile and babble and be a baby. You need to watch baby shows. You need to relax and enjoy being little as soon as you get home and find a safe place to do so...

Even if you don't have a place to be little... you can close your eyes... relax... and listen to my words... and I'll take you there... back to baby land... just like you are meant to be... just like you are right now as you listen to my words... going down down down... into a nice... deep... trance. [Countdown]

Body

And here you are. And you know why you are here, don't you? You are here because you have an urge to watch baby shows... That's right, you have an urge to watch baby shows...

And it may be any baby shows at all... or one baby show in particular... You know what you want to watch... and you're going to watch it... finding yourself drawn to those videos and watching them as you listen to my words...

And it doesn't matter if you normally watch the show, or if you even like the show. Maybe you don't really like the show... maybe you just think the characters are cute. That makes perfect sense. Seeing cute characters can be entertaining in itself... And besides, who could resist those happy smiling faces when they come across the screen? [So hard to resist... So easy to give in.]

Or maybe you watch the show because you're curious what it's all about. After all, with so many fans of the show out there, there must be something to it, right? Curiosity is a great reason to watch a show, as much as aesthetic choice.

Or maybe you watch the show just because, and you don't really have a reason at all... you don't really have to have a reason to watch the show, do you? You don't really have to know why you want to watch the show, but you have the freedom to watch whatever you want, and you can watch baby shows when you want to. [I want to watch baby shows... I love to watch baby shows...]

More and more often, as you go about your day, the idea just pops into your head... and you decide to watch your baby shows... especially if you see them or something that reminds you of them when you are looking for something to watch... [maybe I should put on Barney... maybe I should play some paw patrol]...

And as you watch those shows... you can like and subscribe to those channels... and whenever baby shows come up in your suggestions, you just can't help but watch them ... Every time those baby shows come across your screen, you have to select them and give them a like right away... it's the right thing to do, after all... [Like and subscribe to Barney videos... Like and subscribe to paw patrol videos... like and subscribe to the most babiestic shows you can think of...]

Any time and every time is a good time to watch baby shows... Even if you are busy, even if you don't have time to watch baby shows, you know you can always just listen to them in the background while you're doing other things... You put those baby shows on to entertain you during your daily commute... during work... while you're studying or doing chores... or even when you're just relaxing... [I can't really be starting to like these... that would mean I'm totally baby brained]

You might find yourself reading up on the show and its characters... reading other peoples' opinions... just out of curiosity, of course... you might find out that there's more to the show than you first thought... You may even find yourself going on the kids version of your favorite streaming service... When you find out where you can watch that show, you might just watch the whole thing from start to finish... [These shows aren't bad... in fact, they're pretty good]

And when you watch and listen to those shows, you feel so good... you find yourself smiling as you watch, or even think about baby shows... and looking forward to watching more... Are you genuinely beginning to enjoy these shows...? Are you actually enjoying this? [These shows are pretty good. Am I unironically enjoying baby shows? When did I become such a baby?]

Soon enough, you find yourself constantly humming the theme song as you go about your day. It's just so catchy, and gives you a happy heart... and it's a great audio reminder of what a big fan you really are... You can't get that theme song out of your head even if you want to... but why would you want to? In fact, you quite like the theme song. I'll bet you can recite the theme song word for word, can't you? And you often do, don't you? [Aren't you proud? Are you proud of that? really?]

Eventually you find yourself becoming so familiar with the baby shows that you can name every character on the show, the lore, and the seasons. Silly baby. What a silly baby. You find yourself talking and writing about the show... Telling others what you think about the episode you're watching... you can't help it, it's just so interesting... And likewise, you can't help but enthusiastically talk about your favorite characters from the show... because you have to let everyone know how you feel about what the characters did in that last episode... it's very important, after all. [I love to talk about my baby shows]

Before you know it, you'll find yourself buying merchandise to complement your personal style and the spaces around you... from bags to bedding, to stickers, posters, and toys... there are so many options to choose from to show your appreciation for the show... so many ways to customize your life... And it doesn't have to be all at once... A bedroom accessory here or there... maybe a clothing item too... Soon your comfy place is baby show central... And it only reinforces your superfan mindset as you look around you... a nice visual reminder of what a big fan you really are... [Every time I see merch of my favorite baby show, I want it]

But you're not really a superfan are you? Nah, you're just clapping and giggling and enjoying the show like any other person. And you can keep on enjoying that show, and listening to my words, until your superfan status is complete and permanent. [You're just clapping and giggling... It's funny, isn't it? I love my favorite baby show. I wanna show my spirit. I wanna get all the merch. I'm gonna customize my room. I'm gonna get a bag with that theme. I'm gonna change how I dress. I wanna wear those characters all over my clothes. I'm gonna change it to my ringtone. I can't wait to show my pride. I can't wait to show it off to everyone. Look at you smiling and giggling. It's funny, isn't it? You're a funny little baby, aren't you? Silly baby. Maybe you're already too far gone. Maybe you already think that this is completely normal in your life. Silly baby. What a cutie. What a little baby. What a little cutie pie. You just love your baby shows, don't you? Yes you do. Yes you do. Just a little baby. You love your baby shows. Clapping and giggling. What a silly baby. What a funny little baby you are.]

End

On the count of five, you will awaken from your nice relaxing trance feeling alert and refreshed. One ...beginning to regain your normal awareness...Two... becoming more aware of your body, lying in a relaxed position... Three... becoming more aware of your breathing, and where you are... four... feeling so, so good as you finally come back on... 5. All the way back, refreshed, and alert. I hope you enjoyed your time with me, and I hope you return to listen again soon. Goodbye now.
