

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lesley Ann Parker is the pseudonym of a talented author hailing from Texas. As a transvestite and retired teacher, Lesley brings a unique perspective to her writing. With a passion for storytelling and a deep understanding of diverse lifestyles, Lesley weaves compelling narratives that captivate readers.

Beyond her writing pursuits, Lesley leads a fulfilling personal life. She is married and the proud parent of two grown children, as well as two beloved "Lab" children. Lesley participates in the National Leather Alliance in Dallas, where she embraces her membership in the vibrant Kink community.

Lesley's creative expression extends beyond writing. She also channels her artistic talents into the creation of TG (transgender) and damsel-in-distress artwork, or Transdamsel-in-distress. You can find her captivating art pieces on Deviantart under the username lesleyinheels. Notably, the artwork featured in this novel is exclusively crafted by Lesley herself and is not available on Deviantart.

With a captivating storytelling style and a passion for artistic expression, Lesley Ann Parker invites readers into the fascinating world of her imagination. Explore the depths of human experience and embark on thrilling journeys alongside her compelling characters.

Lesley Parker
