Chapter 11 - Family Business

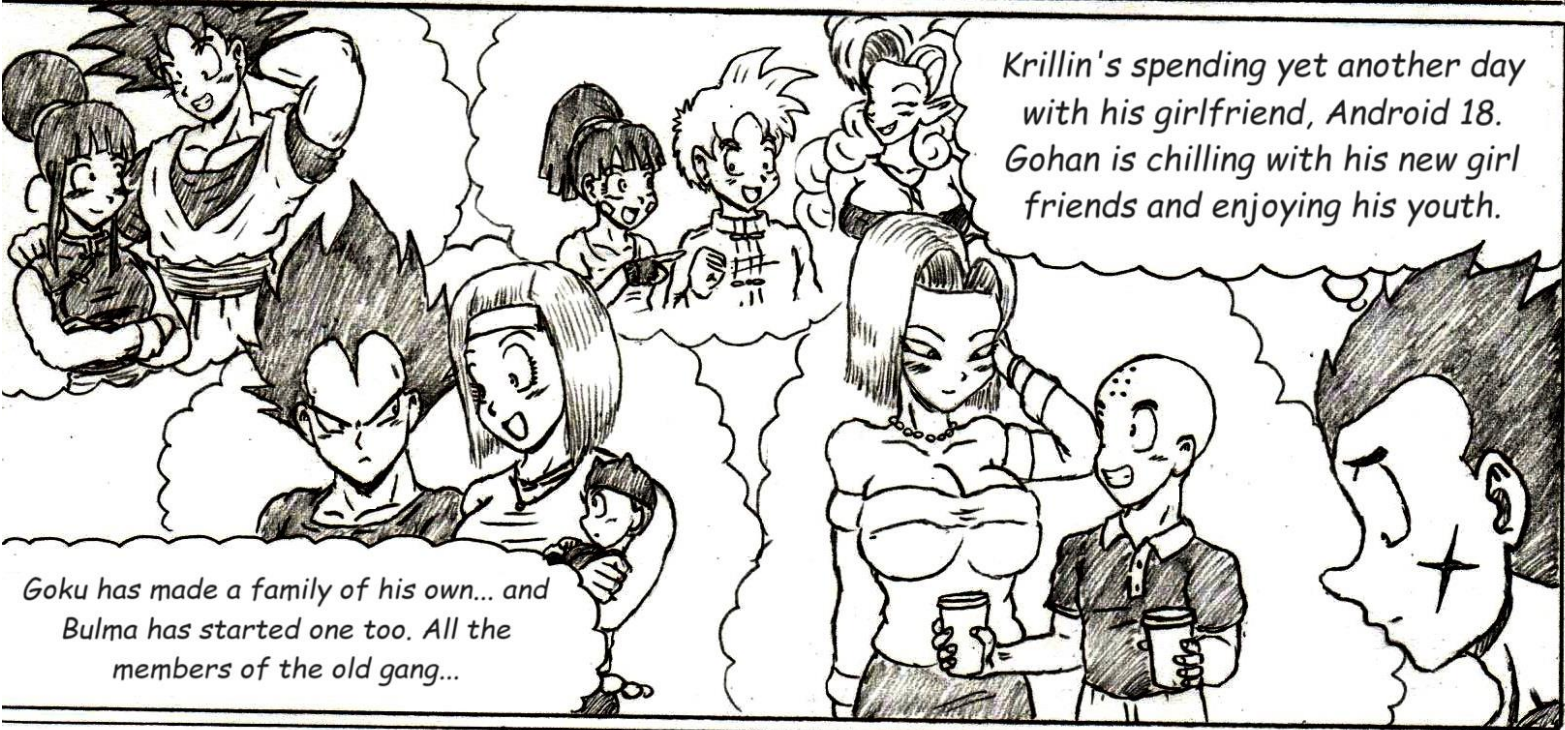

Sigh

Meanwhile...

Man...

West City Park

Krillin's spending yet another day with his girlfriend, Android 18. Gohan is chilling with his new girl friends and enjoying his youth.

Goku has made a family of his own... and Bulma has started one too. All the members of the old gang...

Yet here I am... spending another morning alone...

Even Raditz and Nappa married and started families of their own on this planet.

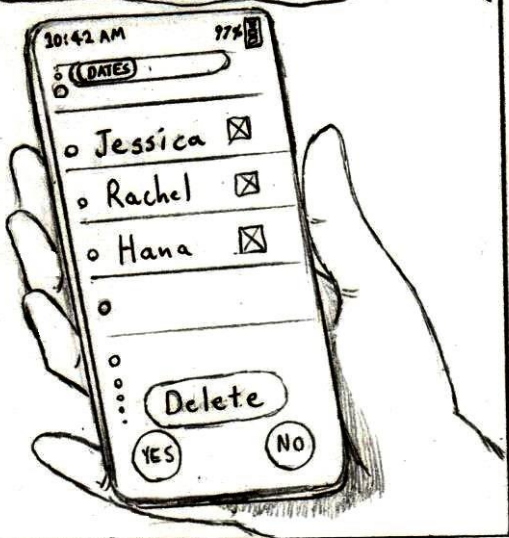

"Sure! I'll meet you there, babe!"

"Hahaha! That's so funny!"

...and after being rejected by another girl.

Welp... I guess I can cross Hana off the list now. That makes three girls I've tried dating since my break up with Bulma...

I'm sorry. You're really nice, but I think it would be best if we just remained friends.

Uhm... o-okay.

There's plenty of fish in the sea, Yamcha. I'm sure you will find a girl eventually. Just keep fishing...

Sigh

Oh well. If that's the way it's going to be, then fine.

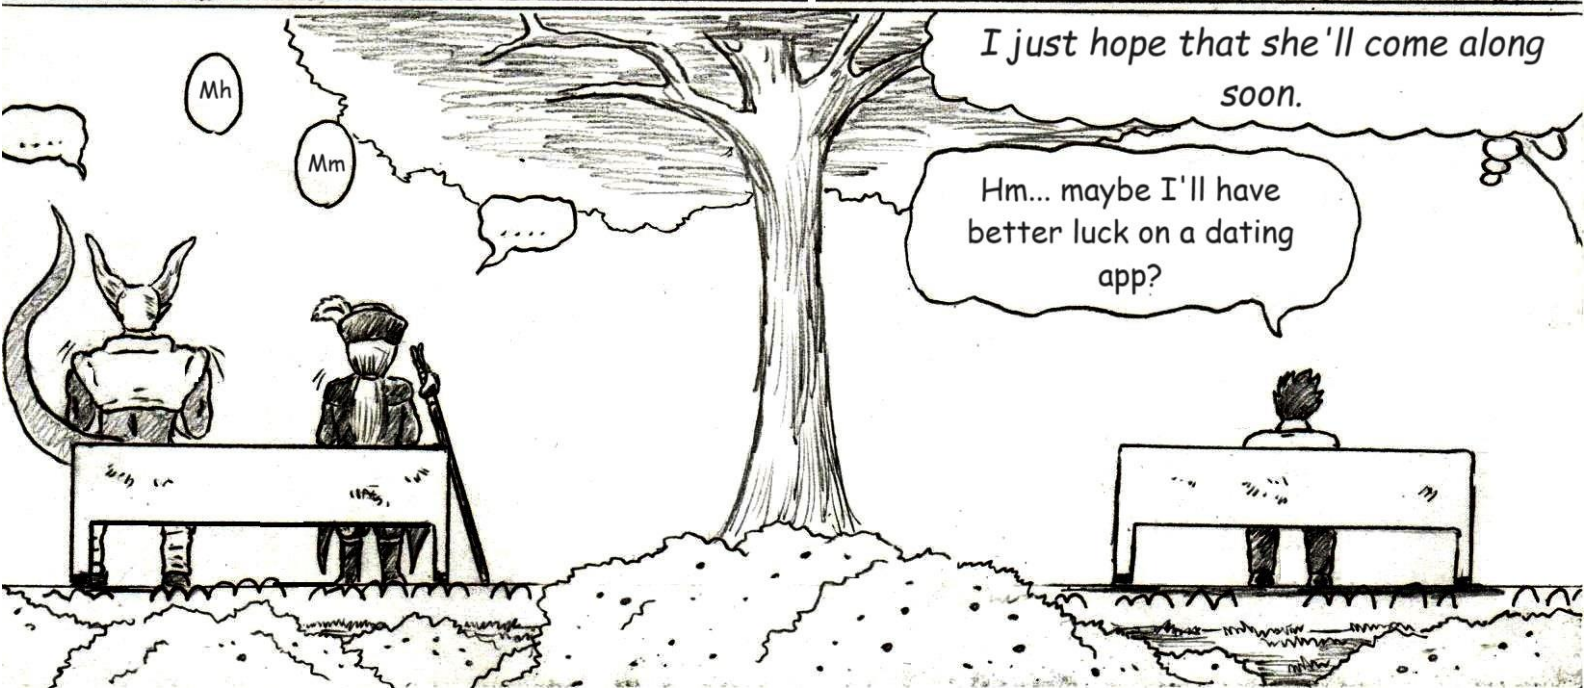

SWIG!

GULP!

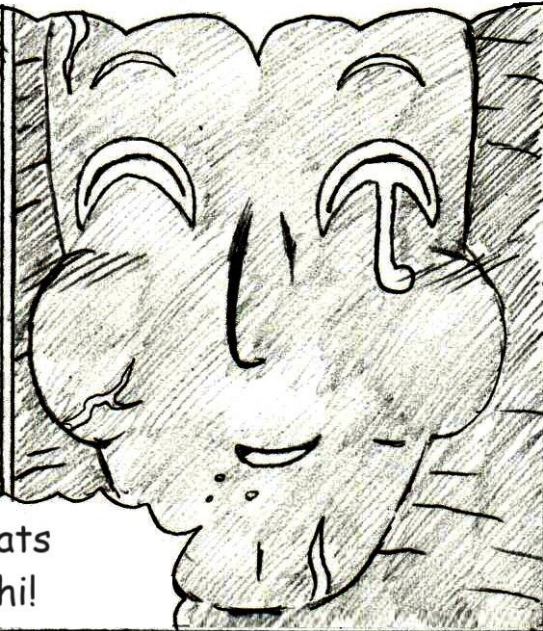

I just hope that she'll come along soon.

Hm... maybe I'll have better luck on a dating app?

Oooh! These mochi are truly spectacular! A burst of flavour with every bite! Mmh, I'm melting!

Mnh

I tell yah! Nothing beats freshly pounded mochi!

Mm

Mmm!

Mmm!

OOH! SOOO GOOD!

Chew!

Chew!

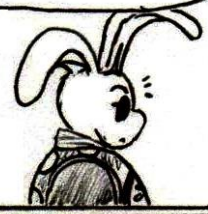

Mochi

Mochi

Mochi

Janemba-chan! Maria-chan! I'm floating on cloud nine right now!

It was a pleasure doing business with you, sir!

Sir... is there any particular reason why you chose to shake that rabbit man's hand? You knew full well he had a transfiguration ability he could use effortlessly on contact, right?

S-Sure.

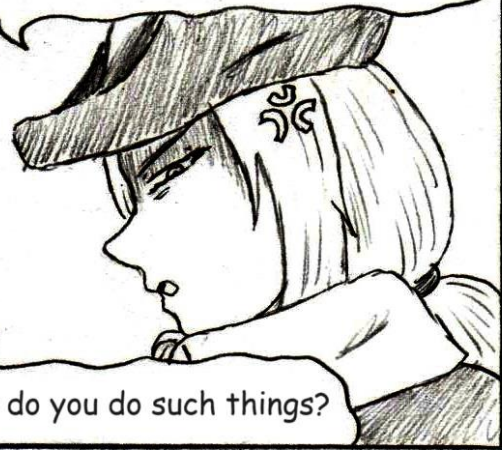

Shake!

Hmhm!

The most powerful being in all of creation... and you intentionally allow yourself to fall for common, simple tricks like that.

Why do you do such things?

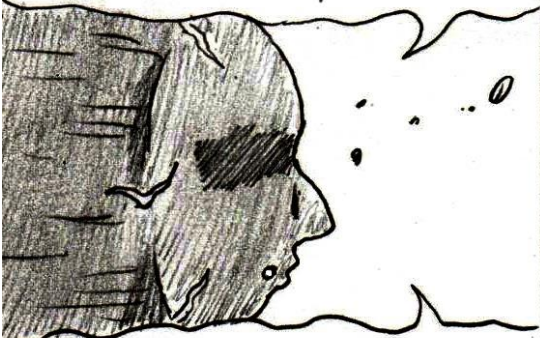

Ugh! Honestly! It's frustrating how you can be so reckless and irresponsible!

YEP! I knew all along that this is what would happen!

In order to grow, even the most Godly of entities must face adversity.

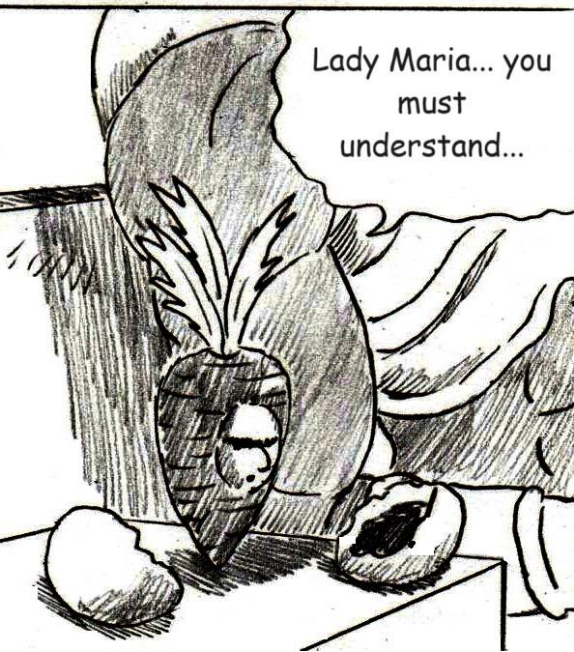

By doing this, I have transcended all prior limitations... and achieved true enlightenment...

Taking risks like this is... essential.

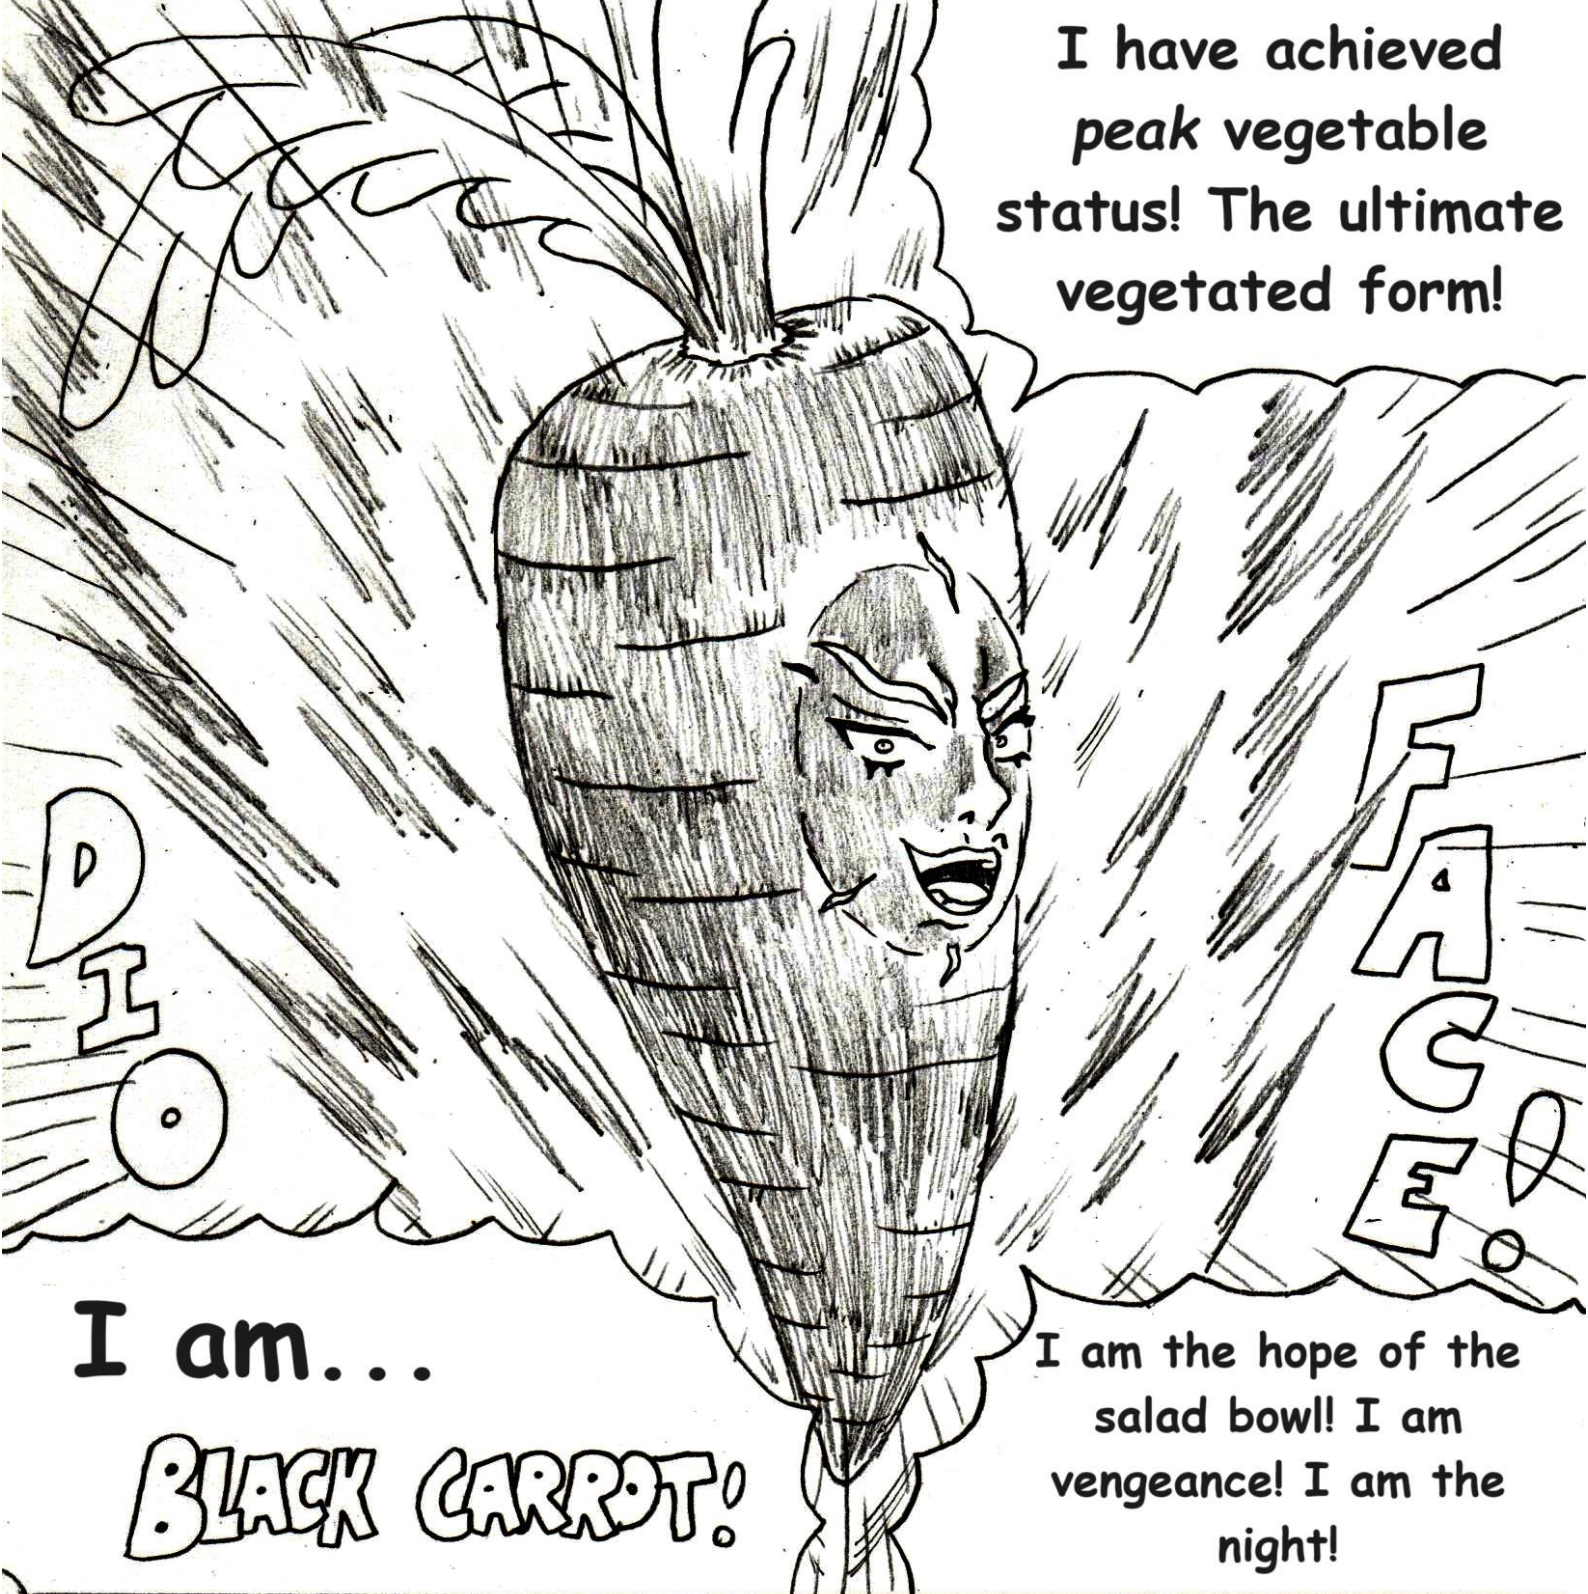

Hm?

Lady Maria... you must understand...

I have achieved peak vegetable status! The ultimate vegetated form!

I am...

BLACK CARROT!

I am the hope of the salad bowl! I am vengeance! I am the night!

IT'S ABSOLUTELY NOT! DO YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT IS OFFENSIVE?! UNNECESSARY
RACE AND GENDER SWAPS IN MEDIA- NO MATTER WHO THEY ARE- AND DECONSTRUCTION OF
BOTH FICTIONAL CHARACTERS AND HISTORICAL FIGURES THAT DELIBERATELY INSULTS
THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS, SACRIFICES AND STORIES!

Isn't that name kind of offensive?

I was in Monaco... private room in the Monte Carlo Casino.

It was at game night a couple months ago, and my fellow star farer was bragging about one of his adventures.

Haah... but to answer more seriously, I had a small score to settle.

Excelsior, Gilgamesh! You have the Gods' luck on your side!

Acknowledge your folly, peasants.

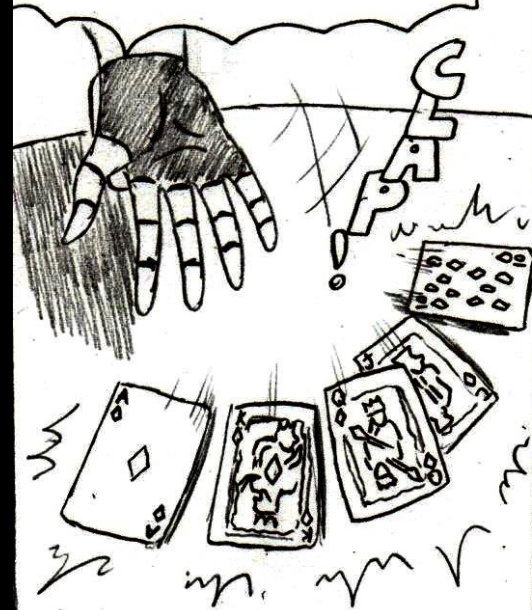

CHING!

Heh. Naturally.

Behold! A Royal Flush!

How the hell does golden gay time keep winning all the big pots?

Ugh. We should've invited Ishtar instead.

Really?

Your best guess is as good as mine.

Heh. What's even more surprising is that a buurp supposedly all-powerful Lovecraftian Outer God who exists across all of time and creation at once, can't even beat the first hero at a game of five card stud.

Hrrm

SWIM!

Honestly, it's kind of sad. That being said, even someone as amazing and awesome as me can lose unironically at times.

Sigh Though it pains me to admit...

Huhu!

...even little old me has his limits.

Yeah, yeah! You've got, like, a super Pinkie Sense of your own!

Zip!

Yet you still lost!

Are you ever gonna shut up about that?

Oh, God.

Buurp Nyoop!

Hah! That's just pussy talk coming from an unimaginative hack!

Sure, you can swap faces like a champ, but only for shock and horror. Never for shits and giggles... like that time I went on that side-quest as a literal pickle.

Oh. That was Rick Sanchez C-137 (L2)

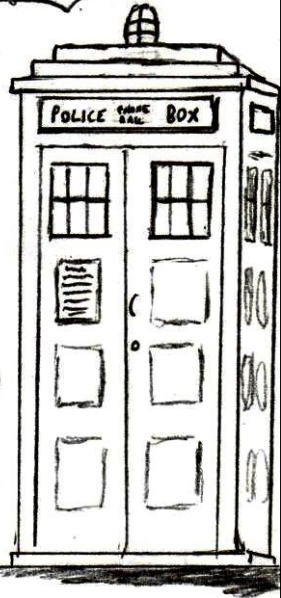

I saw the results of that "fight" and decided to even the score. Now I've got his ride.

Hold on! When did you get the TARDIS?! I thought you lost that fight.

Welp! It's been fun, guys! But I'm BUURP peacing out!

Simple. I realized his TARDIS had a conscience and a soul.

So I used the TARDIS's backdoor to transfer her soul into a clone body of a hot, super model redhead, seduced her, fucked her brains out, and convinced her to take my side.

How? ScrewAttack had your stats pretty accurate. And the Doctor is no slouch.

There's no way David Tennant could've lost.

Wubba-lubba dub duub, bitches!
Doctor Rick is out! ADIOS!

Sure thing, babe.

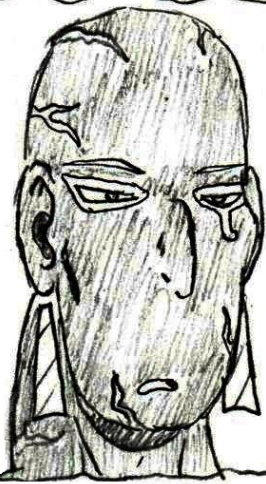

I'll be right inside you.

Rick, sweetie. Are you ready to ride me again?

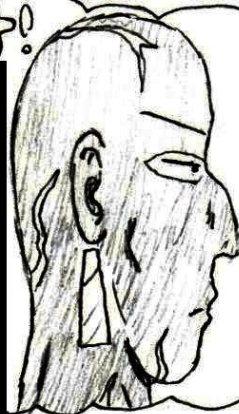

That guy really likes to brag, huh?

He thinks he's so damn cool.

OH, RICK! BABY!
YOU'RE SO GOOD!

Yeah! Take it, b#$^h! I'm gonna ride you so hard!

Wrr!
Wrr!

OH
OH

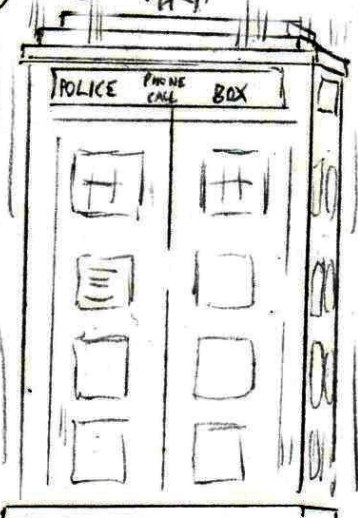

Wrr!
Wrr!

OH

AH

YES!

Wrr!

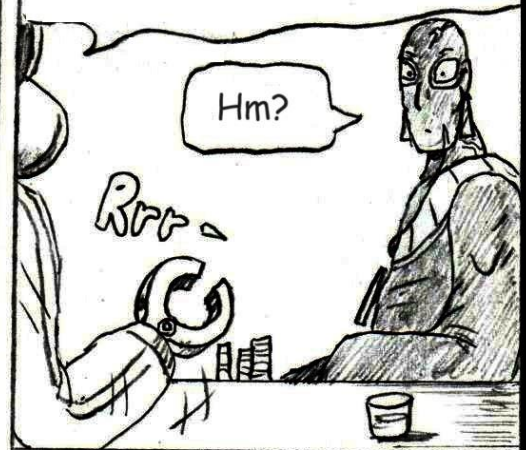

There's a giant,
talking rabbit in one of my multiverses who can turn you into a carrot with

You can come and visit MY reality.

You know... if you're really set on beating Rick Sanchez...

Hm?

Rrr-

A carrot, you say?

That's right!

And THAT'S how Toriyama-sensei and I became best friends.

Really?

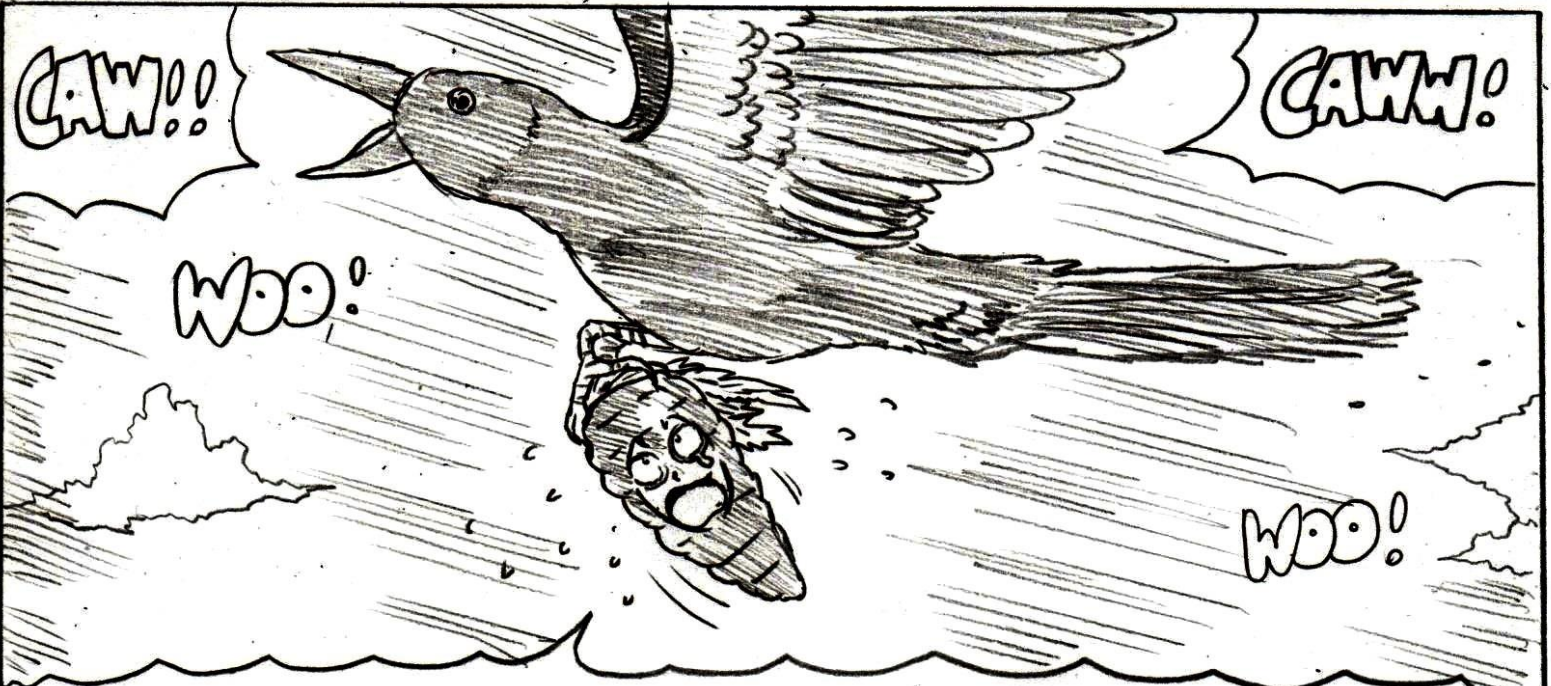

Lean-

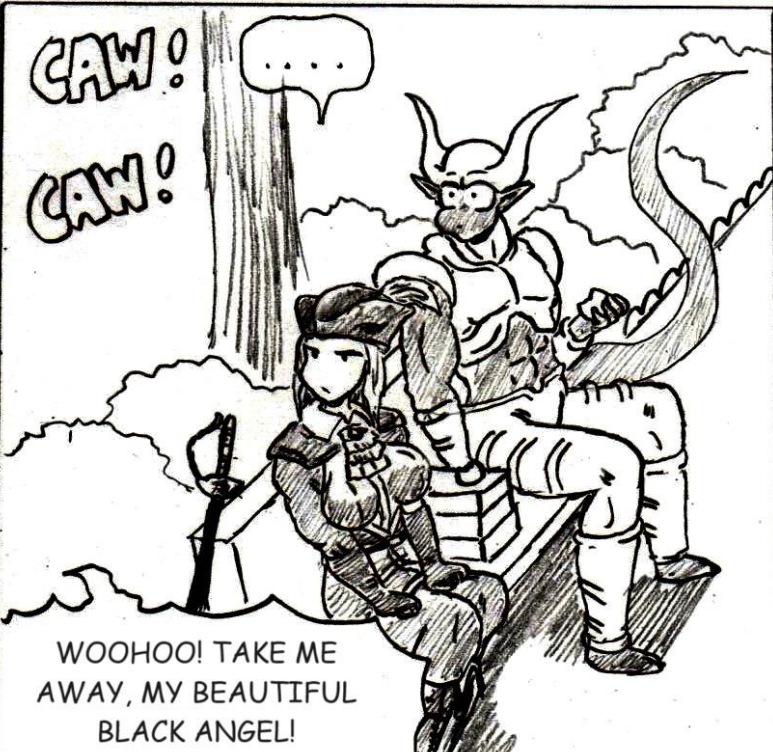

Wait...

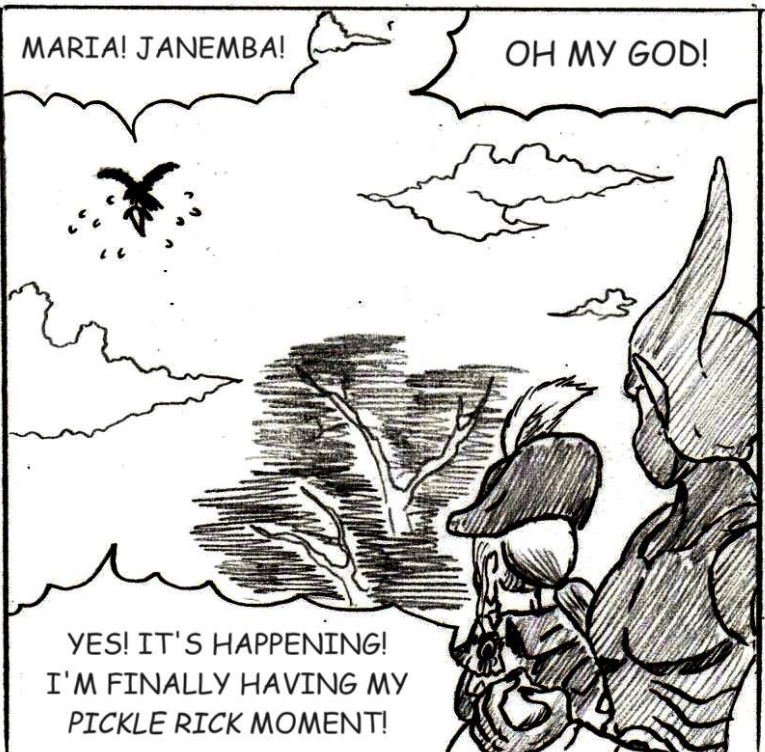

And so, here we are- exploring a new world and enjoying the reality Toriyama-sensei created.

WHY AM I BEING CARRIED OFF BY A CROW?! HEY! HEEY!

WOOHOO! TAKE ME AWAY, MY BEAUTIFUL BLACK ANGEL!

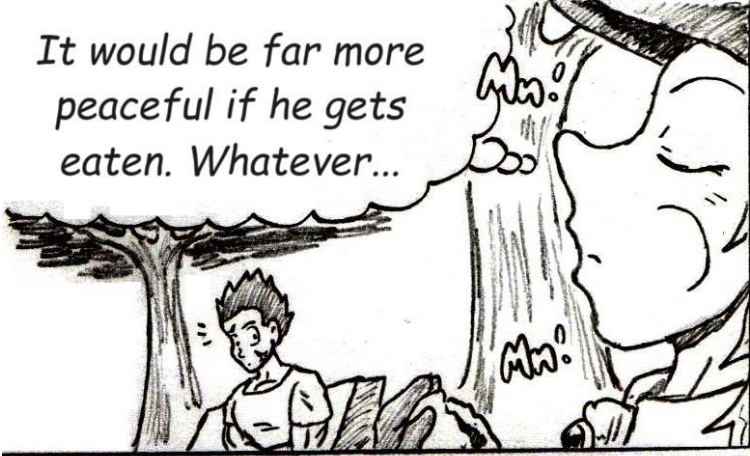

MARIA! JANEMBA!

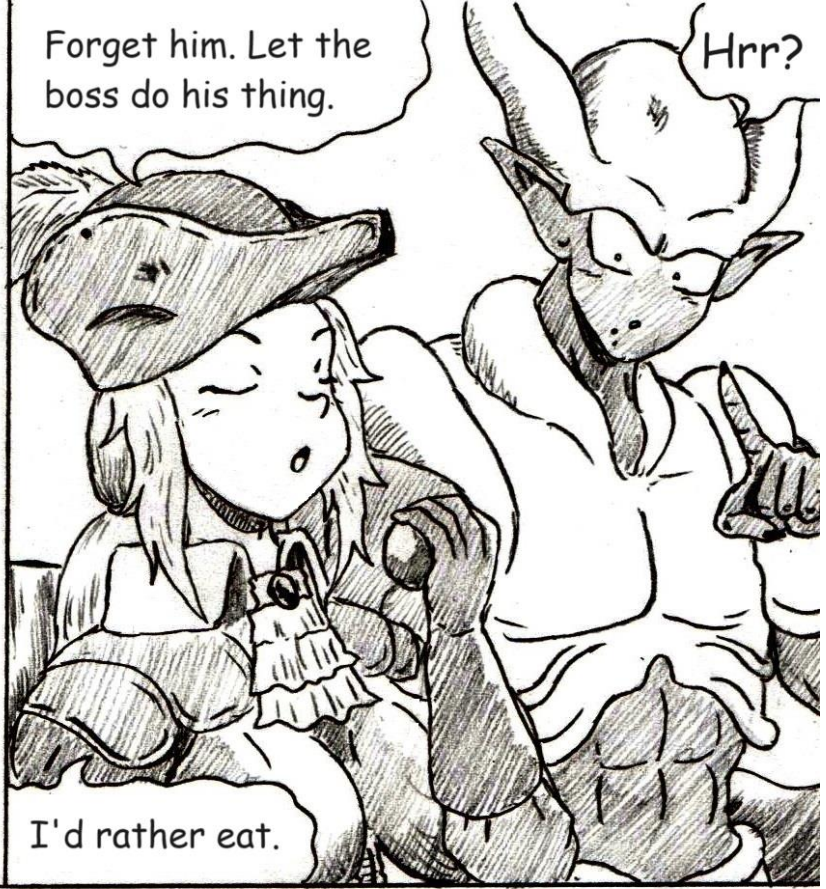

OH MY GOD!

YES! IT'S HAPPENING! I'M FINALLY HAVING MY PICKLE RICK MOMENT!

It would be far more peaceful if he gets eaten. Whatever...

Forget him. Let the boss do his thing.

Are they cosplayers?

Huh. Weird.

I'd rather eat.

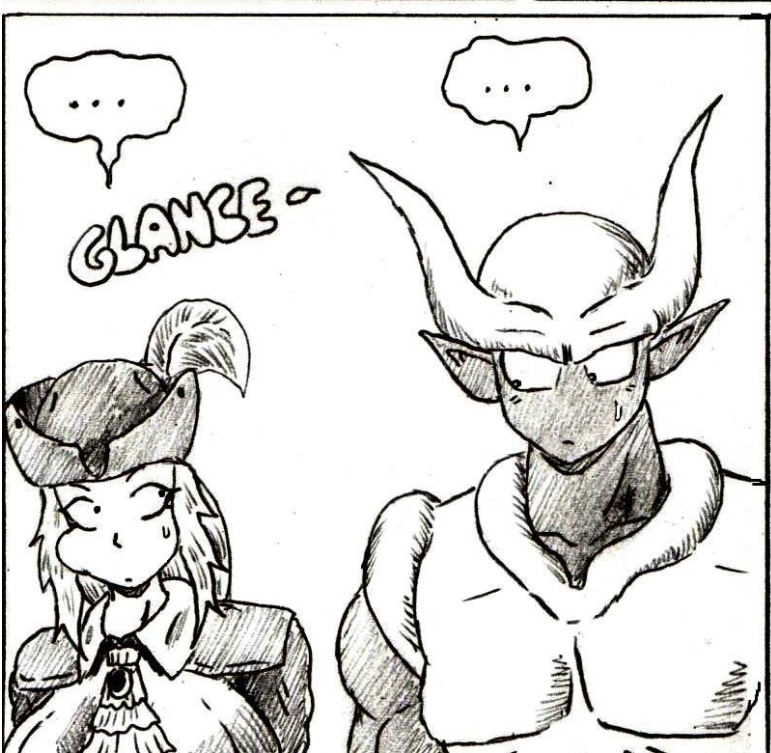

Your fantasy costumes look awesome!

Could we get some photos of you?

Umm. E-Excuse me?

GLANCE

...

...

YEAH! HOLD THAT SWORD OUT MORE, BOSS!

WOW! WOW! YOU TWO LOOK SOOO AMAZING! YES! LOOK AT THAT! SENSATIONAL!

HAHAHAH!

FWOOO

FLASH!

SHF

Alright! I'll make you a costume like hers, Kitagawa-san!

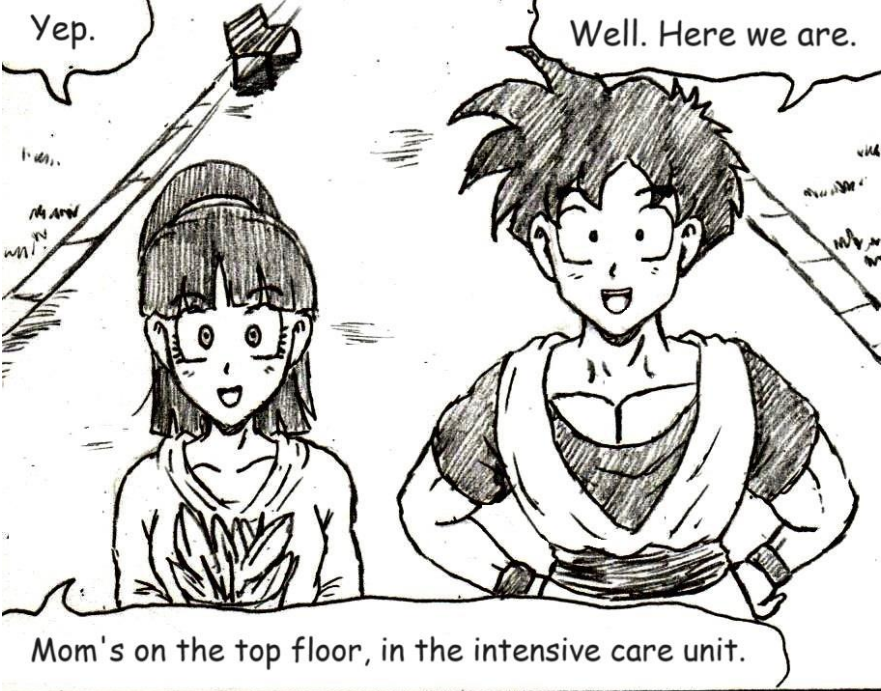

YAY! ♥

This is... kinda fun...

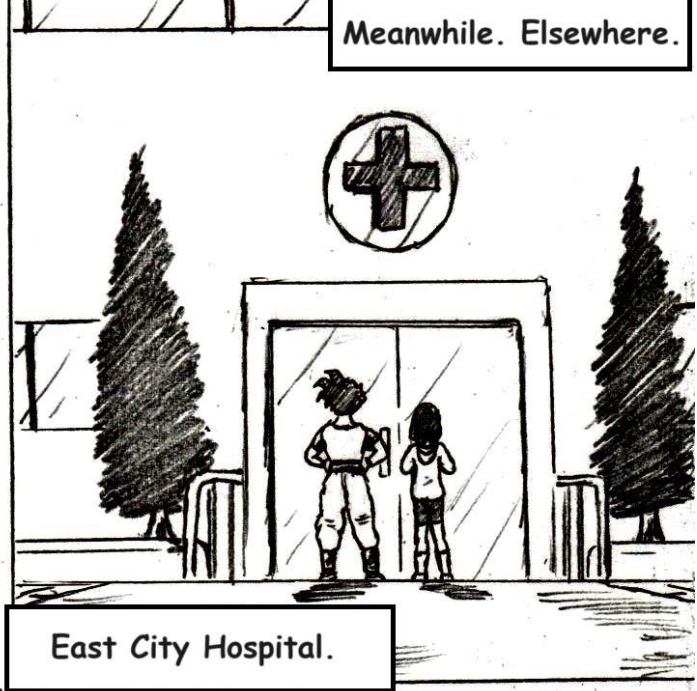

Hey! Hey, Gojo-kun! You should dress up as that guy over there!

Really?

YEAH! And I'll dress up as her! She's so cool!

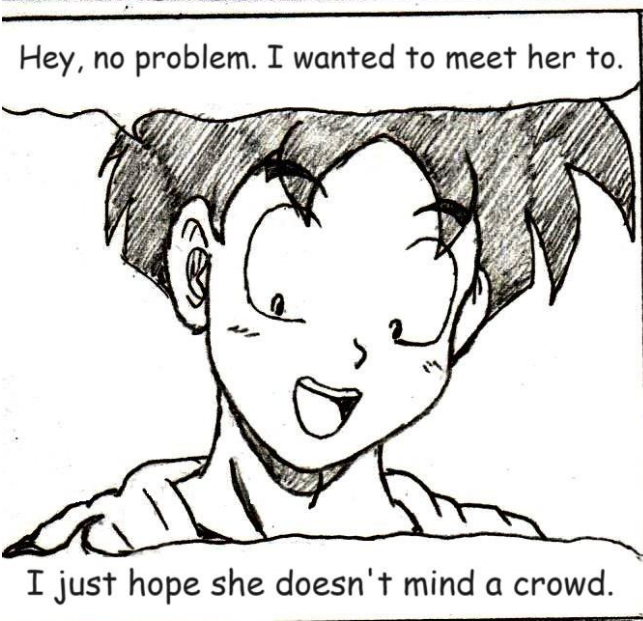

Mom's on the top floor, in the intensive care unit.

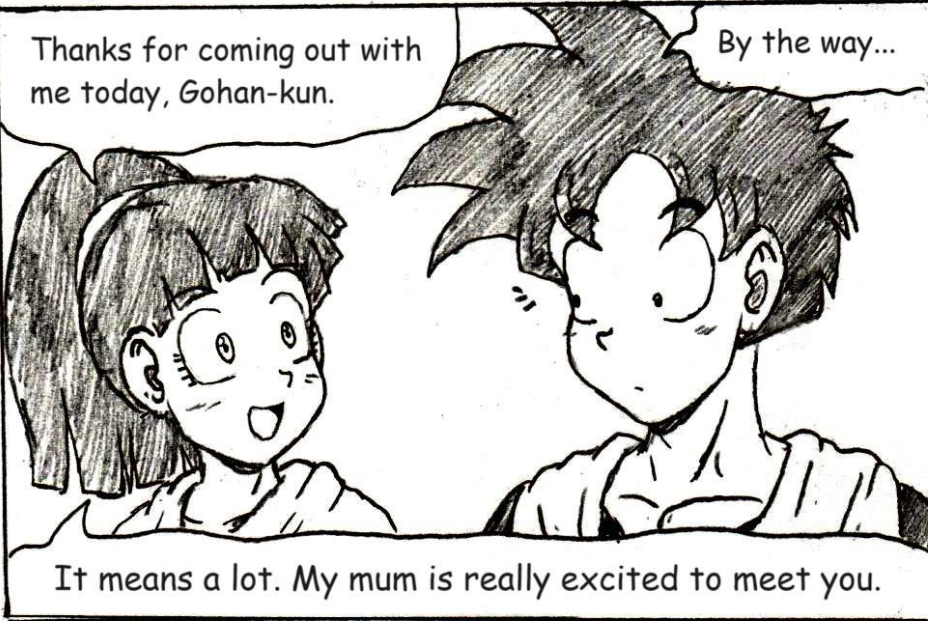

Meanwhile. Elsewhere.

East City Hospital.

Hey, no problem. I wanted to meet her to.

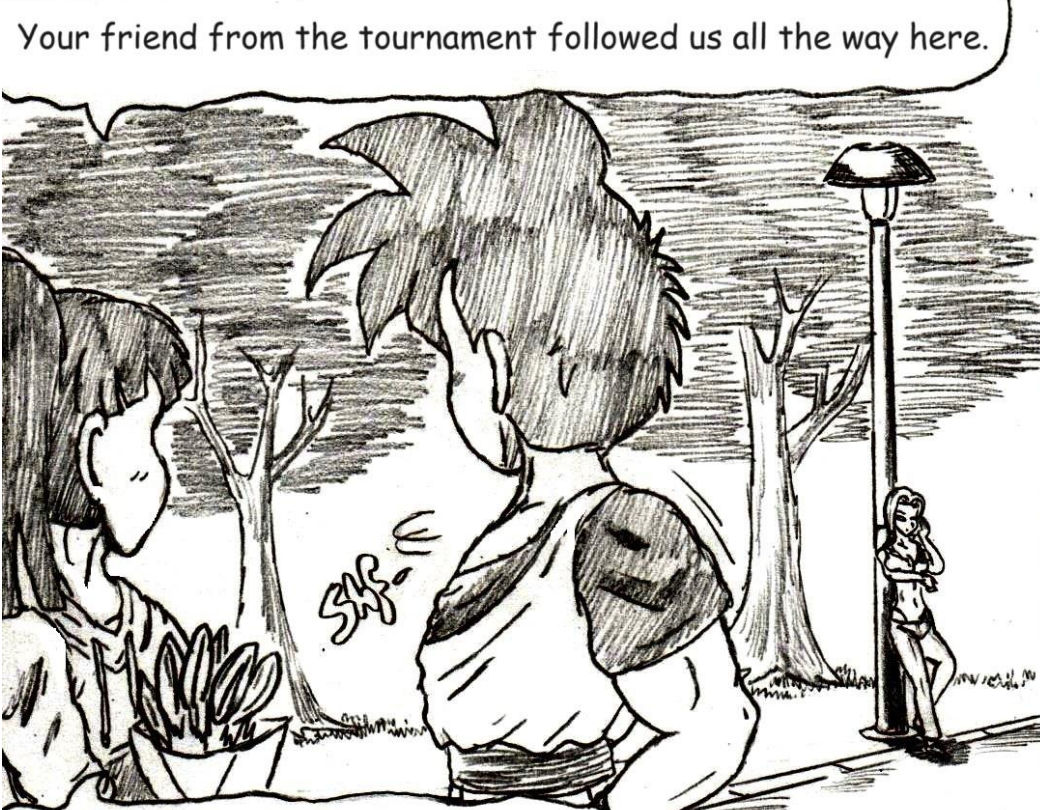

I just hope she doesn't mind a crowd.

Thanks for coming out with me today, Gohan-kun.

By the way...

It means a lot. My mum is really excited to meet you.

Your friend from the tournament followed us all the way here.

Will she be okay waiting outside?

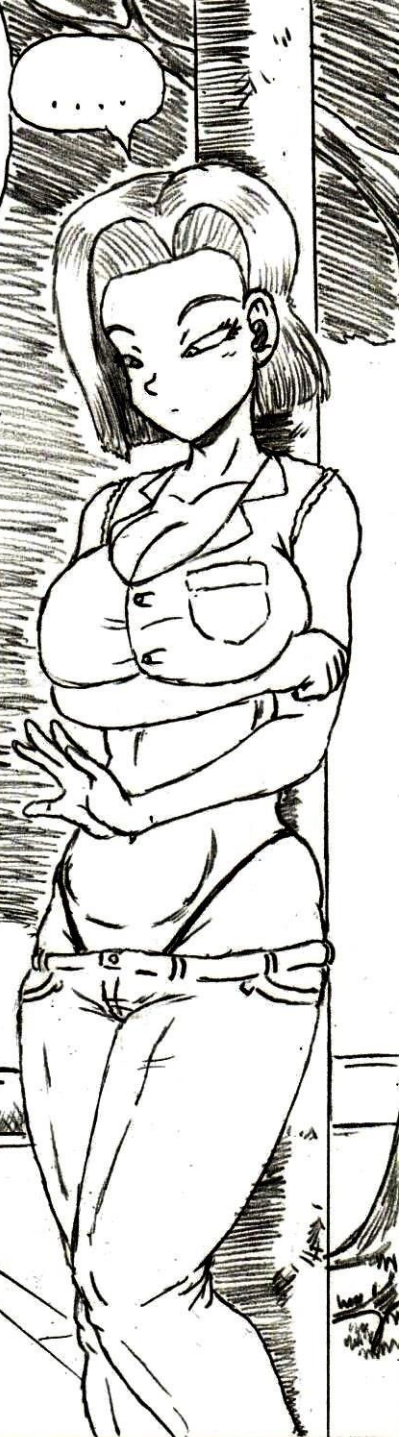

Hehe!

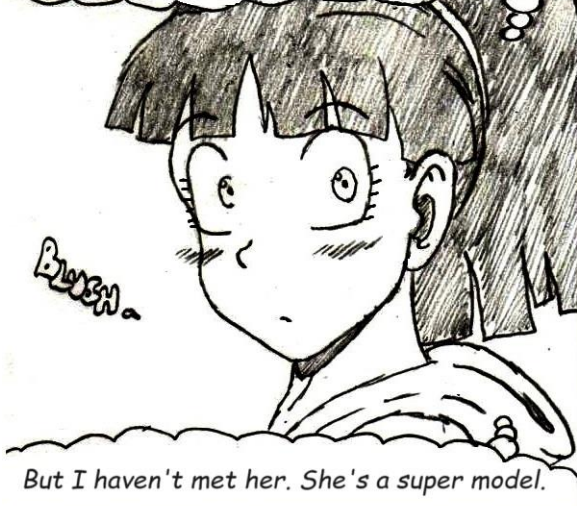

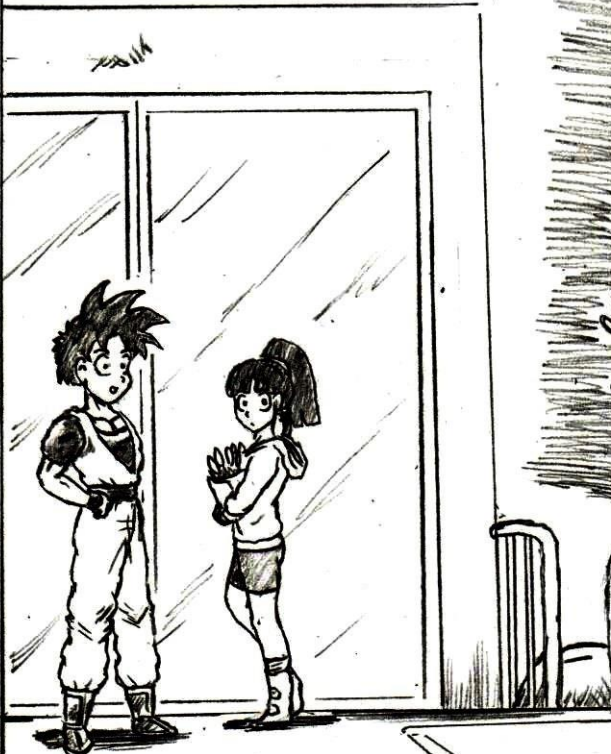

Oh. Before we go...

Oh. You mean Eighteen? Yeah. She told me she had things to do in town later and that she would be busy for a little while after that.

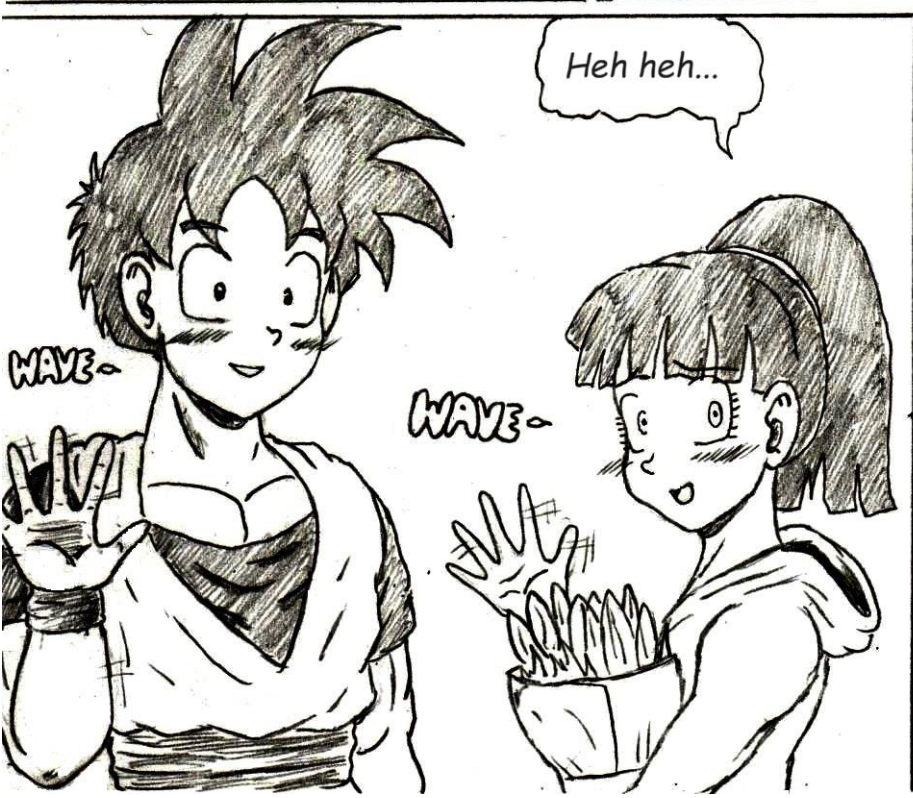

Wow. She's really, really pretty. I know Zangya well enough, since I've hung out with her and Gohan...

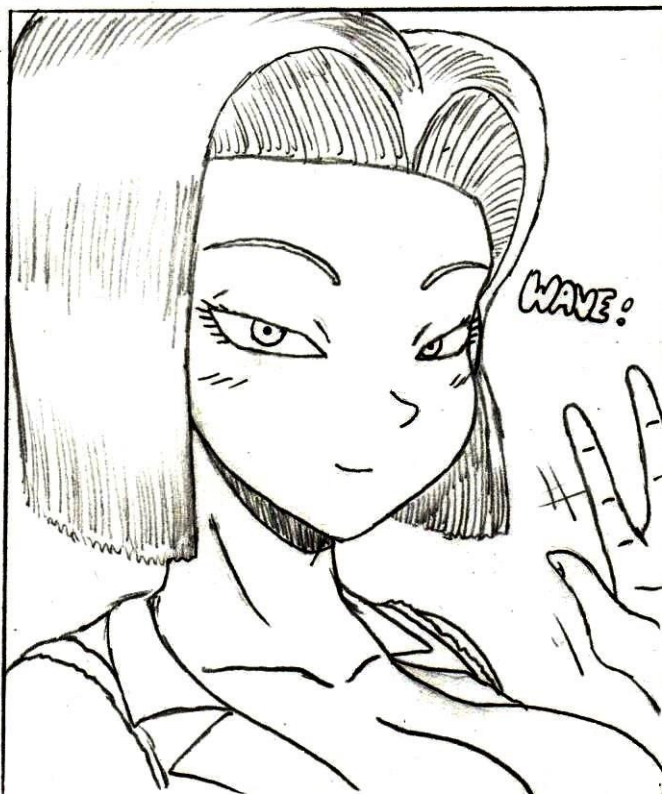

Hm. If she's busy, then we can take as long as we want.

But I haven't met her. She's a super model.

Heh heh...

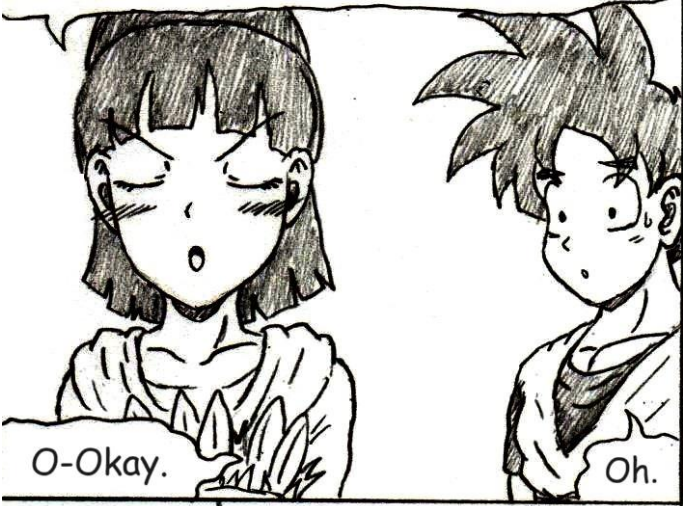

hwa

Hehe~

I said I won't lose to her. That's a promise.

It's weird how cute I think she is... but having Gohan looking at her like that... makes me feel...

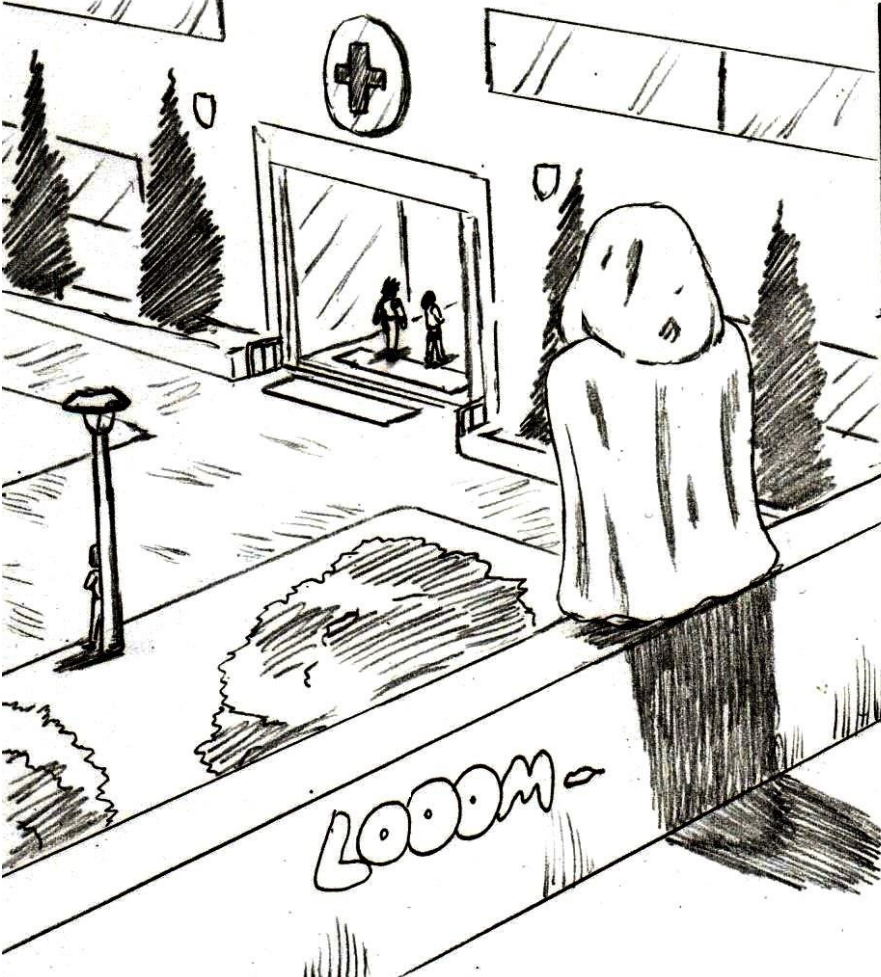

O-Okay.

Oh.

Huh? Videl?

I won't lose to her.

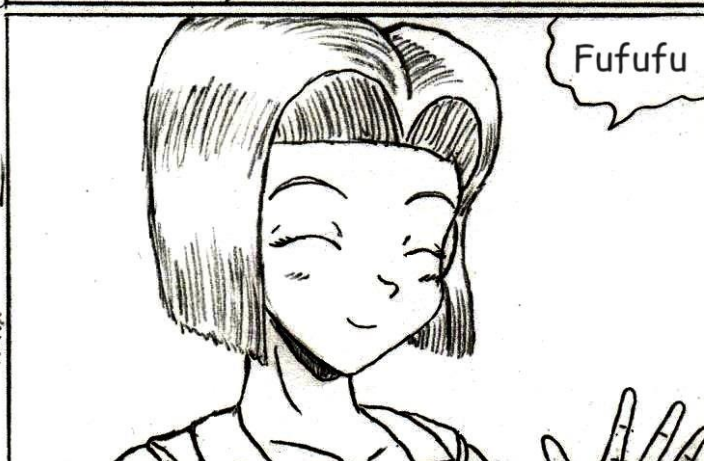

LOOM-

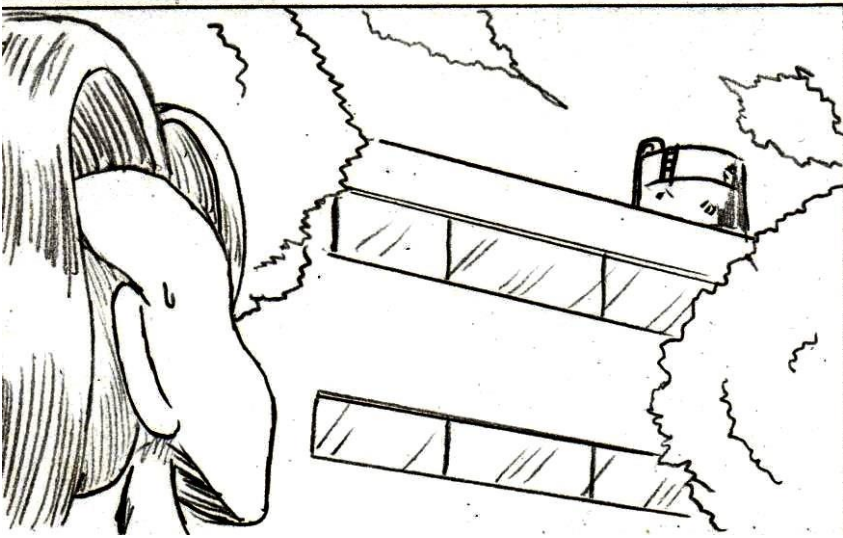

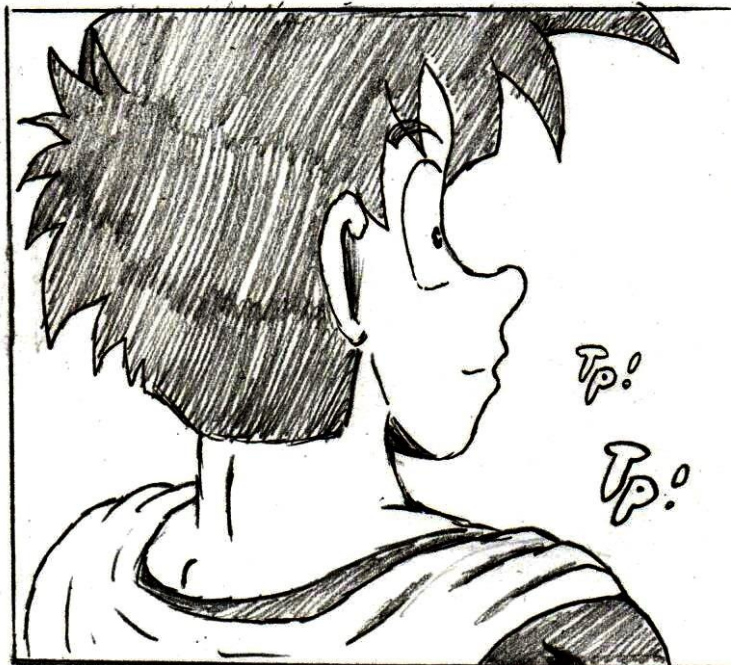

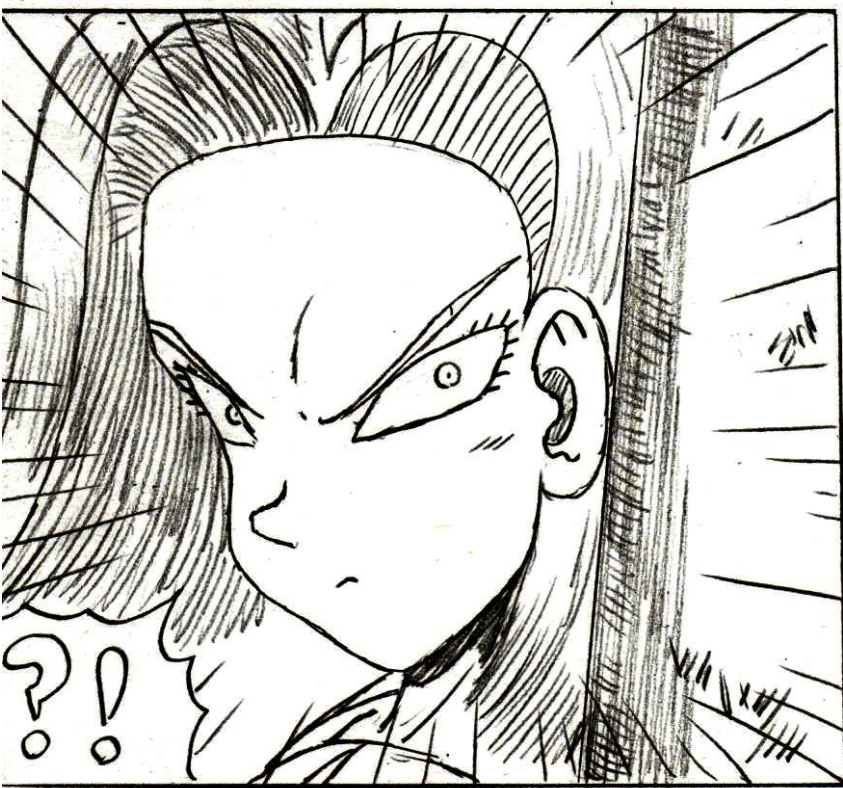

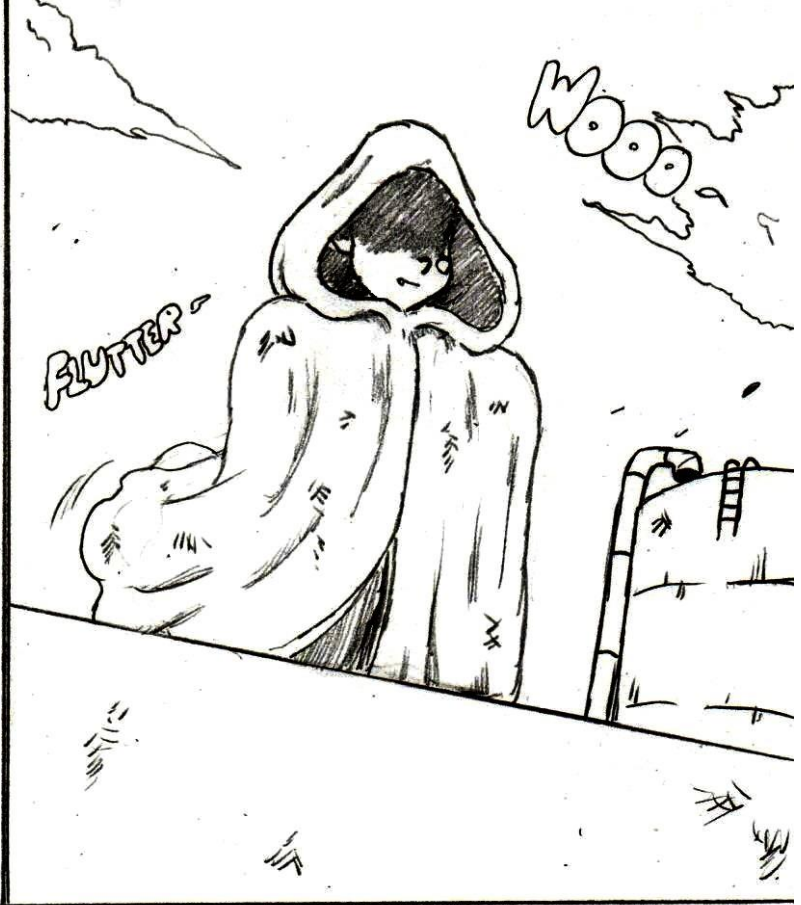

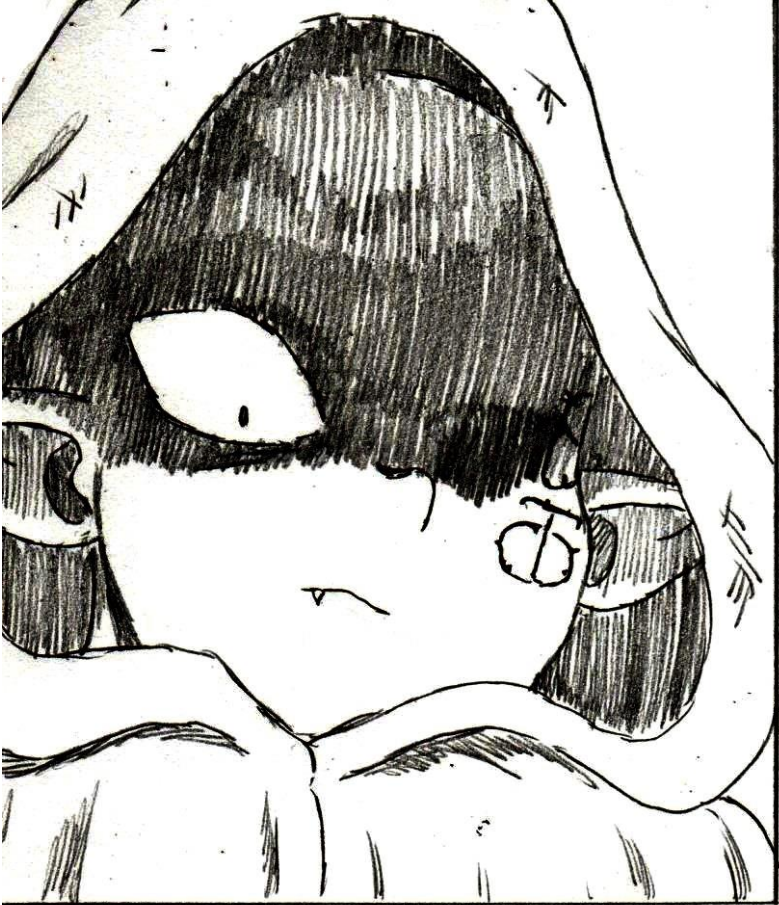

Come on. Let's go in.

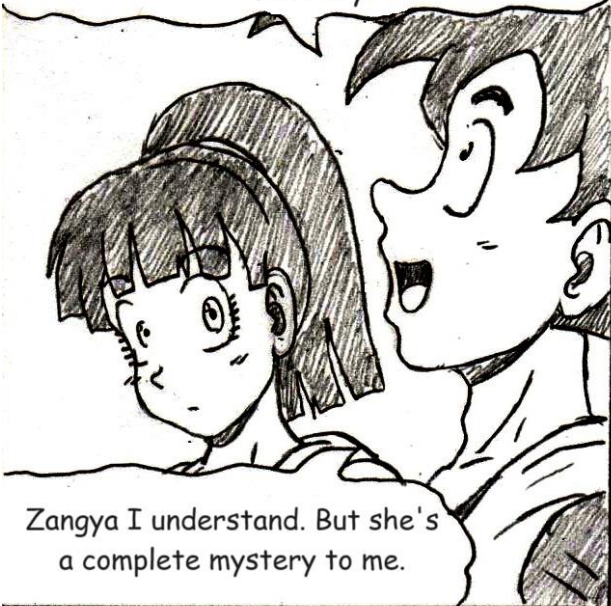

Yeah. Sure.

Fufufu

To be honest, after hearing what Trunks had to say about his future world, I never expected Eighteen to be so friendly.

Zangya I understand. But she's a complete mystery to me.

Yeah. Actually... most of the friends in my group used to be former rivals my dad had fought.

Hm... wow.

She used to be an enemy to you guys as well, right?

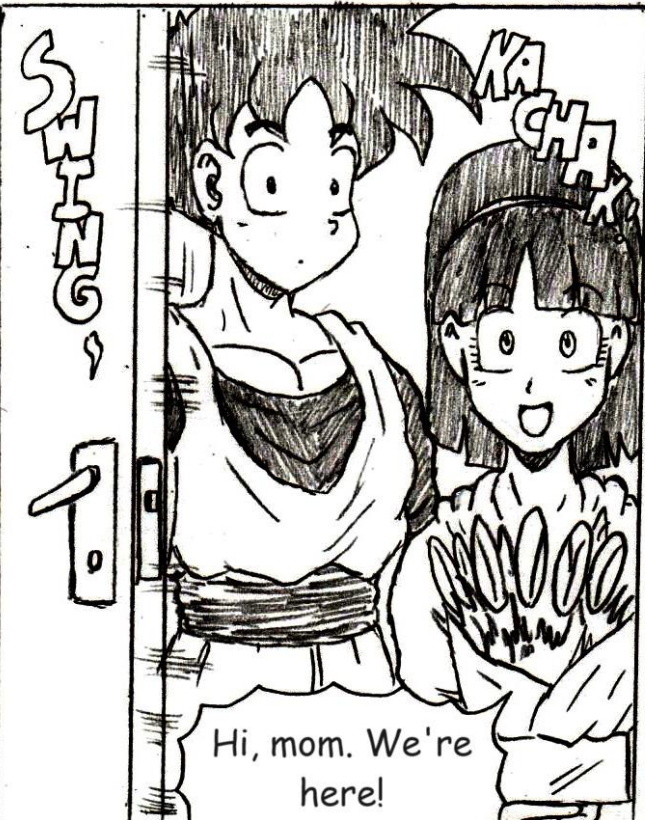

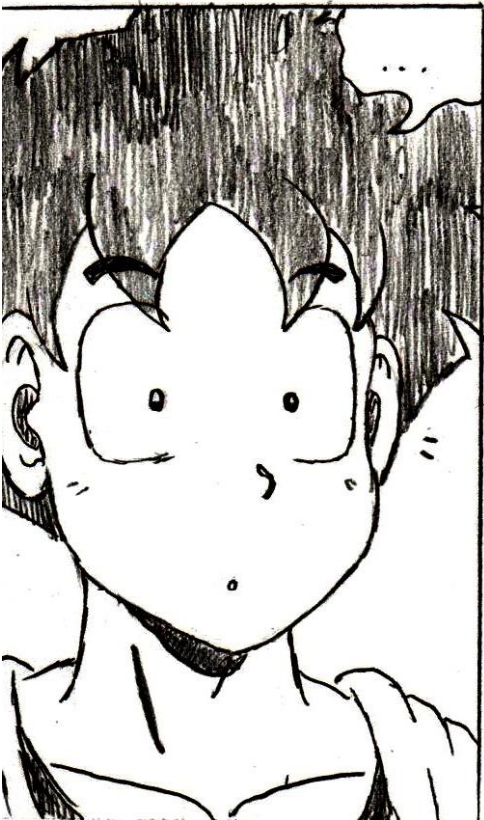

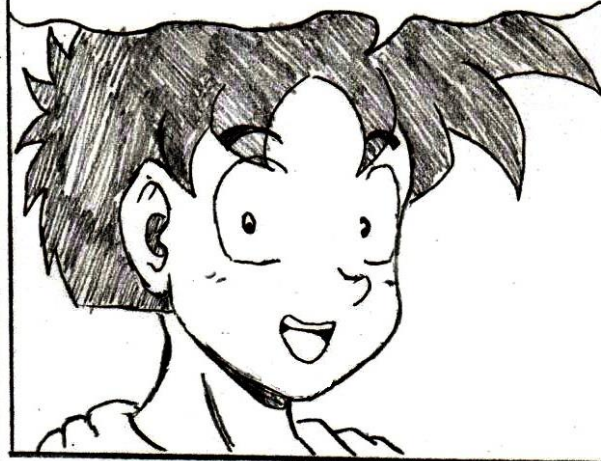

She may be an android, but she is still human.

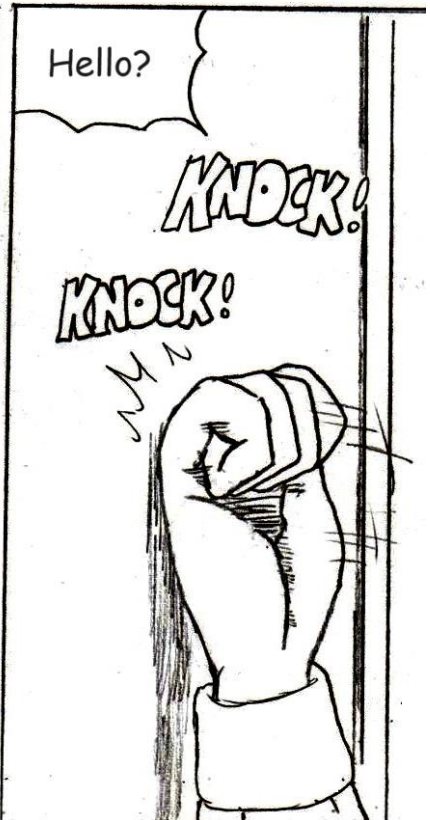

Anyway. Here we are.

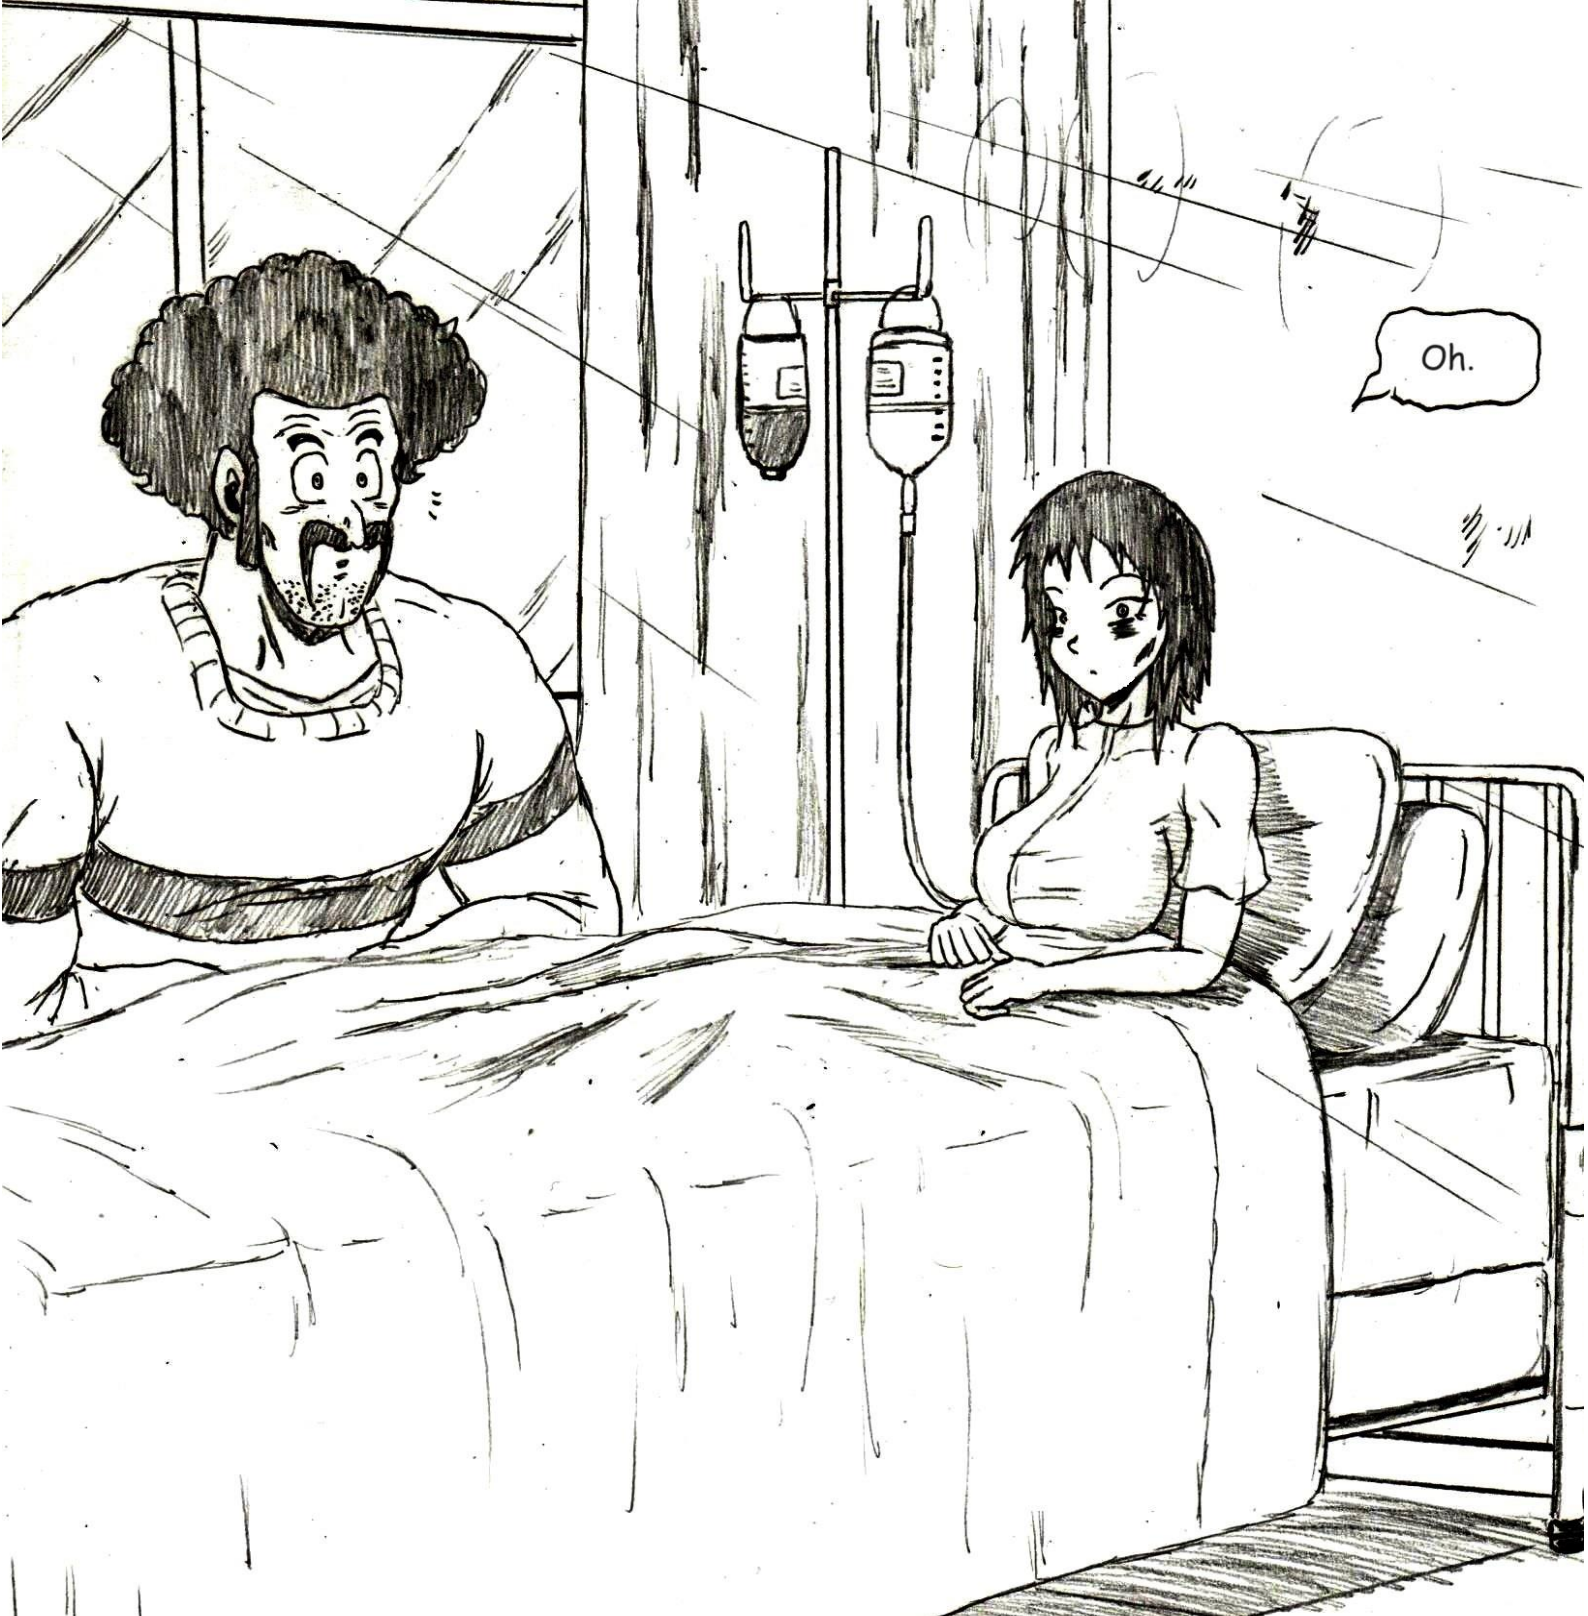

I see.

Maybe it's because things played out so differently for us, she turned out to be so nice.

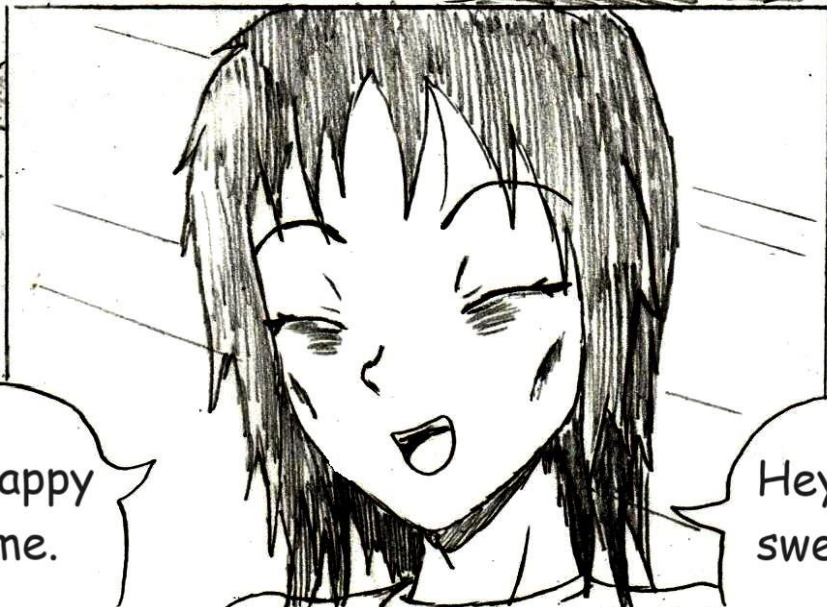

Hi, mom. We're here!

Oh.

I'm so happy you came.

Hey there, sweetheart.

Heh. Yes... I'm fine, dear.

Ah! I'm so glad to see you're up! How are you doing, mum? Are you better?!

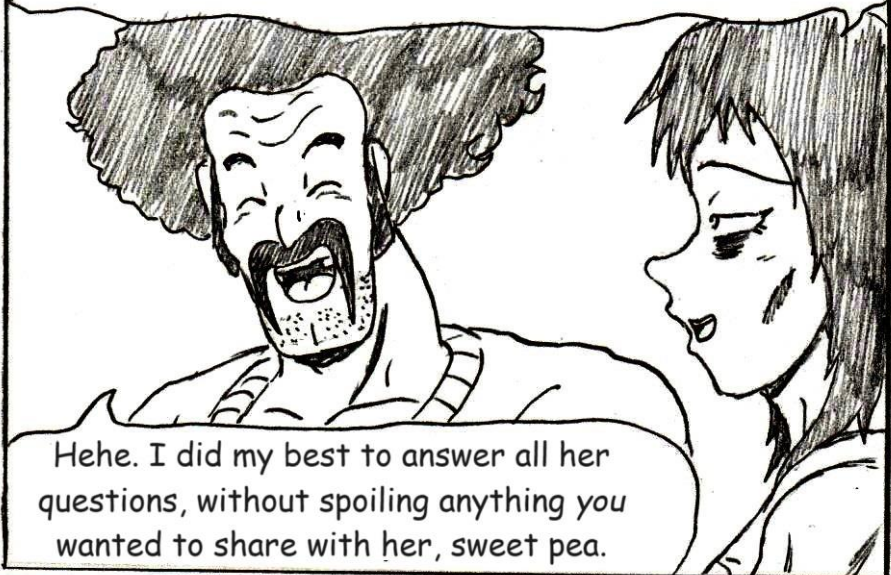

Are you getting enough good food to eat?!

One of the things he mentioned was the new friend you made... and that you would be bringing him along today.

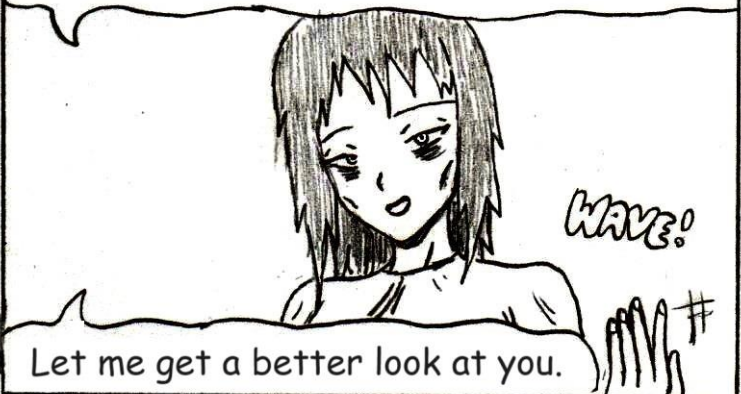

I was just catching up with your father before you arrived.

Hehe. I did my best to answer all her questions, without spoiling anything you wanted to share with her, sweet pea.

Heh. There's no need to be nervous. Come closer.

Let me get a better look at you.

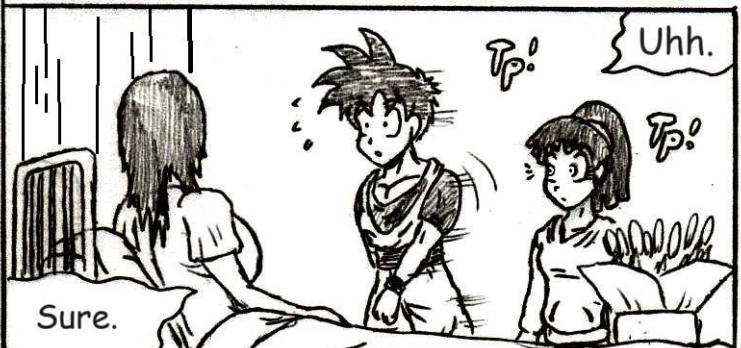

WAVE!

I saw the two of you interacting during the Intergalactic Martial Arts Tournament on live T.V.

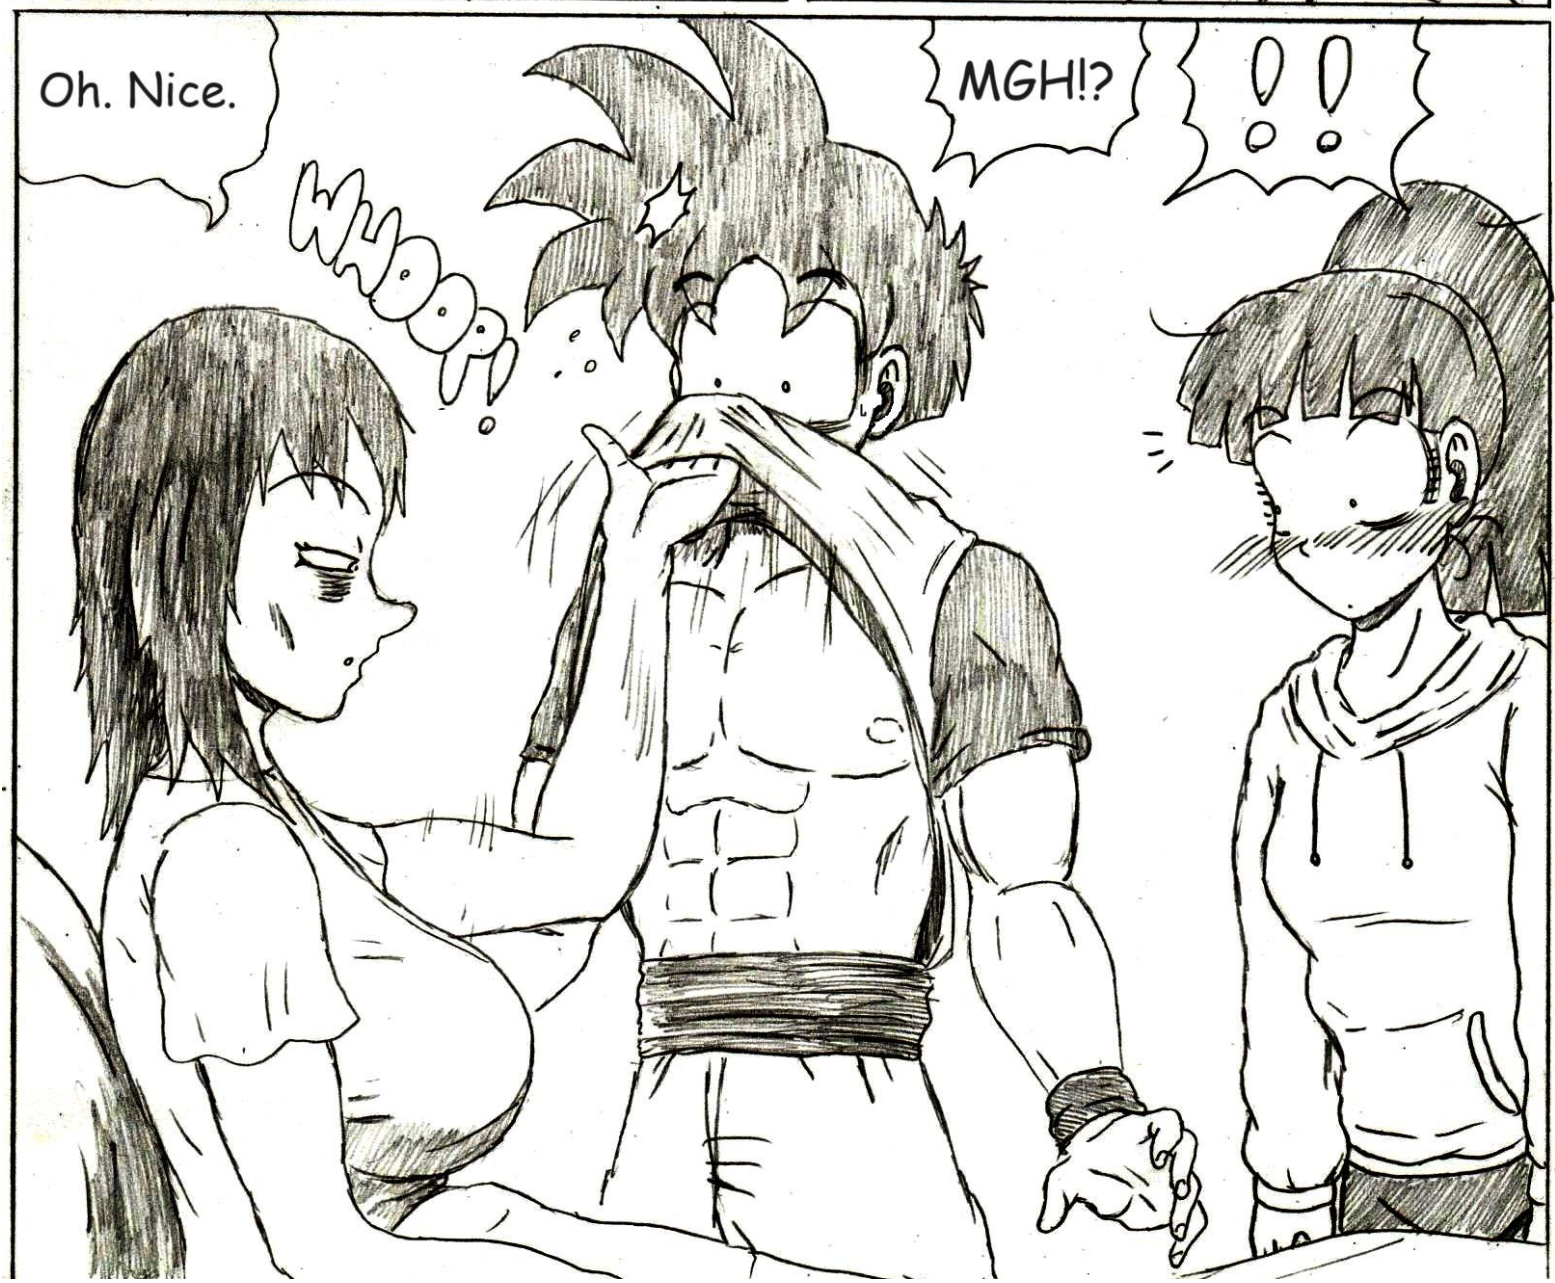

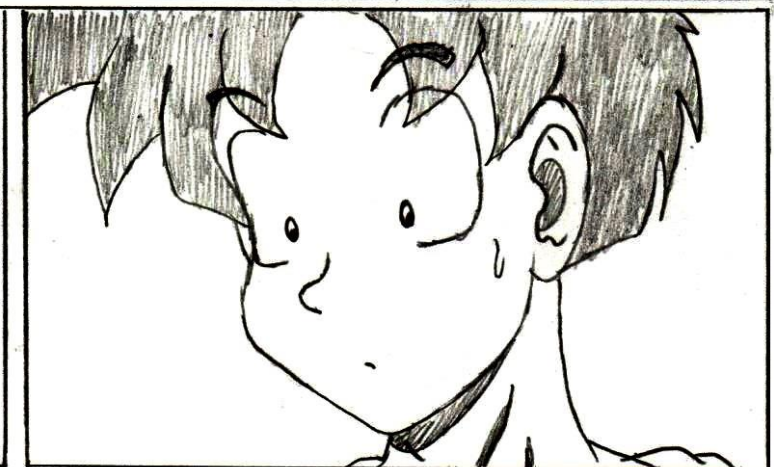

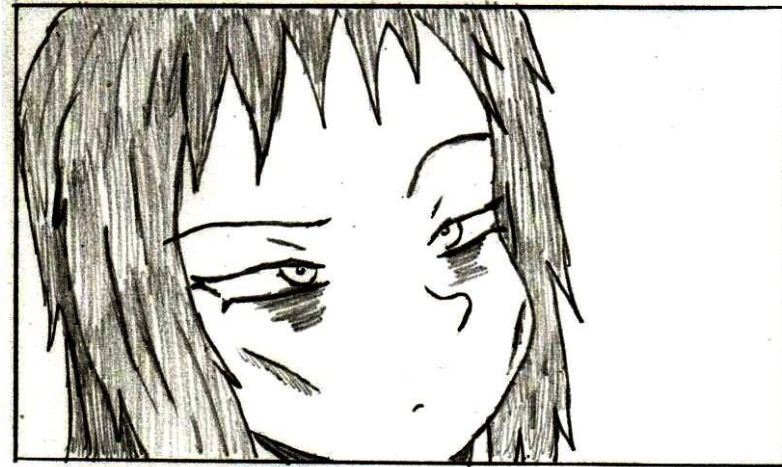

Uhm! Y-y-Yes, ma'am!

So, you're the one who beat my daughter and husband in that competition?

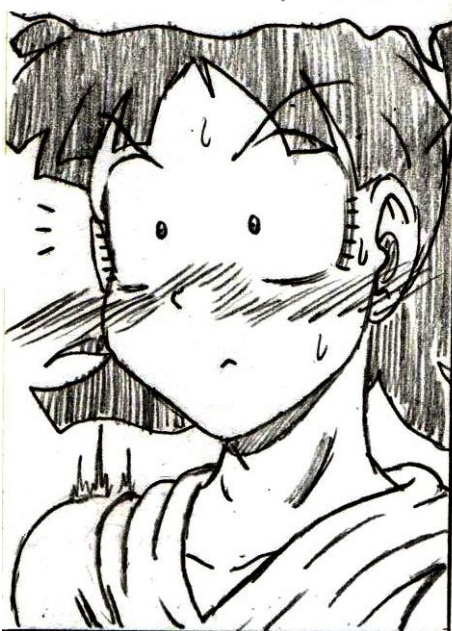

Sure.

Uhh.
Tp!
Tp!

Wow! You can grind meat on those bad boys! (Miguel)

HAH!

Impressive. Most impressive.

Careful, kid! Looks like she's giving yah her signature gut-check.

I can tell just from looking at his face... that he's a kind-hearted, good-natured boy of humble upbringing...

STOP THAT! YOU'RE EMBARRASSING ME!!

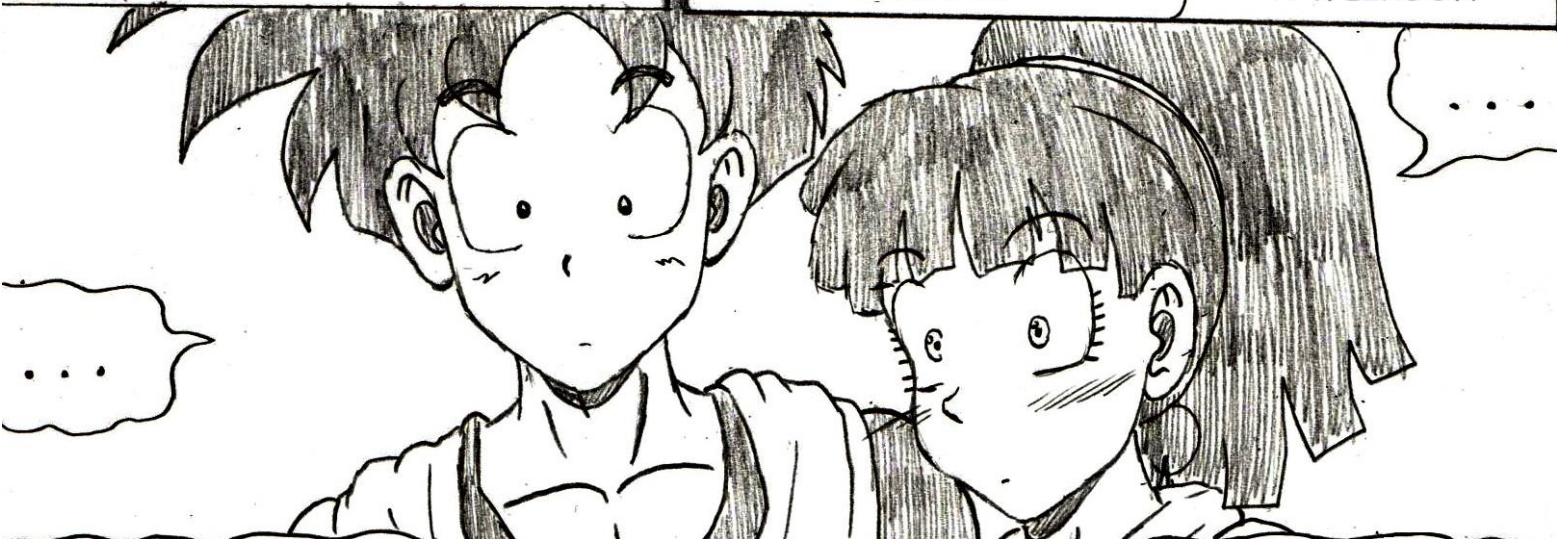

Whp MUUUM!!

Haha. Oh, sweet pea. You're so adorable when you're flustered.

WHY DO YOU HAVE TO BE SUCH A WEIRDO?!

On top of that... strong beyond measure and great at fighting. A true rarity.

Make sure you hold onto him.

He's definitely a keeper.

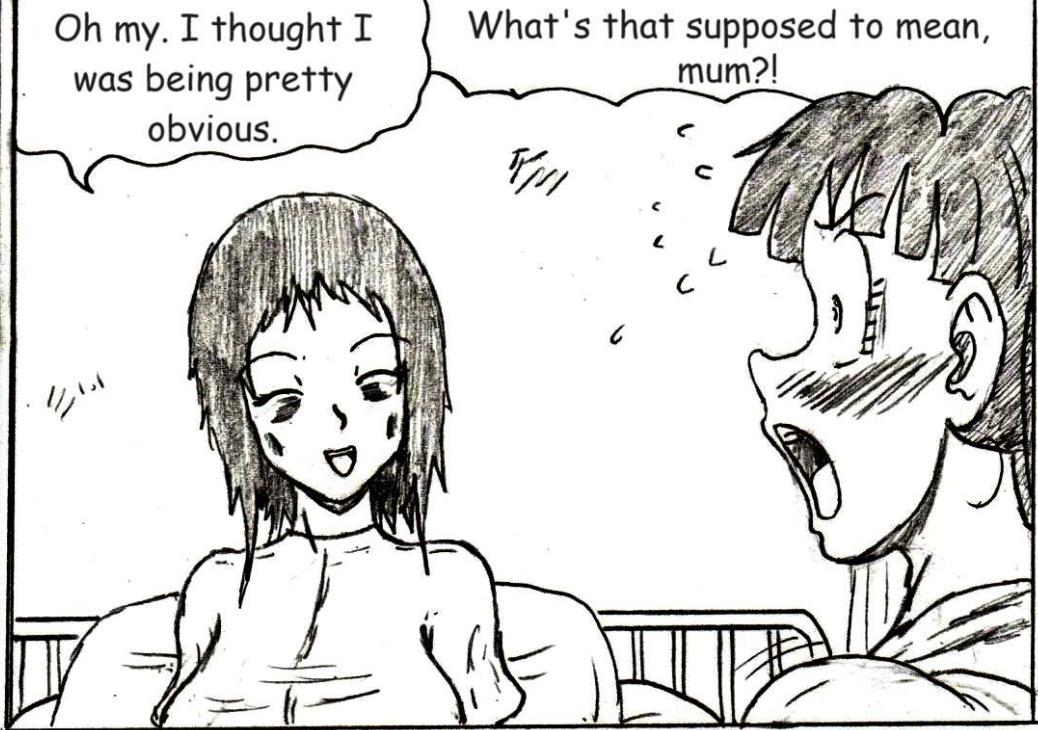

Either way, I'm happy for you.

I'm so glad my baby girl is growing up... and seeing the world for herself.

Oh my. I thought I was being pretty obvious.

What's that supposed to mean, mum?!

I know you have a lot to share with me...

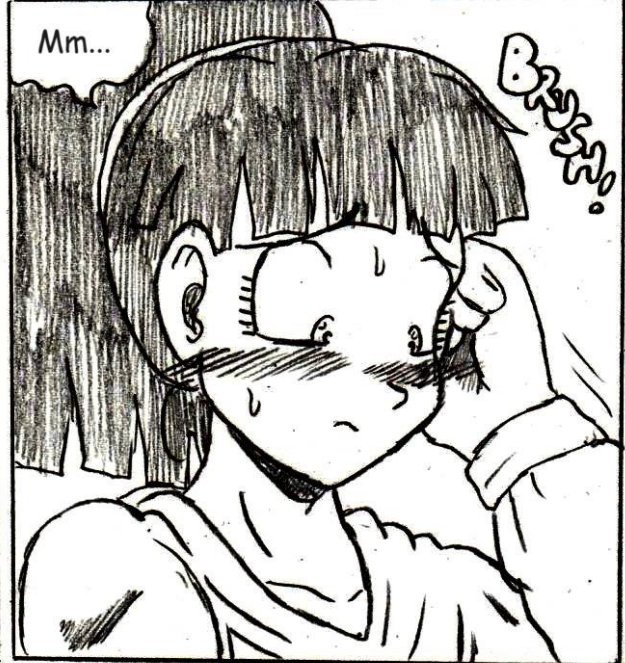

Come, darling.

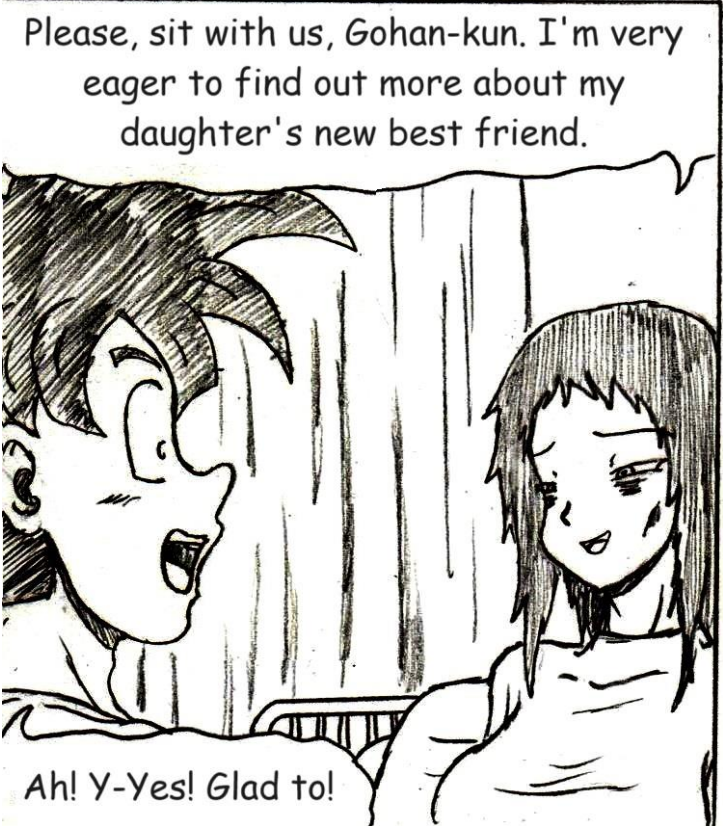

...and I'd love to hear about everything you've gotten up to.

Mm...

Bzzzz!

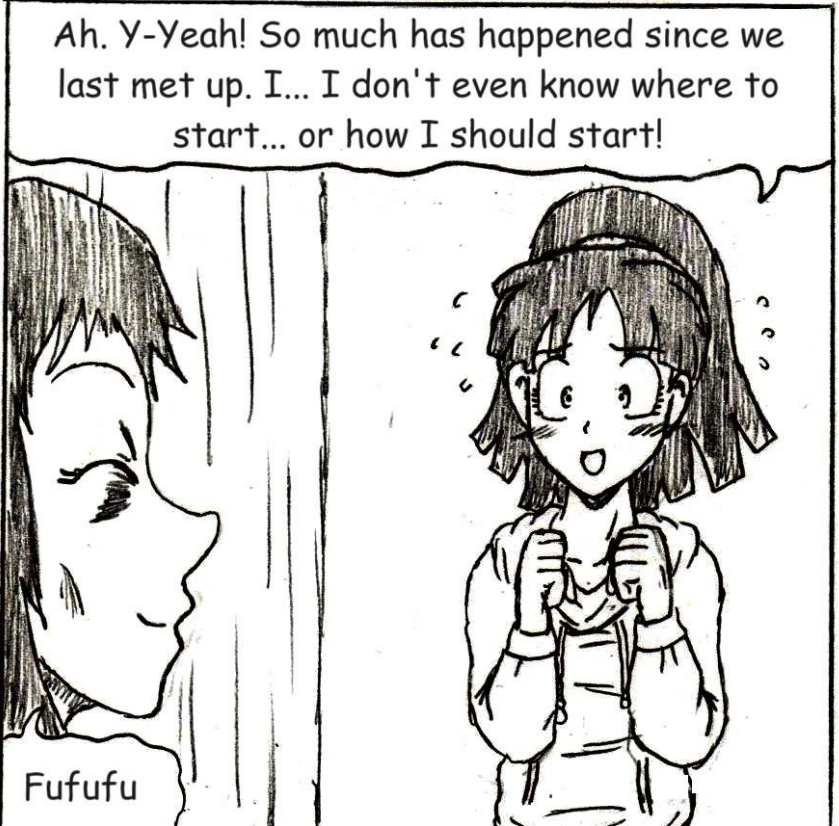

Please, sit with us, Gohan-kun. I'm very eager to find out more about my daughter's new best friend.

Ah! Y-Yes! Glad to!

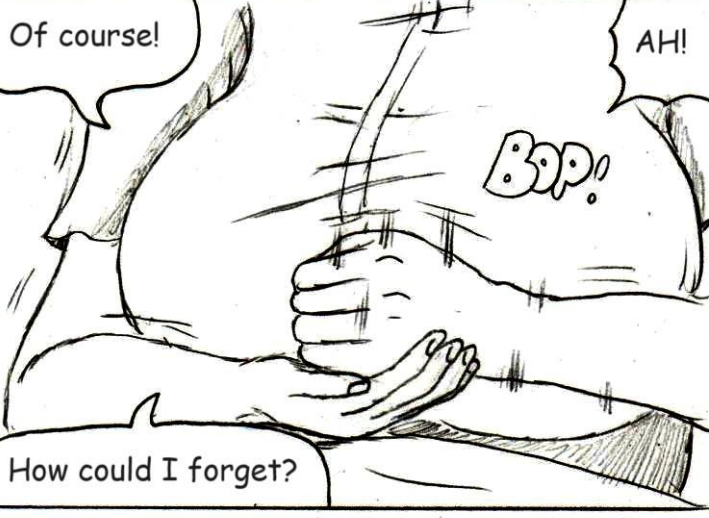

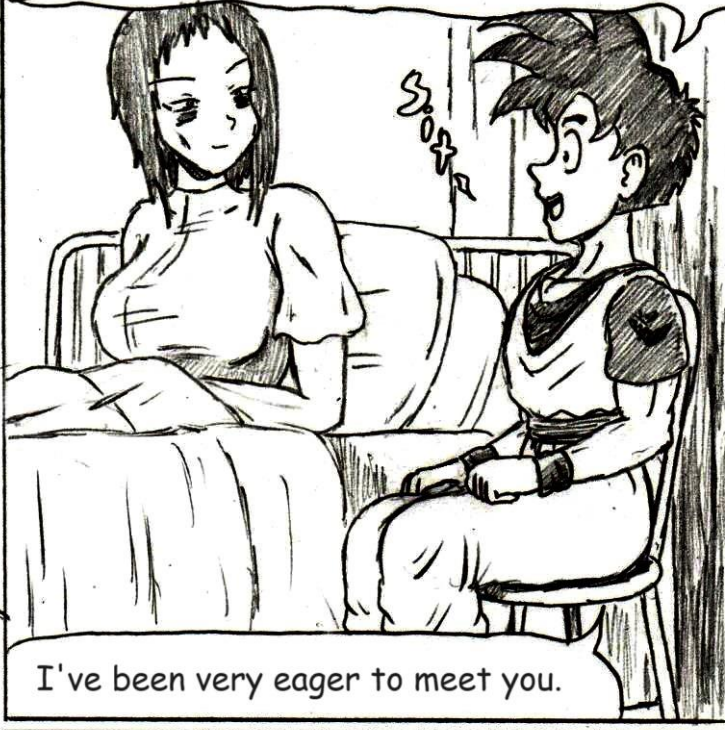

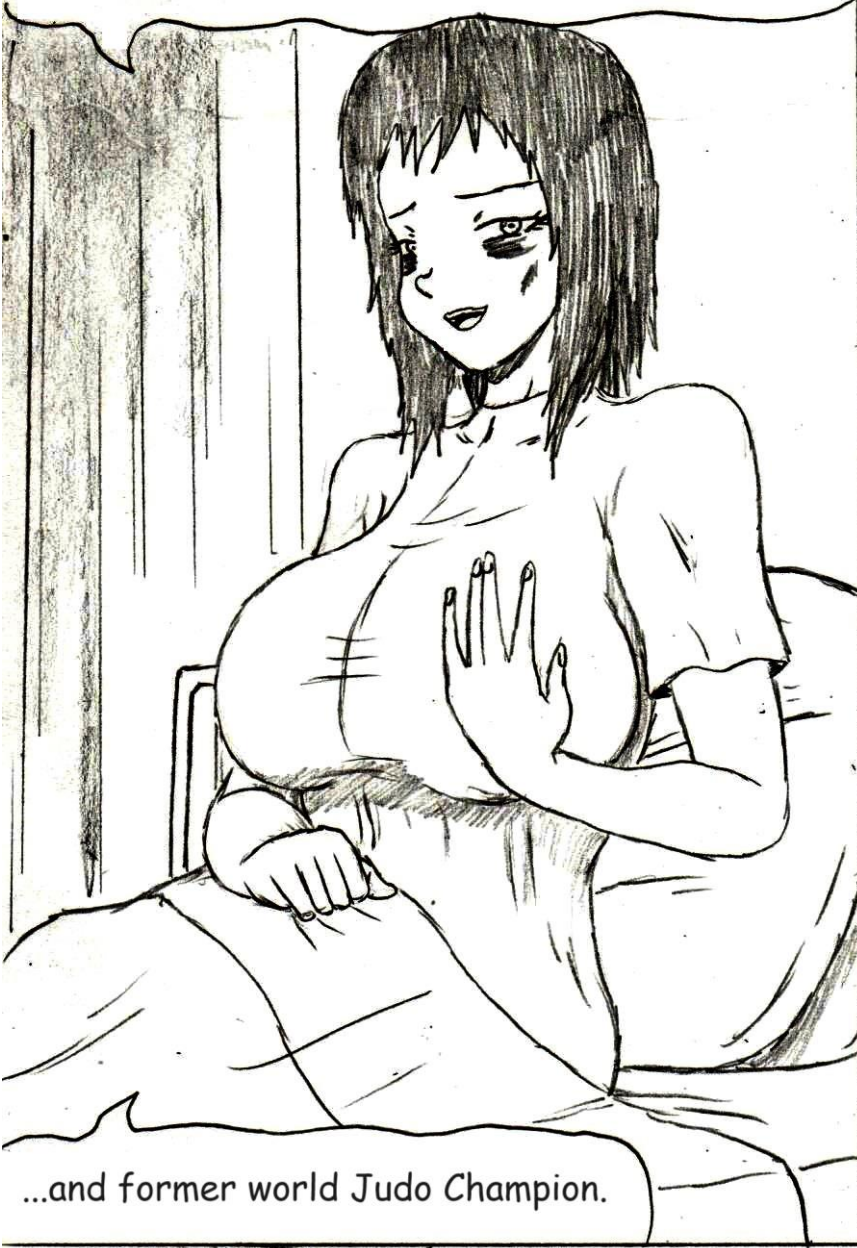

Ah. Y-Yeah! So much has happened since we last met up. I... I don't even know where to start... or how I should start!

Fufufu

My name is Miguel- former lead singer of the heavy metal band Screaming Angels...

Videl spoke a lot about you during and after our match at the tournament, and told me what an amazing person you are.

...and former world Judo Champion.

My apologies. I got so caught up in inspecting you earlier, I neglected to introduce myself properly.

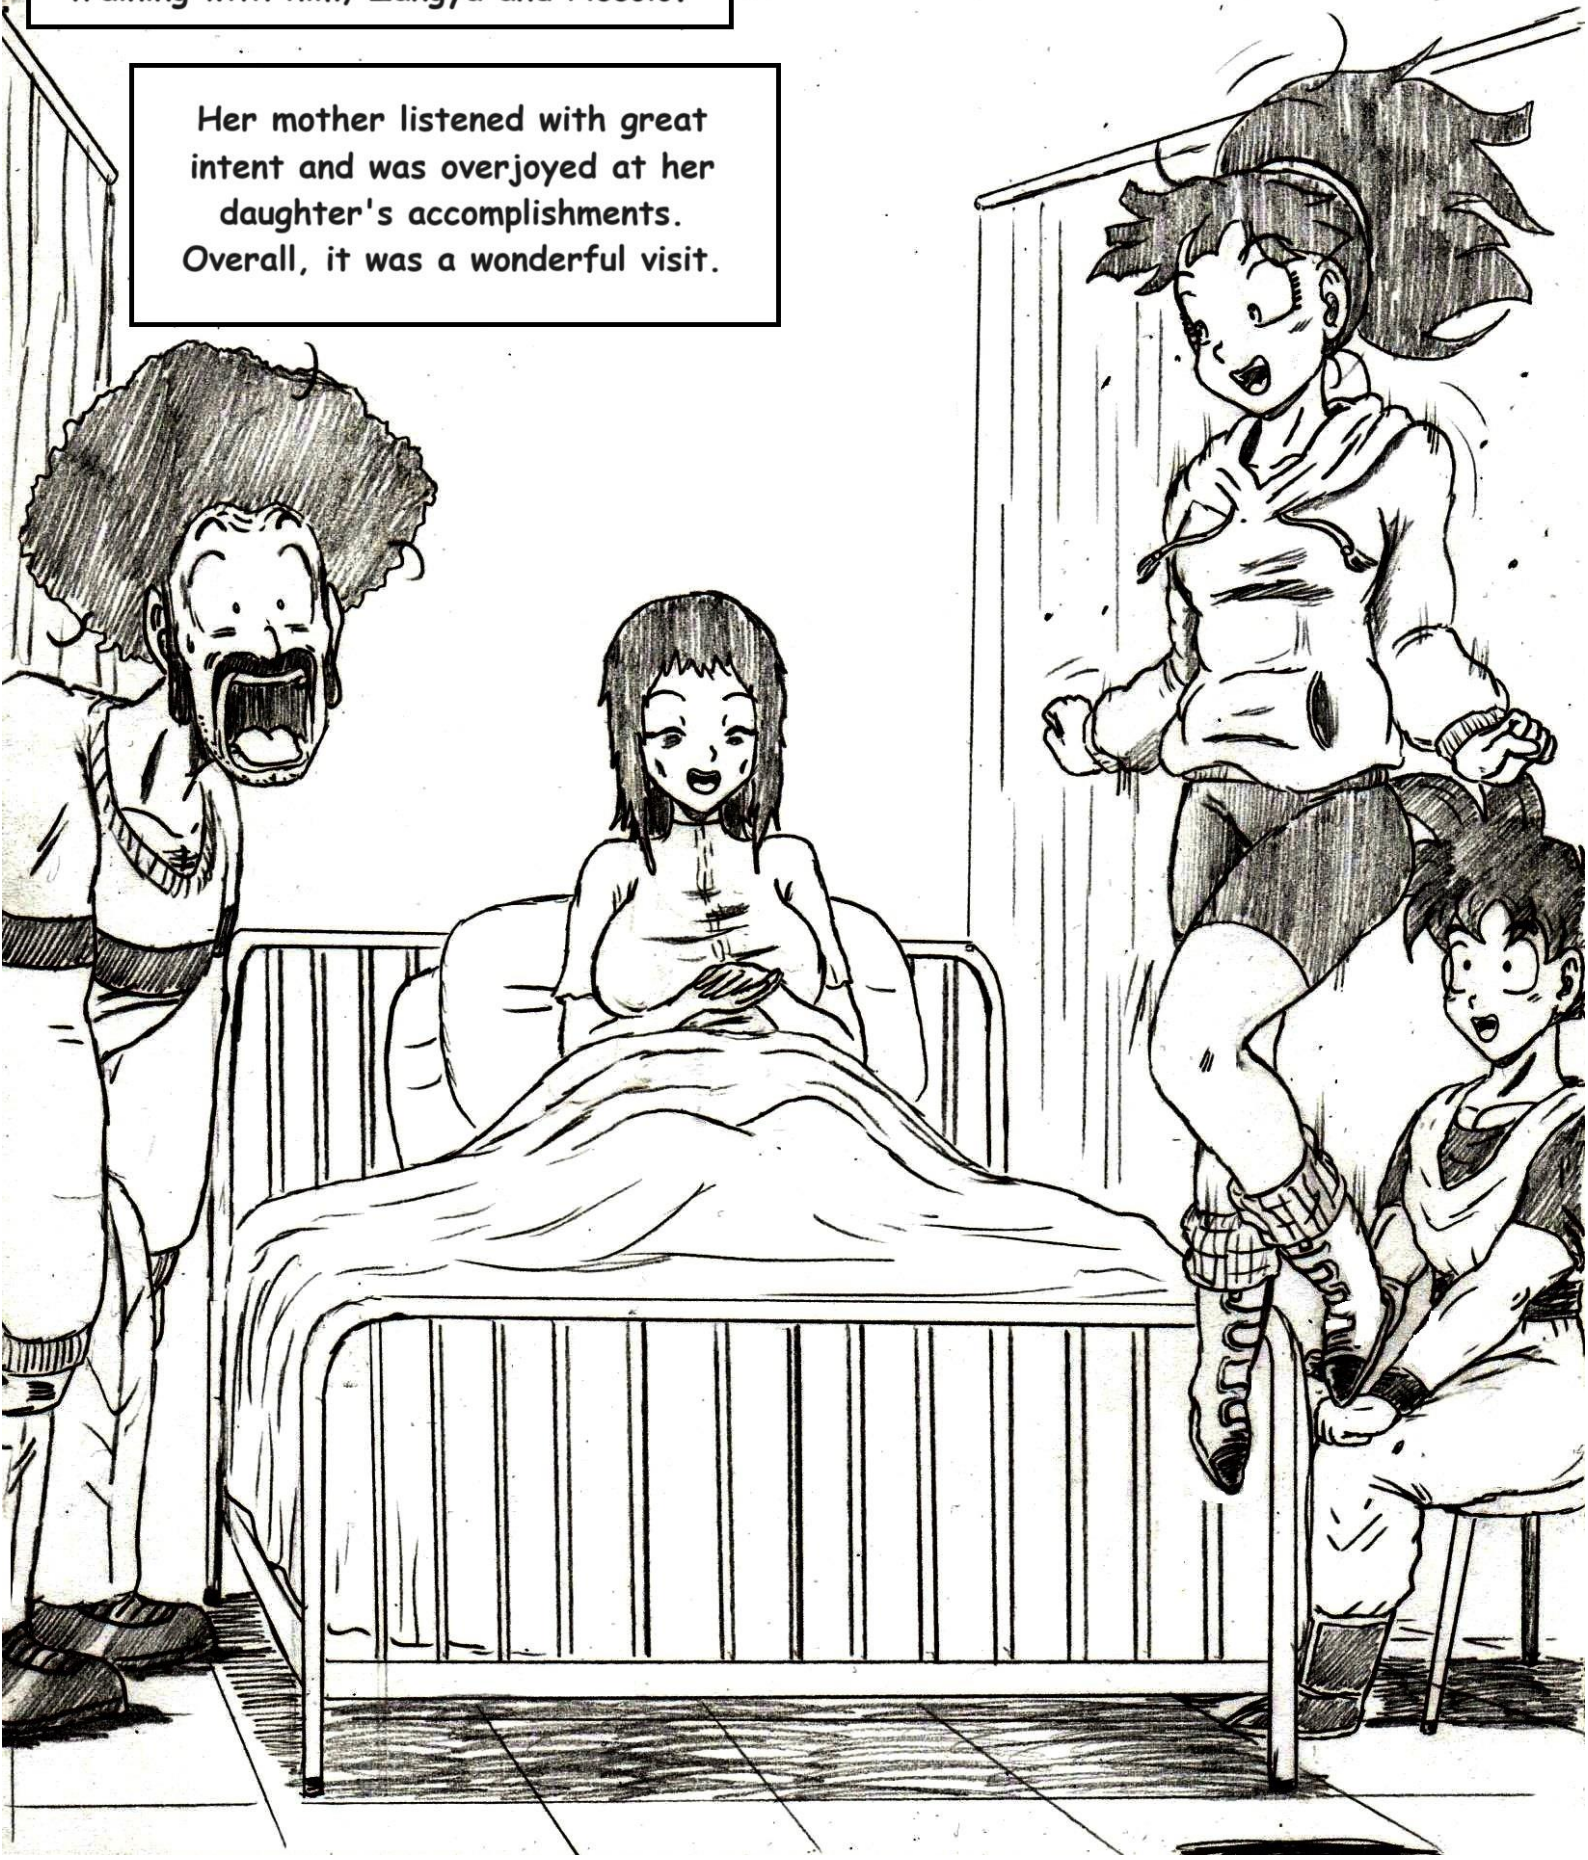

Hehe. That's alright. We got here eventually.

Videl told her mother all about the Intergalactic Tournament. How she and Gohan met- with the aforementioned Saiyan saying his piece. And Videl spoke excitedly of her days spent with Gohan and his family, in which she gave a demonstration of the results of her training with him, Zangya and Piccolo.

And so, for the next hour or so, Gohan got comfortable as he observed both Videl and her mother, Miguel, catch up on lost time.

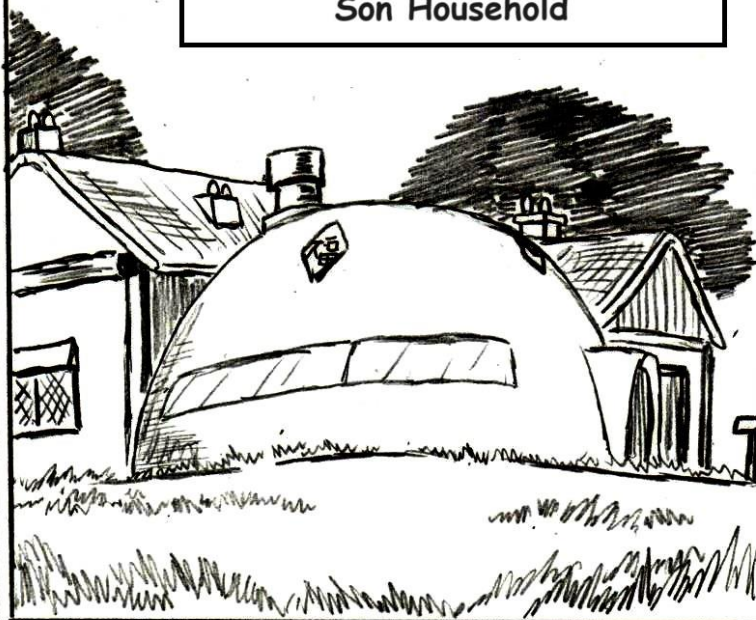

Her mother listened with great intent and was overjoyed at her daughter's accomplishments. Overall, it was a wonderful visit.

And they expect the new attractions to bring in more visitors, eager to try out the park's new facilities.

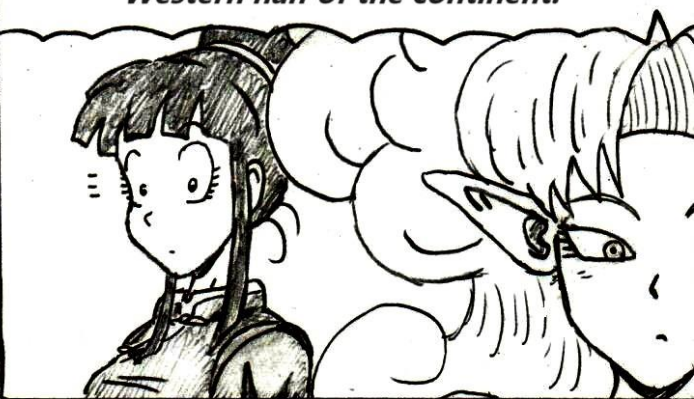

Meanwhile, back at Mt. Paozu, Son Household

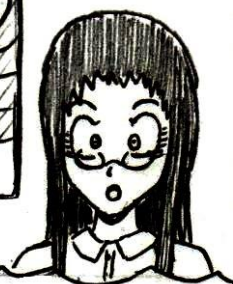

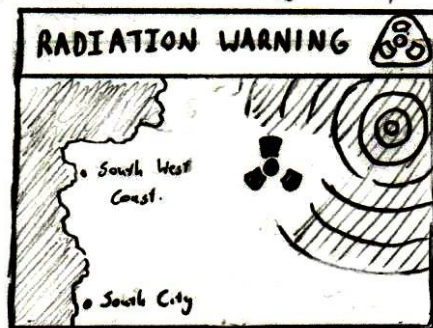

Hmm... weird. Earth's sun is still in good health as far as I can tell. Maybe this spike is unrelated to a Gamma Burst or a Solar Flare. Maybe a meteor?

And Breaking News. Scientists at the Capsule Corp Space Centre have detected a sharp spike of an unknown radiation on the South-Western half of the continent.

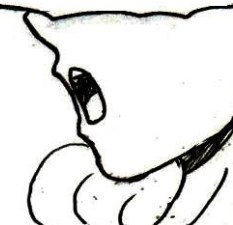

Satellites detected the spike earlier this morning. Officials say it's likely a result from the Gamma Ray anomaly...

...which was picked up last night over the North Western Steppes. Experts are closely monitoring the situation, but say this radioactive blip is nothing to be concerned about.

Please, put some clothes on... I beg of you... (Chi-Chi)

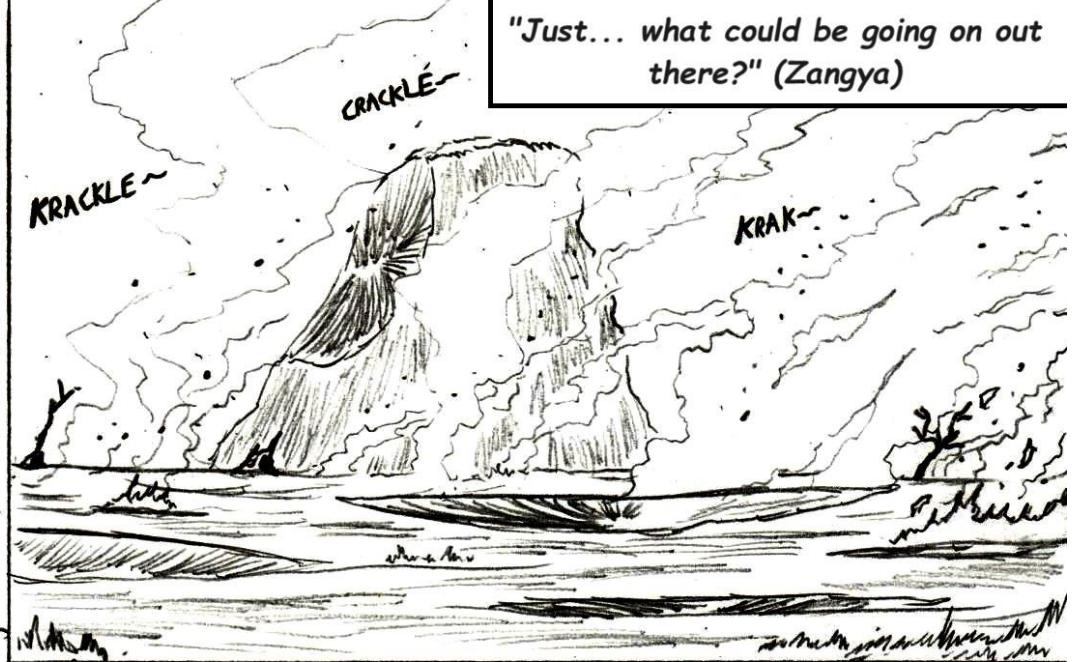

Radiation, huh?

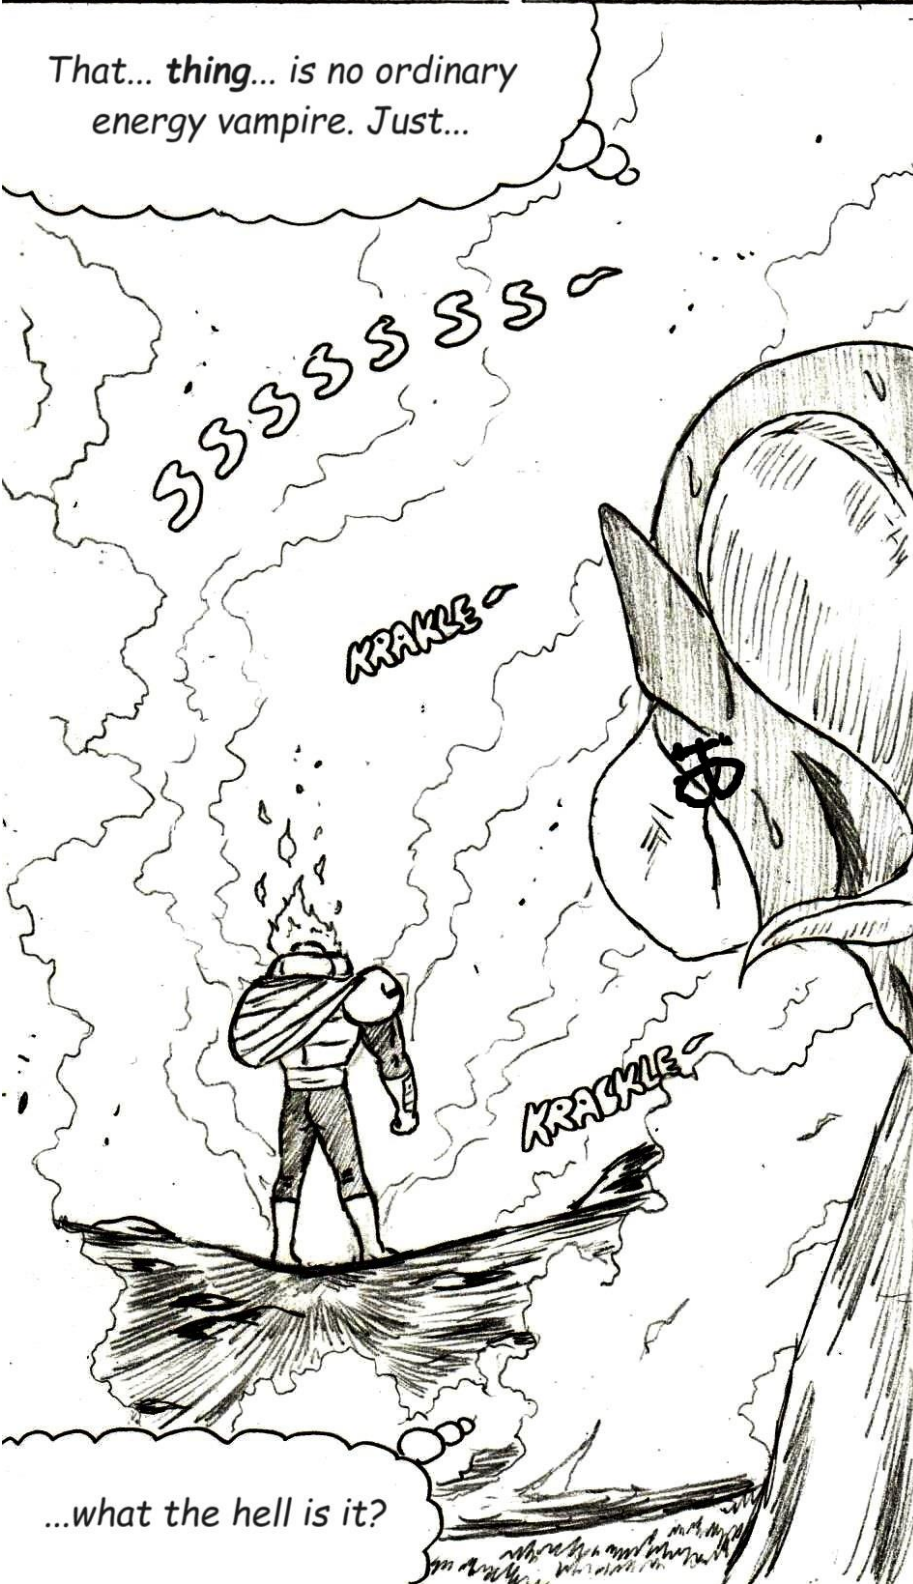

Sigh

Damn it...

"Just... what could be going on out there?" (Zangya)

That... thing... is no ordinary energy vampire. Just...

SSSSSSSS

KRACKLE

KRACKLE

...what the hell is it?

This is the most frustrating battle I've fought in a long, long time.

The amount of energy I've wasted is ludicrous. Now I'm forced to hide like a rat.

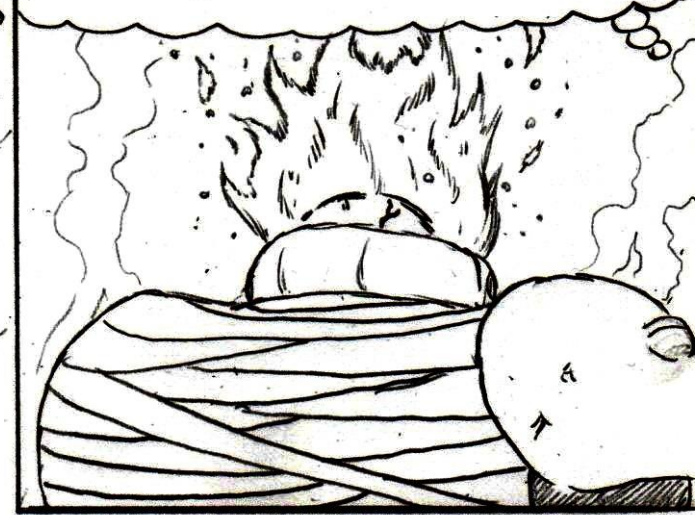

PEEK

So if it can absorb any attack I throw its way...

Even though I'm at full strength, nothing I do seems to affect it.

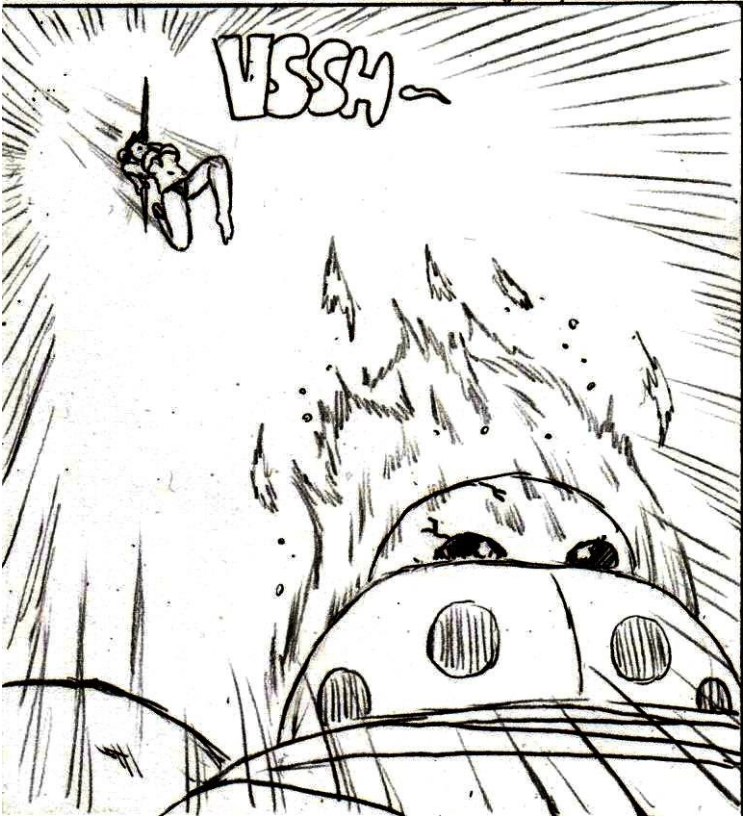

Its body is so dense, physical attacks get blunted and soaked up by its bulk.

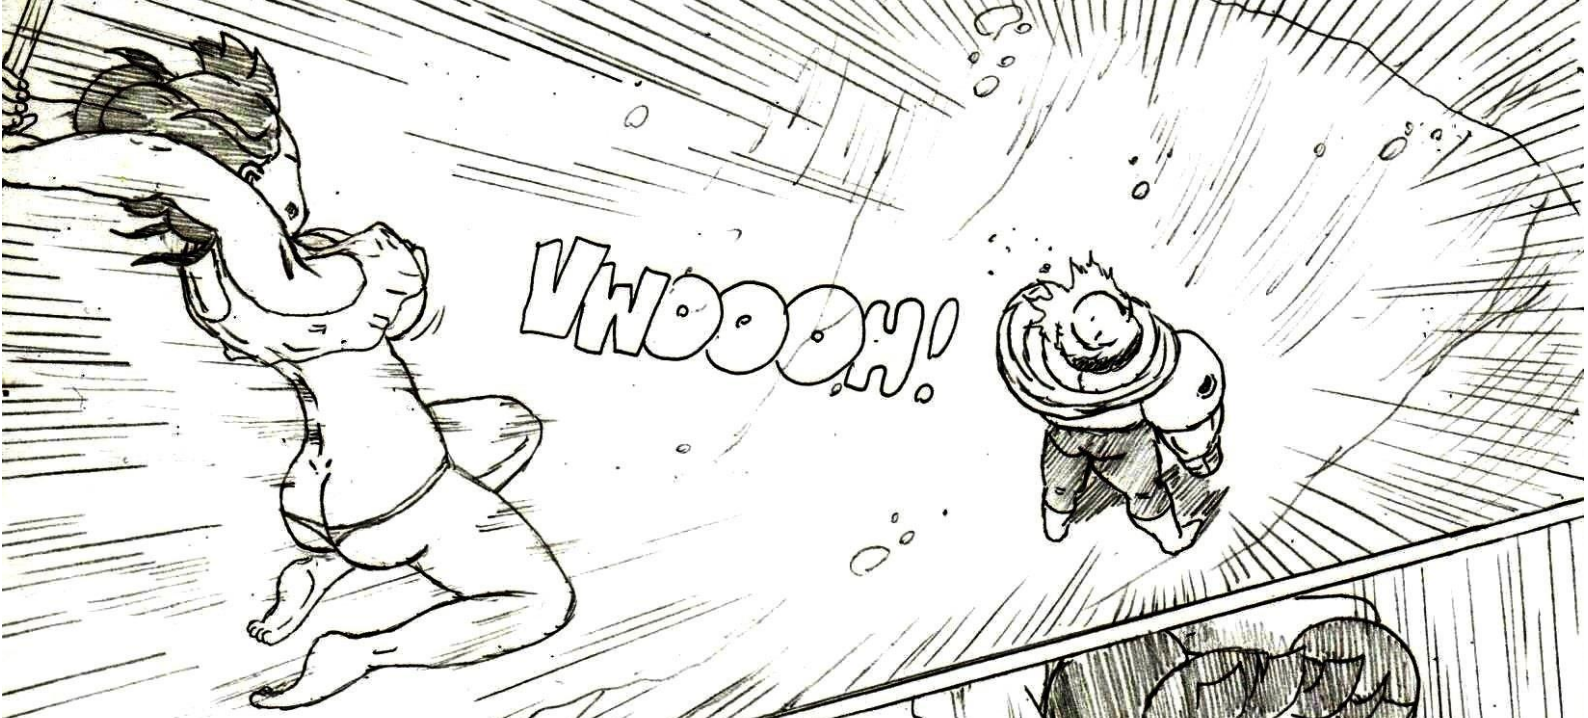

And it can eat any energy that comes into contact with it. And not just fire and lava.

How the heck do I kill it?

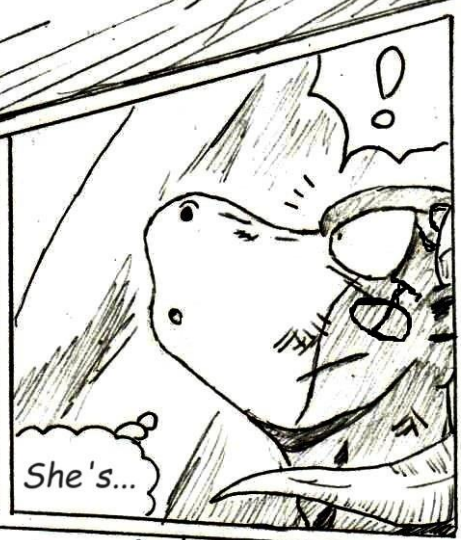

Okay. If raw power and firepower won't work... perhaps trickery might. I'll aim for its joints and see if...

WOOOH!

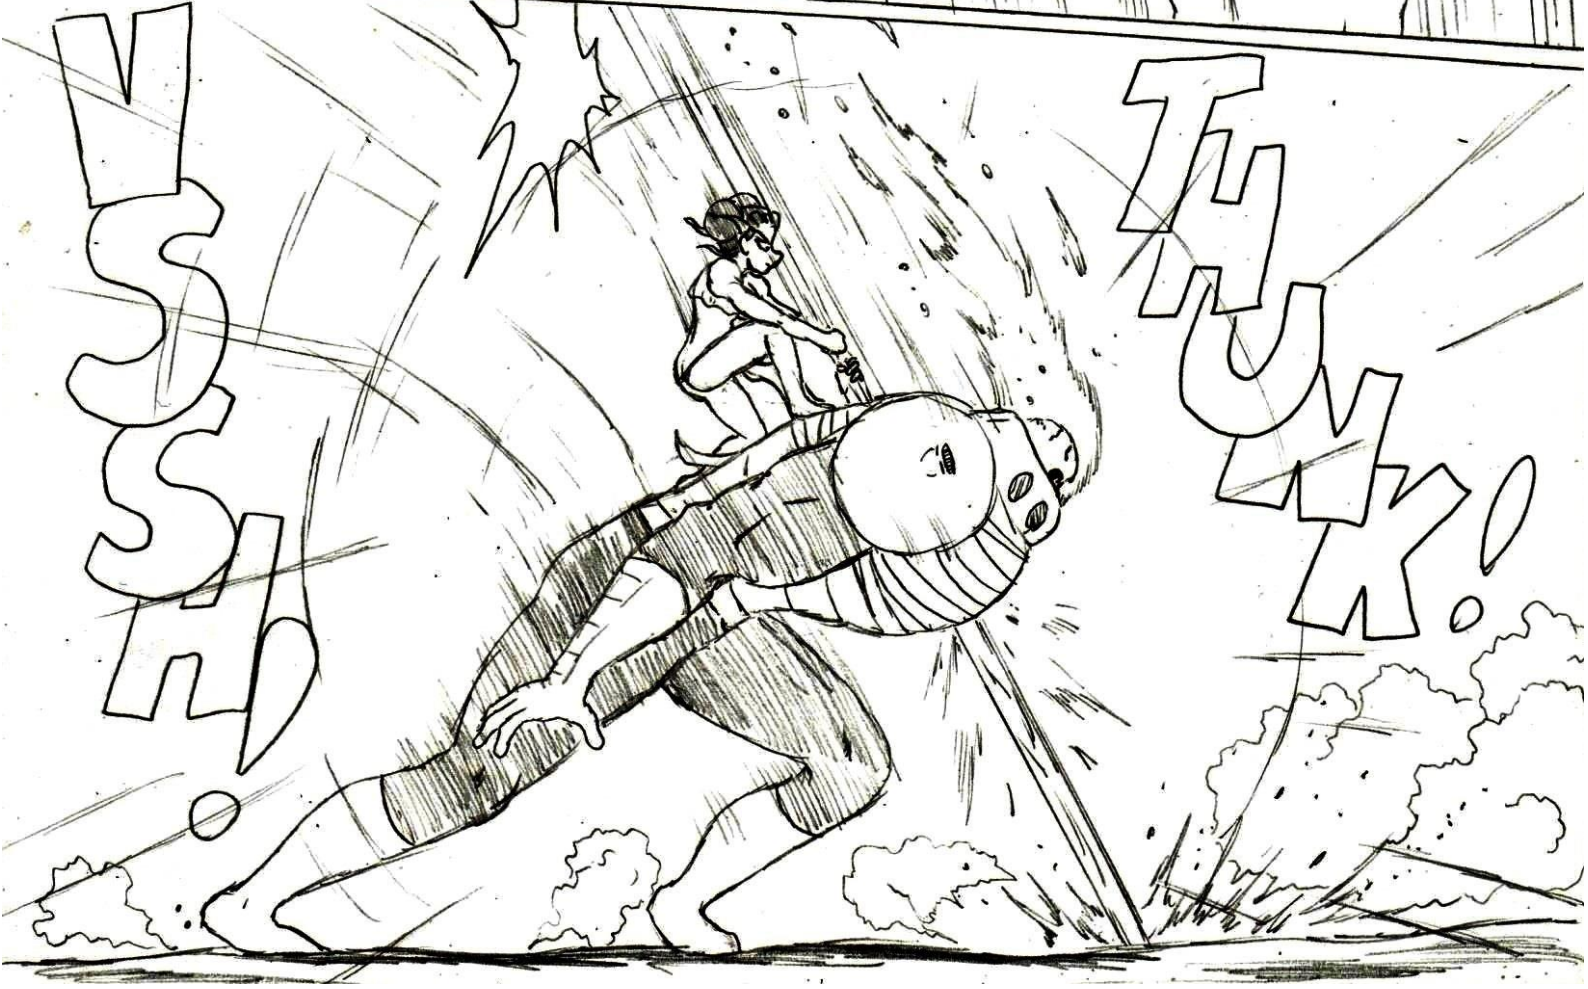

Shing!

She's...

Hr rrr!

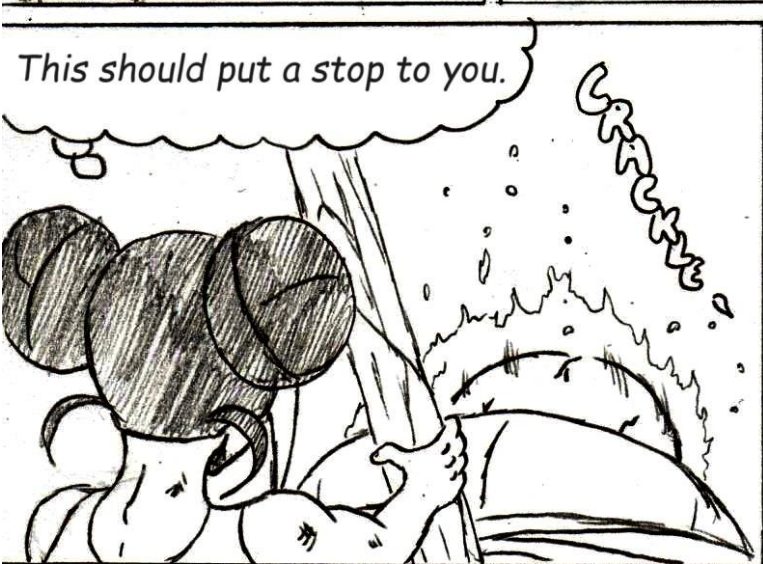

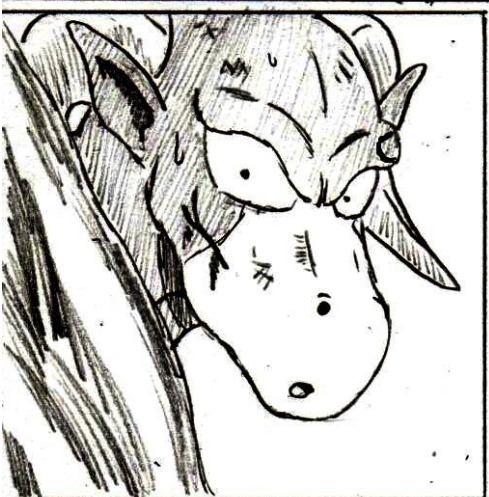

SSH!

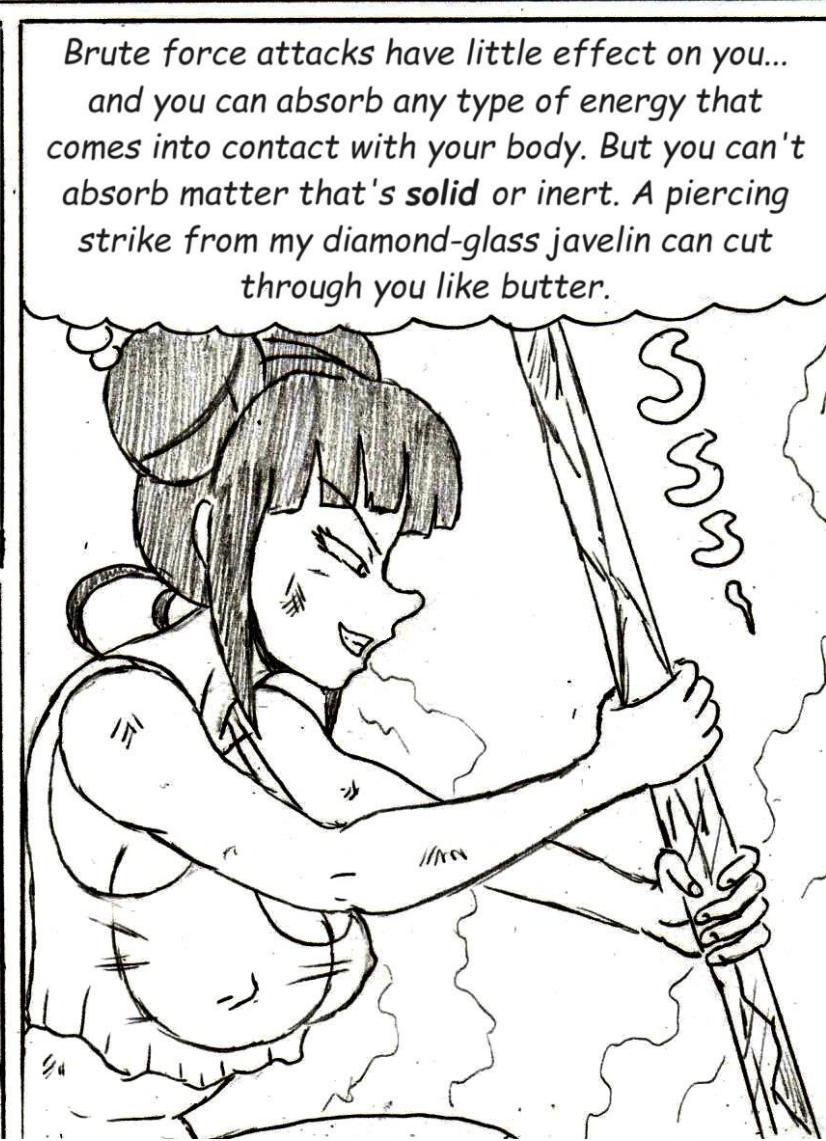

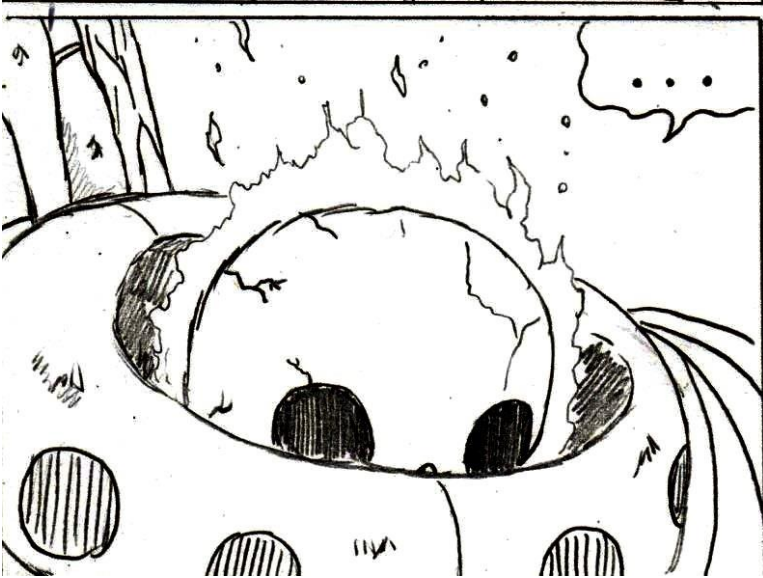

TK!

Heh. Got you.

This should put a stop to you.

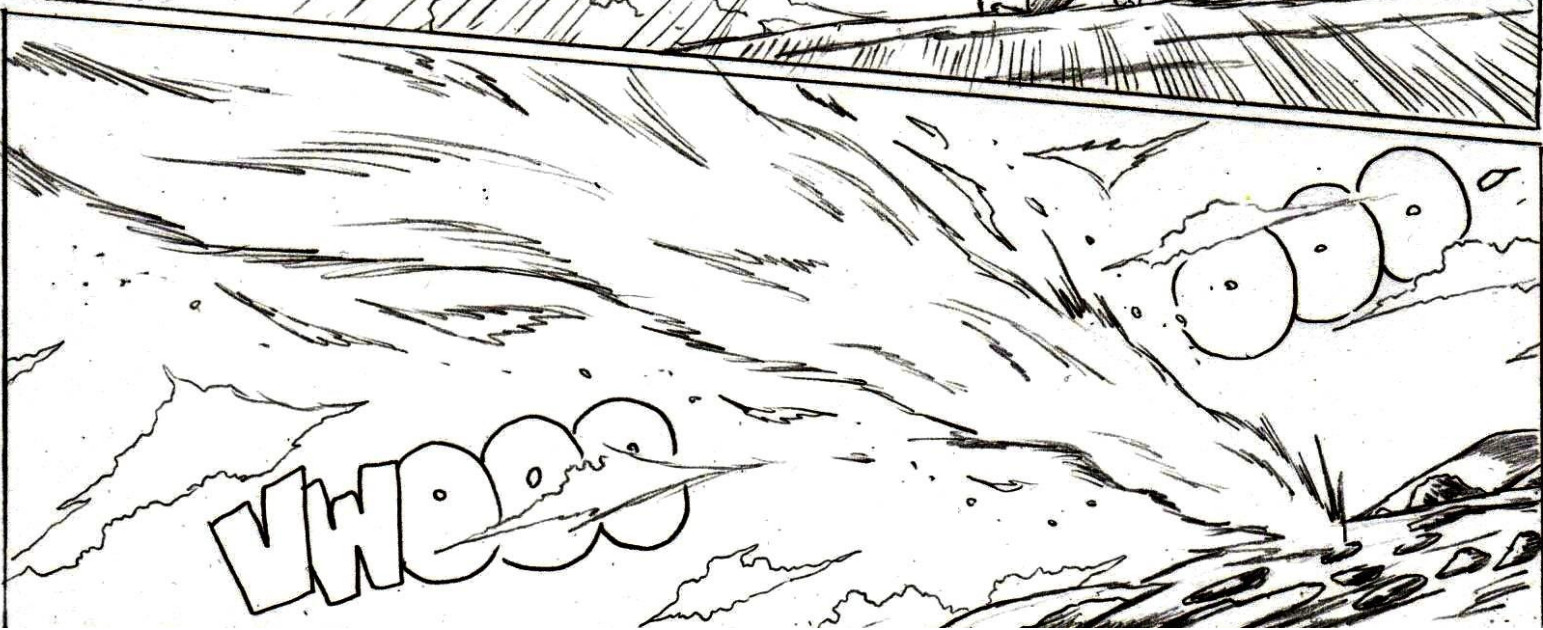

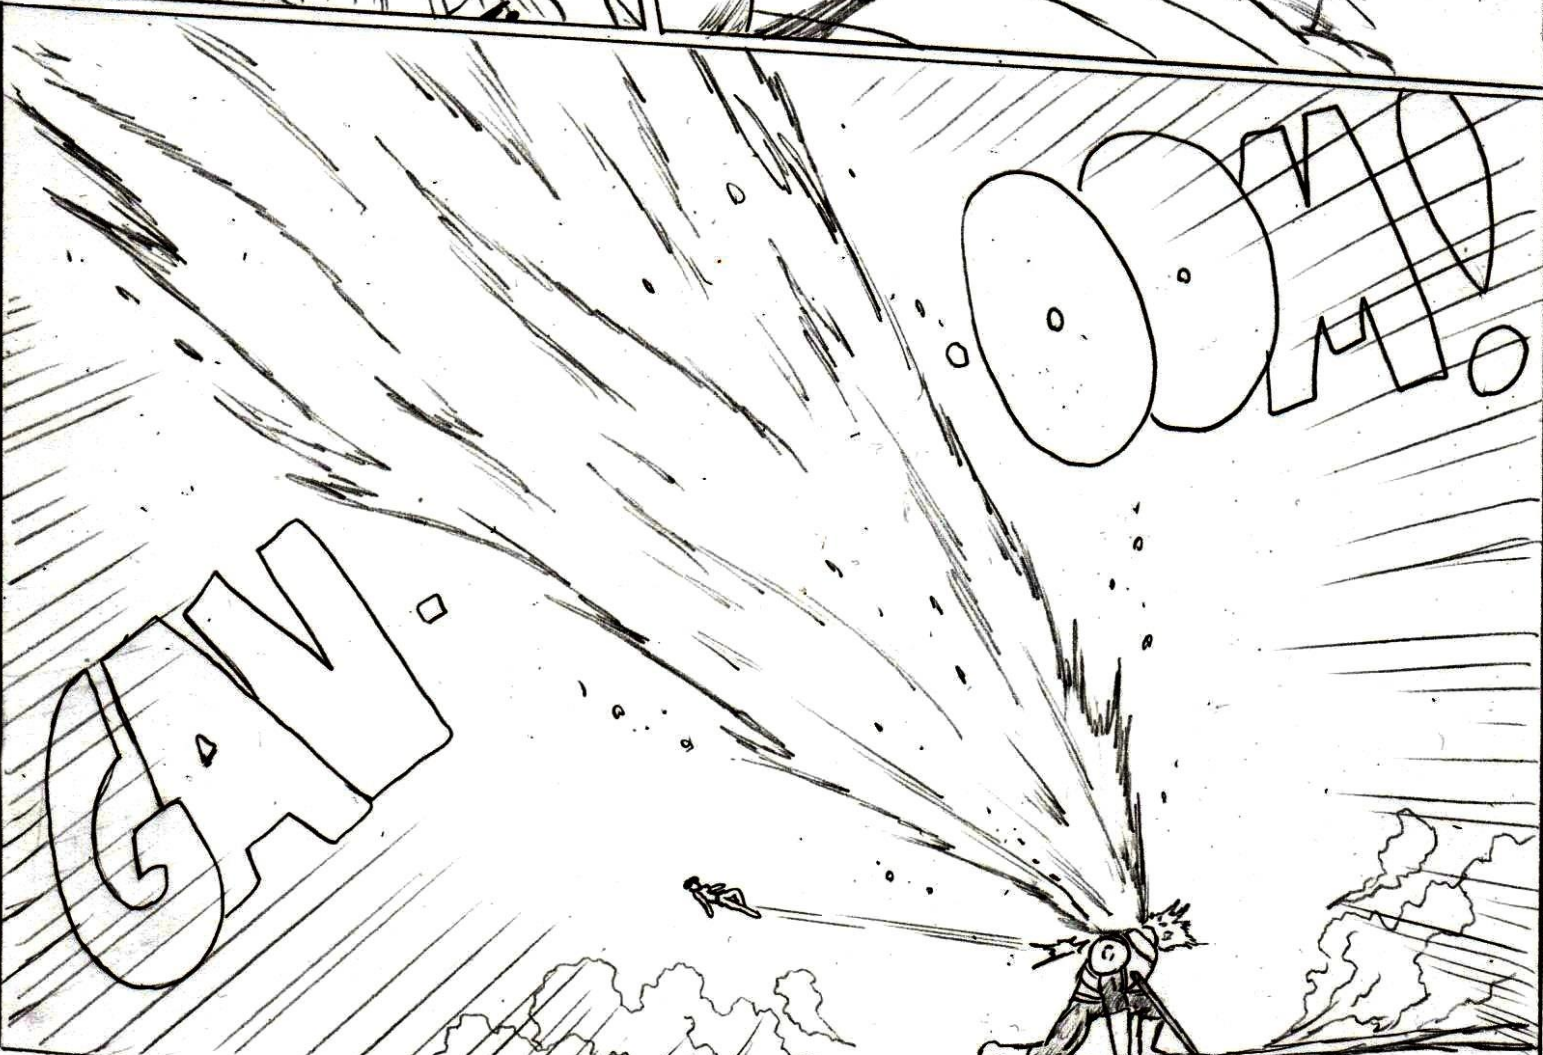

Brute force attacks have little effect on you... and you can absorb any type of energy that comes into contact with your body. But you can't absorb matter that's solid or inert. A piercing strike from my diamond-glass javelin can cut through you like butter.

WHOA!

"Remember... if either of you three fail to uphold your ends of our contracts...
I'll be coming to collect what is owed to me... personally."

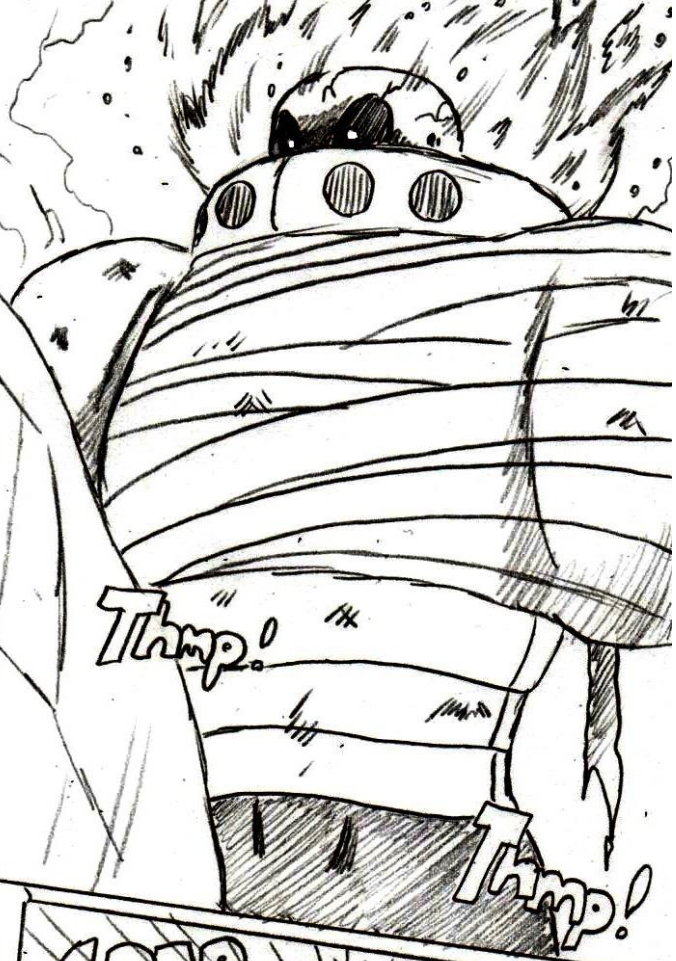

I can't afford to waste any more time here.

That's right.

My deal didn't involve any fighting at all... right?

I have a job to do that isn't this.

That means dealing with this walking meltdown is none of my business.

Forget this.

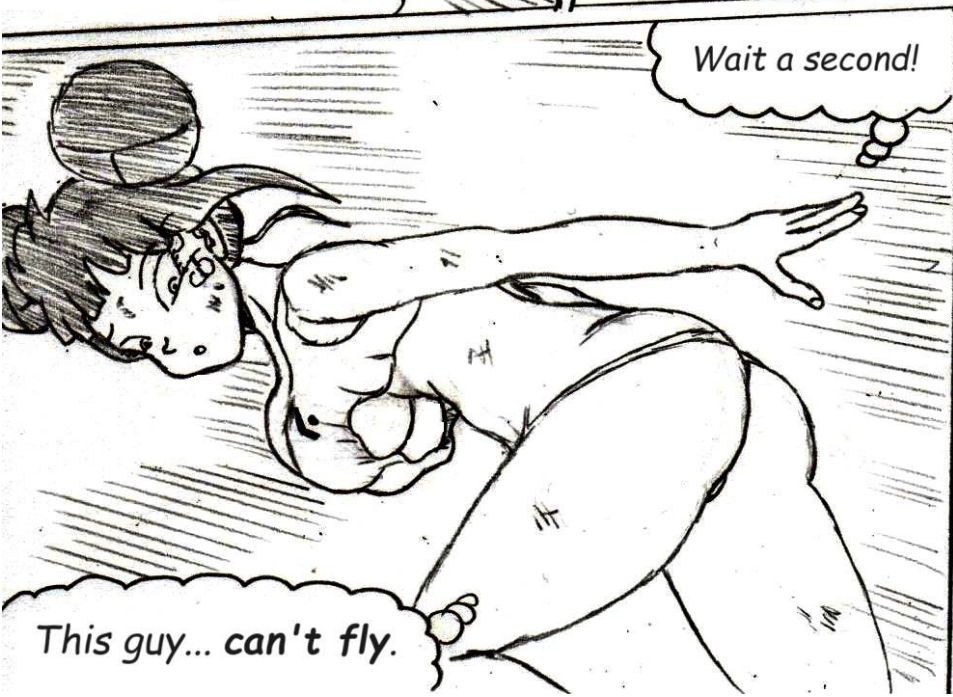

So...

Am I able to get away?

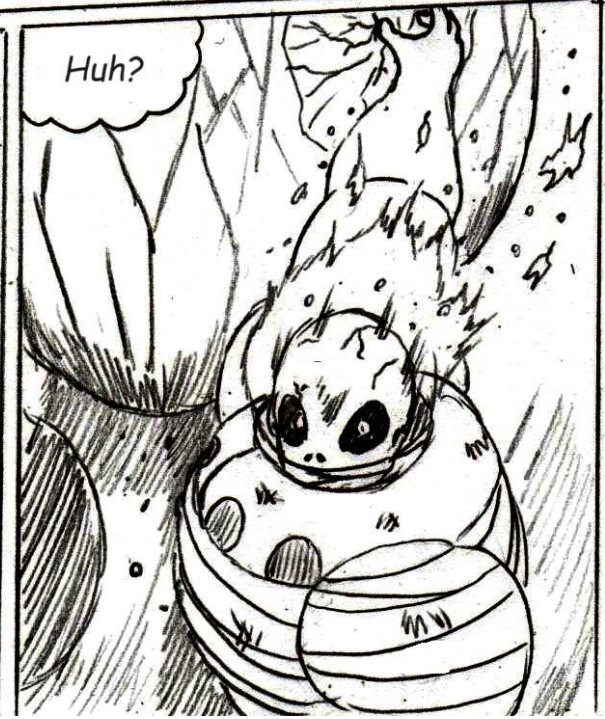

I'm not dying fighting an unwinnable battle. Gramps and the hooded dwarf have the job of conquering this planet. Not me.

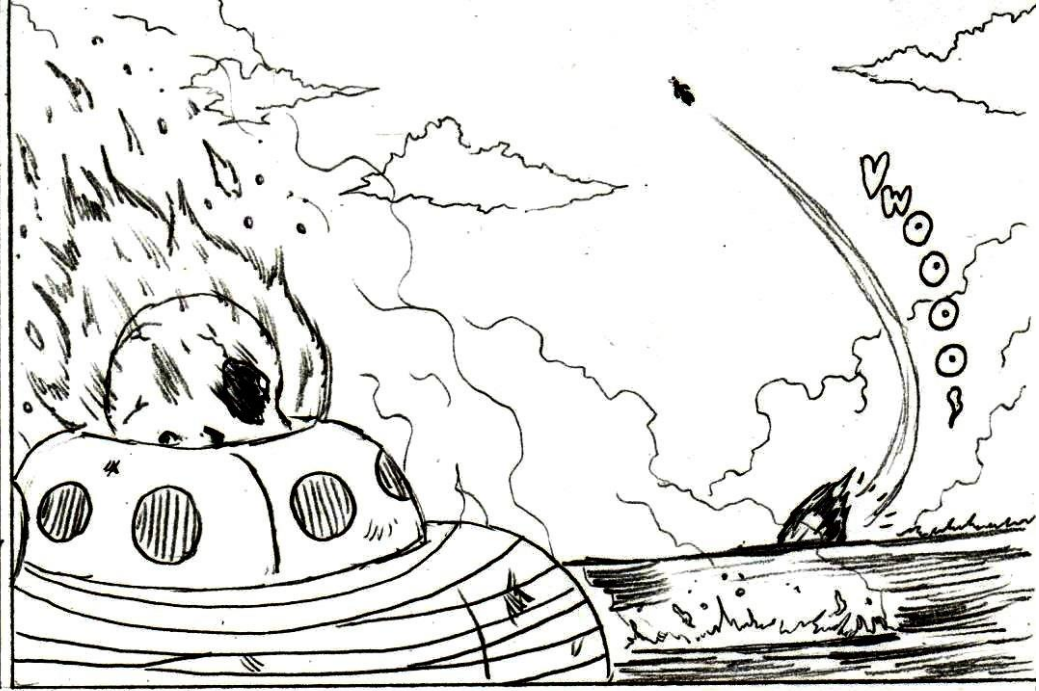

Wait a second!

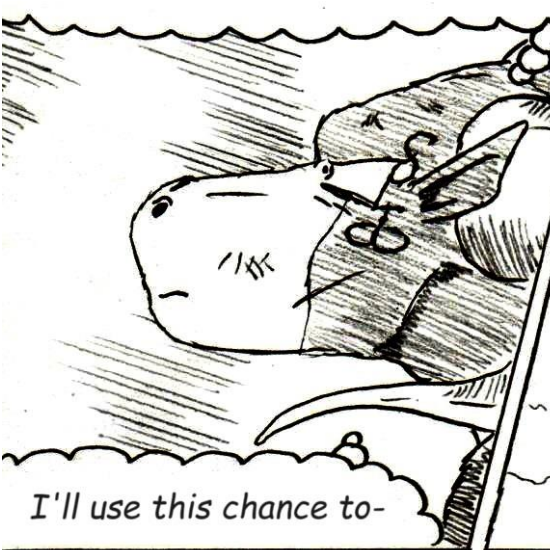

This guy... can't fly.

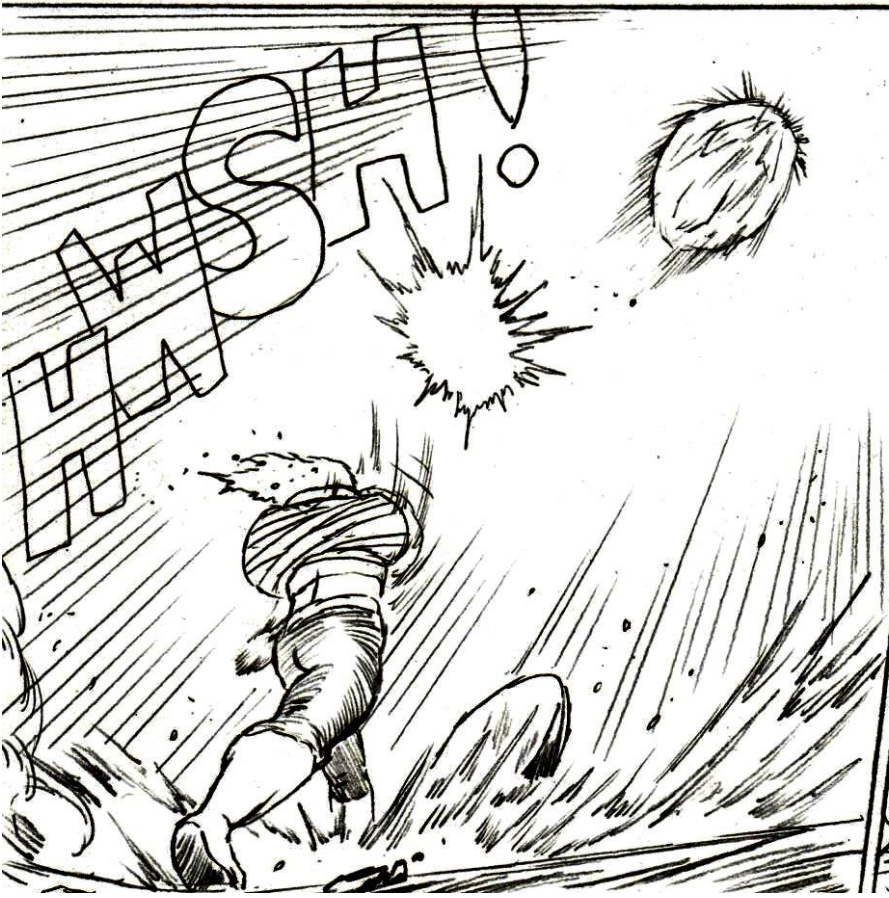

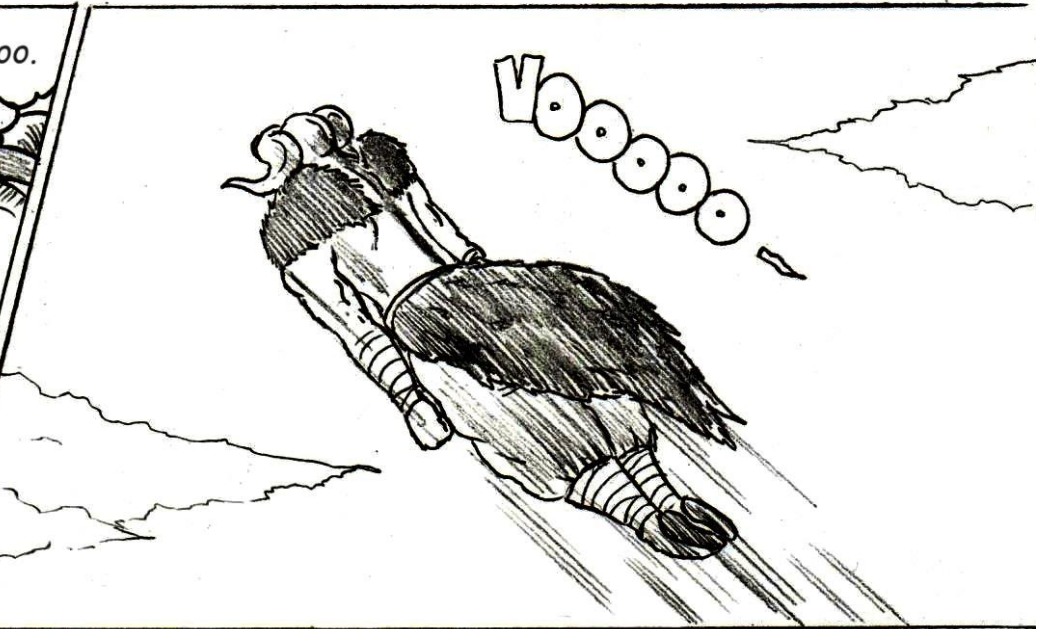

Huh?

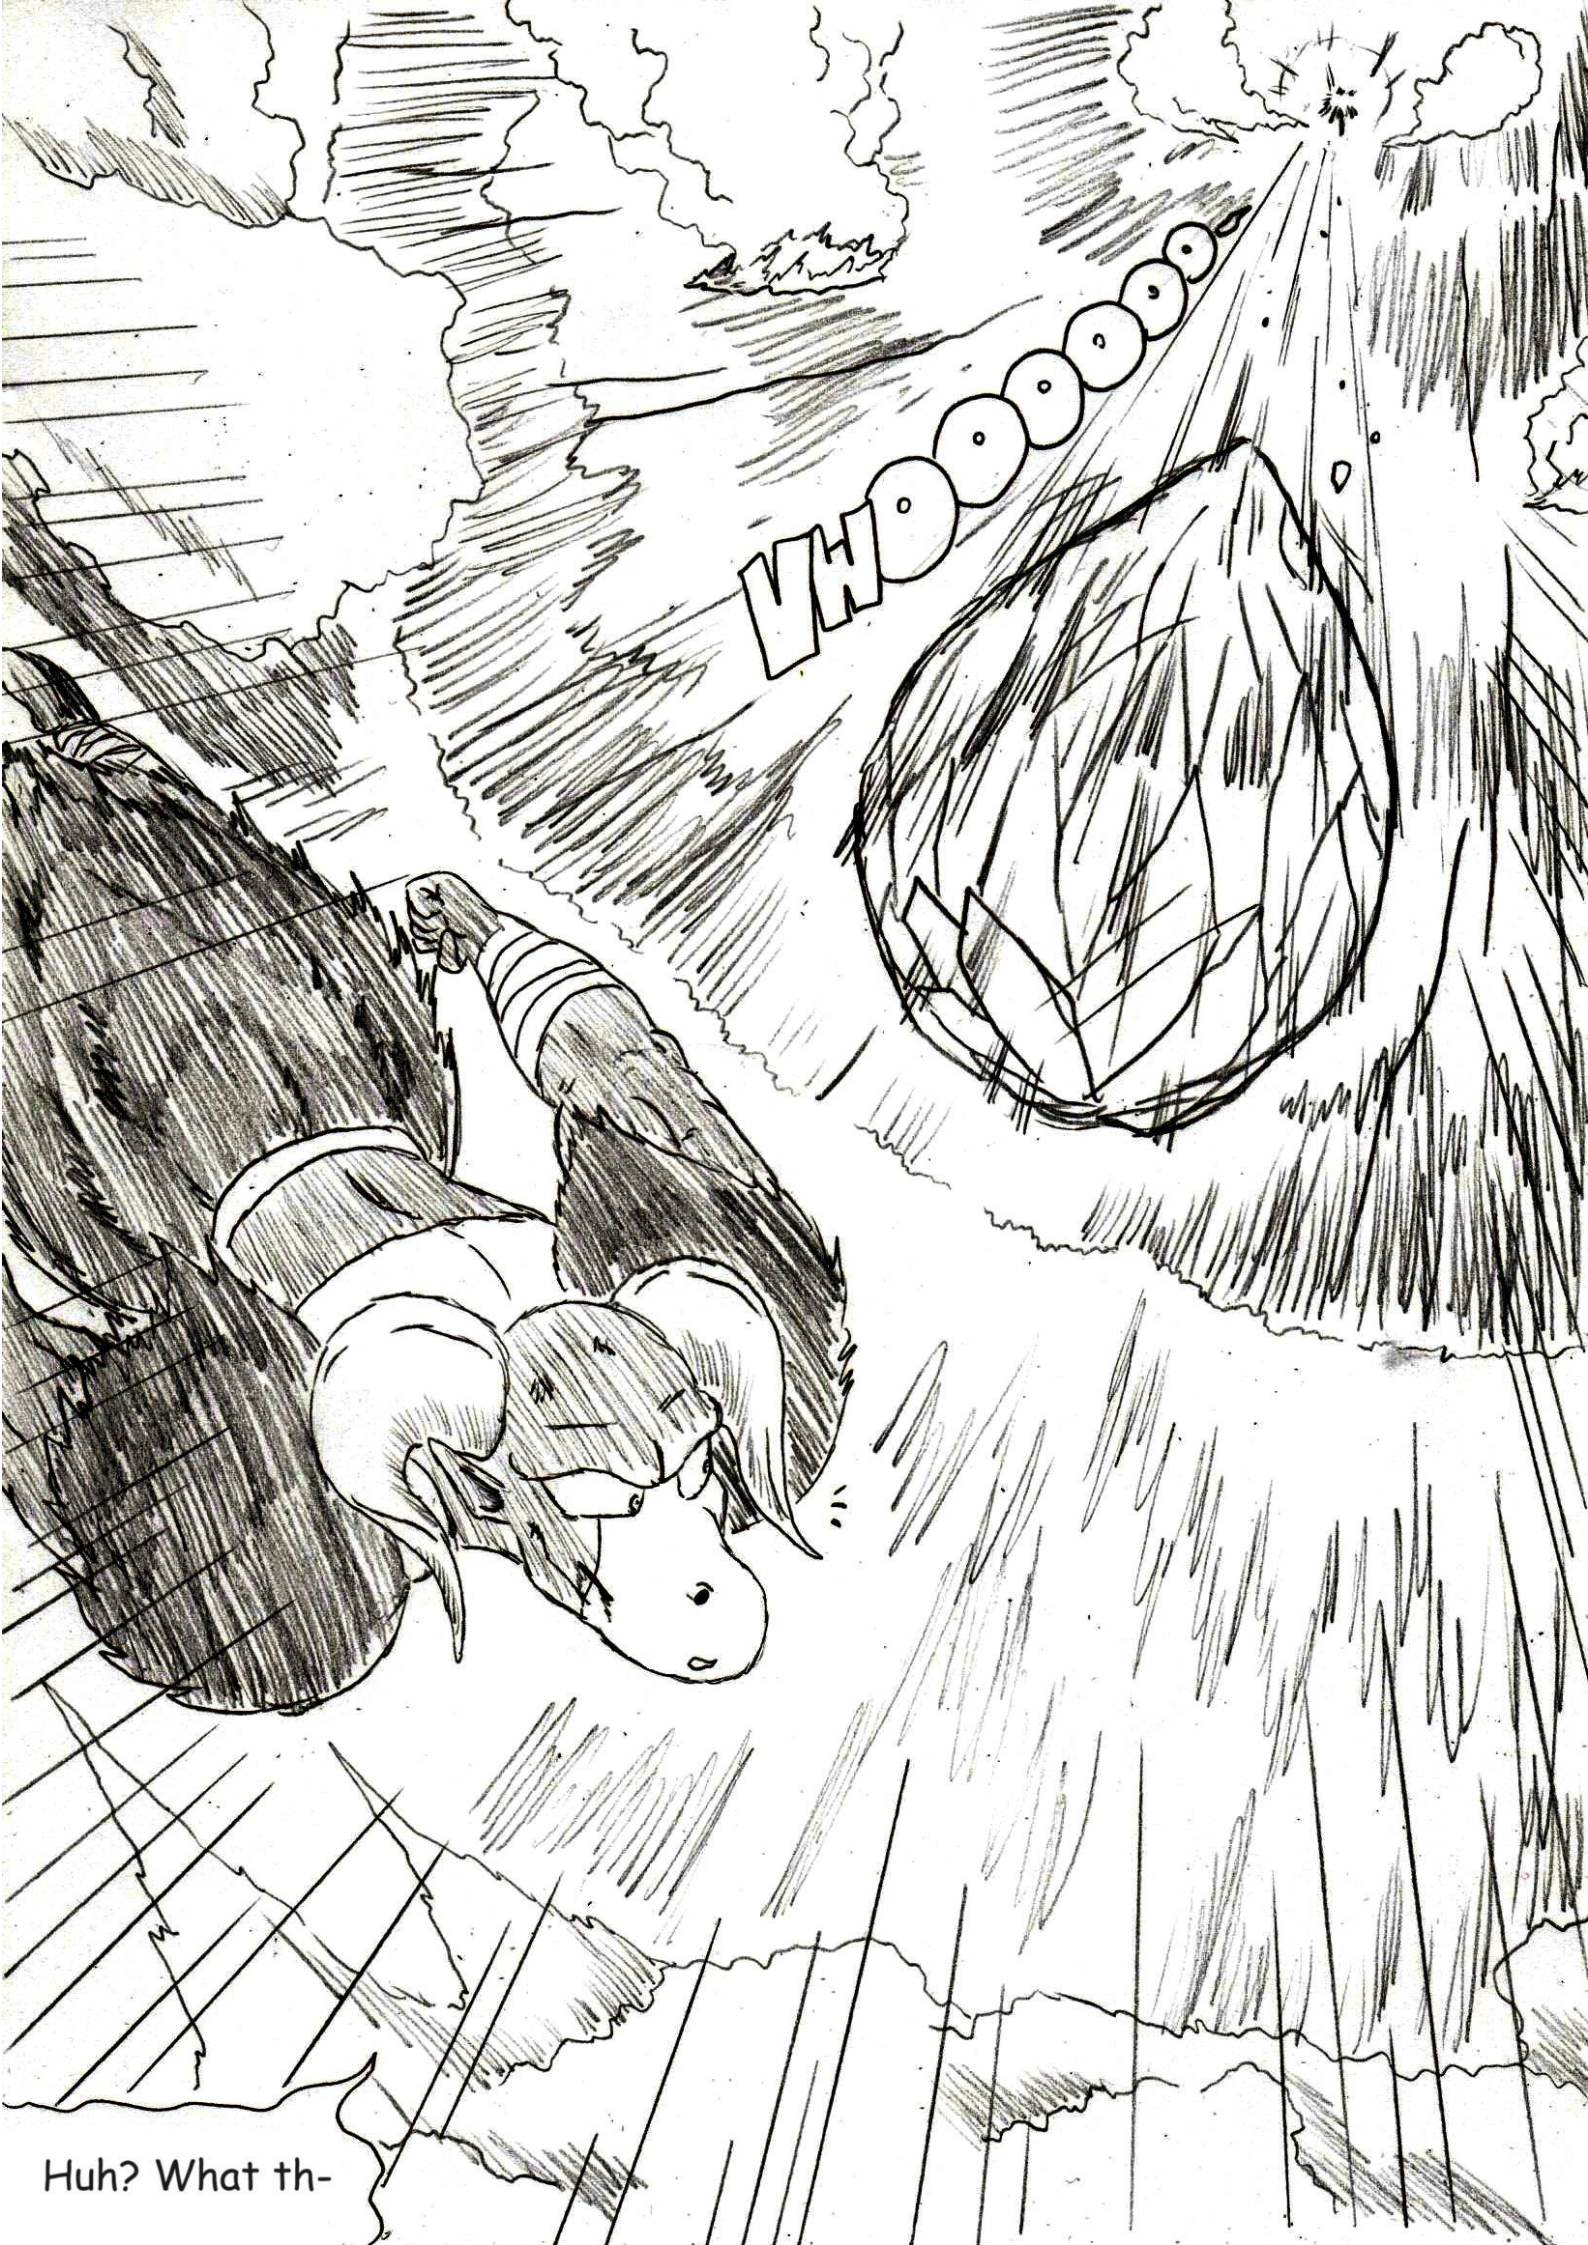

If she's bailing, I'm bowing out too.

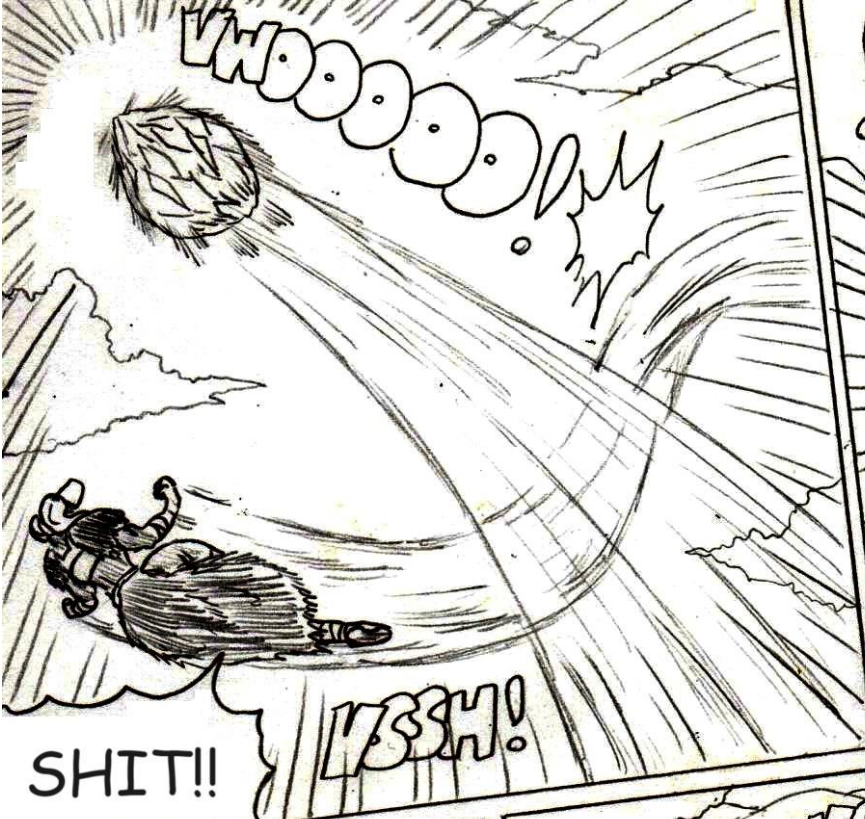

I'll use this chance to-

Huh? What th-

Ah... I really wish I was still in good health...

If I was, I'd be able to ask you and my baby girl to teach me those cool tricks.

That's an amazing technique you have, Gohan-kun! You must've trained incredibly hard with your master to develop it.

Yeah! It was tough... and I spent many nights up practicing... but I was finally able to make a blade!

I really hope it will be soon. I...

I miss you...

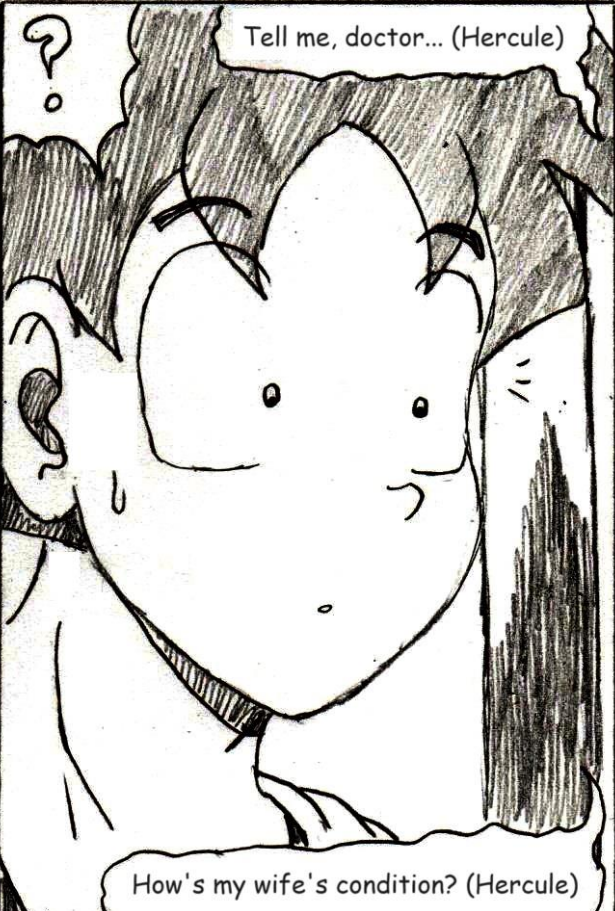

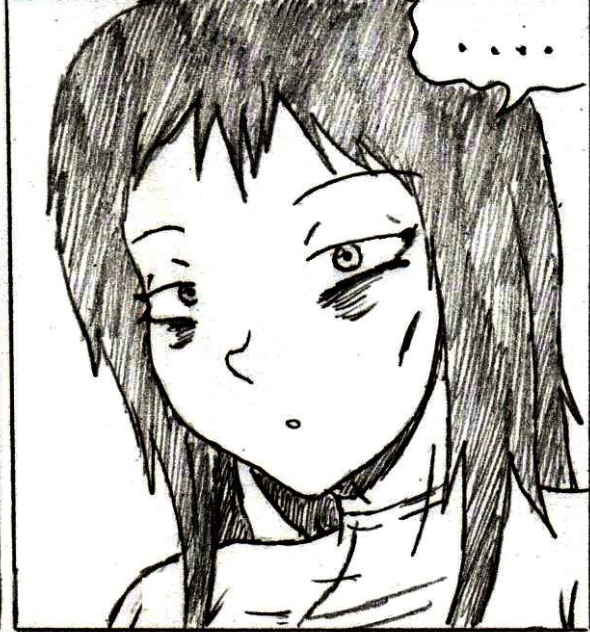

Don't worry, mom. As soon as the doctors cure you of your illness...

...and you're all better... I'll teach you.

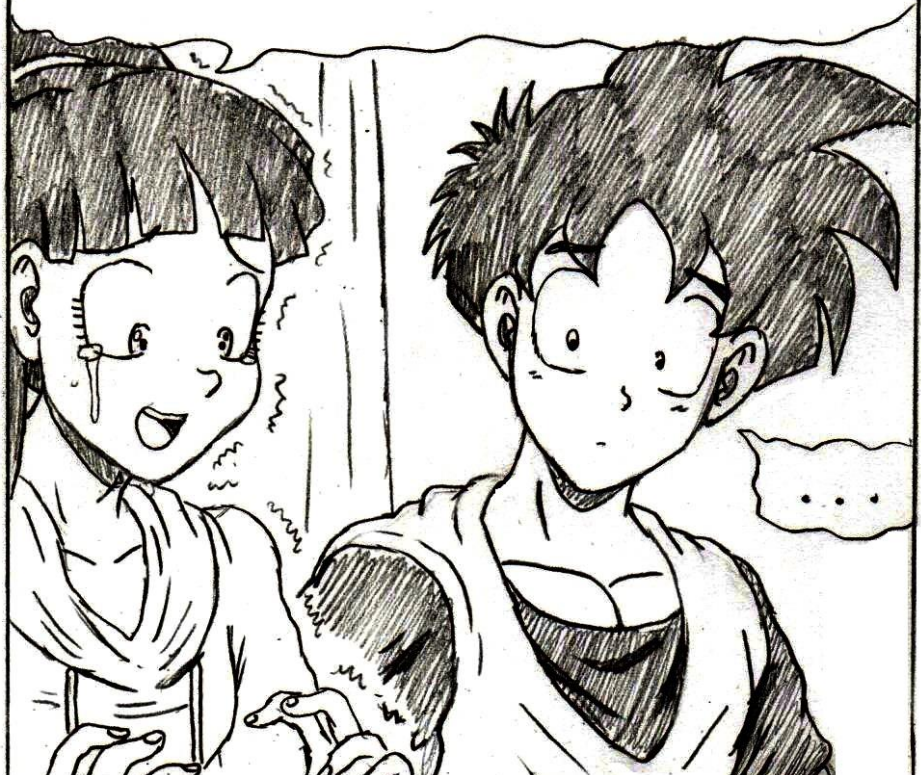

I've... missed you too, sweetpea...

Tell me, doctor... (Hercule)

How's my wife's condition? (Hercule)

Here. L-Let me show you another cool thing Gohan-kun taught me to do. The ability to create energy...

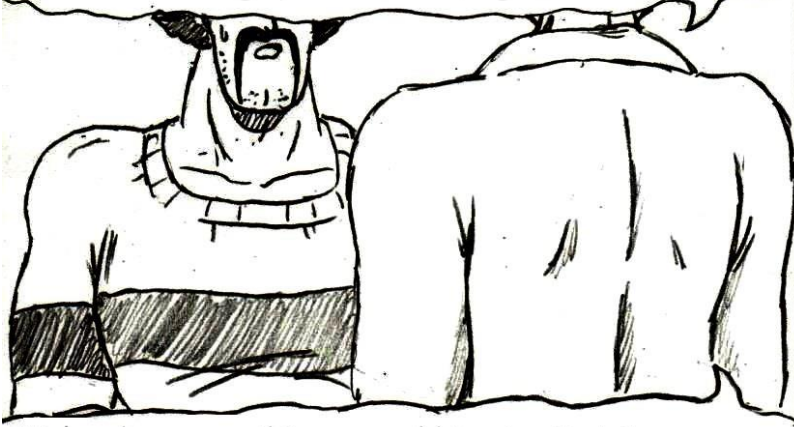

Is she getting better?

Please, doctor... I... I have to know.

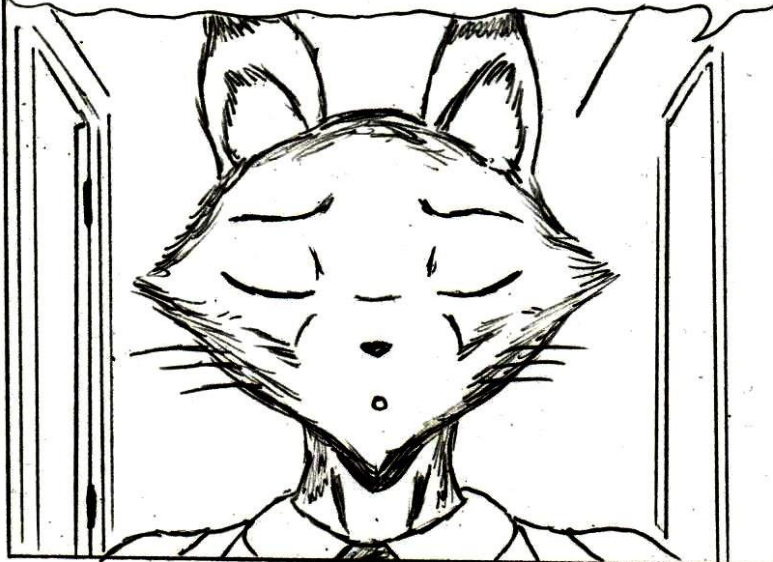

Is she going to be okay?

I regret to say this, but... the cancer has spread to her blood... and it's starting to effect her other organs at an alarming rate.

We've done everything we could to stop it at its source... from chemotherapy to surgery to medicine... but all we've been able to do is slow it down.

Hmm... unfortunately, Mr Satan... according to our most recent tests... your wife's condition has taken a turn for the worse.

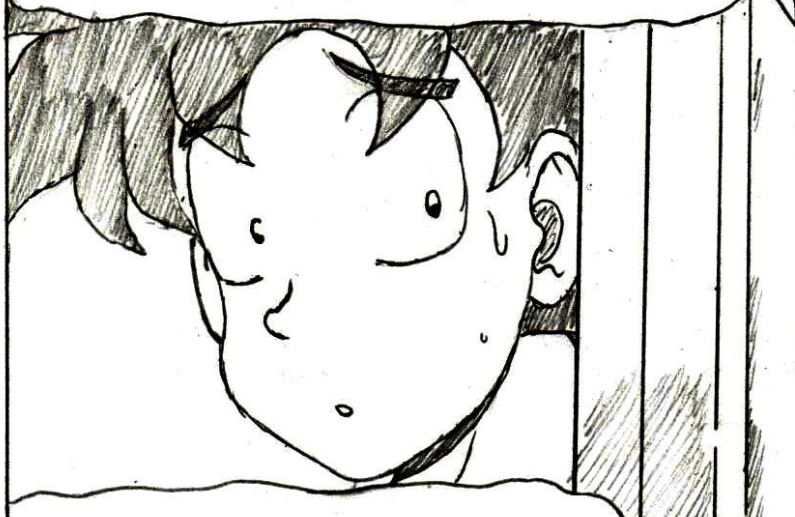

It's a miracle she has held on for so long. But as strong as Ms. Miguel is... we believe she doesn't have much left to give.

The other doctors believe she has... less than a month. I'm so sorry... Mr. Satan.

After fighting it for so long and... after all the procedures and pain she's had to endure... her stamina has taken a big hit.

Ms. Miguel can no longer stand up under her own power.

She is so young... and so kind.

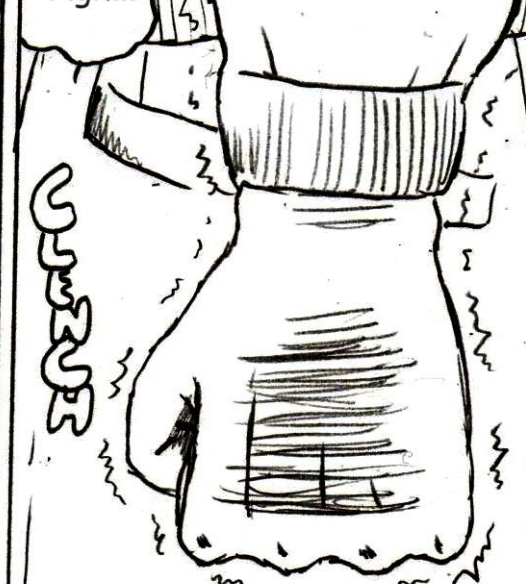

It's not fair!

It's so unfair!

Ngh...

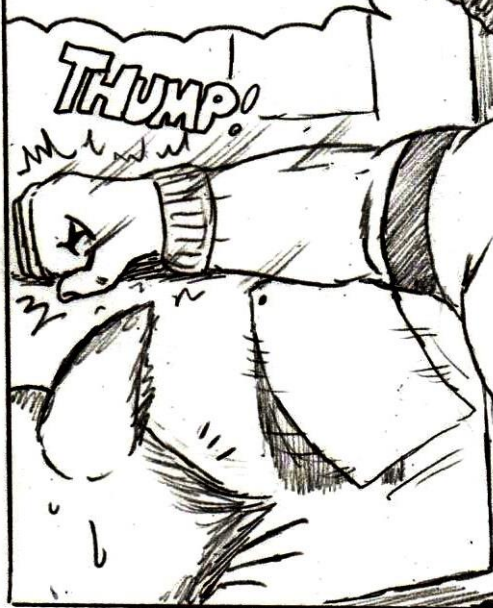

But now... it's come to this.

What am I gonna tell Videll?

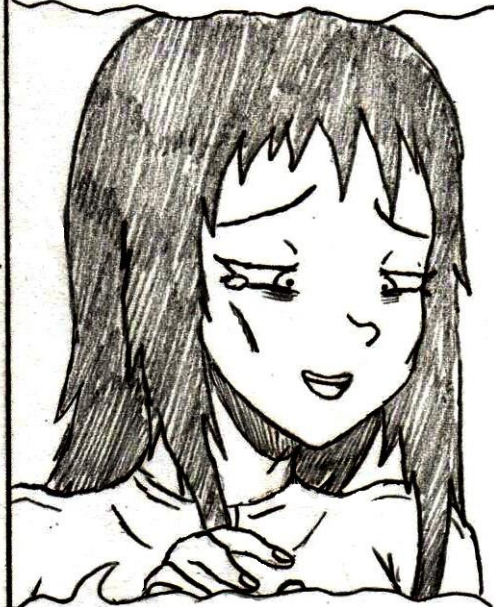

We tried so hard!

Damn it!

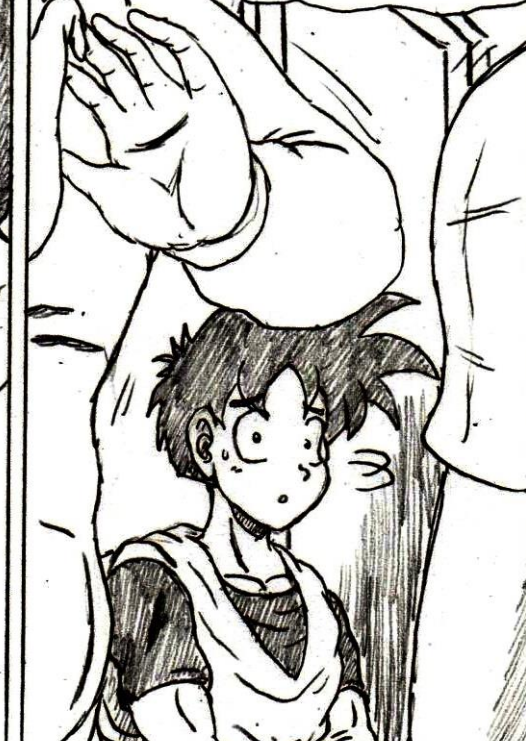

Sniff Ah... sorry... I'm shaking so much... it's hard to concentrate.

That's okay, baby. It... It's amazing. It's like a small, golden flame.

H-Here. Look, mom.

...got to do something.

I've...

No. I am gonna do something.

Hm...

CLENCH-

?!?

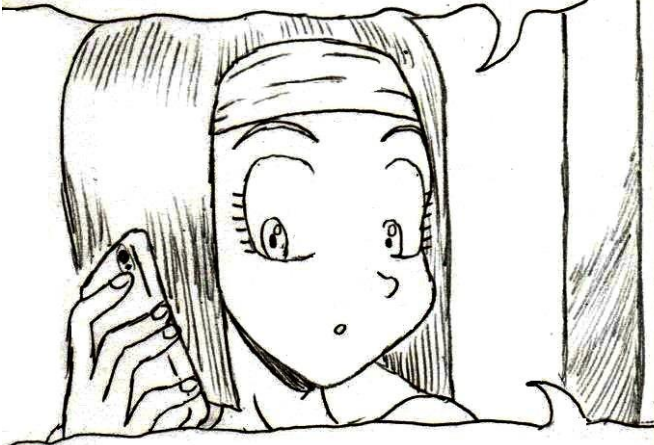

STAND!

Gohan-kun?

Videl. I'm gonna cure your mom's illness.

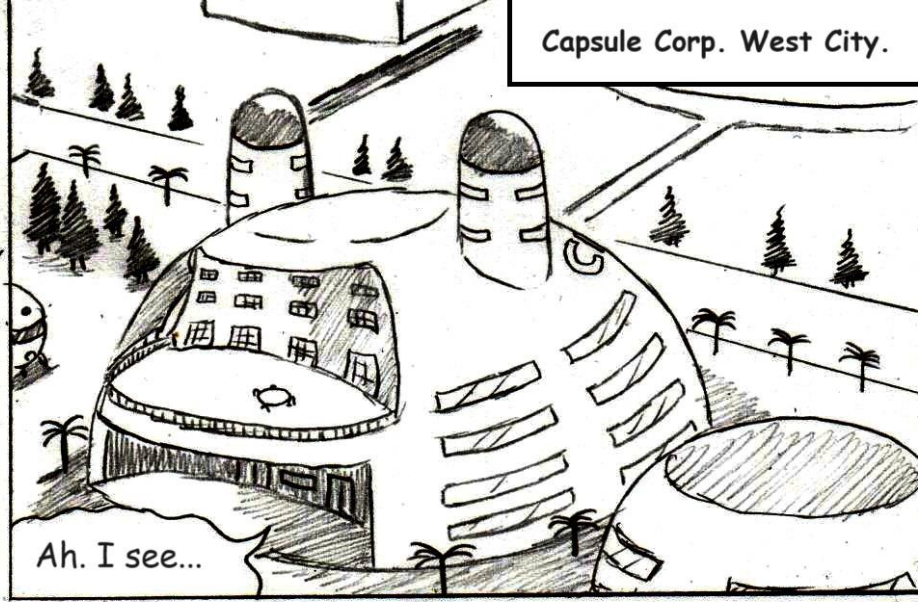

I swear, she will be home before week's end... good as new.

So, Videl's mother has cancer...

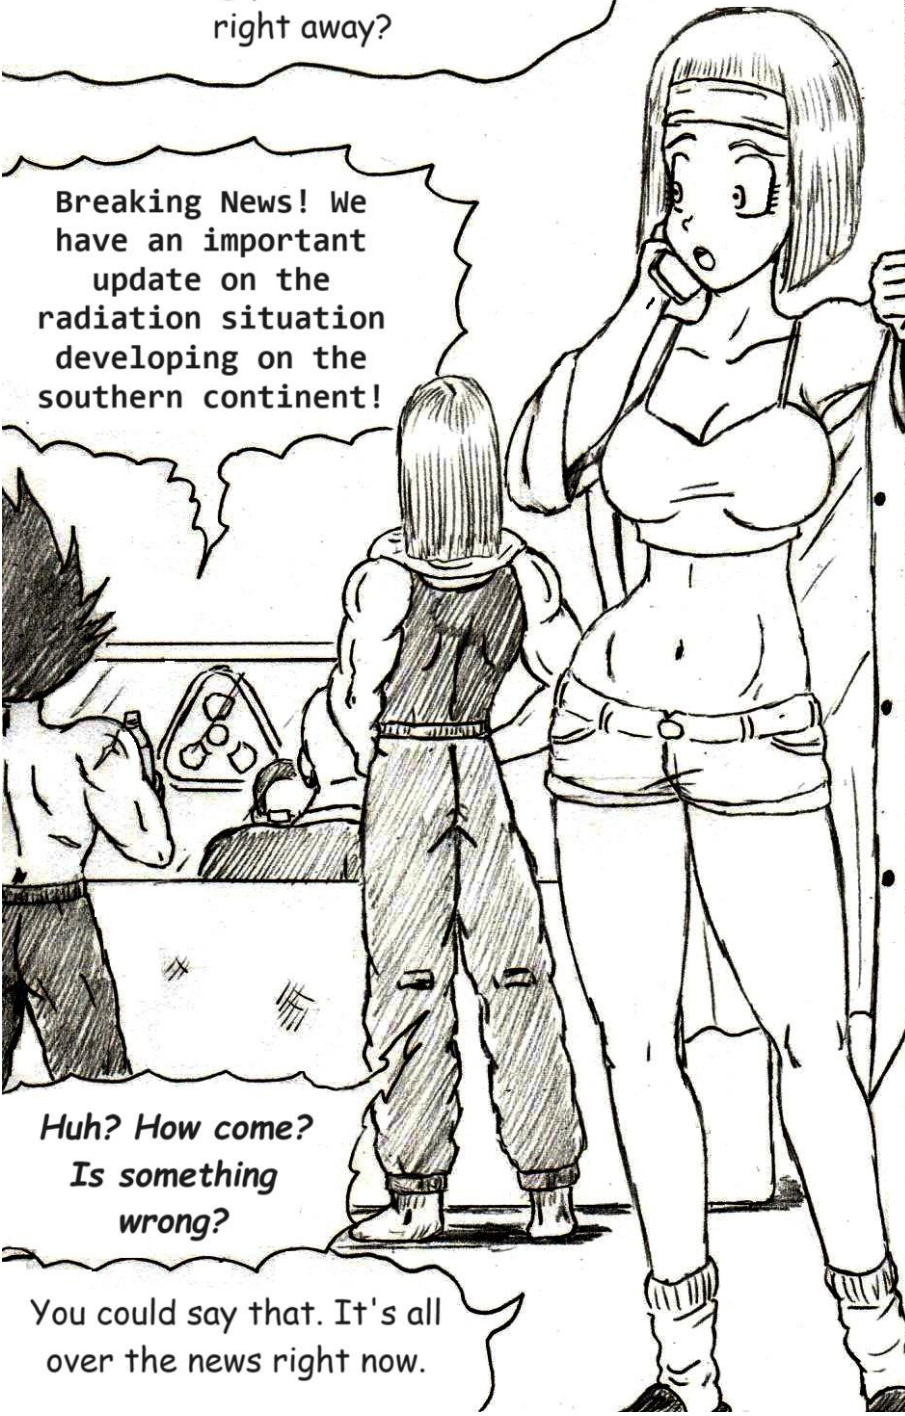

...and you want to ask Shenron to cure her?

Capsule Corp. West City.

Ah. I see...

Yeah. Of course, I'd be happy to let you borrow the radar, Gohan-kun. However... can I suggest you hold off on making your wish to Shenron right away?

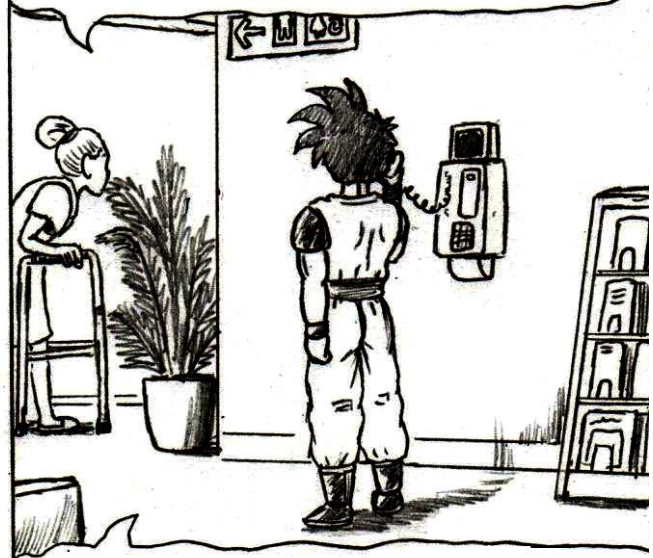

Breaking News! We have an important update on the radiation situation developing on the southern continent!

Huh? How come? Is something wrong?

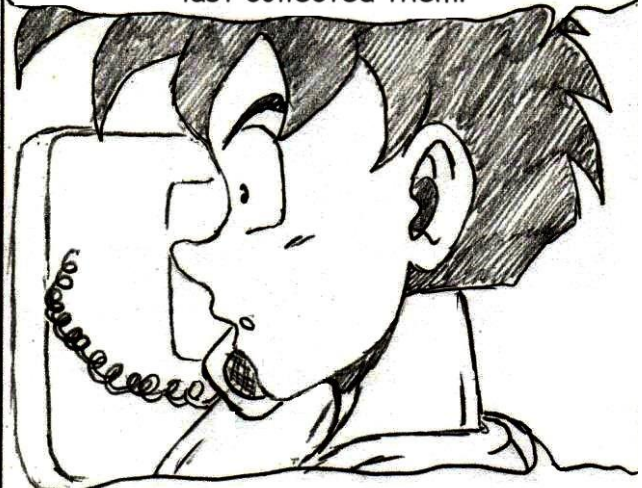

You could say that. It's all over the news right now.

Yes. If it isn't too much trouble... would I be able to borrow your dragon radar for a bit?

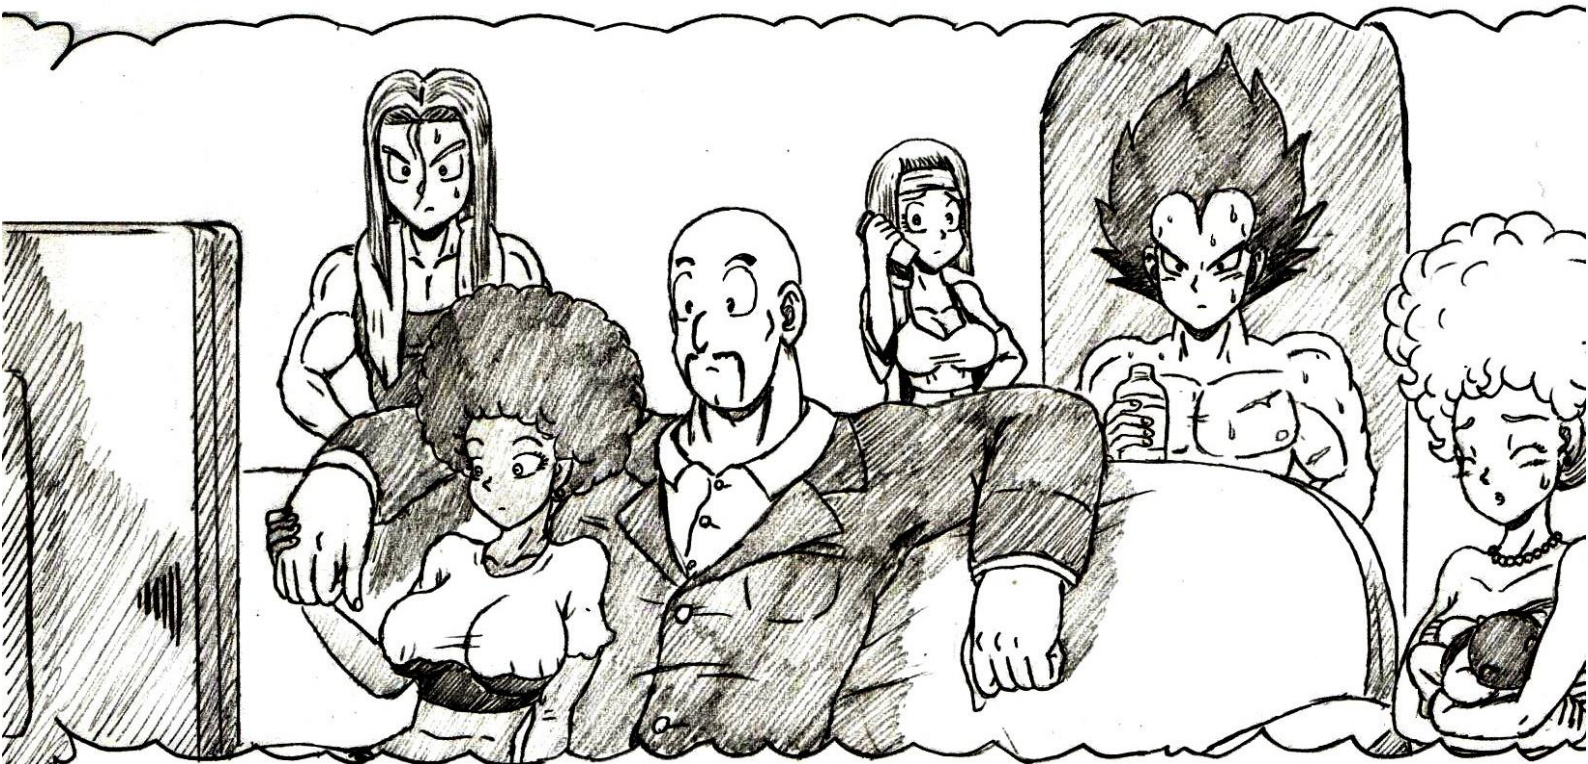

I really don't have a lot of time.

Dende said the cooldown period between using the dragon balls has been shortened considerably since he modified them... and it's been a little under a year since we last collected them.

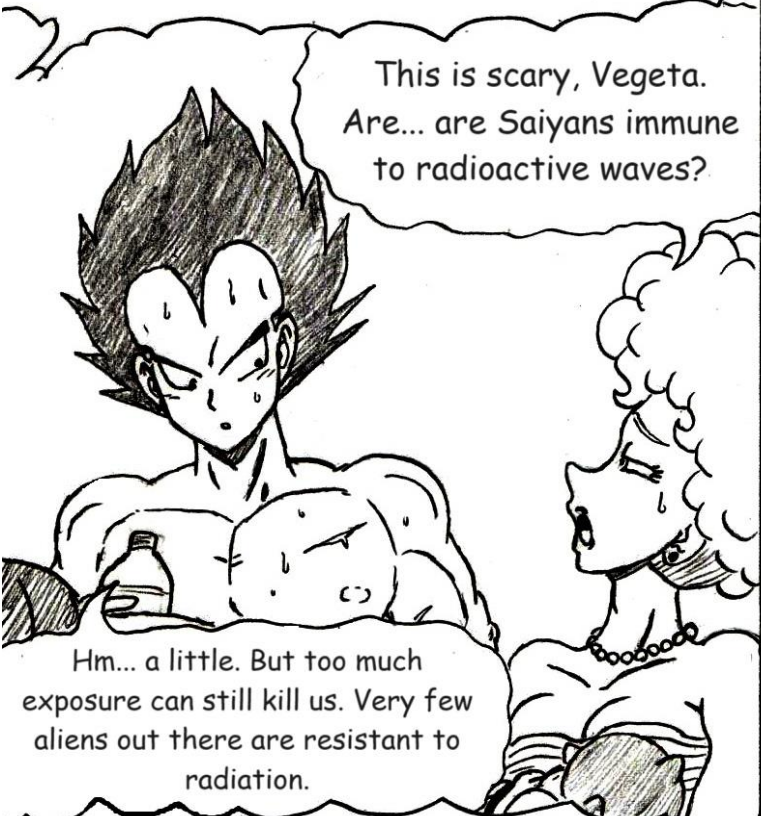

So they should be active and ready to use about now? Right?

Approximately one hour ago, power plant monitors stationed in West City had detected a massive spike in radioactivity, originating from the steppe regions of the Southern Continent's lower-most prefectures. Thermal and photographic scans of the area by satellites orbiting the vicinity...

...informed scientists that a 10 megaton blast from an unknown nuclear device had been set off in the vicinity of the Sunset National Parks.

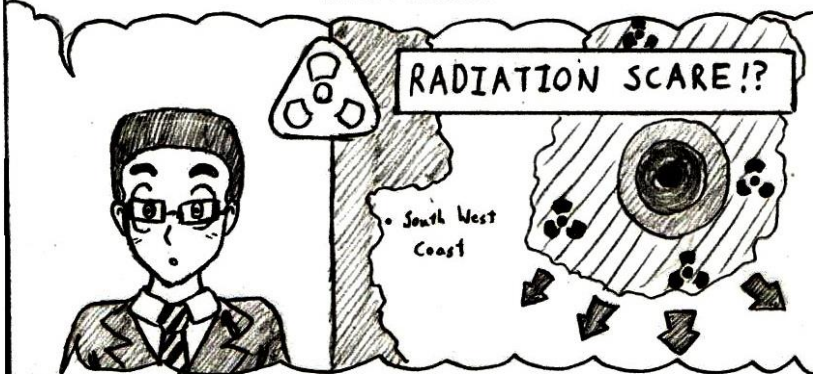

At the order of King Furry, the Seventh Fleet and the 10th Royal Army Group have been dispatched to evacuate the southern towns, and a team has been flown in to investigate and hopefully stop the anomaly.

This is scary, Vegeta. Are... are Saiyans immune to radioactive waves?

Hm... a little. But too much exposure can still kill us. Very few aliens out there are resistant to radiation.

The resulting detonation had sent a radioactive cloud into the atmosphere and across a 100 plus mile radius.

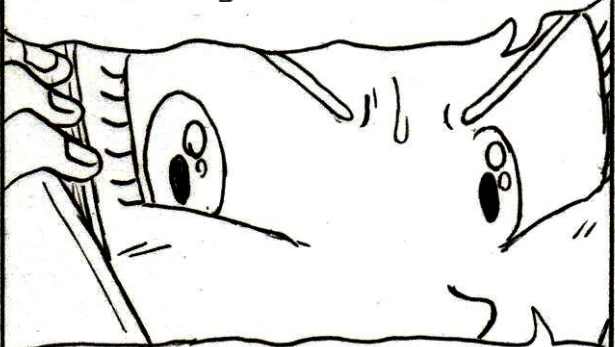

Experts have now confirmed that the radioactive cloud is travelling south against the wind, and is gradually spreading toxic fumes across the entire peninsula.

Environmentalists were quick to blame the military for the escalating event, but the Royal Army has completely denied the performance of any tests in the area.

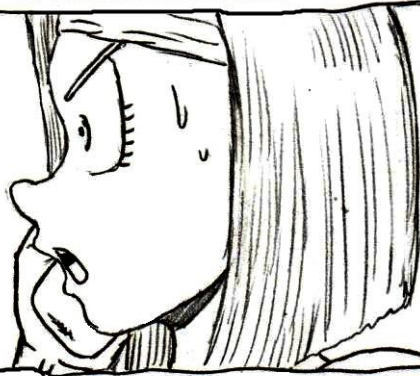

As of right now, the deadly radioactive cloud has grown considerably and gamma numbers are still climbing.

I'm really worried about this. So tell you what... I'll start looking for the dragon balls with Trunks.

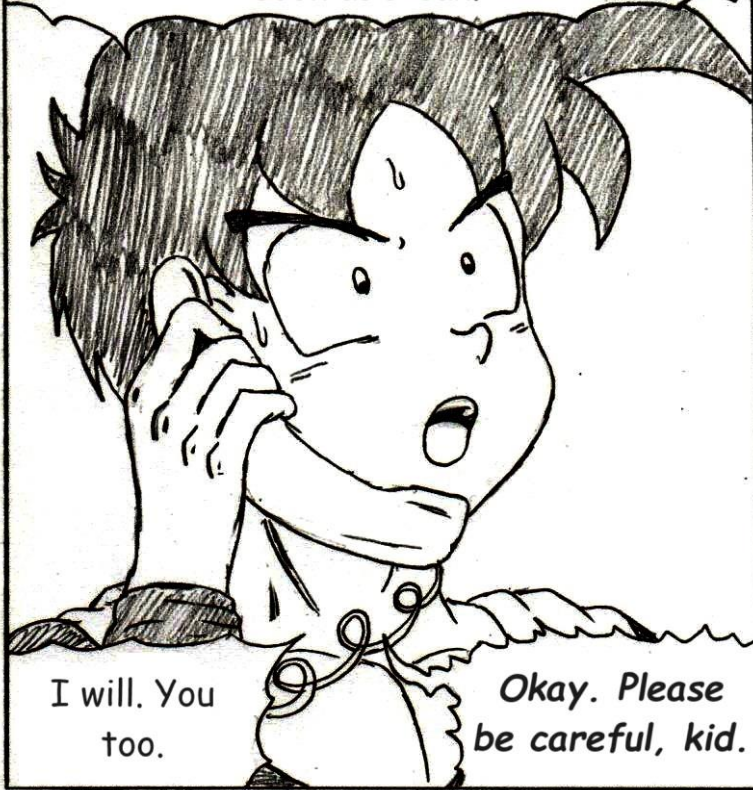

You can meet us out in the wild wherever we are headed next.

This radiation cloud might be coming from a crashed nuclear powered vehicle or a foreign space object that's spilling fumes at an uncontrolled rate.

If it gets any larger, we're gonna need to ask Shenron to get rid of it. So we can't summon him just yet.

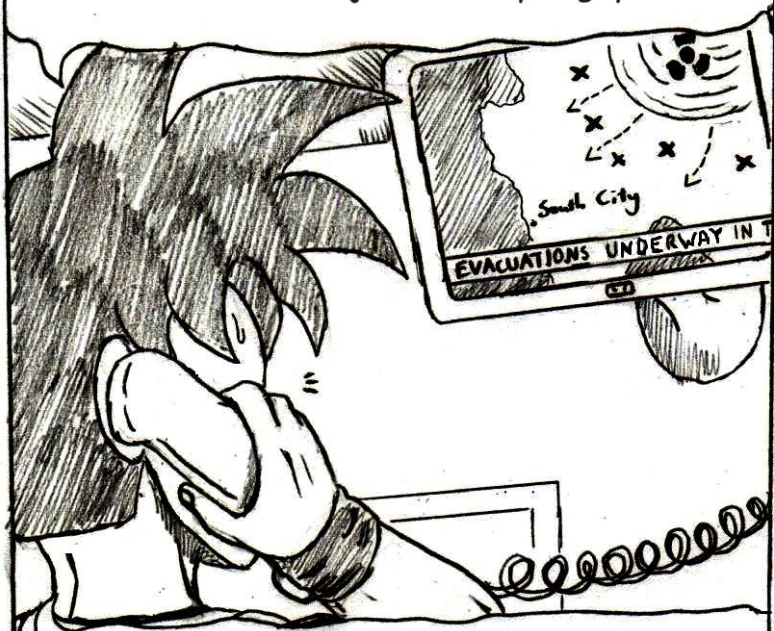

Alright. I'll meet up with you guys as soon as I can.

I will. You too.

Okay. Please be careful, kid.

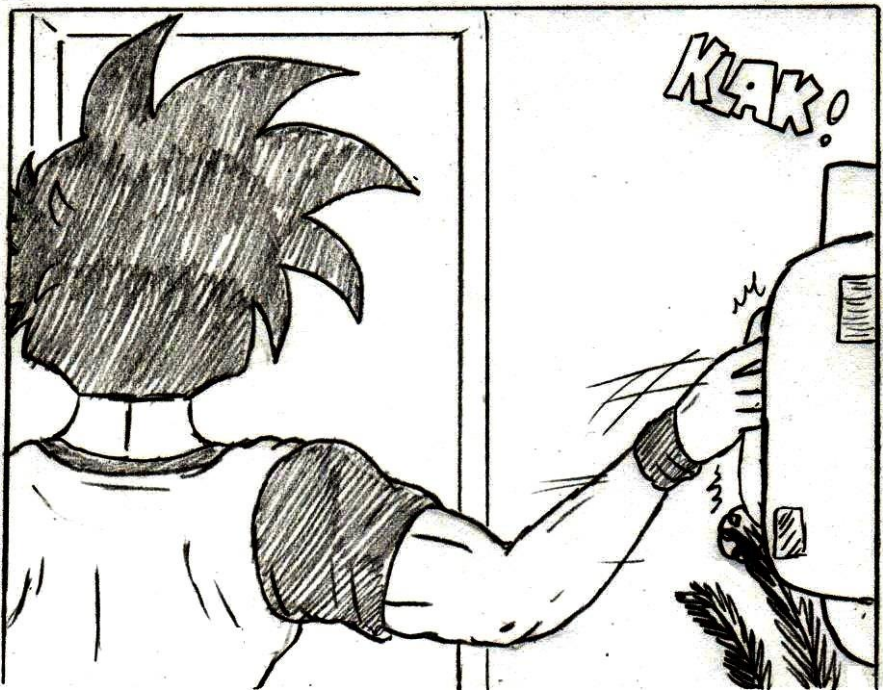

Hmm... alright. I can easily sense wherever Trunks is... so I can just track you guys down.

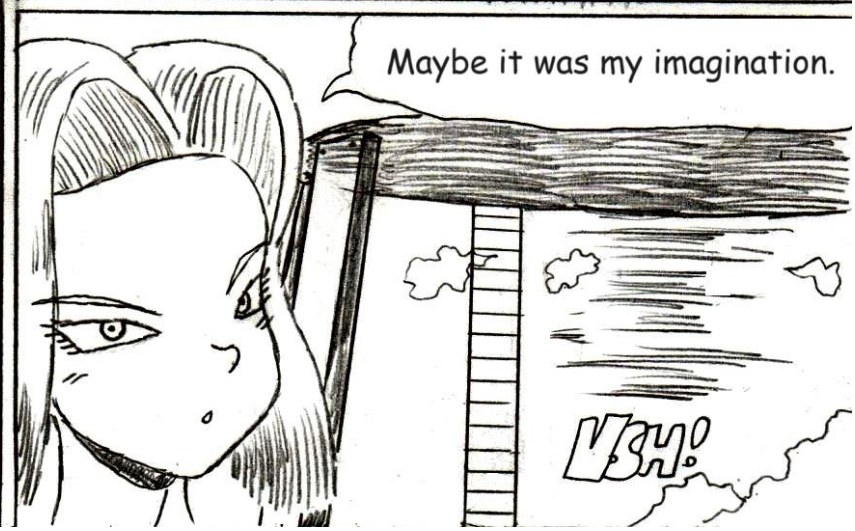

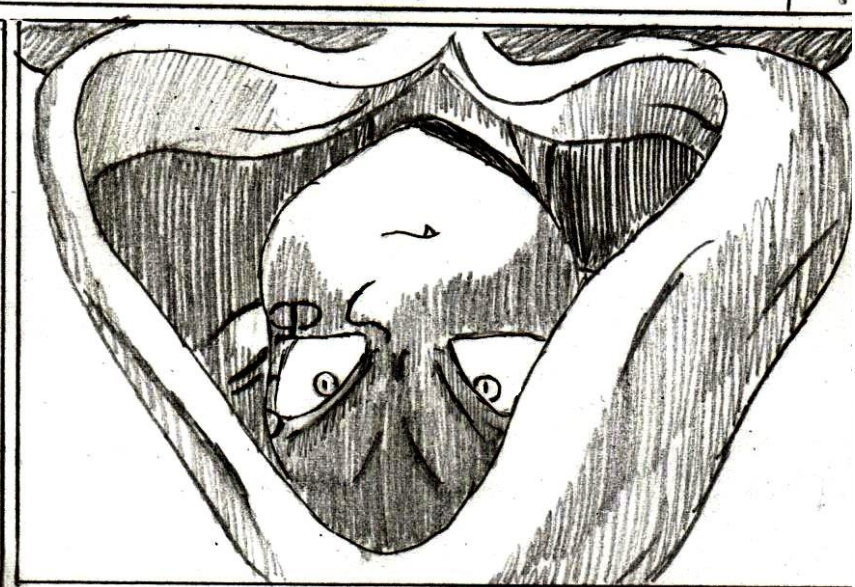

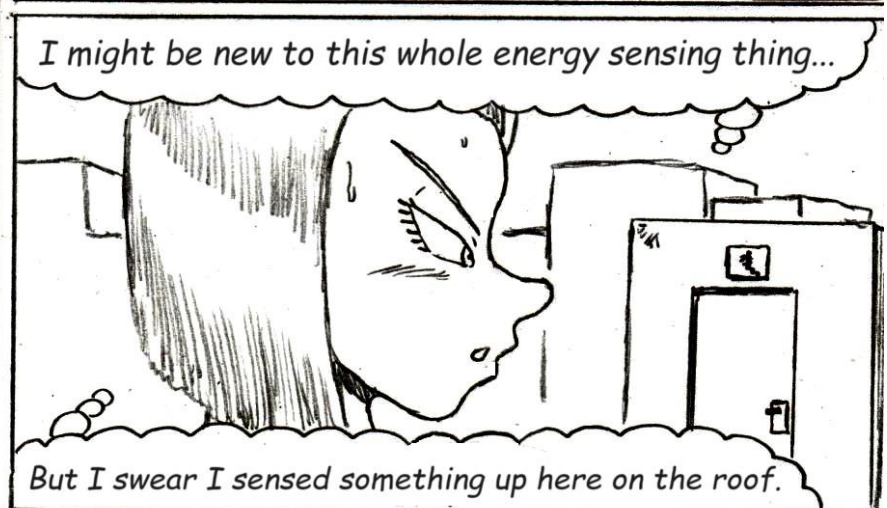

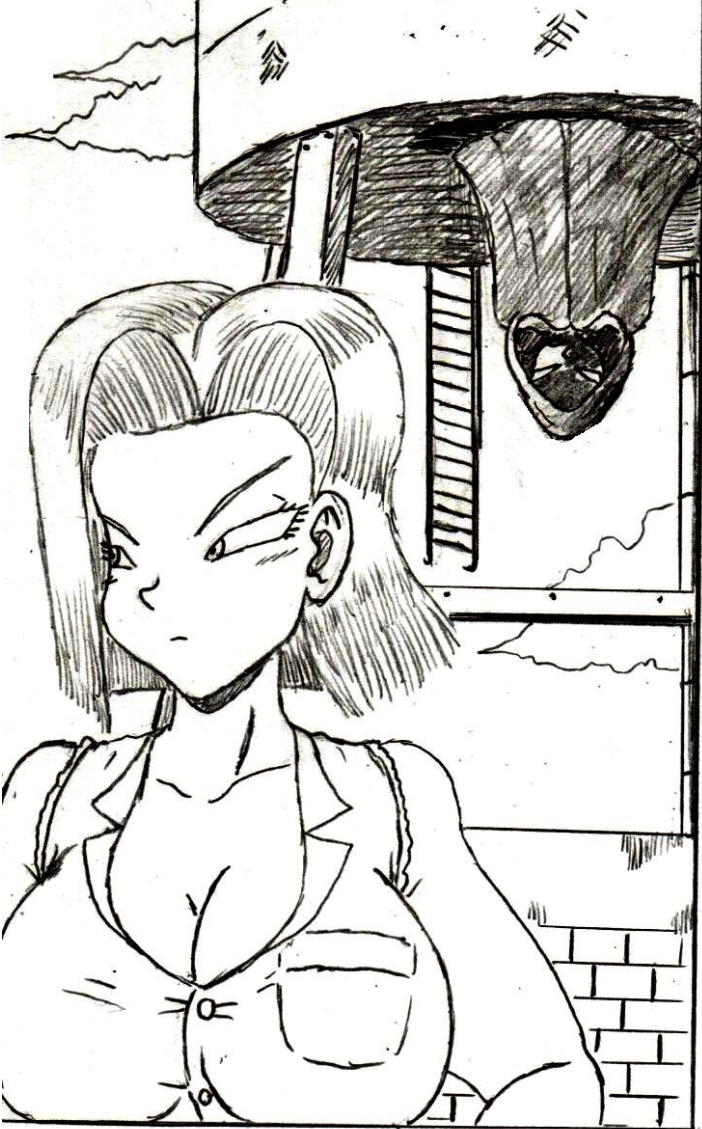

Yikes. I can see why this is becoming a problem. Radioactive fallout is no joke.

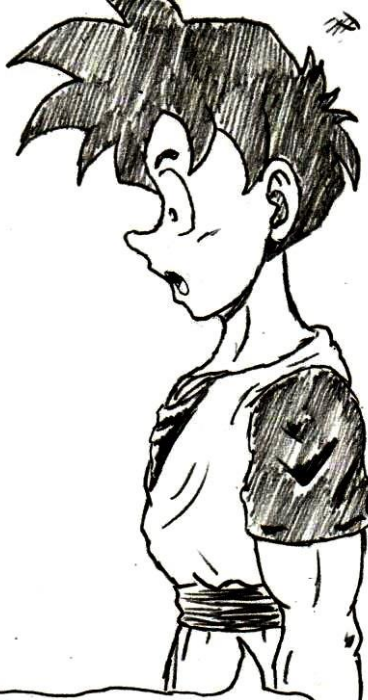

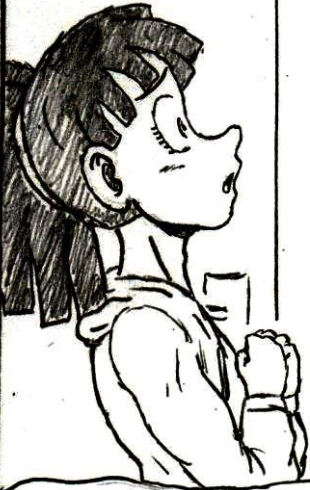

I've got a bad feeling about this.

Did you manage to contact Bulma?

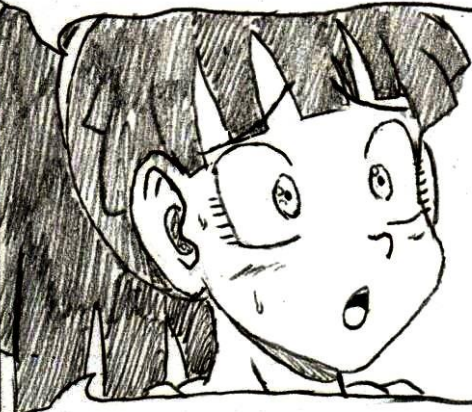

Yeah. She said she'll go looking for the dragon balls.

Oh. Gohan-kun.

Tp!

The radiation scare? Yeah. I just saw that on the television in mum's room.

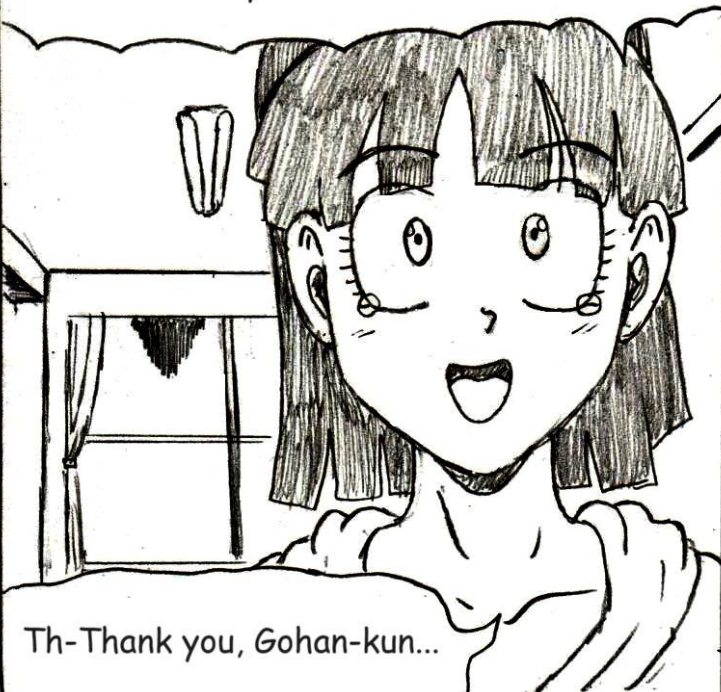

Will you be able to use the dragon's power to stop it's spread?

I'll be joining her and Trunks to help in the search.

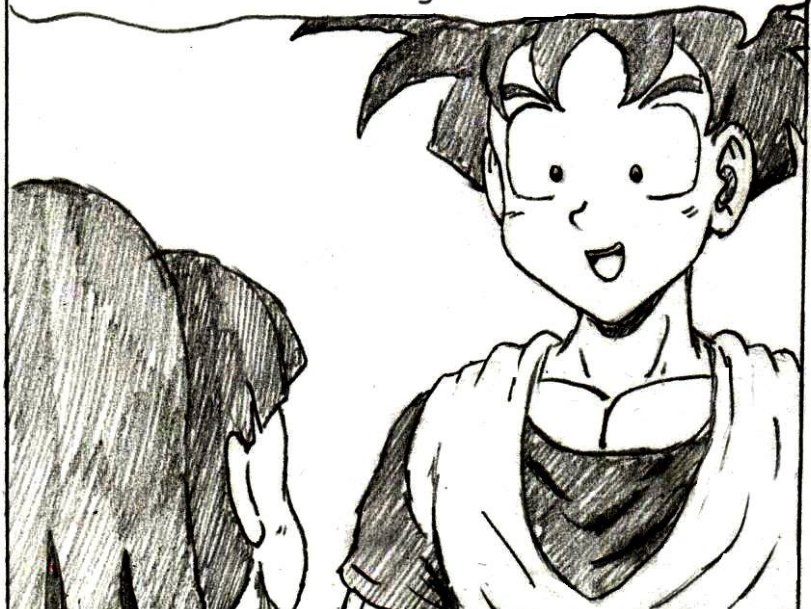

Apparently there is something really bad going on that will require Shenron's magic to fix.

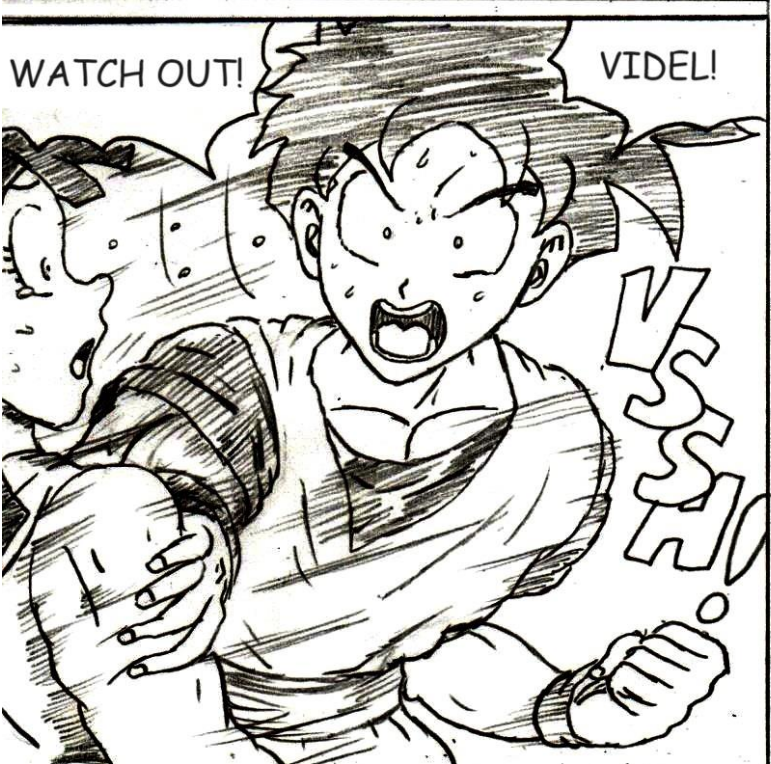

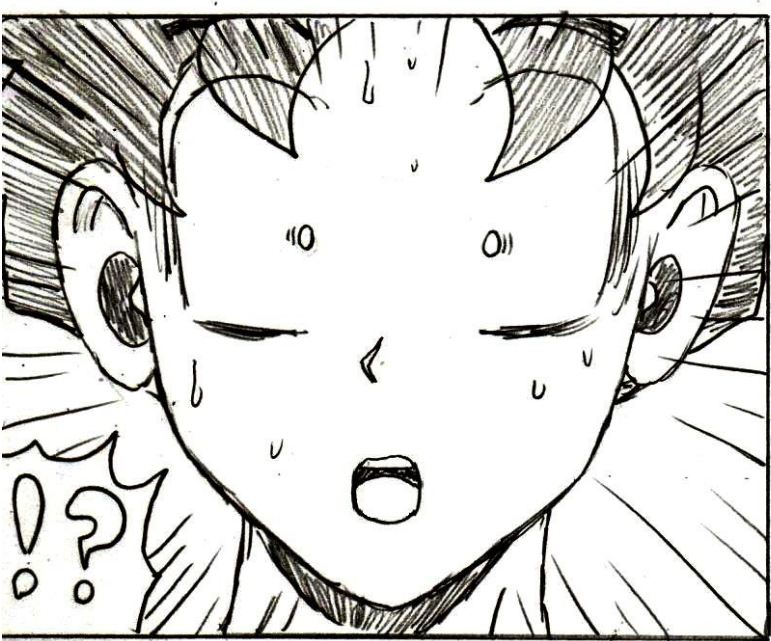

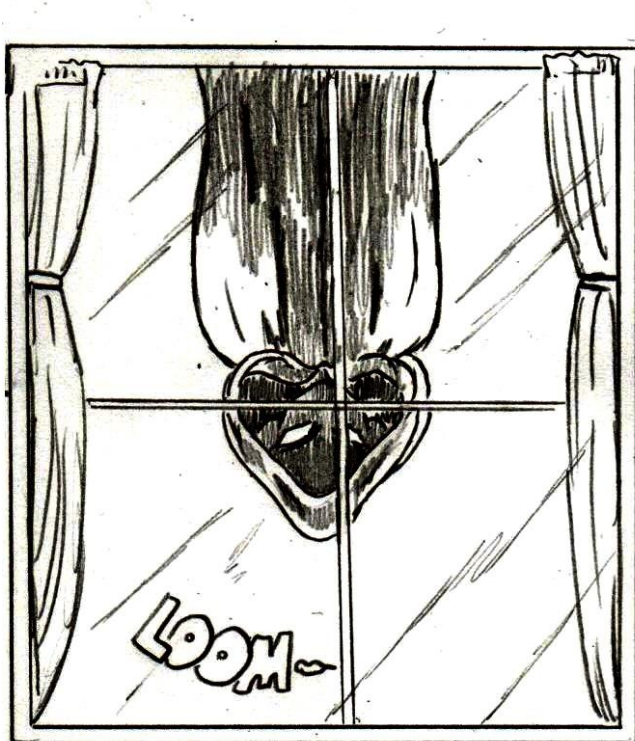

That... would be amazing! That means mum will finally be able to come home!

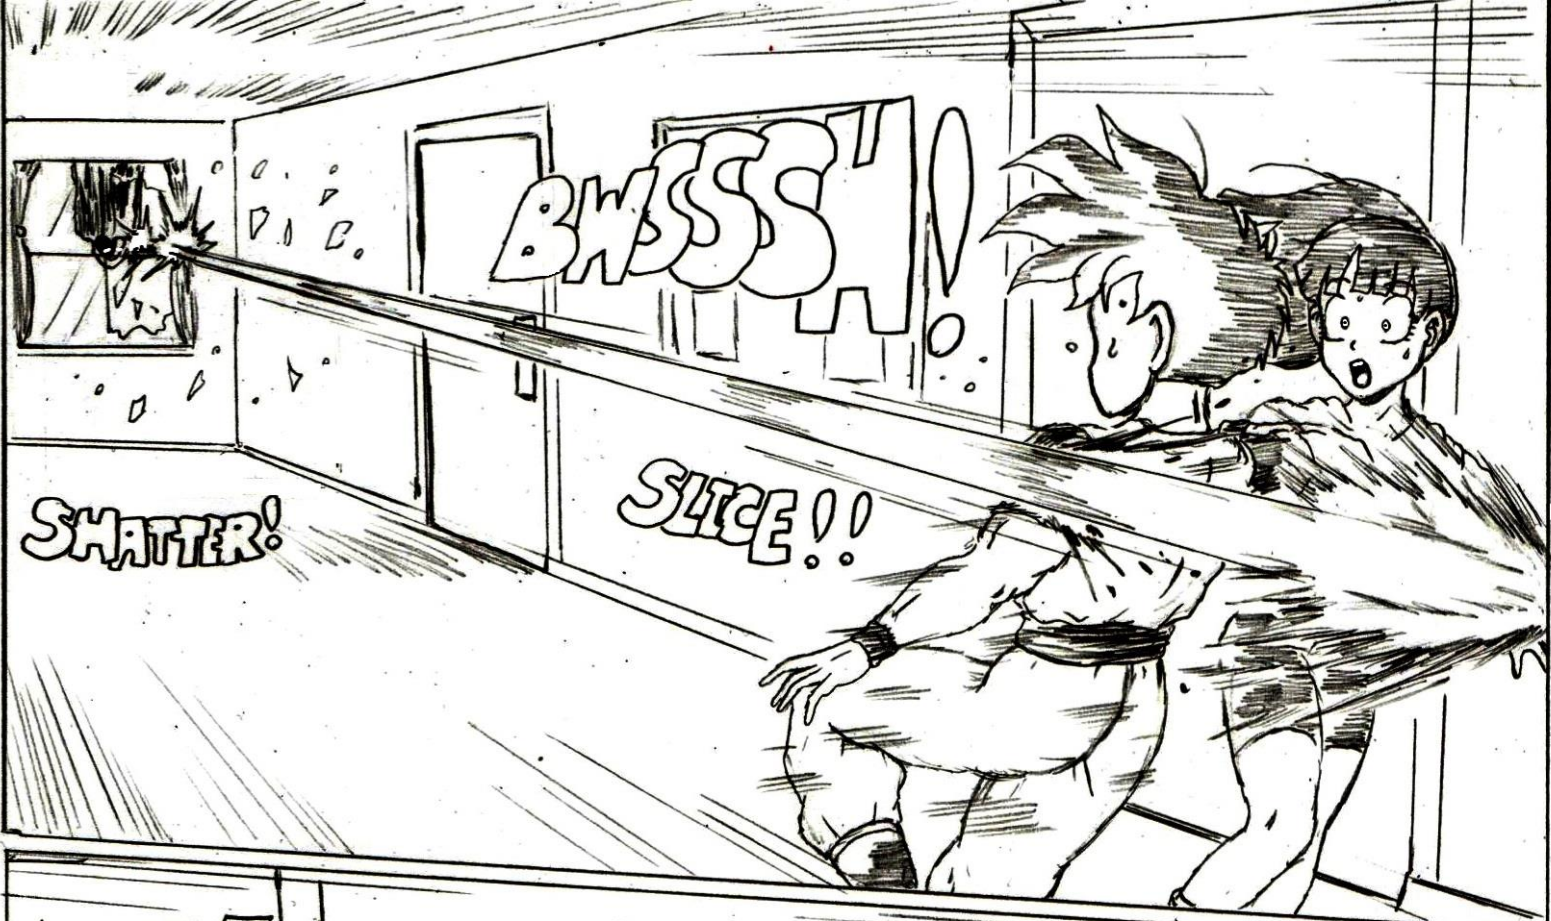

Th-Thank you, Gohan-kun...

Yeah. Don't worry. Shenron can grant a total of three wishes. That means I'll be able to use one of them to cure your mum's cancer and make sure she's as good as new.
