

Batgirl chased Harley Quinn from rooftop to rooftop, trying to get the woman to stop running away from her. However, the other woman had no problem with making sure she played 'keep away' with the hero but when she heard Batgirl's small cry of 'shit', she realized that the woman had missed the ledge. Before Harley Quinn could become too concerned about the hero, Batgirl started to roll her way down, bouncing off the fire escapes. Harley Quinn would have been worried if she didn't find the way Batgirl had started to tumble hilariously in the first place. Eventually, she heard Batgirl land in a pile of trash, and after waiting for a few moments to pass, Harley Quinn decided to check up on her. When Batgirl heard Harley Quinn's footsteps pitter-patter, she hoped that the villain wasn't going to make things worse.

However, when Harley noticed how banged up the rookie hero looked aside from that, the younger woman seemed to be okay. Harley couldn't help but cackle at the way Batgirl was presenting herself at the moment. "If you do make the headlines for tomorrow, people would be wondering how Batman trained such a clumsy sidekick," Harley couldn't help but smirk at the words, knowing they had the intended effect as Batgirl glared at her. "What's the matter, Babs? Afraid to face the truth that Batman doesn't need you," even though the woman was groggy, that didn't mean she couldn't make out what Harley was saying. She could understand everything Harley was saying and she hated that she was starting to believe. She doesn't speak for me. And despite Batgirl wanting to think positively, her bottom lip had begun to wobble, and she Batgirl knew she had to pretend her feelings weren't hurt. Still, as she tried to get most of the trash off of her suit, it had taken Batgirl a bit too long to see that she was being surrounded by a group of boys, as she was still groggy.

Everything was still shaking as Barbara felt her outfit get ripped off her body at every angle the boys could think of. Harley never left, letting her gaze roam around everyone, especially Barbara as the woman continued to be stripped down by the little boys. However, when she started to realize how hung the boys were, Harley couldn't help but smirk at the sight, knowing Barbara was about to be in for a very rough time in her life. However, she wanted to see if she could make anyone laugh despite what was happening to Barbara at the moment. "They're so huge, you could see them from space!" Harley said from where she was but before Barbara could even question what she was even talking about, she realized it when one of the boys slammed his cock down her throat with no warning to Barbara at all.

Barbara couldn't help but choke on how fat the boy's cock was. At first, she assumed Harley's words to have been nonsense but as the boy continued to slam his cock down her throat, Barbara realized that the woman was trying to make sure she was prepared for what would happen, right? It didn't matter that it didn't explain that Harley could easily stop the boys from what they were doing to Barbara but she was merely watching. However, Barbara couldn't stop to think about it some more when another boy took Barbara from the first boy and started to stuff her mouth with his large dick. The boy moaned at the immediate warmth around his cock and he couldn't help but started thrusting his hips forward, fucking the woman's mouth roughly. Barbara screamed out a moan as the boy continued to thrust inside her mouth.

However, before Barbara could get used to what was happening, Harley started looking even more interested in what was happening. Once she noticed that one of the boys had his raging cock free, she found herself looking even closer at the sight. "Brace yourself! WHAM!" She couldn't help but giggle when the boy pushed his entire length at her words, causing Barbara to snap her eyes open as she screamed while getting her face fucked by a boy whose cock was bigger than she expected.

Barbara squirmed but nothing could help her escape from the clutches of the boys as he enjoyed thrusting both inside her cunt and mouth. Barbara was getting two of her holes fucked and even though Harley couldn't tear her eyes away from the sight, Barbara was glad that she was being watched by at least one person she knew, even though she was making jokes at her expense. "Who knew you could take dick so well, Babs?" Harley asked, causing Barbara to wish she could sneer at the woman but as the boys continued to go to town with her body, Barbara found her brain melting due to the pleasure she was getting from the boys. When one of the boys finally let her throat have a break, it seemed that the boys weren't going to let her get a break as she couldn't help but scream at everything that was happening.

"How do we shut her up?" One of the boys asked and one of them reached over to place his hand around her mouth, causing Harley to laugh at the foolish attempt to keep the heroine quiet.

"For a loudmouth like her, you had the right idea earlier," Harley reminded the boys of Barbara choking on their cocks and she couldn't help but sneer at the woman when she glared at her. "Keep her mouth jammed with your cocks, you doofuses," Harley told them, and without further conversation, one of the boys did push his cock into the woman's throat, causing Barbara to moan at the sensation. It didn't matter that she wasn't enjoying it; all that mattered was that Barbara couldn't do anything to escape from what was happening. The woman wanted to prove that she had a handle on things but now that she couldn't get herself out of the situation she was in, it just made the woman realize that she had been trying to fly too close to the sun.

She wasn't Batman and Barbara knew that the quicker she accepted that, she would probably have not been in such a predicament in the first place. She had wanted to become a hero too fast and look where that had gotten her: in a situation where Harley Quinn was doing nothing except adding unneeded commentary over what was happening to her. Damn it. She couldn't help but think. She couldn't help but glare up at the woman, who couldn't hide how amused she was by the situation. Barbara was getting fucked by a group of boys all because she didn't want to stop pursuing her. "You know what, Babs? I can't even get mad at you. You're giving me a free show," she said with a smirk. Barbara wanted to glare at her even more but another boy took the place of the boy who had just pulled his cock from her mouth.

Not even giving her a moment to breathe, Barbara was suddenly stuffed with another large cock while her body continued to shudder as the boys continued to take turns with her pussy and her mouth. They wanted to keep enjoying the heroine and Barbara grunted at the sensation. She wanted to fight back against the group of kids but because of the things they had been doing to her already, Barbara had no strength to use against the boys. The woman whimpered and that was when she took notice of Harley, who was still there, watching the boys do whatever they wanted to do to the woman. Barbara wanted to get angry but she knew that the boys' actions were simply going to burn it away. She couldn't remain mad because she knew Harley had been right in the first place.

The boys were only fucking her because she wanted to prove that she could be the new Batman, even though she had been coined 'Batgirl'. I can't be Batman because Batman was the best of the best. I'm not at that level yet. Barbara knew she was good as Batgirl but she also knew that Batman wasn't just good. He was the best. Before she could think about it even more, she could hear Harley's commentary once again.

"Her pussy is tightening around the cock!" Barbara couldn't help but roll her eyes at how silly Harley was but she was happy it was keeping the clown woman out of trouble. As long as she's not being too crazy without me being around to catch her. Barbara didn't even care that Harley wasn't stopping what was happening; she knew Harley wasn't going to stop what was amusing to her and right now, her getting humiliated was Harley's entertainment. Barbara didn't care how fucked it sounded in her brain. All she cared about was that Harley was staying right there without needing to be told to. Why do I want to call her a good girl when I am too busy getting fucked to even move? Barbara couldn't believe herself, not even focusing on how roughly a boy had been fucking her mouth.

Truthfully, the only thing Barbara had been able to feel was her pussy getting filled by the boys' cocks. I'm so glad they're not tearing me apart but still! Barbara knew she shouldn't focus on getting fucked by the group of boys but she knew that the boys weren't going to let her do anything else until they were finished with using her. Barbara knew that the boys weren't going to be done any time soon, which was why they continued to thrust inside her pussy and her mouth. They wanted to keep going with fucking the woman and luckily for her, she wasn't going to be the only one who was taking the boys' cocks. When Barbara heard Harley scream, she couldn't help but dart her eyes towards the woman, and even though Barbara couldn't believe that Harley looked as if she was going to enjoy what the boys were going to do to her, Barbara knew she couldn't say anything.

She has yet to even move away from the group of the boys and now that they had involved Harley, Barbara knew she would have to deal with the woman's commentary whenever they weren't fucking her mouth. "Hey there, how are you?" Harley asked if she hadn't been making fun of Barbara getting fucked by the group of boys for a while now. When Barbara glared at her, Harley shrugged her shoulders.

"Come on, lighten up, Babs. C'mon, boys, Mama's horny as fuck!" The boys weren't shocked at how ready and willing Harley was. Instead, they were quick to strip the woman, knowing she was excited to feel them inside her mouth and pussy. Once Harley was naked, she felt a large cock between her lips and when she felt a large cock slip inside her cunt, Harley couldn't help but moan at the sensation, her eyes nearly rolling at the sensation. It didn't matter that the boy had just pushed his dick inside her pussy. All that mattered was that Harley had been horny and she hadn't been lying to anyone about that. Wait, was she feeling horny because she didn't leave when the boys started to fuck me? Barbara found it very strange that the villain hadn't wanted to leave simply because she had been horny but now that Barbara was watching Harley get fucked in the same way she was getting fucked, she knew she couldn't say anything. I don't even know what to say or to think. Barbara hated that her body was heating up, knowing that it was because of the way the pleasure was building up inside her.

"You look like you're about to cum, Babs," Barbara looked over at the woman in shock, not realizing that the boy who had been fucking her throat had removed himself already. "What? You're the one screaming like you're getting murdered," Harley shrugged her shoulders once more, causing Barbara to glare at her and she started to retort something, forgetting she had one of the boys' cock in her mouth. The boy moaned at the sensation and started to roll his hips, pushing his cock even deeper inside Barbara's mouth.

Because the woman had been getting adjusting to having her throat fucked, she was getting used to relaxing her throat so the boy could keep fucking her mouth without her feeling any pain from it. However, Barbara knew Harley was sneering at her and she darted her eyes at the woman, who couldn't help the laugh that caused her chest to rumble. The boy who was thrusting inside Harley looked into the woman's eyes and she waved him off, letting him know that it wasn't anything he was doing. "I'm a clown. I laugh at everything," she explained, causing the boy to go back to thrusting inside her as if there wasn't anything holding him back from thrusting inside the woman in the first place. Barbara had lost count of how many boys have fucked her already but she knew they were going to keep going, knowing that the group had split into a small group of two. She was entertaining one group while Harley was entertaining the other.

However, Barbara's body started to tense up, catching Harley's attention as she couldn't help but pay more attention to the way Barbara's stomach was tightening. "She's about the blow, boys," as soon as Harley said those words, Barbara couldn't help but start cumming on the cock of the boy who was still fucking her while Harley gave her a small smirk. "Well, well, look at that, your body is getting used to the way these boys are treating you," Barbara didn't have any strength to glare at the clown woman, knowing she was right. Barbara knew that the time to have stopped the boys had been earlier and she hadn't done that. However, the woman knew she was happy that she wasn't the only one getting fucked by the group of boys. As much as she wished it wasn't Harley, she knew that the woman's commentary helped with the situation. Leave it to Harley to find the joy in whatever fucked-up thing she finds herself into. Barbara didn't know how the woman did it but she was sure she wouldn't enjoy the answer so she never asked the questions she had wanted to know the answers to.

Soon, Barbara started to focus on the boy who started to slam his cock down her throat as soon as the other boy moved out of the way. The woman nearly choked on the boy's cock while Harley looked over at the sight, seeing the tears in Barbara's eyes. "You're supposed to getting pleasure not trying to kill her," Harley told the boy, who realized Barbara hadn't been ready for him and he started to slow the thrusting of his hips, not wanting to make the woman pass out due to a lack of oxygen. Barbara looked over at the jester woman, who had already turned her attention back to the boy who was fucking her. However, when Barbara looked away from the woman, Harley darted her eyes back to the hero with a small smile. "Alright, big boy, give me what you got!" The woman showed the boy who was thrusting inside her a wide grin and the boy started to fuck the woman even harder than ever before. "That's it," Harley cheered, wanting to feel the boy's cock getting pushed deep inside her cunt.

Barbara rolled her eyes at the woman's cheering but when the boy who was thrusting inside her started to roll his hips just a bit faster, she had half a mind to tell him to slow down but she kept her mouth closed, seeing that there wasn't anything she could say to make sure that the boy wasn't going to keep fucking into her like a madman. However, Barbara refused to admit that she was enjoying what was happening. She was a hero; she couldn't enjoy such pleasures and yet, Barbara knew her body was going to choose for her as she couldn't help but moan on the cock of a boy who was slowly fucking her mouth. The boy who was thrusting inside her pussy started to increase the pace of his hips even more and Barbara wasn't sure what to do with the steadily growing sensation. The only thing she was sure about was that the boys were done with both her and Harley soon.

Harley continued to moan and actively increase how hard the boys were treating her because she was enjoying it. Barbara, however, wanted the small group of boys that were fucking her to stop. However, the woman knew it would be a while before the boys would want to completely stop. She was sure that the small groups would swap the women they were using once they were ready to go for the other woman. Oh shit. Barbara had forgotten about that. Not all of the boys had gone for her since they had decided to add Harley to the fun. The ones that are fucking Harley was going to want to fuck me next. Barbara wasn't sure how she felt about that and yet, when she gulped, the boy who was slowly fucking her mouth moaned at the sensation.

Barbara blinked, knowing she needed to remember her surroundings. I need to keep myself in control. Barbara knew she couldn't keep herself in control if she kept forgetting what she was doing at the moment. I need to keep focusing on what is happening. Barbara wanted her eyes on the boys that were fucking her and Harley and despite wanting to keep herself in control, Barbara could feel nothing but the overwhelming pleasure she continued to receive from the boys. The young woman didn't want the boys to keep using her body for their pleasure and despite how she felt about it, Barbara knew she couldn't do anything to stop the group of boys. It didn't help that Harley had been dragged into the mess and she was moaning at the actions of the boys as they kept using her two holes.

Barbara wished she didn't have to hear such slutty moans from Harley's lips, not wanting to have the same reaction as the woman. Damn it! The woman thought in frustration, hating that she couldn't keep Harley's moans from sounding in her ears. It didn't matter that the woman was getting fucked by the group of boys who were also fucking her; what mattered was that Harley seemed to be enjoying what was happening. Barbara continued to grunt and forcibly moan as the boys continued to fuck her mouth and cunt. F-fuck! Barbara wanted the boys to stop fucking her and just focus on Harley. However, the thought immediately made Barbara feel ashamed. I shouldn't wish for them to keep fucking Harley. Barbara grunted as the boys continued to roughly thrust inside her mouth and her cunt.

"This one is so tight," Barbara hated the way her cunt tightened at the words because the boy was talking about Harley's cunt. Why am I tightening about that boy's dick? The woman wanted to question what was happening but she couldn't as the boys continued to thrust inside her mouth and cunt.

"Wait a minute, did you grow even wetter at those words about your friend?" The boy was thrusting inside her cunt wildly and he started to thrust even harder inside Barbara's pussy, knowing he was going to keep making the woman cum on his cock. The group of boys continued to have their way with Barbara and Harley, knowing they weren't going to stop anytime soon.

Harley was enjoying the boys that kept using her holes and she wanted them to keep going, knowing she was going to keep cumming for as long as the boys wanted her to. "You boys are doing so fucking awesome!" Harley wanted to keep praising the boys, knowing that they were going to keep fucking her for as long as they wanted. Fuck! Harley was enjoying the pleasure she was receiving from the boys and she wanted them to keep using her.

Harley looked over at Barbara, who was not enjoying what was happening. It would be even more fun if she was enjoying this madness alongside me. Harley wanted Barbara to let loose and enjoy what was happening, knowing that she wasn't going to be able to stop what was happening. "Come on, Babs, you can't stop this!" Harley couldn't help but giggle at everything that was happening. Harley was enjoying the boys being fucked by the group of boys, knowing that the boys were going to keep going until they drained themselves all over the woman and even inside her. Harley continued to enjoy having her holes used as she enjoyed sucking off the many boys that wanted to use her mouth while the other boys busied themselves with her pussy.

Barbara didn't have to look over at Harley to know that the woman was enjoying the madness of what was happening. All she had to do was listen to the other woman's moans. She is seriously enjoying this. Barbara couldn't believe that the woman was moaning at the sensation of the way the boys' cocks were making her feel. However, Barbara knew she couldn't say anything as her mouth was being fucked by the boys who continued to slam their cocks down Barbara's throat, making sure that the woman couldn't do anything about what they were doing. The hero didn't like that she was moaning but she knew that the boys weren't going to do anything else to her and Harley. The only thing the large group of boys wanted to do was fuck the two women and they were getting what they wanted so there was no need to do extra things.

Harley was enjoying the things the boys were doing and she couldn't help but moan as the boys continued to thrust inside her mouth and cunt. Soon, Harley was swallowing down another load of cum from a different boy as her body shuddered at the sensation. Holy shit! The woman thought, closing her eyes at the pleasure she was getting from the boys as they kept switching with each other, wanting to fuck the cute, blonde-haired clown. When the woman felt a new large cock slip inside her mouth, Harley didn't waste any time as she immediately started sucking on the boy's cock. She was welcoming all of the madness that was surrounding her and Barbara, hoping that the girl noticing how she was taking things would help her accept what was happening. Harley continued to moan at feeling the boy slam his cock against the back of her throat, causing her to gag as another boy kept thrusting inside her cunt roughly, wanting to fuck the woman with everything in him and Harley wanted to feel how roughly the boys could thrust their hips. Harley could hear Barbara's grunts which still sounded not pleased and she turned her head to see that she wasn't happy with having her body be used and groped by the boys that were enjoying the things they were doing to her.

Harley rolled her eyes at the sight, wondering when she was going to become less uptight. How is she still so uptight when she has been getting fucked longer than I have? Harley wished she could understand Barbara, knowing that there was no need for her to be that uptight. There is no way her pussy is still tight with how long the boys have been fucking her. Harley moaned as she continued to suck the cock of the boy that was still fucking her face. She felt her cunt tighten around the cock that was still thrusting inside her as the boy moaned at the sensation. At least, these boys are easy to please. Harley didn't have to try so hard to get the boys hard. I am not surprised they are still hard. The woman knew she was going to be having fun for quite some time.

Barbara's angry grunts made Harley look over at her and scoff. Pulling her lips from the boy's cock, she decided to say something. "Can you boys stuff her even more? She's distracting me," she said, causing Barbara to send her a glare. "What? I can't concentrate when you're over there growling and what not," Harley told her as she went back to sucking on the boy's cock, wanting to get back doing what she had been doing before. Barbara blinked when she realized Harley was ignoring her to give into the madness of what was happening. She's ignoring me now! Before she could get too angry, the boy that had been going slow with her started to thrust even more of his cock down her throat.

The boy that was thrusting inside her cunt started to shove his cock inside her, causing Barbara's breath to get caught as her two holes were getting stuffed with the boys' cocks. For a few moments, the girl choked on the cock that continued to hit the back of her throat as the boy kept fucking her face. Soon, she started to get used to it as the boy didn't slow down for anything in the world. Barbara felt the cock of the boy that kept ramming inside her pussy. Both of the boys were fucking her as roughly as they could and the pleasure she was feeling from the boys' actions made Barbara's eyes water at how rough they were being. They wanted her to keep feeling nothing except their cocks and Barbara wasn't sure how she was supposed to survive more than two boys when they changed up how they were fucking her. She had gotten used to them not being so rough with her but now, they were using her without care of the fact that she could break at any given moment.

The group of boys continued to have fun as Harley continued to suck off the boy that continued to fuck her face roughly. Finally, I don't have to hear her complaints. Harley was pleased she couldn't hear Barbara's angry grunts anymore as she focused on the pleasure she was getting from the boys. Her cunt tightened around the boy's cock as he started to twitch inside the woman's pussy. "Don't cum too quickly," she warned before going back to slurping and sucking the boy off, wanting to keep feeling the power of the boy's thrusts inside her before cumming. "Fuck me harder," Harley added and the boy started to snap his hips forward, smacking his hips against hers, causing the woman to look pleased as she went back to sucking the other boy's cock. She wanted the boys to keep fucking her as roughly as they could, knowing she would enjoy it.

She glanced over at Barbara, whose eyes were wide as the boys continued to treat her roughly as they kept slamming their cocks against the holes they had picked hard, wanting to keep using Barbara. The boys could hear the older girl's grunts whenever they pulled back, only to keep giving her rough thrusts, wanting to keep fucking Barbara the way they were told to do. Barbara's angry grunts barely affected them as they kept thrusting inside her mouth and her cunt as they wanted to keep the older girl entertained with the things they were doing to her. Soon, they started to cum and Barbara's body tensed at the sensation as she swallowed down the cum that had been spilled in her mouth.

The cum that was inside her cunt started to leak as she whimpered at the sensation but as the two boys continued to use Barbara's holes, the older girl was shocked that they still had so much energy left. Where do they get it from? Barbara knew that the two boys shouldn't have so much energy left in their bodies, especially after the things they had done to her. They're more energetic than I am and I'm the hero! Barbara wanted to know where the boys got such energy. "You've been quiet," Harley had been pleased by the silence but now that the boys were ready to switch who they were fucking, Harley wanted to make sure Barbara was doing good. "Are you still alive over there?" She asked, causing Barbara to snarl at the woman, causing Harley to laugh at how angry Barbara was. "Listen, honey, you can stay mad but I am making sure you're able to work off all of that anger you're feeling," she told Barbara, who was not happy with the situation.

However, there was nothing else she could do when the group of boys switched, leaving Barbara with the ones who enjoyed being rough as soon as they started. I had an easy start, huh? She thought, opening her mouth to say something to the group of boys. However, as soon as she opened her mouth, one of the boys slipped his cock inside the girl's mouth while another boy pushed his cock inside her cunt, wanting to start fucking the woman as soon as possible. When Barbara felt the boy's large cock slip inside her pussy, she wailed around the cock of the boy that wanted to fuck her face. The two boys didn't wait for the woman to adjust as they immediately started to fuck the woman, making sure to stuff her mouth and her cunt, wanting to make sure Barbara felt nothing but forced pleasure. "Look at her, boys, and it's thanks to you that you helped her get used to how big you are," Harley told the boys that had fucked Barbara and she eagerly took one boy inside her cunt and another cock inside her mouth, wanting to help the boys receive more pleasure, knowing they had to focus on breaking Barbara the best way they could.

Harley continued to enjoy what was happening to her as she moaned and made sure her spit was on the cock of the boy that was fucking her face. After a few moments of sucking, she pulled back to keep talking to the group of boys. "Come on, boys, you can do better than that!" The woman was eager to feel the boys' heavy thrusts, wanting them to fuck her as roughly as Barbara was getting from the boys that surrounded her. The superhero couldn't do much complaining as the boys made sure her holes were filled with their cocks as they wanted to keep using the girl.

Barbara didn't know how to feel as whimpers fell from her lips. The boys continued to roughly thrust inside her cunt and mouth as the boys wanted to keep feeling the girl's holes around their cocks. "Look at you, Babs! You're doing your best to take all of them, ain't cha?" Harley asked with a smirk on her face as she started to suck on the side of the boy's cock, keeping her eyes on Barbara as the girl couldn't do anything to get out of the position she had been put into as the boys kept thrusting inside the holes they had chosen to use. "Fuck her throat just like that!" Harley told the boy who was fucking Barbara's mouth as roughly as he could. Harley wanted to see the bulge of the boy's cock down the girl's throat and she got what she wanted when the boy started to pump Barbara's throat with his cock, letting Harley see the imprint of his bulge as he kept fucking the girl's mouth, wanting to keep feeling the girl's tongue against his cock. He didn't care the girl wasn't using her tongue; he only cared that he could feel Barbara's tongue rubbing against his cock as he moaned at the sensation.

The boy that was thrusting inside Barbara's pussy enjoyed the sensation as the girl started to tighten around his cock and he kept fucking into the girl, not wanting to stop. He wanted to keep feeling the older girl's cunt around his cock. "Fuck!" The boy grunted as he kept slamming his hips into Barbara's hips, feeling a lot of pleasure as he kept moaning at the sensation of the girl's cunt tightening around his cock. So tight! He thought as he kept thrusting inside her. While he and the boy that was still fucking Barbara's throat continued to have fun, the rest of the boys watched the scene while Harley continued to pleasure the boys that surrounded her.

"Come on in, big boy! Show Harley what you got," she grinned at a different boy whose cock was just as big as the rest of the boys, and yet when Harley felt the boy slip his cock inside her cunt, she could tell that her pussy had been making sure that she was able to take all of the dicks so far. "Keep stuffing me," Harley wanted the boy to give her all of his inches and when the boy slammed his hips against hers, Harley nearly choked as the boy's powerful thrust made his cock fit in one shove of his hips.

"How is that?" He asked, not wasting any time as he immediately started fucking the woman, wanting to make Harley moan as she continued to feel his cock inside her pussy. They're all so big! Harley thought as she started sucking on another boy's cock. She had stopped focusing on Barbara for the time being. Harley could tell that she was still twitching so she was still alive.

Harley started to enjoy the pleasure she was getting from the boys so after she realized Barbara was still alive, the woman continued to let herself feel nothing pleasure as she moaned around the boy's cock, causing his cock to twitch inside her mouth. If Harley could have smirked, she would have. Except, she was only able to motion with her eyebrows as she let the boy know that she wanted him to cum down her throat. When the boy realized what the woman wanted him to do, he started to fuck her throat even harder, causing Harley to choke and sputter on the boy's cock as moans continued to fall from her lips as the boy that was thrusting inside her cock made her feel nothing but pleasure. She could feel nothing but pleasure as she enjoyed the boy's cock as he kept fucking inside her. He didn't mind not being gentle after seeing that Harley wanted him to fuck her like he meant it.

While Harley was enjoying the madness she was in, Barbara was still protesting as much as she could even though she couldn't stop the group of boys from taking what they wanted from her. The girl didn't want the boys to keep fucking her holes and she knew she would have to wait until they were pleased, knowing she couldn't do anything to stop them in the current position she was in. Barbara whimpered as the boys continued to stuff her cunt and her mouth, wanting to keep fucking the woman as roughly as they could. Barbara knew she should try harder to stop the boys however, something started to happen as the girl continued to whimper and moan for the group of boys. Barbara's head started to swim with nothing but pleasure as she started to feel her brain melting due to the relentless pleasure she had been getting from the boys.

She didn't want the boys to stop fucking her and soon, Barbara was moaning, and her struggling turned into pleasure-induced bodily sway as she wanted the boys to keep using her. "Please...More..." Barbara begged when the boy that was fucking her throat pulled out to let another boy take his place after he cummed on her tongue. "Fuck me..." The girl begged some more and not wanting the girl to wait, another boy pushed his cock inside her cunt, causing Barbara to moan at the sensation. He didn't waste any time as he immediately started fucking into her roughly. She's begging now! The boy thought as he looked over at the other group of boys. Before he could say anything, another boy stepped up and shove his cock down Barbara's throat, causing the girl to moan at feeling another cock slip inside one of her holes. Her body shuddered as she wanted to keep receiving pleasure from the group of boys.

The boy that had stuffed her face started to fuck her face, thrusting his cock down her throat, wanting to keep being rough with the girl. She is feeling nothing but pleasure. He thought as he didn't want to stop, seeing that the girl was enjoying what was happening. "And she was the one who complained the most," he said as he continued to fuck her face with his thick cock, wanting to keep Barbara the pleasure she sought. Barbara continued to eagerly moan as she sucked the boy's cock as best as she could, feeling his cock hit the back of her throat as he kept thrusting inside her mouth.

The boy that was fucking her cunt could only grin as he agreed with the other boy's words as he kept thrusting inside her pussy, wanting to keep fucking the girl for as long as he could. "Right and now look at her, acting like a slut," he added, causing another moan of pleasure to fall from Barbara's lips. Holy shit, she moaned at that? He thought as he kept thrusting deeply inside her cunt. The group of boys wanted to ruin Barbara and Harley but it was more fun to finally break Barbara, watching as the girl continued to feel nothing but pleasure from their actions.

When Harley realized that Barbara had, indeed, been broken down by the boys, she couldn't help but cackle at the sight but it was due to that the pleasure was just that good. "It feels good to let loose, doesn't it, Babs?" She asked.

"Yes!" Barbara moaned as she kept feeling nothing but pleasure as she wanted the sensations to increase. She wanted the group of boys to keep making her feel good and luckily for her, they wanted to keep fucking into her holes, finding her easy to work with now that she wasn't bitching about what they were doing to her. And all it took was for us to keep fucking her without stopping. One of the boys thought as he kept thrusting inside her pussy, causing Barbara's moans to grow louder in volume.

Another boy stuffed the girl's mouth, wanting to keep Barbara as quiet as they could, knowing that the girl was going to feel nothing but pleasure as they wanted to keep giving her pleasure. Now that Barbara wasn't fighting them, it was easy to approach the girl. She moaned as she looked at all of the boys, wanting them to keep giving her pleasure. Barbara wanted the boys to keep thrusting inside her cunt but it was good to have her mouth stuffed with a cock as well. She let out a moan when the boy that was fucking her cunt made her moan louder than expected, even as the boy that was using her mouth blushed at the sound as the moan vibrated around his cock, causing his cock to start twitching. I don't want to cum too early. The boy thought and so, he started to slow down the thrusting of hips, not wanting to cum down the girl's throat too early. Barbara moaned at the sensation as she understood nothing but pleasure. She wanted the boys to keep making her feel good, her body twitching as she wanted them to keep going.

"Don't stop..." She begged and the group of boys were excited that the older girl wanted them to keep using her body.

Harley was happy Barbara had fallen into the madness, knowing she was going to enjoy it as long as she could, knowing that the girl deserved to have a break from being a hero. It may not be the break Barbara could have anticipated and yet, she didn't it as she couldn't think about anything that wasn't pleasure. The only thing Barbara could think about was the waves of pleasure that continued to smash into her body like a truck and she wanted more of the feeling. She wanted to bathe in the feeling, wanting to feel the sensation of her toes curling as her cunt tightened around a cock.

Harley continued to watch the girl as she continued to receive pleasure from the group of boys that surrounded her. "She looks real cute now, doesn't she?" She asked, unable to look away from how broken down Barbara was acting, moaning and begging to be fucked more even as two boys were using her cunt and her mouth.

"Yep," the boy that was fucking Harley's cunt agreed as his hips kept smacking against Harley's hips, causing her asscheeks to jiggle, a sight the boy was unable to look away from. Harley continued to watch Barbara, watching as the girl moaned at the sensation of the two boys using her. If she is acting like that now, imagine two of them fucking her cunt at the same time. Harley suddenly wanted to try out her wicked idea.

"Hey boys, see how loudly she screams when two of you fuck her pussy at the same time," she told them and suddenly, another boy approached and pushed his cock alongside the cock that was already inside Barbara's cunt. The girl's head snapped up and at first, Harley assumed Barbara had gotten back some of her critical thinking skills. However, the girl merely smiled wifely as she felt nothing but pleasure from the added cock. Shit! I got lucky, Harley thought, watching the sight as Barbara moaned at the sensation of two cocks being pushed inside her pussy.

It was clear Barbara had never let herself have any fun and Harley was glad she had managed to get herself roped into the madness. She's going crazy. The woman was giddy to see Barbara moaning like a slut and she continued to enjoy the boys that were using her cunt and her mouth as she wanted to keep feeling the pleasure she had been feeling ever since the boys had started fucking both her and Barbara. They're not going to get tired of us any time soon. Harley suspected and yet, she didn't mind it. She was enjoying getting fucked by a large group of boys that wanted to keep fucking her and Barbara. She was glad that Barbara was even starting to enjoy it. Babs is enjoying it! Harley couldn't stop looking over at the girl who continued to get her cunt filled with two cocks at a time while her mouth continued to get fucked by one cock at a time.

Barbara continued to moan as she enjoyed the feeling she was getting from the boys, wanting them to keep going as she enjoyed the sensation of what was happening. The girl continued to moan as she wanted the boys to get using her body and giving her pleasure. "She's feeling nothing but pleasure, right boys?" Harley asked as she watched Barbara sink even more into the sensation the boys were giving her. She enjoyed feeling their cocks go deeper inside her cunt and her mouth. She wanted her pussy to keep getting filled and she wanted her throat to be stuffed as she moaned and groaned at the pleasure she was receiving from the boys.

"Keep fucking me, boys! Mama needs to keep cumming," Harley ordered the boys to keep fucking her and they did so, wanting to keep fucking both Harley and Barbara. The boys were enjoying having fun with the two, knowing they would keep having fun as long as Harley and Barbara allowed them to. Harley enjoyed feeling the cocks inside her hole and even though they were fucking her as deep as they could, the woman still wanted more. This is what got Barbara acting up. And honestly, Harley couldn't blame her. She also wanted the boys to keep having a go at her, wanting them to have just as much fun with her as they were doing with Barbara. Babs is enjoying their cocks. Harley thought and she couldn't help but smirk at the thought. She couldn't wait until the boys were completely spent, knowing it was going to take the group a while to be finished with them.

Barbara continued to moan for more pleasure, wanting the boys to keep fucking her, knowing she was getting a lot of pleasure from their actions. "Keep fucking me," Barbara pleaded with the group of boys to keep going and that was what they planned to do as they made sure to keep the girl's holes filled, knowing that it was going to keep the girl happy. The group of boys continued to thrust inside Barbara's holes, wanting to keep the girl occupied as she continued to moan for the boys, making them excited as they wanted to keep making Barbara moan for them. The group of boys wanted Barbara to keep moaning and her eyes started to roll to the back of her head due to the pleasure overwhelming her body. "Oh fuck, oh please, more," the girl kept begging for more as the girl started to moan even louder, her moans vibrating around the cock of the boy who was fucking her face.

Harley enjoyed feeling the boys' cocks inside her cunt and her throat, wanting them to keep fucking her as she continued to stare at Barbara, who was moaning and groaning for the boys to keep going. Atta girl, Babs. Harley thought, wanting the girl to keep feeling pleasure as much as she was feeling it. Harley continued to moan and choke on the cock that was deep inside her throat, wanting the boy to keep being rough with her. Harley also continued to feel the cock that was deep inside her cunt as the boy didn't stop his relentless thrusting, and the woman didn't want him to stop. Harley wanted him to keep going as she continued to moan and groan due to the pleasure she was getting from the two boys who were having fun.

Barbara continued to get two boys fucking her pussy at the same time as she wanted to keep feeling the pleasure she was receiving from the boys. She wanted them to keep going, knowing she was going to enjoy letting the boys fuck her as if there was no tomorrow. The group of boys continued to have fun with her and Barbara continued to moan and groan for them, wanting the boys to see that she was enjoying what they were doing to her. Barbara wanted the boys to keep using her body and to keep fucking her, knowing it was making her feel good. She was still helping people in a way and Barbara was happy that the group of boys continued to fuck her, wanting to chase the pleasure they could get from the girl as Harley continued to moan and sputter around the cock that kept getting shoved down her throat.

Harley was excited to see that Barbara was still enjoying what was happening and she was glad that the girl was enjoying it. Well, Babs isn't complaining and that's a good thing. Harley thought as she moaned and groaned alongside Barbara. Harley had done something that was going well for both her and Barbara. She was proud of herself and now, she could keep reaping the rewards from it, wanting the boys to keep fucking her until they couldn't any longer.
