

With the sun rising high about the grasslands and forests of the area, the air is thick with moisture from the nearby lake. Making anyone working the farm or logging area would sweat on their own but the heat turns it nearly unbearable.

Luckily it would only take a quick dip in the lake or a trip down into the cool caves to recover before getting back to work. Homes line the criss cross roads set up on the wider flat fields below the higher village above, giving easy access to the merchants there while mostly private from their wandering.

Normally the area would be busy as bees, people running around to get things done or work on renovations with gusto. Today one person is working the area, getting lost in her plans as the sun beats down on her and sends sweat dripping down her back.

Kimmi lets out a sigh as she digs out a small hole into the soft dirt and pulls out a cherry blossom sapling to plant it. Reaching up with a dark skinned hand to wipe some of the sweat from her brow before patting the dirt back in place. She adjusts her round glasses as she looks at her handiwork critically for a moment with soft brown eyes.

Brushing back her brunette shoulder length hair, she shifts the wide brimmed summer hat on her head to make sure the sun is out of her eyes. Feeling somewhat confident with how it is placed and that it will grow, she stands up to stretch out her back and brush the dirt from her blue jean overalls.

Normally wearing a shirt under it, with the heat and being mostly alone gave Kimmi more of a reason to go without. For as hot as it is, being free of anything too restricting against her very soft frame, generous chest, and thick thighs is very nice. A small breeze comes through and sends a delightful shiver through her body as she groans from the nice stretch.

Letting out a sigh, she nods to the sapling before looking up to the rest of her handiwork with a proud smile. Between the homes are tall cherry blossom trees that reach out with bright pink leaves and flowers to the sun above. Petals and the like occasionally fall from the branches to cover the bright grass with a beautiful carpet of pink shades.

Smiling brightly at the pretty nature aesthetic, starting to wonder about what her next project should be, the sound of running heeled steps comes down the road. Turning the corner from behind a building is a woman with a somewhat out of place but very adorable look to her.

With the heels she is around Kimmi's height, her long locks of white with pink undertones hair flowing in the breeze with her excited run. The rest of her hair is shorter than Kimmie's, more like a ball of fluff with a pair of tall bunny ears that spring out from the top of her head. A single curl stands tall between the ears as her hot pink eyes sparkle in excitement and delight as she suddenly stops to stare at the work done.

She lets out a high gasp before waving to Kimmie with a tan skinned hand, "Oh my goodness this looks amazing! It's so pretty Kimmie, how did you do it all so quickly?"

The pride in her chest burns brighter as she can't help but grin at that astonishment on how hard she worked. She looks her friend Bow over for a moment as she stretches out her arms, feeling the weariness of a long day of hard work settling on her.

Wearing a modified light red bunny suit that hugs her hourglass frame tightly, plenty of cleavage for her ample chest to be seen. Behind her wide hips is a large fluffy white bunny tail contrasting with her tall pink thigh highs and high heels.

Kimmie lets out a light giggle looking up to the cherry blossom trees with a soft smile, "Thank you Bow, I love them. Nothing like hard work and a shit ton of bone meal."

Kimmie lets out a satisfied sigh as she stretches her arm, feeling the tension in her back giving away to a warm soreness. Glancing around at all of her work, the feeling of accomplishment sinking into the reminder of so many other things to make and work on. Some more renovations for her own house and taking care of the horses as well as helping out on the farm.

Bow notices her smile dripping into a frown as she steps up and rubs her shoulder, looking up at her with a soft smile, "You doing ok Kimmie? Didn't work yourself too hard did you?"

She lets out a considering hum before giving her a shrug with an appreciative smile, "Maybe a little, just really wanted to get this all done before everyone else got back. Still have more to do, though I really want to relax right now. Been doing this all day and I know that I will just work myself to death if I let myself. Nothing I want more right now than to have a bit of fun, blow off some steam, and be able to enjoy myself before getting back at it."

Bow takes in her words for a moment before there is suddenly a gleam of mischief in her eyes, a dangerous thing for the bunny. A grin grows as she steps beside Kimmie and bumps her hips with her own, drawing a yelp from the taller woman.

Letting out a light giggle, Bow wiggles with excitement, "You know... I do know something we can do that will be so much fun, we can blow off every ounce of steam you have, and you will enjoy yourself so much. It's not far from us and we can get back with plenty of time to finish working on everything here. I'll even help you out if we lose track of time~"

There is a voice in the back of her mind warning that this amount of mischief is something reserved for piling someone in dirt or completely rearranging their house. But Kimmie knows that in the end she has always had a lot of fun going out on adventures with her.

Bow takes her off into the horizon and finding all sorts of things, even going down into the dark mines and coming back with nice stuff. At no point has she felt put in danger around her, though they have certainly found themselves in plenty of danger.

Thinking it over for a moment, finally Kimmie lets out a sigh before nodding and giving her a bright smile, "Fine, it had better be really good though. Also not far away, I really don't want to be out before the others get here and I miss the look on their faces."

A high squeal of delight escapes Bow as she hops on each foot for a moment before nodding and pointing off toward the nearby mountains, "Not far at all, I can take you right now~"

Giving her a raised eyebrow, Kimmie wonders just what she is getting herself into before shrugging and heading off with her. Bow taking off at a near run as they make their way from the valley up to the base of the mountains before the road snakes inside a mine.

Stepping inside and enjoying the cool breeze that washes over her, Kimmie pauses for a moment glancing at the dim lights of the torches and the darkness beyond. Worry starts to bubble up in her chest as she can feel her skin tingling in anxiety.

Bow is still running off but pauses as she realizes that Kimmie isn't following her, glancing back at her voice, "Don't you think we should grab some of the armor and gear before heading down?"

Blinking in mild confusion, Bow realizes what she is meaning before waving the concern away and hoping back to gently pull her by her arms.

Giving her a wide carefree smile, the bunny woman shakes her head, "We will be perfectly fine, the area doesn't have any monsters that will attack us and I have a quick way down that we can take back up after we're done~"

Letting out a somewhat unsure groan, Kimmie finally relents against the dauntless bright smile that Bow is shining up at her. She lets herself be dragged into the deep mine while keeping an eye out for any monsters that might try to sneak up through the darkness.

Luckily none are found and the path across the stone is pretty quick until they come upon the 'way down' that Bow was mentioning. A stream of water flowing out from the rock that goes down into the darkness below, only faint lights shining from below.

Glancing from the makeshift water slide to Bow, she is about to ask if she is serious about this before watching the bunny woman leap into the water. It carries her down into the darkness, realizing after a moment that the lights below aren't the orange yellow lights of their torches.

More so some green blue shine to them flickering against the inky darkness, but the happy squeal of Bow from below is a sign that it is safe at the very least. Letting out a sigh, she hops into the water and allows herself to be carried away, taking some solace in the feeling of the chilly water clearing her of the hot sweat.

Moments pass before she lands on the dark stone that glitters with faint blue and green light like bioluminescent coral. Kimmie stares at it for a moment, fascinated as she wipes the water from her overalls as much as she can. Glancing around, the best she can see is that they are in some large crevice in the mine with barely the glow of the torches above.

Also realizing that Bow is nowhere to be seen, she calls out into the darkness, "Bow? Bow where are you? You had better not get eaten by one of the mobs down here I swear..."

There is silence around her until a moment later Bow comes hopping out of the darkness with a bright delighted smile on her lips. Looking very pleased with herself, she shakes off the excess water from her body before taking Kimmie by the hand and pointing off toward more of those faint lights, “I’m perfectly careful down here, but I do appreciate the concern. He is right over here~”

Kimmie immediately blinks at the word ‘he’ as she can feel concern and curiosity rise in her chest at who just might be down here. Being taken down here with the offer of having fun and blowing off steam down suggests what Bow is offering here with some guy.

Though that fights against the natural danger of the dark around them and what might be waiting for them here. Reluctantly being taken along as she did come all this way, should at the very least see what she has in mind. It isn’t far into the dimly lit darkness before suddenly she spots a huge shape outlined by the biolights and stops short with her eyes opening wide.

Getting closer she gets a much better idea of this ‘he’ that Bow mentioned, absolutely massive as it stands several heads over both of them. Antlers sprout from the top of his head along with a pair of fluffy ears and something close to fur looking like hair.

Getting closer she realizes that he doesn’t have eyes, a flat featureless face with some of the same biolights in his thick fur. Though he does have a maw, open slightly as his long inky dark tongue slips through the air to take in scents probably before slipping back behind his long sharp teeth. Huge muscular shoulders and arms faintly glowing with a natural bioluminescence below the skin, outlining the fine muscles of his body further.

His chest draws the eye as it is concave and filled with glittering crystals like a broken open geode. Deep blue crystal structures that glow with shifting and fluttering teal lights throughout, fairy lights brightening and dimming across each crystal.

Kimmie’s eyes look further down and widen with a thick patch of fur leading into a thick softly glowing cock and heavy balls. Gently throbbing as she spots a cresting ridge along the top of the shaft, knowing that it would cause a number on her. Along with the double jointed hooved legs she knows that this creature is probably one of the most dangerous things in the world;

A Warden.

Though that doesn’t match well with how Bow lets out a soft gasp before stepping up to him with a bright grin and giggling, “Hey there Wardy, how are you doing? I brought a friend!”

Kimmie fully expects it to crush Bow with a large clawed hand and she would have to run the rest of the way back to the surface. The Warden turns to her and lets out a rumbling tone that vibrates through the ground and across their chests.

Feeling her skin tingle from the sensation, Kimmie is about to run as it reaches out for Bow, but instead he grasps her waist and pulls her against his side. She lets out a louder giggle while running her hand across his upper chest and biting her lip, “Oh did you miss me? Feeling a bit pent up? I’m sure that we can help you out with that if you would like~”

Blinking in mild confusion, Kimmie isn’t sure what to do at the moment as another rumbling sound emanates from the Warden. She does watch Bow hum before reaching out and running her hand along his cock, taking her time to rub the soft cresting barbs along the top.

Kimmie is certain that this is just asking for trouble, to get herself killed, but she can feel a tingling sensation burn in her chest. Watching Bow gently touching the monster as his hand cups her ass and squeezes it tight while letting out a pleased rumbling groan makes her think that this might be fun. At the very least she doesn't want to just watch and she doesn't want to go all the way back to the surface.

Letting out a sigh while tossing the idea over in her mind for a moment, she finally relents and steps over slowly to the monster while giving Bow a glare, "If he kills me I swear I'll hunt you down and kill you myself, got it?"

Bow giggles as she shakes her head with a delighted grin, leaning up to kiss the Warden on the chest as they both stand just to his shoulders, "He won't hurt us, I've been playing around with him for a while now and he is just a bit lonely, wanting attention. Let him touch you and he'll show you how nice it feels~"

Letting out a soft grumble at that, still not entirely convinced, Kimmie closes the distance between them as she reaches out to put a hand over his furred upper chest. She lets out a soft surprised gasp at how warm it feels while suddenly having his huge hand cup her entire ass over the overalls.

Pressed against his body, she lets out a deep breath as there is something to his scent in the air against the damp earth. A sweetness that tingles her nose and causes her chest to warm as she takes it in, she looks up into that dark blank face with curiosity. He looks down at her while letting out another rumbling groan, vibrating through her body as he pulls her closer against him.

Watching them both, Bow giggles as she leans forward to give Kimmie a smirk and her teasing voice, "Ooooh sounds like he really likes you Kimmie, why don't you let him know if you like him too, smells nice doesn't he?"

Still a bit nervous being around this monster, she does admit that he feels nice as she rubs her hand across his upper chest. Feeling the warmth of his fur as she traces his heavy muscles that shift and tighten with his hand gripping her ass and feeling it over. Kneading it gently at first as his claws sink into her softness while his head leans down to her with a growing interest.

Watching him lean in closer to her, Kimmie's hand slides down while tracing the edge of his concave chest before finding its way to the base of his cock. Hot and throbbing as it has already grown from Bow's attention, she bites her lip before sliding her fingers over the thick shaft and across barbs.

Excitement pulsing through her as his maw of sharp teeth opens slightly, a long thick dark tongue slipping out and sliding across her lips. She lets out a gasp as his hand grips her ass harder, an opening that he takes advantage of as his tongue slips into her mouth. Filling her senses with a sweet tingling sensation as she accepts his interest while it slips deeper inside.

Kimmie can feel her throat bulge as it slips deep and starts fucking her mouth, tasting every inch that he has access to. A muffle groan escapes her as she presses tighter against him, feeling her crotch drip with an excited wetness.

The deep kiss lasts for a long minute before he pulls back, allowing her to gasp and pant for breath as a string of spit tethers her lips to the tip of his tongue for a moment. With blurry half lidded eyes, she watches Bow's hand on his cheek pull his attention back to her with a hum, "Don't forget I'm here buddy, pleasing both of us isn't going to be as easy but I'm sure that you are a quick learner."

Another rumbling groan vibrates through them both as Kimmie watches his hand lift from Bow's ass and grip the top of her bunny suit. Bow giggles as she leans back and lets him tear it down with a quick motion, her breasts spilling out and bouncing against her chest. Heavy with thick nipples, he doesn't hold back gripping one and kneading it while rubbing her nipple between clawed fingers.

She lets out a deep gasping moan as a moment later there is a trickle of milk that spills out from the nipple. It slides down his hand and seems to be the indication he is looking for as his tongue slips out again and licks it up.

Letting out a pleasing rumbling groan, the Warden leans in further as he sucks a thick nipple into his mouth and drinks deep of her tit. Bow gaps and groans, her free hand wrapping around the back of his neck to encourage his attention while she rapidly jerks him off.

Kimmie watches intently as her mind swirls with excitement and desire, a growing warmth below her belly as she wants the same. Her grip on his cock tightens as she bites her lip wondering what else she could do, when an idea comes to her.

She leans back as she grips the strap of her overalls and pulls it down, letting her heavy full breasts spill out. Also leaking with milk as she hasn't had the chance to be drained in a bit, she pushes the overalls the rest of the way off her. Heavy wetness leaking down her thick thighs as she tosses them to the side, now naked in the dim darkness with a monster and her friend.

Excitement tingles through her body as she shifts herself to be in front of the Warden and steps over his throbbing cock. Rock hard and pulsing in the air with Bow's hand still stroking it, she wraps her thighs around it and squeezes tightly.

Feeling its warm soak into her thighs and the barbs rubbing against her dripping pussy sends a pulse of pleasure up her spine. Causing her to gasp as Kimmie starts stroking the heavy cock with her thighs, she looks up to Bow letting out a breathless giggle, "You see how much fun he is? Just wait till the main course though... Do you mind if I ride him first when he is ready? I've been so pent up waiting to play with him again."

Giving her a short nod, Kimmie groans and moans as she feels just what Bow means by being excited to play with the Warden. His heavy throbbing cock pulses warmth into her soft thighs as his tip drips with pre-cum that drips down her legs.

The barbs across the top of his cock rub so perfectly against her pussy lips and her clit to cause the thigh fucking to feel amazing for her. Wetness dripping down to soak his cock and causing his thrusts to much more easily thrust between her as his groans vibrate through her chest.

She looks over to Bow, watching the Warden so hungrily suck and bite on her tit, leaving marks across her sensitive skin as he seems to have an appetite for her milk. Glancing down she watches his huge hand on her ass slip down to pull the crotch of her bunny suit to the side.

Bow doesn't hesitate to spread for him as his clawed fingers glide through her pussy, leaving wet trails as her moans echo through the cavern. Grabbing his horns for support as she grinds her hips into his hand while pulling his mouth against her leaking tits. Unashamed moans and gasps escaping her lips as Kimmie watches her entire body shake and squirm through a heavy orgasm from his attention.

Kimmie can feel her own orgasm coming close as she grinds against his rough barbed cock harder, letting out cooing pleasuring with every thrust. A gasp escapes her as the Warden's free hand wraps around her waist to hold her in place for a moment. Making her wonder if she isn't pleasing him or something, but then she feels him start to glide her across his cock while thrusting into her thighs.

More groans and panting sounds leave her as she grabs his furred upper chest, enjoying being used by this monster more than she thought she would. Feeling his warmth and treated with the beautiful glow of the crystals, all with pleasure rocking through her body with every thrust.

The pleasure hits a heavy high as she can feel his cock throbbing hard between her thighs, wondering just how close he might be as well. She pants and whines with delight and need, the ache below her belly building through the overwhelming sensations.

She knows that Bow has the first shot at this, but she is going to have this monster show her why her friend has been so pent up for him. Biting her lip, she runs her hands through his fur before leaning up to lick across his cheek and moaning against him, "Fuck- He feels so good- How can you stop?"

Bow giggles as she runs a finger over the Warden's chin, drawing his attention from drinking her tit as she says softly, "It usually takes a few hours, even longer when I get really into it~ He has so much stamina, he can just keep going no matter what."

Seeming to take that as a signal, the Warden lets out a deep rumbling growl as he pulls Kimmie off his cock. A disappointed groan escapes her lips as she weakly clings to his furred chest, having no power to stop him as pleasure still pulses through her body.

Feeling her skin tingle from the aftershocks of the orgasm as she returns to his side while watching Bow being let go. Letting out a low hum of delight as Bow is put back onto the ground, she gets down on her knees before presenting her ass to the Warden.

A hand to each cheek, she spreads them as her soaked asshole and pussy are on full display while his hard throbbing cock rests on her leg. Bow bites her lip while wiggling her ass for him, big fluffy tail fluttering side to side as her excitement becomes all consuming.

Kimmie watches with bright excitement as the Warden may not be able to see the display, but he may be able to smell her need in the air. His hand came down to adjust the angle of his cock to have the large tapered tip pressing against her open pussy. She is about to press her ass back into him when his huge hand instead wraps completely around her, controlling her movements.

The Warden lets out a deep rumbling growl that vibrates through Kimmie's being as she presses herself harder against him while watching him work. Biting her lip with feeling a desire for mischief, she leans up to his ear and whispers in a low intimate voice, "Show me how you breed a rabbit and I'll give you some quality milk big boy~"

His head turns to her voice, long tongue snaking out as he pulls her into a deep kiss while feeling his hips thrust forward. Kimmie's muffled moan of delight feeling his tongue thrust down her throat is echoed by the unconstrained moan of Bow below.

Out of the corner of her eye she can see her friend taking half the length at once, the barbs teasing against her ass while the rest stretches her pussy. Soaked in her own excitement as well as Bow's, it doesn't take much thrusting to work the entire length to the hilt inside her.

She feels his hand on her hip slide down over her soft belly and between her legs as she happily spreads herself. The Warden's fingers slip between her thighs and slide between the lips of her pussy, feeling just how dripping wet she is.

Breaking the kiss to let out a loud panting moan, Kimmie desperately grinds her hips against his clawed hand as pleasure builds in her. Pulling herself back to give him better access to her needy pussy, she suddenly watches his head lean down to one of her free tits.

Letting out a high gasping moan as his maw wraps around her nipple and his tongue flicks across it, she can feel milk freely spill. He drinks it down happily as his long sharp teeth graze her sensitive skin while letting out rumbling pleased groans that heighten the pleasure.

Moaning and whining in pleasure, Kimmie reaches up to wrap her arms around the back of his neck while watching him drink her milk. Pressing her chest against him, wanting him to drink more of his fill while his fingers please her as he would like, she glances down to Bow.

Now able to take the entire length of the Warden's huge cock, even at this angle Kimmie can see it bulging her belly when she is pulled down to the base. Bow grips the clawed fingers holding her as she pants and gasps with every thrust, soaking his cock in her pleasure.

She watches her friend being lifted up until she would be standing but is a foot off the ground with the muscular grip the Warden has on her. From being bred like a bunny to now being used as his own personal toy, he starts bouncing her on his cock like she weighs nothing. The gasping moans escalate into high pitched breathless groans and cries of pleasure as his cock grinds deep in her pussy.

Every bounce causes her breasts to bounce as well, leaking more milk that spills down her full breasts and across the remains of her bunny suit. Kimmie can see it being torn in places by the Warden's large claws ripping into the thin material, though neither of them have a care. Bow's eyes roll back as she loses herself to the deep pleasure that is being thrust deep into her core.

No coherent words leave her open lips as she pants and moans, the only string of sounds that come together Kimmie can barely hear, "More... Don't- Don't stop- Fuck- Fill- Fill me- More- Fill me up!"

Kimmie feels the hungry sucking on her tits growing harder as his clawed fingers stroke the sensitive lips of her pussy and throbbing clit. Feeling her body already tingling and hitting the edge of another orgasm, she isn't fully ready for when one of his thick clawed fingers pushes deep into her pussy.

No pain as his claw is slick with her wetness and he is careful with stretching her needy hole and thrusting inside. A rising gasp melts into a deep groan as he continues to drain her tits of milk, drinking them freely as she rides the edge of another orgasm.

To have two coming in such close progression, she can feel her mind turning to mush with the overwhelming sensations. Crying out for more as there isn't anything she wants more than to have this monster have her as his personal toy as well.

Already imagining his huge cock spreading her wide and using her for relief, it is more than enough to push her over the edge. Grunting and breathlessly groaning as the waves of delight wash over her, Kimmie feels a deep rumbling groan emanate from the Warden as he pulls Bow to the hilt.

She lets out a loud cry of pleasure as her entire body shutters from her own orgasm while the bulge in her belly grows. It takes Kimmie a few moments in her lust drink mind to realize that he was cumming deep and raw into Bow. A part of her wondering how he can fill her with so much cum without having her friend slipping off his shaft.

Maybe it has to do with the barbs along his cock or the clutching grip he has on her hips, holding her tightly in place while she is filled. The rumbling groan continues through her body as she considers it to be a deeply pleased sound that he can make.

The joint orgasm lasts for a long minute before Bow hangs boneless in his hand and on his cock. Still panting for any ounce of breath that she can collect, there isn't an ounce of strength in her body as she is slowly pulling off his cock.

Letting out whining disappointed moans, Kimmie watches a thick load of cum spill out from her well used pussy and coat his cock. She is pulled to his side again, Bow not wasting any opportunity to rub against his fur and purring very loudly in satisfaction and delight.

With half lidded eyes, she glances at Kimmie before whispering in a light mischievous tone to the Warden, "You did so good, that was absolutely amazing. But I don't think we should let my friend be without feeling it as well... Why don't you give Kimmie the best treatment~"

A rumbling growl vibrates from his huge frame as Kimmie feels his clawed finger slip out from her dripping aching pussy. Excitement and anticipation building in her chest as he pulls his head back, Kimmie spotting her breasts now covered in bite marks while still leaking milk.

Biting her lip with delight with her mind spinning in a humming buzz of pleasure, feeling his claws wrap around her waist and sink into her soft belly. The tingling edge of his sharpness sends bolts of excitement through her body as she feels her body being shifted over to his front. Now looking up at his looming shape, she watches his still throbbing cock now resting against her crotch while still slick with cum.

Despite such a heavy orgasm that is still spilling down Bow's legs he seems to be more than ready to fill Kimmie as well. Looking up at that blank but intense blank face, she can't help but reach out with a selfish need while letting out a breathless request, "I want... I want to be holding you... If you don't mind..."

Bow wiggles her tail in delight hearing those words as she leans over to whisper into the Warden's ear, "Bring her to your chest big boy, she wants to hug you while you fill her pussy with all of your pent up need~"

Letting out a vibrating groan, the Warden nods in understanding as he lifts up Kimmie to now have her arms wrap around the back of his neck. Feeling more grounded in the warmth of his fur and his hot breath against her sensitive chest, gently grinding her hips on his shaft.

She pants and groans as the need for another orgasm builds, wanting to know what it feels like to have him spread her. Though there is a pause as she watches an idea spark to life in Bow's eyes as she whispers into his ear, low enough so that she can't hear.

He lets out a low short rumbling acknowledgment before Kimmie watches Bow slip from his grip and this free hand grip her thick thigh completely around. Letting out a gasp in wonder at what her friend is planning, she loses track of her as she gasps with his other hand wrapping around the other leg. Now tightly holding her against him, realizing that all of his attention is on her sends her heart skipping a beat with excitement.

The Warden pulls her up until the tip of his cock pressed against the entrance of her pussy, feeling his throbbing heat and her wetness mixing together. Barely the breath of a moment between them before Kimmie is dropped down onto his cock and is thrust down halfway to the hilt in one motion.

Kimmie lets out a loud echoing gasping moan that uses up all of the breath left in her lungs as she feels herself being spread and stretched by his girth. The barbs of his cock rub against her clit while he holds her in place for a moment, letting her get used to his size.

She grips his shoulders, soaking in the mercy of the monster as she groans and pants for breath again. Every throb of his cock sends a pulse through her core and leaves her wondering if she can actually take it all. Biting her lip to focus herself as her skin tingles with overwhelming sensations, the pleasure from his cock mixing with the sweet warming scents of his fur.

She is brought out of her mind sinking into delight as a small pair of hands grip her hips with a mischievous giggle behind her. Glancing back and down, Bow stands below with a wide grin on her face and evil deeds twinkling in her eyes.

Before Kimmie has a moment to ask what she is doing, her friend grips her hips tightly and pushes her down on his cock while saying in a high humored voice, "Come on Kimmie, the best way of getting into the deep end isn't by tiptoeing in, it's by cannonballing in!"

Eyes going wide as she only has a moment to prepare for what is about to happen, she feels the entire length of the Warden's cock thrust into her. Hips now pressing together, Kimmie grips his fur and shoulders tightly as the pleasure pulses through her entire being. Electric and coming in hot waves that soak into her muscles as she moans and whimpers with the sensations.

Barely able to get the breath together to bite out words as she looks back at Bow's shameless grin, "Fucking... Bitch... I'll get you back... For that..."

Bow giggles as she isn't deterred by the threat of vengeance, instead stepping under her to start playing with the Warden's balls. His deep rumbling groans vibrating her body as his claws grip her thighs tighter, holding her in place as he starts to pull out.

Kimmie thought that having him thrust inside would be overwhelming, but the barbs dragging against her inner walls nearly sent her over the edge. Panting and groaning from the pleasure, she holds onto his muscular frame for dear life before he suddenly thrusts back to the hilt.

The Warden's cock pumps deep into her needy pussy, grinding against every sensitive wall as Kimmie cries out in delight. Losing all feeling in her legs except for the sharp claws against her inner thighs and the slamming of his cock.

Her tits pressed against his upper chest that leaked milk until it was dripping down into the crystals of his lower torso. Neither of them care about the mess as she looks to Bow below them, licking and sucking on his heavy balls that promise a huge load to fill her with.

Looking back up at them, Bow gives her a bright grin while giggling as she spanks Kimmie's ass, "Don't stop now Wardy~ She looks ready to get nice and knocked up, don't leave her waiting for it!"

She gives her a glare, but the pleasure causes her heart to jump at the thought of being overfilled as she looks up at the Warden. Deep rumbling earthquake-like groans vibrate through her body with his sharp toothed maw open panting for breath.

Coming close to his own orgasm, Kimmie bites her lip for a moment before cupping his face and leaning in close while saying in a breathless voice, "Don't hold back, I can take it..."

Unsure if he fully understands what she means, the Warden doesn't waste the opportunity to lean his head forward and slip his long thick tongue into her mouth. Kimmie takes every inch of it as it bulges her throat and muffles her moans as his thrust becomes harder and faster.

Feeling the edge coming close, she is pushed over with one last deep resonating groan from his huge frame before thrusting to the hilt again and letting out a thick load. Clinging hard to his shoulders, she feels his thick warmth fill her core and spill out from between them down her ass.

Kimmie isn't sure how long the orgasm lasted, but in her lust drink state she knows that she has been put down onto the soft ground. Blinking the haze from her eyes she realizes that the 'ground' is actually Bow's arms as she nuzzles against her neck and cheek with a bright smile.

Looking up at her friend taking care of her and holding her, she can forgive her a little for the mischief as she groans, "Fuck... That was... Intense... I don't know if I can feel my legs..."

Bow giggles at that, giving her a kiss on the cheek, "Yeah, that was my first time too, I think it took me a few days to walk out of the mine. I got you though, so if you want to leave I can take you... But if you want to stay a little longer, it doesn't look like Wardy here wouldn't mind the company~"

Looking up at the mention of the Warden, he looms over them like a glowing shadow, unsure if it is out of interest or concern. Though she can see his wet cum covered cock half hard in the air with an intent to become hard again with enough interest.

Kimmie thinks it over for a moment, biting her lip as feeling starts to flow back into her legs, all thoughts of the things to do above melting away. She has been working so hard to get everything pretty and working right, why shouldn't she have some time to enjoy herself?

Glancing to her friend, Kimmie chuckles softly before crawling over to his cock and giving it a test lick across the shaft. His cum tastes nice and sweet, tingling across her tongue as she gulps it down and licks the rest from her lips. Bow crawls up as well, swirling her tongue across the tip before lifting her breasts up to wrap them across the shaft. Taking the idea, Kimmie does the same, milk spilling from their nipples across his throbbing member and barbs.

The Warden lets out a deep rumbling growl as his hands come down to gently grip the back of their heads while she gives Bow a smirk, "I think we can stay here a little longer, wouldn't want him missing us too much now should we?"
