Unofficial “reference” compiled by Harmless Arachnid

Last updated for version 0.353 (May 2022)

Game website: <https://www.patreon.com/boobsgames>

At the moment, this is more of a reference work rather than a complete guide or a walkthrough. If you want that, the game’s Patreon page contains links to a couple of walkthroughs that go into detail about the game’s general gameplay.

You can use the document’s outline to navigate. If your PDF reader doesn’t display it automatically on the left when you open the file, you may need to enable the outline pane from the View menu. Text that I’ve decided spoils too much looks like ████ – you should be able to read the text if you look closely at the screen; in some PDF readers, you may need to select the text and paste it somewhere else to see it.

State of the document as of 8 June ‘22: Overhaul of the internal links to fix some issues caused by the export from Google Docs, so some links may be broken. I’ve also added the starting relationship scores for some characters, but I may have missed some. New: Repeatable quests now have their own section. General TODO: Some kind of Location list (I’ve finally given in). Missing character entries. Add more content control flags where applicable? Finish monster section.

Key for my scene classification by type of illustration, you can use the tags to search inside the document:

- the standard: [image scene] – two or more full-screen-ish pictures accompanying the text (the number may include cum variant images)
- [animated scene] – includes at least one full-screen-ish animated picture.
- [image] – just a single explicit full-screen-ish image with short description text or few lines of dialog
- [portrait image] – uses one or more of the character portrait images (including zoom/pan variants)
- [sprite animation] – just an animation of the characters’ map sprites, without any other images.
- [mini-image scene] – text scene illustrated with one or more small images focusing on specific body parts.

Scenes that are not M/F are tagged with F/F, M/M, Futa/M, M/Futa, etc., so you can search the document for a specific kind.

Certain features can be filtered in the game’s Settings menu: GAY SCENES, just GAY PICTURES (both options also toggle futa scenes), PREGNANCY (pregnant or inflated bellies), MULTIBREASTS, GILF (i.e. old women) and SPERM ON KROWLY. Not all of the filters’ effects have been marked in this document – use common sense.

For people who can’t read map directions:

north-west	north	north-east
west		east
south-west	south	south-east

Quests

Listed in a somewhat arbitrary order. You don't have to do them in that sequence.

The terrible secret of Fina Ironheart

Started by Chat-ting with Carla in the tavern. She says that people don't know why Fina disappears in the evenings.

Answer: she's bathing naked under the waterfall in the forest. Approach the bushes to complete the quest (+5 EXP) and enjoy the standard consequences of seeing her naked.

The magic circle

Started by interacting with the magic circle in Krowly's basement/laboratory.

You need an empty jar - you can buy one from Sebastian's store or grab one from the table in Krowly's house. The inner bookcase in the Church tells you that the circle can be created with slime from a large slime. Unsurprisingly, there's one in the slime cave in the forest. Defeat it and collect the remains into the empty jar (+45 EXP). Interact with the circle again to draw it, and then again with the finished circle to complete the quest (+100 EXP).

This quest is a direct prerequisite for completing Return spell and Summon succubus. You can also use the slime jar to obtain Lizzy.

Return spell

Started by reading the scroll (+10 EXP) looted from the bandit when Krowly saves Juliet (it's on the table in Krowly's basement laboratory). If you have a functioning magic circle, just interact again with the scroll at night to complete the quest (+10 EXP). This gives Krowly the Return spell, which allows him to teleport back to his basement (-50 MP, not in battle) if he's alone or just with Eric. The spell can also save your ass if you fall into the tentacle monster nest in the ruined passage in the mountains.

Summon succubus

Buy the magic book for 50 gold from Sebastian's store. It's delivered to Krowly's basement. Reading it there starts the quest (+30 lust, +10 EXP).

Unsurprisingly, this requires a functioning magic circle, but that's not enough. After dealing with Sister Elizabeth's nightly troubles, Krowly remarks that now he knows what ritual to use (+50 EXP) and that he has to surround the circle with protective fires using special fuel. But what fuel and where to find it?

The answer can be found inside the Old Tower. After Melissa has answered Krowly's question about her home, Ask her again for more information about magic barriers (+20 EXP). Apparently [Elven root] makes a suitable fuel. As it happens, you probably already know an elf who deals in questionable substances. But first, you need suitable goods for exchange. You may already have [Magic pollen] if you have fought the plant girl on the fairies' glade – if not, you need to find her and fight her. After that talk to Leaf at night to exchange the pollen for four pieces of [Elven root]. Back at home, interact with every brazier around the summoning circle to start the fires, then with the circle itself to summon a demon.

Hilariously, it turns out to be a case of "calling the wrong number", but the demon offers a deal. The contract is magically signed with semen, so the succubus intern gives Krowly a handjob ([image scene], -50 lust).

The night is dark

Started by talking to Sister Elizabeth after starting Summon succubus. She warns Krowly to stay at home at night. After that, every night when you are outside a building in the village, after a random period of time you will be attacked by a succubus. She's a tough cookie (uses sleep, confusion and life drain). Tips: Recommended level 2, for the Sleep spell, and use of the Clear mind potion

- If you lose: the succubus drags Krowly to a secluded spot and rides him till dawn ([image scene], -100 lust, [advances time to morning]), when he is found by Sister Elizabeth.
- If you win: the succubus is pissed off and flies away. She will bother you no more at night.

After defeating the succubus, report to Sister Elizabeth at the church to complete the quest (+150 EXP, +10 Sister Elizabeth).

At the first Sunday mass after completing the quest, Fina confronts the congregation about someone summoning a succubus, and Krowly accepts the responsibility to shield Elizabeth. What follows depends on the "gay scene" setting:

- ON: Fina punishes Krowly by summoning herself a magic penis, fucking him in the ass and finishing in his mouth ([image scene], -100 lust, +3 Fina, +3 Sister Elizabeth, -5 hunger).
- OFF: Krowly is allowed only to watch as Fina summons a magic penis and fucks Elizabeth in the ass ([sprite animation], [portrait image], +100 lust, +3 Fina, +3 Sister Elizabeth).

Contract

Started by advancing the Summon succubus quest to the point you summon a demon.

The demon has agreed to help Krowly in exchange for three pairs of panties of pretty women. The easiest to find are Astra's – they are in her wardrobe. You may already know that Alice's panties are not in her wardrobe. In the evening, talk to her little brother in her house. The last pair belongs to Fina, and the only way to get them is to steal them while she's bathing in the waterfall in the evening. But just as Krowly tries to reach them (+20 lust), a group of futa elves tries to kidnap Fina and he jumps in to her defense. It's not a hard fight, as even without any equipment Fina is a powerful fighter (but the fight ends if Krowly is defeated):

- If you somehow lose: Fina deals with them herself (+2 Fina, [advances time]); you can try again the next evening ???
- If you win: the elves run (+5 Fina); Krowly swipes the panties unnoticed; Fina orders him to fuck in the mouth a captured futa elf who distracts them and escapes ([image scene], -50 lust, +10 Fina, +100 EXP, [advances time]). The fight's result leads to the events in the Where is Fina? quest.

After collecting all three pairs, summon the demon again to fulfill your side of the contract. The demon introduces himself as Jimm and teaches Krowly how to properly summon a succubus – at any time of day.

Where is Fina?

Started by entering the Ironheart mansion in the morning or daytime, after completing the Contract quest. ??

Fina is not at home. Talk to Astra. She has no idea about Fina's whereabouts either. A scrap of paper on Fina's desk offers a clue: she has been invited to an elven spa as compensation for the waterfall attack. Talk to Astra again to calm her down (+3 Astra), but Krowly is not convinced.

Checking out the spa is not as simple as it seems. During the day, the guard turns back everyone. At night, the front door is locked, but light spills out the side windows. A peek shows Fina being gangbanged by futa elves ([image], +30 lust), so Krowly decides that he should grow breasts to infiltrate the spa and save her.

The "person who knows about transformation magic" is, of course, Melissa. She offers to teach Krowly how to make a boobs potion if he licks her pussy. Go down → [image scene], +100 lust, +1 Melissa, +100 EXP. Now you can brew the potion... if you have the ingredients (mandragora: can be collected only at night; elven futa sperm: either win against a futa elf and use an [Empty bottle] to collect her sperm when you face-fuck her, or buy it from the drunk orc in the orc camp). Drinking the potion gives Krowly a nice pair of breasts and a key item that controls if he shows cleavage or not. Don't worry, the changes are not permanent. You can walk around to see people's reaction to the change (especially Jill → +100 lust).

At the spa, even with boobs Krowly still has to convince the guard to let him through:

- Wine, if you have it.
- Suck her dick → Futa/M [image scene], +100 lust, -3 hunger.
- Fuck in the ass → not in version 0.353.
- Take in the ass → Futa/M [image scene], -100 lust.

Once inside the spa, it's obvious what to do. It turns out that Fina is not held against her will, but she realizes that she has been tricked and she's furious. After she delivers the appropriate beatdown, the elves surrender and promise to make amends by opening the spa to outside visitors (+15 Fina, +100 EXP). (Most of the results are evident on Saturday evenings).

Completing the quest is a prerequisite for Reducto and Futa music.

Night guest

Started by Chat-ting with Carla, after Lizzy has been let out of her jar and has run out of sperm for more than three days. Carla says that the men of the village look tired recently, and she hopes it's not a female vampire. Krowly decides to investigate.

After that, at night you can see a [sprite animation] of the culprit in action when she's visiting a different man every night: on Monday and Saturday, Sebastian (you can't actually see it, but if you Chat with him the next day he complains of a weird dream); on Tuesday and Friday, Eric; on Wednesday, Grandpa Jason; on Thursday and Sunday, Derek (even after he's married). Interacting with the animation gives +15 lust, and the first time you do it +100 EXP for resolving the quest.

Futa music

Started by talking to the red-haired elf manager inside the spa after it opens as a result of Where is Fina?

She tells Krowly they are looking for a musician. By now you've probably met a suitable candidate: Elizabeth Darkwood. Talk to her in the Stone Dragon in the evening, she says she'll check it out. Then visit the spa during daytime to see her. As thanks, she lets Krowly come all over her face ([image scene], -50 lust, +10 Darkwood). From now on, she's at the spa during the day, where you can Flirt with her.

Show must go on

Unlocked on the first Saturday after Futa music is finished, if the relationship with Elizabeth Darkwood is >10; started by talking to the manager of the elf spa (during the day) or Carla (in the evening).

Krowly notices that Elizabeth Darkwood is missing from her usual spot and there's no music. Talking to the person in charge reveals that she's missing, and some suspicious character has been bothering her. The description of said character is a clue to who is responsible, which in turn should give you an idea where to look for her, if you've explored the whole map. She's in the butt bandits' hideout in the mountains/desert

Entering the place triggers a confrontation and a group fight. It can be rather tricky, so be prepared. Tips: useful skills are Sleep, Dark thoughts and Guard/Protective circle.

- If you win: On high enough lust, Elizabeth offers Krowly a reward. Get the reward → Krowly fucks Elizabeth in the ass on the table (M/Futa [image scene], -100 lust). In any case, the quest is done.
- If you lose: The bandings gangrape Krowly while Elizabeth watches (M/M [image scene] with generic naked Krowly; -100 lust), then steal his gold and toss him out. Krowly can try again to save her at any time.

Finishing the quest restores Elizabeth's previous schedule and unlocks an additional Flirt option...

Reducto

Started by entering Krowly's basement after he has grown boobs, after completing Where is Fina?

He remarks that he should try to reverse the effect of the boobs potion. Studying at Krowly's desk in the evening provides the recipe. Brew the potion in the lab to complete the quest.

Big and green

Started by talking to Eric in the morning after Krowly learns Freezing. Eric says that while "exploring" the goblin caves, he was attacked (and fucked) by an unusually large goblin. Krowly decides it's worth investigating.

The western (left) side of the goblin cave is unlocked now. There's a goblin at the bottom... and after you start a fight, the big goblin suddenly appears! Another "boss" fight (she has lots of health; if her HP falls below 30% she crushes you and you lose).

- If you lose: the thick goblin rides Krowly into the ground ([image], -100 lust, [advances time]).
- If you win: is it even possible? An attack powerful enough to drop instantly the last 30% HP?

In both cases, +100 EXP for resolving the quest, and you can now encounter thick goblins elsewhere.

Lost delivery

Started by shopping at Sebastian while owning a [Strange rune] (found as random loot in dungeons, dropped by certain enemies, or [Ancient urn] items, if you "know" a certain character). Sebastian says that a pair of orcs he had hired to make a delivery has lost the package when they made a detour through the goblin caves.

You can meet those orcs in the orc camp, but other than learning that the package was probably taken by some large slime-like creature, that doesn't help much. It's better to investigate "on location". Prepare well. In the goblins' cave, go down the stairs in the east part, then follow the tunnel to the north exit. Better dodge the goblin shamans, they are not easy. North once more, and you are in the goblin village. Talk to the goblin chief. She says that the package was taken by a monster. Return to the "suburb" with the bridges, the goblin guarding the east exit is now gone.

Passing through it, Krowly finds himself in a cave with a few slimes... and a shambling big gelatinous cube! Time for a boss fight (lots of HP, it resists sleep, paralysis and being set on fire, one of its attacks can engulf Krowly, effectively paralyzing him until he can struggle out). Tips: The cube spits Krowly out immediately if he's covered with slime repellent potion or equipped with the [Slimes' terror] amulet

- If you lose: Krowly regains consciousness in the goblin village, naked. [advances time]
- If you win: Krowly finds a [Magic eye] key item, but no package. Talk to the chief again. She admits that it was a ruse to make you get rid of the monster, and gives you the package

Getting the package is a prerequisite for resolving A woman for Derek. Returning the package to Sebastian completes the quest (+100 gold, +100 EXP).

A woman for Derek

Started by talking to Derek in the pub in daytime, after Juliet is employed to teach the children on Mondays and Fridays, and deciding to Help him (this also removes the Seduce option).

But where to find him a busty wife? If you've talked to all the goblins in their village during Lost delivery, you may have noticed a goblin who says she likes humans. If you talk to her after receiving the package from the chief, she's deeply impressed by Krowly beating the cube and offers to become his wife. Now you can suggest

Derek instead. Taisha eagerly agrees to meet him. Cut back to the village, where Taisha meets Derek and drags him into the house to “persuade” him. [advances time]

After the “wedding”, talk to Taisha (+20 Taisha) and Derek (+100 EXP, completes the quest).

Restoration

Started by visiting the second floor of Krowly’s house.

The second floor is currently uninhabitable, and Krowly decides that he has to find someone to help him fix it. If you’ve helped Derek find a wife, talk to him when he’s outside his house and Ask about second floor. It takes him seven days to finish the repairs. On visiting the rebuilt floor, Krowly remarks that it needs furniture. Go to Sebastian’s store. You can buy the furniture for 200 gold (or only 100 gold, if you have helped Sebastian with the lost delivery). In any case, this completes the quest (+200 EXP), furnishes the second floor and allows Krowly to ask Jill to move in.

New laboratory

Started by Ask-ing Melissa about her laboratory. Cannot be finished in 0.353.

After Krowly has obtained the [Magic eye], when he enters his basement he remembers what Melissa told him about using a powerful magic item as an anchor. He decides to saturate the “eye” with magic. In practice this means transferring 999 mana points from Krowly to the orb. There are no daily limitations on transfers, so if you have any mana potions that you can spare, you can accelerate the process. When the orb is fully saturated, choose to Do it to perform a ritual binding the orb to the lab (+200 EXP).

After the binding, the orb can be used to recharge +50 MP once per day. If you’ve learned the Return spell, Krowly can use the magic circle to teleport to a number of unlockable locations at the cost of 50 MP.

Locations are unlocked by visiting them for the first time (old saves have to use the cheat room). So far, they are:

- Melissa’s room.
- The elven camp \(the one with the Spa\)
- The orc camp \(the one next to the elven forest\)
- The goblin village \(deep in the goblin caves\)
- In front of the ruined temple \(the one with the Priestess\)

Further progress in the quest is impossible as of 0.353.

Busty smugglers

Started by talking to Diana if you know Iss.

Diana complains that the inhabitants of the elven forest have intercepted some couriers and stolen three packages that she needs. Krowly, of course, agrees to help.

It’s a straightforward combat quest – go to the elven forest and smash random enemies until they drop all three packages. Nevertheless, it’s harder than it looks. The parcels drop randomly – 1/10 chance for futa elves, 1/2 for elven mages, which means that if you want to finish the quest quickly, you have to win at least three times against one of the toughest, if not the toughest regular mobs in the game so far. Note that parcels drop outside of the normal combat system – after you are completely done with the opponent.

When you have the three packages, talk to Diana to complete the quest (+300 EXP). She offers a boobjob as a reward (Fuck her tits → [image scene], -50 lust, +2 Diana).

Tea with milk

Started by advancing Melissa's Ask topics (until after her involvement in Summon succubus and talking about ghosts).

After Krowly has offered to do her a favor, Melissa asks him to find her some [Elven milk]. There are three possible ways to fulfill her request:

- If you already have some, you can just give it to her.
- Fight an elven mage in the elven forest (big boob sprite).
  - If you win: Fuck busty mage → Tittyfucking → Squeeze them harder → Collect (if you have an [Empty bottle]).
- From the drunk orc trader who sells elven futa sperm and other things in the orc camp. Yes to see his wares; you don't have to buy anything – when you close the screen, Krowly asks him for milk. He asks for a favor in exchange: you can either deliver a letter, or suck him off.
  - Yes → M/M scene of Krowly blowing the orc, [sprite animation]???, -50 lust, -3 hunger.
  - No → Krowly has to deliver a letter to Leaf; after laughing at the contents, return to the orc for your reward.

When Krowly delivers the milk, Melissa takes him to assist her in experiments with body transformation. She inflates her breasts, and then, inadvertently, her lips. Krowly has to help her shrink her lips back to normal first, and then test the stability of her breast transformation by massaging her tits with Reducto potion ([\[portrait image\]](#), +3 Melissa).

On the next Ask, Melissa asks Krowly to accompany her. Yes teleports both to a witches' tea club room, where he is introduced to Sandra, a dark-skinned human witch, and Velena, a huge-breasted elf witch. Look around and interact with the bookshelves and documents for some fun bits and lore, then talk to Sandra and Melissa. Talking to Velena triggers a scene where Sandra greatly increases the elf's breasts until she can't move ([\[image\]](#), +30 lust). Choosing Nipplefuck unsurprisingly results in Krowly fucking one of Velena's now-huge nipples (-100 lust, [image scene]). Talking to everyone possible triggers the end of the quest (+100 lust, -10 hunger, +200 EXP, +10 Melissa) and teleports you back to Krowly's basement.

The matter of [the Order]

Started by helping Fina with her mail after the magic tea party quest has been done and if Eric has received any improved sword from the mysterious Priestess in some dungeon. As of 0.351, full of typos and other text mistakes; the Order is often inconsistently called "Orden", which means the same in Russian.

Fina asks Krowly to deliver an official letter from the Order to Sister Elizabeth. (Using the key item while it's in your inventory gives you an option to Open the letter and read it. Seemingly without any consequences.) Go to the Church to see Sister Elizabeth blowing Eric ([\[image\]](#), no lust gain). It turns out that the Order is searching all the nearby ruins for relics from the Church's past and Sister Elizabeth assumes it's for nefarious purposes. She asks Eric and Krowly to help her by finding those relics before the Order does. Eric agrees and says he will be waiting for Krowly the next time he is at the hunting camp.

You can choose to meet him there, or to go in solo. In the first case, if you say that you are ready you'll be directly transferred to the [Eastern ruins] map; otherwise you'll have to navigate there by yourself (It's directly east of the elven forest). This choice matters only for the next interaction: in the ruined church, a pair of orcs have dug into the basement and you have to decide how to deal with them:

- Bribe with booze → you can choose what drink to give them (any choice spends one of that item):
  - [\[Beer\]](#) → too weak. [\[Wine\]](#), [\[Sweet Lips wine\]](#), [\[Goblin ale\]](#) → the orcs get drunk and fall asleep.
  - [\[Lust potion\]](#) → the orcs get aroused. If Eric is with Krowly, both of them have to suck off the orcs (M/M [\[image scene\]](#) focusing on Krowly, -50 lust -3 hunger). If Krowly is alone, he sucks off one of the orcs (the same M/M [\[image scene\]](#)) and then gets fucked in the ass by the other orc (M/M [\[image scene\]](#) -100 lust -3 hunger). In both cases, the orcs fall asleep afterwards.
- Use sleep spell (if Krowly knows the Sleep spell and has enough mana to use it) → -6 MP, the orcs don't even realize what hit them.

- Seduce (If Krowly has been fucked in the ass at least 10 times) →
  - If Eric is with Krowly, the orcs decide that they fancy him more and double-penetrate him (M/M [sprite animation]). You can Fup (-50 lust [portrait image]) or Just watch.
  - If Krowly is alone, the orcs double-penetrate him (M/M [sprite animation]; as of 0.351, no lust change, only stat updates?). In both cases, the orcs fall asleep afterwards.
- Go away → you have a chance to rethink your strategy.

Once the orcs are asleep, it's just a question of getting their rope and using it to get down the hole, into the church's basement. This is where Eric rejoins the party if Krowly has gone solo. In any case, they both fall down through the cracked floor and become separated, as Eric falls down another level. For the next section, you are alone. It's a dark labyrinth of rooms, with some passages blocked by sliding grilles actuated by levers and switches spread around the labyrinth. A number of monsters are wandering around: slime groups of random size, flying dicks, and busty ghosts who pass through the walls (TODO). The only door that is strictly necessary to be opened is the exit, a double door on the east wall, but some of the locked rooms contain treasure chests (as of 0.351, 3 × random loot). The most notable feature is the breast altar in the room right next to the entrance: drinking from it recovers HP and MP (+100 lust; if Krowly has breasts, they start lactating), but every drink after the first has a chance of making Krowly grow breasts (if he doesn't have any). The other notable feature is a passage connecting two staircases.

After the labyrinth, Krowly catches a glimpse of Eric fighting some tentacle monsters and decides to hurry on. You have to unlock the door in the next room:

- The basic 3×3 "lights out" puzzle on the floor – walking over a tile flips it and also flips the tiles that touch its sides, showing or hiding pieces of a picture. Revealing the whole picture unlocks the door.
    - Hint: If the tiles are numbered as shown below, one possible solution is 8587139.
- |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | 2 | 3 |
| 4 | 5 | 6 |
| 7 | 8 | 9 |
- The stone butt on the wall next to the door. Repeatedly interacting with it causes lust gains (+10 lust → +20 lust → +20 lust) and finally the option to fuck it ([sprite animation] -100 lust), unlocking the door, if it hasn't been unlocked. If Krowly has enough lust left you can fuck it again. Weirdd.

After that, Krowly goes through another passage that allows him to see what's happening on the lower level: Eric has met the mysterious Priestess again (nipple mouth fuck [image scene]). In the next chamber, you can finally reunite. Eric brags about his gift from the Priestess – a [Marvelous sword], or just a blessing if he already has one (from the [Labyrinth] dungeon during hunts). Leaving the dungeon, Eric and Krowly are surrounded by a group of suspicious battle nuns who tell them to leave. Another nun is now guarding the ruined church entrance, so the only option is to leave the map, which returns them to the village. Go to the church to report to Sister Elizabeth and finish the quest (+200 EXP, +15 Sister Elizabeth); you can ask for a celebratory Blowjob ([animated scene], -50 lust; Cum on face → [covers her face and breasts]).

After the quest, the nuns seem to have settled in the ruined church, using it as some kind of base or training camp. You can revisit the place and see the various interactions. And the blessing of the Priestess starts to produce some strange effects on Eric...

Amazing wonders of nipplefucking

Started by Krowly trying to fuck Carla's nipple (one of the random Chat topics, if relationship is >=25 ? and Jill is in town).

Krowly only manages to push back her nipple into her soft breast, but it makes him wonder if there's a way to make her nipples able to be actually penetrated. If you've finished the Tea with milk quest, you should remember the... incident with the busty elven mage Velena, which suggests that she might know something.

Go to Melissa in the daytime on Wednesday to go to another magic party. (Tip: Don't forget to be aroused enough in advance or to bring lust-boosting items.) Flirt with Velena to repeat the magic nipple fucking scene. After that talk to Sandra – her conversation topics are random, so repeat until she refuses to reveal the secret. Then talk to Velena again. She also refuses to give a direct answer, but gives Krowly a hint about the approximate location of the secret. End the party as you wish.

There are two ways of finding the location; the first allows you to visit the place even after the quest:

- Using the Eye of the beholder spell to search for the hidden entrance in the location suggested by Velena. Tip: It's south of the stream, in the south-east corner of the elven forest.
- A certain sneaky character can agree to lead you there for 20 gold, if you have that much (+5 lust).

Reaching the place at last, Krowly is confronted by a four-breasted elf. To prove himself worthy of the secret, Krowly must pass a trial by fighting her. If Krowly refuses (or loses the battle), she boots him out of the secret glade. It's not an easy fight, but as usual it's made easier by careful preparation (e.g. potions). Hints: TODO.

After winning the fight, Krowly can go inside the shrine and talk to her about the secret he wishes to know:

- Can I fuck your tits? and Can I suck your tits? → both are refused, but she allows Krowly to Fap on boobs → [\[portrait image\]](#) scene, -50 lust, [\[covers her breasts\]](#).
- Secret of nipplefucking → she teaches him the necessary spell ([\[advances time\]](#)), completing the quest (+500 EXP).

Visiting Carla is not necessary for completing the quest, but you are probably going to do it anyway...

Juliette's dungeon

Started by talking to Juliette in the morning or daytime after Krowly has visited the dungeon entrance in the bandit's wasteland (Cave north of the acid pools with tentacle monsters) and interacted with the locked door.

Juliette explains that Iss has told her about a dungeon full of old relics, but she's afraid to go in alone due to possible monsters. If Krowly decides to Offer help, both are instantly transported to the entrance cave.

The dungeon itself doesn't have a complicated layout. Some enemies roam the rooms, but they are usually easy to avoid. These are either the familiar tentacle monsters, or swarms of magical flying dicks (they use only lust attacks???: vulnerable to fire); losing to them shows a brief [\[sprite animation\]](#) scene of Krowly and Juliette being fucked by the swarm. Losing to any enemy in the dungeon [\[advances time\]](#) and fails the quest, returning you to the village – you can retry on the next day.

Notable rooms:

- North-west library: one of the bookcases contains a recipe for [soothing tea] (cooking, not potion); there's an amusing bit of lore in one of the other ones.
- Middle north: exit to the final area, but it's closed by bars.
- North-east throne room: +1 Juliette for interacting with the statue of an ass; sit on the throne and face south for some more humor.
- South-east room: accessible through a boulder puzzle, the lever that opens the bars to the final area.

When Krowly and Juliette enter the final area, they are interrupted by the bandits, who are unhappy that you've been looting the dungeon that they have dug up. The conversation reveals certain facts about Juliette's family. It's the final fight of the dungeon – you face the leader (a butt bandit) and two of his masked henchmen:

- If you lose: [\[image scene\]](#) of Krowly being fucked in the ass by the leader (if gay scenes are ON), while Juliette's sprite renews her acquaintance with another bandit (-100 lust). You fail the quest.
- If you win: the bandit leader drops a magic artifact, causing interesting changes to his ... her anatomy; the bandits run, and Krowly grabs the other visible treasure – a book.

Krowly and Juliette return to Krowly's house, where they celebrate their victory with some anal sex (her standard [\[image scene\]](#)). Clearing the quest gives +15 Juliette and +200 EXP. The book is installed in Krowly's basement – reading it provides the recipe for the big load potion. Finishing the quest also unlocks encounters with busy versions of the bandits, including a victory scene, and a new voyeurism opportunity in the bandit hideout on Tuesday and Sunday, in the evenings.

Repeatable quests

These tasks can be done more than once, but nevertheless they are listed in the quest log.

Treasure hunting

Started by talking to Sebastian after finishing Lost delivery, if you know Iss. He says that she might have similar jobs for Krowly. The next portion of the quest is repeatable:

Find Iss in her house. If you agree to take a job, she asks you to find a particular item when you are exploring dungeons. The item is selected at random from a small range of possibilities every time you accept a job (Emerald, Topaz, Ancient urn, Blue amber, Jade dildo, Ancient tablet, Golden idol). All of them can be found as random loot from defeating dungeon enemies or dungeon chests. (As of 0.339.1, the probability of getting the right one in a given treasure chest is 1 in 27, or about 3.7%. TODO)

As a reward, Iss buys the quest item at full price (not at half-price like Sebastian); you also get +10 EXP and +3 Iss. If the item's too cheap, she decides that additional compensation is in order and Krowly gets a free boobjob. There's also a chance that her nipple will slip out her top when she's paying you ([\[portrait image\]](#); Your nipple → Iss reveals her whole breast +20 lust, or Don't tell her → only +10 lust). The quest can be repeated once per week (for the quest's counter, the week starts on Sunday morning), but you have to finish the previous job to be able to start a new one.

Milf next door

Started by talking to Sister Elizabeth during daytime, on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, if you have helped her, and after witnessing Jenna and Erik on Thursday night that week.

Sister Elizabeth tells Krowly that she's concerned about Jenna getting Eric's sperm in her vagina. She asks Krowly to help Jenna sate her lust and redirect her attention to a safer orifice – by fucking her in the ass.

If you have built enough relationship with Jenna, you have to simply choose the Anal option when you Flirt with her during daytime, before the next Thursday. (This disables the Thursday scene for that week.) Report to Sister Elizabeth (TODO: time limit???) to complete the quest and receive your rewards (+20 EXP, +2 Sister Elizabeth, automatic short blowjob [\[animated scene\]](#) for -50 lust). The quest is supposed to be repeatable every week, though as of 0.353 there might be some issues (TODO: test the edge cases).

Hunt events and dungeons

Every day except Thursday, in daytime Eric can be found in your “base” in the forest. If you agree to join him, you are given the options to Hunt or to Go in a dungeon to revisit any dungeon that you have discovered during previous hunts. Hunting gives you up to three consecutive random events, and you can stop the hunt after each one. For low-level characters, the events are heavily weighted towards generic fights against slimes and fairies; those become less frequent for level 3 and higher, and disappear completely on reaching level 6. Entering a dungeon during a hunt means forfeiting the next random events. Finishing the hunt or completing a dungeon [advances time]. Not all dungeons and events are available from the beginning – some are unlocked by completing quests, other actions or leveling up.

Butt bandit ambush event

While hunting, Eric and Krowly are ambushed by the butt bandits in a canyon.

- If you lose: the bandits steal your gold (you can recover it from their base in the mountains).
- If you win: +5 EXP and a random loot item (in addition to any drops from the bandits).
  - (after quest) Titfuck her → [image scene] -50 lust +30 Eric's lust; if Eric's lust ≥ 100, continues with [text scene] of Eric fucking her mouth.

Ambushed wine merchant

Eric and Kowly can interrupt a highway robbery – the familiar wine merchant has been attacked by bandits.

- If you win: +5 EXP, the merchant gives you 2 x [Wine] as thanks (in addition to any bandit drops).
- If you lose: Diana the guard shows up and takes care of the bandits - and takes the wine.

Crystal caves dungeon event

Unlocked by dealing with the fat goblin.

While hunting, you meet Jaina and Rose around a campfire on a random glade. They offer you to join them to explore a nearby cave. If you accept:

The first cave has some slimes and goblins (beware of hidden fat goblins!). The second cave has a tentacle monster, and then a scripted ambush when the four get separated into two groups. Krowly ends up with Jaina fighting a group of slimes (that combine into a slimegirl).

- If you win: you can collect pieces of ice quartz. On the 13th, Jaina offers celebration sex and you get to pick between Rose (blowjob [image scene], -50 lust) and Eric (blowjob [image scene], -50 lust, [covers Eric]). At the end: +20 EXP, 4 pieces of ice quartz, +1 Eric, +1 Jaina, +1 Rose.
- If you lose: Jaina saves you but demands a reward. Krowly/Jaina/Eric anal threesome. unlocks Jaina and Eric's "training sessions" ([image scene], -100 lust).

Orc confrontation event

While hunting, you run into Jaina and Rose, who are literally running in the opposite direction. It turns out that they are chased by a mob of angry orcs, both male and female. (orcs are tough and somewhat resistant to both ice and fire, male orcs raise their axes to deliver a powerful blow on the next turn). Tips: with Krowly's Sleep and Rose's Snowball you should have no problems keeping most of them incapacitated while Eric and Jaina concentrate on a single target.

- If you win: +5 EXP, +3 Jaina, +3 Rose, and it turns out the orcs' anger had been justified.
- If you lose: The orcs are content with having beaten you up.

Meeting Juliet

Unlocked by saving Juliet.

While hunting, Eric and Krowly can meet the perverted “naturalist” during her explorations of nature. The circumstances are random, but new possible locations are unlocked by the number of times you’ve encountered her (a meeting counts only if you’ve talked to her):

1. A glade with various rare plants. When Eric warns her that bandits may rape her, she replies that she hopes so.
2. A canyon full of tentacle monsters, both hidden and crawling around. One of them has caught Juliet and stuffs her holes with its tentacles ([image scene], +30 lust).
3. A glade full of fairies who want to play with the heroes’ cocks (Yes → short [image scene], -100 lust). Juliet is talking with a flower girl; approaching them triggers a lust-inducing pollen cloud and Krowly fucking Eric in the ass while Juliet watches (M/M [image scene], -100 lust, +3 Eric, +3 Juliet; unlocks Flirt option).

Meeting Mabel

If you have defeated Mabel, the minotaur girl, you can meet her on a random glade during a hunt. She offers the same interactions as on Sunday, including trade.

Cockflowers glade

Unlocked by defeating the plant girl in the fairy glade; if the pregnancy setting is ON.

While hunting, Eric and Krowly meet Jaina and Rose in a strange glade, with fairies, tentacle monsters and a pregnant flowergirl as final boss (uses sleep and poison; drops Emeralds). On clearing the dungeon: random loot, +5 EXP, +1 Eric, +1 Jaina, +1 Rose.

Ruined church event

Unlocked by finishing Tea with milk (you start seeing nuns on various maps).

While hunting, Eric and Krowly come across the ruins of a church. It doesn’t take a genius to figure out how to get inside. A chest contains 3 x [Wine]. If you take the bottles, on exiting the church our adventurous duo is confronted by a pair of battle nuns who are unhappy with their looting:

- If you win: leaving the map clears the dungeon, +1 Eric, +1 EXP.
- If you lose: the nuns “punish you properly”... by giving you a tedious lecture (-100 lust, [advances time]).

[Ancient temple] dungeon (random layout)

A dungeon constructed from randomly selected segments. May contain:

- Room with many mushrooms.
- Tentacle monster room with a human skeleton. Tentacle monsters hide below cracked floor tiles.
- Slime room with a dragon skeleton.
- Rolling boulders puzzle room.
- Pregnant lamia. On win: Go away or Fuck (lamia threesome, [portrait image], -50 lust).
- Three goblins round a campfire, led by a pregnant one. On win: Let them run away (+50 lust) or Fuck → In pussy or In ass ([image scene], -100 lust). If you still have high enough lust, Krowly and Eric can double-penetrates the last goblin ([image scene], -100 lust, [advances time]).
- Cracked path treasure room. Do I have to explain that you just have to avoid the cracked tiles? Top chest: random loot; middle chest: empty; bottom chest: +5 EXP, +1 Eric.
- Four switches treasure room. The on/off state of the switches should match the candelabras. Chest: random loot, +5 EXP, +1 Eric.
- Boulder puzzle treasure room. Just roll the boulder on top of the empty switch. Chest: random loot; crate: +5 EXP, +1 Eric.

It always contains a final safe zone, where you meet the Priestess. In exchange for Eric and Krowly fucking her nipple mouths (-100 lust, [\[image scene\]](#)), she gives Eric a Mighty Sword if he doesn't already have it, or blesses the party, restoring all HP and MP.

[Old ruins] dungeon (goblins)

Underground ruins with a few goblins in front of a fire. If you win and have enough lust, you have the choice to Let them run away or Fuck the goblins ([\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust). If you still have enough lust, Krowly and Eric can double-team the last goblin ([\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust, [\[advances time\]](#)).

[Ancient ruins] dungeon (tomb)

Eric and Krowly find a glade with the entrance of an ancient underground tomb. It turns out that it is already being explored by three elves – one busty sorceress and two futa warriors.

- If you defeat them, you can Let her go (+50 lust), or have Eric and Krowly each Facefuck a futa elf ([\[sprite animation\]](#) and a standard [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust). If still enough lust, they can Fuck busty mage, Erik taking her ass and Krowly her vagina ([\[portrait image\]](#), -100 lust).
- If you are defeated, Krowly's facefucked by one of the futa elves (standard [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust, -3 hunger).

Top chest: random loot and an [\[Ancient urn\]](#); right chest: +5 EXP, +1 Eric.

[Cave in the rocks] dungeon (lamia cave)

A cave opening into a cliff leads Eric and Krowly in a short, straightforward maze, and then the lair of a pregnant lamia, supported by two ordinary ones (she can drain HP, all lamias can stun or paralyze).

- If you win, you can Go away (+50 lust), or Fuck → Krowly fucks her mouth while Eric fucks her pussy ([\[portrait image\]](#), -50 lust).
- If you lose, a lamia forcefully sucks Krowly off. If you choose to Resist, she makes him cum by shoving her tail up his ass. In both cases, standard [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust.

Defeating her clears the dungeon: +5 EXP, +1 Eric and random drops of [Old coin] from the lamias.

[Magic lair] dungeon (lamia canyon)

Eric and Krowly follow a stream through a canyon. At its end, they find a trio of lamias, led by a four-breasted one (uses mass silence and a magic ice attack, normal lamias can stun or paralyze).

- If you win, you can Go away (+50 lust), or Fuck → Krowly fucks her upper pair of tits while Eric fucks her lower pair ([\[portrait image\]](#), -50 lust).
- If you lose, a lamia forcefully sucks Krowly off. If you choose to Resist, she makes him cum by shoving her tail up his ass. In both cases, standard [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust.

Defeating her clears the dungeon: random loot, +5 EXP, +1 Eric.

[Bandit lair]

A couple of tents guarded by bandits and the occasional hidden tentacle monster. Random mushrooms. Left tent chest: random loot; right tent chest: +5 EXP, +1 Eric. Clearing the dungeon: +1 EXP, +1 Eric.

[Riddle dungeon]

Eric and Krowly explore a cave and find Jaina and Rose in a room with a locked door. To open it, you can either:

- If you have any lust, look at the left statue and choose to Fup (sic) (generic masturbation) [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust).
- Find out the random combination of lever positions that unlocks the door by brute force. There are  $3^3 = 27$  possible positions. Step in front of the door after each one. If you are not mathematically inclined,

After that, it's a straightforward dungeon crawl. Left chest: +1 Jaina; middle chest: +1 Rose; clearing the dungeon: +5 EXP, +1 Eric, +1 Jaina, +1 Rose.

[Goblin dungeon]

Eric and Krowly find themselves in a cave. One branch is inhabited by tentacle monsters, the other by goblins, including the thick variant if unlocked. Left chest: random loot; right chest: +5 EXP, +1 Eric.

[Labyrinth] (random entities)

Unlocked by "donating" at least once to the Priestess in the ancient temple dungeon.

Eric and Krowly find another interesting cave. This time the entrance to the dungeon itself has to be unlocked by solving a simple sliding tiles puzzle. The image pieces should be pushed around to assemble an image of the Priestess in the middle four tiles of the tracks. (Hint: make sure that the left side of the face is in the leftmost top slot, and the right breast - in the rightmost bottom slot, using the middle four slots to swap things around.)

Unlike the first random dungeon, the layout of the dungeon itself does not change - what changes is what treasure chests appear, the enemies that spawn (a mix of slimes, tentacle monsters, ghost girls), and the position of the entrance to the second floor and the switch that opens it. There are three possible positions of the entrance/exit (the inactive ones are blocked by piles of dirt):

- Room in the north-west corner, flanked by gargoyle statues
- Room in the north-east corner, right next to the winged statue room
- Room in the middle of the eastern edge, containing a winged statue and broken bases

There are also three possible positions of the switch (all are in rooms with bare-titted caryatids):

- South-eastern corner room
- Central room with the quartered pool
- North central room with pots

Unsurprisingly, the Priestess awaits you on the second floor with another reward for Eric ([Epic sword]; if you already have it, she blesses you, refilling HP and MP) if you offer a "sacrifice" (-100 lust, [image scene]), or +50 lust if you refuse.

Characters

Under construction. Characters that Krowly can gain relationship points with or interact with in some way to produce scenes. Listed in alphabetical order.

Agnieszka

Grandma Agnieszka (or Agneshka) is an old – really old – village woman, the wife of Grandpa Jason. They live together in their house in the south-western corner of the village, right by the exit.

If the weather is clear, Agnieszka spends the morning and the day grazing her sheep on the small pasture right next to the village exit. Otherwise, she stays inside together with Jason. In the evening, she can be found at home (while her husband's visiting the pub). At night, they sleep at home (...except on Saturday).

If you talk to her (or Flirt) on Monday or Thursday, she tells Krowly that one of her sheep, Marvin (presumably a ram), has gone missing, and asks you to find him. Just find the sheep and interact with it: Krowly goes back to the village off-screen and you get +1 Agnieszka.

When it's raining and she's cooped inside together with Jason, she asks Krowly for soothing tea for Jason. Give the tea → +3 Agnieszka, 3 x [Bread] and, on a high enough relationship, a more intimate reward.

Agnieszka is one of the characters who can experience cum inflation – when Krowly is under the effects of the big load potion, anal or vaginal sex with her gives her a large inflated belly visible in all her illustrations for a few days (if the PREGNANCY setting is ON).

Finding Marvin: His location is randomly selected from the list:

- in the village, next to the Ironheart Mansion
- in the forest, by the waterfall
- in the forest, the last eastern path before the exit to the tower, southern dead-end
- Old Tower area, north-west corner
- in the mountains, the deserted camp site just north of the passage with the cracked tiles

As interacting with him returns you instantaneously back to the village with no MP cost or time advance, you can use him as improvised transport.

Alice

Initial relationship score: 0.

Alice is employed by Carla as the sole waitress and maid of the Stone Dragon. She lives together with her little brother Jessie (or Jesse) in the house right next to Krowly's home.

Alice can be found doing washing next to her house in the morning, unless it's raining – then she's inside, cooking. She works at the Stone Dragon in the daytime and the evening, and sleeps in her house at night. Derek's marriage frees up her evenings on Thursday, and she spends them relaxing in the pond behind Jenna's house. Alice participates in "Topless Fridays".

Krowly can Help her with the washing (+1 Alice, [advances time]), or with the cooking ([advances time]; +1 Alice and +3 cooking, if cooking ≤ 30, or +3 Alice otherwise). When the relationship progresses, in the evening he can Invite to dance (+2 Alice, [advances time], though on a high enough relationship she can invite him to dinner afterwards...).

Astra

Initial relationship score: -15.

Astra is Fina Ironheart's spoiled daughter and the ostensible love interest of Eric (who apparently can't even work up the courage to ask her for a dance, though). She lives together with her mother in their mansion in the north-eastern corner of the village, above the church.

She spends the morning at home. During the day, she looks after Jessie (Alice's little brother) and Charlotte (Derek's daughter) – on a small clearing below the manor when it's clear, inside the manor when it rains, though Juliet's teaching frees up some of her days. In the evening, she's at the pub, waiting for Eric to finally invite her to a dance. She sleeps at home.

Astra really dislikes Krowly (she's the only character that starts with a negative relationship score), because she (quite reasonably) considers him a pervert. She's also not quite happy about her mother's behavior and Fina's relationship with Krowly. In turn, if Krowly gets closer to Fina, she will, ahem, try to improve her daughter's attitude. To get closer to Astra, Krowly can look after the children instead of her (+1 Astra, [advances time]), and after he gains some trust, Invite to dance (+2 Astra, [advances time]). Astra also seems to find M/M relationships arousing: Talking to her after Eric shows up in the pub with sperm on his face gives +3 Astra.

Astra and Eric's relationship: there's a hidden score describing the progress of Astra and Eric's relationship, unlocking possible scenes between them. Actions and events that contribute to the score:

- (+1) Talking to Astra when Eric shows up in the pub with semen on his face.
- (+1) Convincing Astra to take part in Topless Friday (you can ask her after Alice starts dancing on the table, she agrees if her relationship with Krowly is above 0 and Jenna is also present). This makes Eric sit on her table, and he continues doing so even when it's not Friday.
  - (+1) Inviting anyone else (Alice, Jenna or Juliet) to dance (causes Astra and Eric to join).
    - (+3 on a Friday, as Astra dances topless.)
  - (+1) Witnessing the lovers' goodnight kiss on Friday night.
    - (+5) Witnessing the goodnight blowjob.

Unlockable scenes so far: (≥10) deepthroat scene on Friday night.

Carla

Initial relationship score: 5.

Carla is the owner of the Stone Dragon inn and pub, and thus, Alice's employer. She can be found behind the bar of the pub from morning till evening, and she sleeps in her room in the inn's basement at night.

Krowly can Chat with her (and Flirt, if high enough relationship level), Shop for [Beer] and [Good dinner], or Eat lunch (-10 gold, -10 hunger, [advances time]). She occasionally gets lonely at night (Tuesday and Wednesday). She takes part in "Topless Fridays".

Carla is one of the characters who can experience cum inflation – when Krowly is under the effects of the big load potion, anal or vaginal (??? TODO) sex with her gives her a large inflated belly visible in all her illustrations for a few days (if the PREGNANCY setting is ON).

Related quests: Amazing wonders of nipplefucking.

Conda

Conda is a large, thick goblin armed with a warhammer. She caused Eric and Krowly some headaches back pain during the Big and green quest.

After the quest, her encounter in the western tunnel becomes repeatable, but she is replaced with a generic thick goblin. She can be found in the goblin village on Tuesday and Friday, in the daytime, but as of 0.353, all her interactions are dialogue only.

Derek

Derek is a middle-aged villager who lives alone with his young daughter Charlotte after his wife ran away. Their house is in the south-west corner of the village, west of the pub. He dislikes Krowly and has warned his daughter to stay away from him.

Usually, Derek tends to his garden in the morning (or cooks inside when it's raining), fishes next to his house during the day, and has dinner with his daughter in the pub in the evening. After Juliet arrives in the village and starts teaching the kids on Monday and Friday, in the daytime he can be found in the pub drowning his sorrows. Krowly can offer to Help him (starts the A woman for Derek quest) or Seduce him (repeatable M/M scene).

If Krowly finds him a new wife, Derek warms up somewhat. Krowly can now Flirt with him in the daytime, when he's fishing by his house.

Diana

Diana is a female soldier who guards the Gate of Pala together with a male soldier named Conlan.

Both are on guard duty during the light parts of the day, then they take turns resting: in the evening, Conlan keeps watch while Diana sleeps, at night it's the other way round (except on Sunday). Most of the time there's not much happening, so Diana tries to alleviate the boredom with the occasional blowjob (Tuesday and Friday). And Monday morning she tries to shake down the wine merchant for some free booze.

After Krowly helps Diana retrieve some stolen packages, he can Flirt with her.

Sister Elizabeth

Sister Elizabeth is the priestess or nun in charge of the village church and its graveyard. She can always be found in or around the church – she lives in her room in the back of the building.

Except on Sunday, she is free in the morning, and also usually during the day. After Juliet starts teaching the village children, this also occupies Sister Elizabeth during daytime on Monday and Friday.

Visiting the church Sunday morning triggers Krowly attending a service (+3 Sister Elizabeth, [advances time]). Some of them involve special events:

- Fina punishes Krowly after the events of a certain quest.
- Village meeting about Juliet's arrival.
- Village meeting about Jill's arrival.

Another way to get closer to Sister Elizabeth is to help her with church maintenance in the evening, on Monday, Thursday or Saturday (+1 Sister Elizabeth, [advances time]). On Wednesday evening, she is otherwise occupied...

Related quests: The night is dark.

Elizabeth Darkwood

Elizabeth is a futa musician who plays in the evening in the Stone Dragon pub. (The character is a stand-in for an actual person who has created a lot of the game's soundtrack, including the main menu music.) After the Futa music quest, she also plays in the elven spa during the day. Being a part-time employee at the pub, she participates in "Topless Friday".

In both places, you can Order music → -5 gold, +1 Darkwood, and she starts playing, blocking all other activity. Until the track ends, you will be prompted periodically if you want to Stop listen (sic) or continue listening. Don't put the game's window in the background, or the music will keep playing! In the spa, you can also Flirt with her.

Other related quests: [\[The\] Show must go on](#).

Eric

Eric is a red-headed wannabe hero and Krowly's best friend. He's the step-son of Jenna and the ostensible love interest of Astra. Eric lives together with his step-mother in their house in the middle of the village.

Eric spends the morning in combat training behind his house (except on Thursday, when he has a bath, to prepare for a different kind of adventure, and when it's raining – then he “trains” in his room). During the day, he can be found in a little fenced-off area in the forest, where he and Krowly built a fort when they were kids. (Except on Thursday, when he ventures solo into the goblin caves.) In the evening, he joins the other regulars at the Stone Dragon pub, where he tries to work up the courage to invite Astra for a dance. At night, he sleeps peacefully in his bed... except on Thursday.

Krowly can join Eric during the day and look for adventures together with him. If the adventure has a positive outcome, it also involves improving Krowly's relationship with Eric (usually +1 Eric per day/adventure).

Eric is one of the characters included in the clothing system: his sprite and portrait image reflect what he is equipped with. The options so far are his normal clothes, naked and [Black lingerie].

Eric's transformation

Eric gets blessed one time too many by the mysterious Priestess during the events of a certain quest. As a result, he starts a gradual transformation into a more feminine form, though the process is reversible, both in part and in full.

The stages of the transformation are determined on how many transformation points the character has accumulated until the given day's morning; Krowly reacts to them when talking to Eric at the hunting camp:

1. 7 points → more feminine body with a narrower waist and wider hips;
2. 14 points → a longer haircut: Krowly can suggest Keep the haircut or Cut hair short (reverts the change, but the points remain);
3. 21 points → large breasts: Krowly can't miss the opportunity to cop a feel (+5 lust, +10 Eric lust);
4. 28 points → larger, more feminine lips;
5. 35 points → huge bimbo lips.

The feminization process does not proceed far enough to remove the penis or add a vagina.

Eric gains one transformation point every night. Some other things can also affect the score:

- After the first transformation:
  - +1 point for every time Krowly finishes in Eric's ass or Eric swallows his sperm.
  - +1 point for every time Eric is anally or orally fucked during hunt and dungeon events.
  - +1 point for every [Minotaur sperm] or [Futa elf sperm] item consumed by Eric.
- +5 points if Eric consumes a [Boobs potion] (but no immediate breast growth).
- -10 points if Eric consumes a [Reducto potion]. You can choose to Just drink this potion, Apply to your boobs (removes breasts and disables breast transformation), or Apply to your lips (undoes one stage of lip transformation and disables that stage).

Several characters have one-off reactions to the transformations (as of 0.352: Astra, Jenna and Jill).

Fina

Fina Ironheart is a famous adventurer in retirement, current mayor of the village and the mother of Astra. Together with her daughter, she lives in her manor in the north-east corner of the village.

In the morning, Fina is doing paperwork on the table on the first floor of the mansion. During daytime, she can be found in her library/study. Where she spends her evenings is a bit of a mystery in the beginning, but it soon becomes clear. Saturday evenings become an exception after a certain quest. At night, she sleeps in her locked room... unless she's occupied otherwise.

Krowly can help her deal with her mail (Need help? → +1 Fina, [advances time]). All other ways of advancing the relationship involve either quests, or sex scenes.

Iss

Iss is a red-headed elf woman who really loves wine (but not hangovers), and apparently has some dealings with Sebastian, the village's shopkeeper. She lives in the house in the west part of the elven forest.

Krowly can meet her in the evening in the elf camp (on Friday, Saturday or Sunday), and if things go well, she invites him to visit her any time in her house (and apparently stops visiting the camp). On your first visit, she also explains the occasional... elf-orc encounters in that part of the forest.

After Krowly does Sebastian a favor, Iss can offer him to search for certain items for her.

Iss can also be occasionally seen, but not interacted with in other circumstances, such as giving Sebastian a blowjob below the table in his store, or witnessing \(directing?\) the bandit's assault of the wine merchant during the hunt event. Those events have no mechanical or plot consequences so far.

Jaina

Jaina is a muscular adventurer with a large bulge, a larger bust and a boisterous, dominant personality. She's Rose's partner in adventure, and occasionally, sex.

Jaina and Rose are staying at the Stone Dragon. Jaina sleeps late in the morning, probably due to the duo's night activities, and she spends the day and the evening in the pub. (Saturday evenings become an exception after a certain quest.) At night, she gets a blowjob by Rose behind the Stone Dragon if the weather is nice, or cuddles with her in bed otherwise.

Krowly and Eric can meet, and potentially team up with Jaina and Rose on multiple occasions when they hunt monsters or search for dungeons. Helping the adventurer duo during those events is the only way to advance Jaina's relationship before sexual options become available.

Jaina is one of the characters included in the clothing system: her sprite and portrait image reflect what she is equipped with. The options so far are her normal clothes, naked and [Black lingerie].

Jenna

Jenna is Eric's middle-aged step-mother, who looks younger than she is. She lives together with her step-son in their house in the middle of the village.

In the morning, Jenna can be found in the chicken coop next to her house, where Krowly can help her with collecting the eggs (+2 Jenna, one [Egg] item). On most days, she spends the rest of the day and the evening at home. On Tuesday, if it's not raining in the evening she bathes in the pond behind her house. If Krowly has managed to convince her to take part in the "topless Friday" at the Stone Dragon, she shows up in the evening and he can invite her for a dance (+2 Jenna). At night, she sleeps in her bed... except on Thursday, or whenever circumstances have found her a partner.

Jenna also sometimes shows up when Krowly and Eric set out on an adventure, to give some food to Eric (and on a high enough relationship score, also to Krowly: a [Good dinner] item).

Jill

Jill is Krowly's step-sister, an adventurer who travels a lot. Recently, she has decided to spend some time at her birthplace.

Jill arrives in Krowly's house on the Sunday after Krowly has fixed Sister Elizabeth's nocturnal problem, but she decides to stay at the Stone Dragon inn. At the first Sunday service in the church after Jill's arrival (which can be the same day), Sister Elizabeth asks her to find a way to justify her residence in the village. Jill is at a loss and Krowly steps in and points out that she can count as a member of his household.

Jill loves drinking, and she can be found at the bar of the Stone Dragon at any time, except certain mornings (Wednesday and Friday) when she can't bother to get out of bed. She's also quite dirty-minded: at her suggestion, Carla institutes "topless Fridays" at the pub. To get closer to her, give her alcohol (beer for Stare and Sweet Lips wine for the right Chat topic) - see her morning and daytime entries. If Krowly manages to have her destroyed bedroom fixed, he can invite her to move to the house (though she still spends the majority of her time in the pub).

Juliet

Juliet (or Juliette) is a perverted wandering scholar who decides to live in the village for a while after being saved by Krowly (see below). She's staying at the Stone Dragon inn, and spends most of her time there.

At the first Sunday service in the church after Juliet's arrival, Fina asks her to find some way to contribute to the village. It is agreed that Juliet will teach the village children in the church. Thus, she's occupied (together with Sister Elizabeth) on Monday and Friday in the daytime.

In the pub, if you talk to Juliet in the morning or in daytime, you can ask her to Come with me to fulfill her wish to see "something nasty" - she temporarily joins the party until you do something that advances time or try to leave the village. Among the other effects, she can now participate in some of the scenes available at those times (usually as an enthusiastic spectator), which in some cases results in further "dates" at night that Krowly can witness. In the evening, you can Invite her to a dance (+2 Juliet), or Flirt with her.

Krowly and Eric can also occasionally meet Juliet during their hunts.

Juliet is one of the characters included in the clothing system: her sprite and portrait image reflect what she is equipped with. The options so far are her normal clothes, naked and [Black lingerie].

Juliet also can experience cum inflation – when Krowly is under the effects of the big load potion, anal sex with her gives her a large inflated belly visible in all her illustrations for a few days (if the PREGNANCY setting is ON).

Saving Juliet: Krowly first sees her in the forest (southernmost eastern path, then the upper dead-end) while she's being anally raped by a bandit ([\[sprite animation\]](#)). You can walk away or Interfere, which starts a fight with the bandit. You'd better win, because...

- If you lose: [the bandit fucks Krowly anally \(M/M \[image scene\], only Krowly's visible, -100 lust\) before Juliet attacks the bandit and drives him away](#)
- If you win: the bandit runs away.

In both cases, you get +10 EXP and Juliet's gratitude (+20 Juliet). Talk to her. If your lust is high, you can ask her for Sex (doggy-style [\[sprite animation\]](#), -100 lust). If you've defeated the bandit, you find +40 gold. In any case you also find a magical scroll, enabling the Return spell quest.

Kaaren

Kaaren is a non-hostile snakewoman who has a short haircut and unusually large breasts for a lamia. Unlike the others of her kind, it takes some provocation to make her attack.

She can be found on Tuesday and Saturday mornings, bathing in the lake south of the temple of the mysterious Priestess. As of 0.353, there's not much content for her, but the developer has promised more.

Kestia

A white-haired orc woman looking for woodchoppers in the orc camp.

Leaf

Leaf is a shirtless male elf who grows and sells mushrooms. He can be found in the elf camp in the morning, during the day and at night.

In addition to his mushroom business, at night Leaf will buy all your [pixie dust] wholesale. Sell him enough and you'll be able to Flirt with him.

Lizzy

Lizzy is Krowly's pet slime-girl. She lives either in her jar, or freely moving around Krowly's house.

After finishing the magic circle, Krowly still has a jar of slime-girl remains left. As one of the books in his home suggests, consuming sperm makes slimes grow, and large slimes grow breasts to attract men. Thus, an option to ejaculate in the slime jar appears in Krowly's masturbation choices when he goes to bed. After "feeding" the jar 10 times, a slime girl appears when Krowly leaves his bedroom, resulting in a boobjob [\[image scene\]](#) (-100 lust) and Lizzy being given her name.

To interact with her, interact with the jar in your Key items. If you are in Krowly's house, you have the additional option to let Lizzy out – she will roam the house and its basement until you ask her to go back in the jar. She has the same scenes in both cases.

Lizzy has an internal counter that tracks how many doses of sperm she has consumed during her scenes:

- In combat, if Krowly's HPs fall below a certain threshold (but he's not yet knocked out), Lizzy will heal him at the beginning of the turn, spending one unit of sperm.
- She also provides a Special skill in battle: healing one ally (also consumes one unit of sperm).
- When she's out of her jar, she consumes one unit per day. If she runs out, after a couple of days she starts looking for food elsewhere.

Mabel

Mabel is a female minotaur merchant who visits the village every Sunday to sell minotaur products. She puts up her stall in the middle of the village, in front of the chicken coop. If it's raining, she seeks shelter in pub, removing her wet clothes. At night, she sleeps in the straw at the back of the chicken coop.

Answer Yes to her offer to shop for [Minotaur milk] and [Minotaur sperm]. You can ask to suckle directly from her breasts with I'd like some fresh milk, but then she challenges Krowly to a fight. Unsurprisingly, even female minotaurs are tough opponents (she has a lot of HP: can use a stunning attack and lust attacks).

- If you lose: Mabel feeds Krowly minotaur sperm, with predictable results +100 lust -20 hunger.
- If you win: Krowly sucks Mabel's breasts (see the Sunday entry). After that, she lets him suckle without fighting.

Raising the relationship to some point triggers a blowjob when choosing to suck milk. This scene then becomes repeatable through Mabel's Flirt option.

Krowly and Eric can also occasionally meet Mabel during their hunts.

Maruna

Maruna is the four-breasted chief of the goblin village. She spends most of her waking hours on her throne, supervising the village, though she does bathe three times a week in the evenings (on Monday, Wednesday and Friday). At night, she sleeps in her cave, in the north-east corner of the village.

Krowly has to deal with her at first because of Sebastian's lost package. Taisha is not the only one who has found the results impressive – when Krowly talks to the chief, she asks him to help the goblins by breeding them for money. If he agrees, he can show up to “help” at any time during the day.

Meril

TODO

Melissa

Melissa is a secretive, anti-social witch (sorceress?) who can summon herself a penis. Krowly shows a great interest in her magical knowledge (and her body) and he tries to become her apprentice.

Melissa lives in the Old Tower south of the forest and getting in requires some effort (see below). She never leaves the tower and doesn't seem to sleep, so Krowly can Flirt with her at any time. Once a day, Krowly can also Ask her something, each discussion unlocking the next topic if the right conditions are met. After the discussion, she refuses to talk or flirt until the next day.

Topic progression:

1. Krowly asks her about the tower and she explains how to use magic to expand and fold physical space (+20 EXP, unlocks the New laboratory quest).
2. (part of quest) Melissa explains how to create powerful magic barriers.
3. Melissa explains the difference between “real” ghosts and ghost-imitating spirits after Krowly apologizes for banishing her guardian ghost. He offers to help her with anything as compensation.
4. Melissa asks Krowly to bring her some [Elven milk] (starts the Tea with milk quest).
5. Melissa takes Krowly to a tea party (finishes the same quest).

On one of the tables, there's an old book. If Krowly is above level 4, once a day he can Study books (+5 EXP, [advances time]). After doing it five times, he learns the Eye of the beholder spell. As of 0.353, the developer has promised to fill the intermediate interactions with something more interesting.

Apart from the quests started by talking to her, she's also involved in Summon succubus and Where is Fina?.

Gaining access: The entrance of the tower is protected by a magic seal. At night, the seal is guarded by a busty ghost. It's a tough fight if you are not prepared. If you win, the seal disappears and you gain access to the tower's interior. Inside, go down the stairs and read the tablet on the wall to get a password hint. Then go to the top floor and interact with the magic circle. If you've read Tolkien (or know basic English/Russian), you can guess the correct option right away. (As for “parole”, it's a French loanword used in Russian for “password”, but in English that use is very rare – instead, the word usually refers to conditional release of prisoners.) The activated circle will teleport you to the hidden top floor of the tower, Melissa's home and laboratory. She is surprised to meet Krowly, but apparently likes his compliments (+5 Melissa).

Priestess

A mysterious hooded, blindfolded and bare-breasted priestess. She has dark skin, mouths instead of nipples and short tentacles instead of hair.

She can be found at any time of day in the ruined temple (north of the mountain cliffs). Eric and Krowly also can meet her when exploring certain dungeons. She also shows up in the ruins beneath the ruined monastery. She seems to recognize Eric's claim to heroism and provides him with better swords, and finally, with a rather suspicious blessing...

Related quests: The matter of the Order.

Rayna

Rayna is the muscular blacksmith of the elf camp – a red-haired, freckled elf with large breasts and ass who seems to wear only her blacksmith's apron. She lives in her smithy on the east side of the camp.

In the mornings, she can be found wandering around the camp (though after the spa opens, she can be found relaxing there on Monday and Friday). During the day, she works at her forge, and if Krowly talks to her, she offers him to do some work (Yes → +5 gold, +1 Rayna, [advances time]). In the evenings, she is open for business, both buying and selling. At night, she removes her apron to lay peacefully in her bed... except on Tuesday and Thursday.

Rayna buys elven futa sperm, all that Krowly carries at once if he agrees to sell it, at 3 gold and +1 Rayna per bottle. (An empty bottle costs 2 gold, so that's either not a very good bargain, or just a sign about how common that substance is...) In her shop, she sells:

- [Shovel] – 15 gold;
- [Hoe] – 15 gold;
- [Butt plug] – 20 gold;
- [Red gag] – 28 gold;
- [Blacksmith amulet] – 30 gold;
- (if unlocked) [Black lingerie] – 50 gold. Unlocked by witnessing an argument between Rayna and Diana at the Gates of Palla on Wednesday, during the day.

Rose

Rose is a petite alchemist adventurer who uses potions in combat. She's Jaina's partner in adventure, and occasionally, sex.

Jaina and Rose are staying at the Stone Dragon. Unlike the lazier Jaina, Rose starts the morning with a refreshing bath (standing under the village waterfall, next to the Ironheart manor), except on Thursday, when her spot is occupied and she has to stay at the pub. She spends the day and the evening there anyway. At night, she blows Jaina behind the Stone Dragon if the weather is nice, or cuddles with her in bed otherwise.

While Rose is in the pub, Krowly can Buy potions from her (she offers some combat potions that he can't make... yet?). In the daytime, Chat involves Rose offering Krowly to be the test subject for one of her potions. Choosing to Help usually results in +1 Rose, [advances time] and can lead to amusing (and/or hot) consequences.

Krowly and Eric can meet, and potentially team up with Jaina and Rose on multiple occasions when they hunt monsters or search for dungeons. Helping the adventurer duo during those events is the only other way to advance Rose's relationship before sexual options become available.

Rose is one of the characters included in the clothing system: her sprite and portrait image reflect what she is equipped with. The options so far are her normal clothes, naked and [Black lingerie].

Mother Sabrina

Mother Sabrina is a dark-skinned battle nun, the leader of the battle nuns who settle in the ruined monastery after the events of a certain quest.

Unsurprisingly, she can be found in or around the monastery. In the mornings, she works up a good sweat training outside. She seems to prefer sleeping naked, and occasionally tosses aside her cover in her sleep... (Monday and Thursday night) Her subordinates sometimes also get a bit more playful than expected at night

(Wednesday and Sunday). Another one's love for curiously shaped mushrooms can lead her into temptation in the evening.

As of 0.353, Mother Sabrina has no further effect on the plot.

Samantha

Initial relationship score: 20.

Samantha is the stepmother of Krowly and Jill. She lives in the capital, but she has decided to visit her stepchildren.

Samantha arrives on the Sunday after Jill moves into her renovated bedroom in Krowly's house. After Krowly wakes up, he hears someone upstairs – you can go and greet Samantha in the other bedroom on the second floor (topless [\[portrait image\]](#), +30 lust).

In the morning (except on Sunday), she cooks breakfast, and Krowly can join her. During the day, she either visits her old friend Fina in her manor, or Jill at the pub (Wednesday and Saturday). The evenings she spends at home, or at the pub (Monday, Thursday, Sunday). Sometimes she spends a little too much time undressing for bed at night... (Friday, Sunday).

Sebastian

TODO. M/M. Sebastian is the village's shopkeeper. His shop is in his house, directly south of Krowly's house, and west of Eric and Jenna's house in the middle tier of the village.

Unsurprisingly, Sebastian spends most of his time in his store, though he occasionally goes fishing with Derek – when it's raining in the daytime. He seems to have some kind of business (and non-business...) relationship with the redheaded elf Iss.

Relevant quests: Lost delivery, Treasure hunting, Restoration.

Taisha

Taisha is a busty female goblin who becomes Derek's new wife at the conclusion of A woman for Derek. She spends most of her day working in and around his farm, and the evenings together with him and their daughter at the pub. Krowly can also buy vegetables from her.

Being a goblin who used to walk around mostly naked, Taisha is fascinated with the pretty clothes of human women and takes her dress off when she's outside in the rain so it doesn't get dirty.

She can be seen being fucked by Derek at night, on Tuesday and Friday. When Krowly talks to her after the wedding, out of gratitude she offers him to fuck her cleavage ([\[portrait image\]](#), -50 lust), unlocking her Flirt menu. So far that's the only way to advance her relationship score. If it's high enough, Krowly can convince her to join the "Topless Fridays" at the pub.

Lust gains and scenes

Repeatable daily lust gains and lust loses (i.e. sex scenes). This excludes one-time scenes during quests, winning or losing against enemies (covered in a separate section), and scenes during hunts or adventures (because they are random).

Events tied to a particular day and/or time typically can happen only once per day, for example you can masturbate to the painting only once. All options to Flirt have relationship conditions. All voyeurism scenes ask you if you want to masturbate only if your lust is high enough.

Any day

Events not tied to a particular day.

Lust items

All of them can be used more than once per day, unlike most other entries in this section. Increasing lust:

- Beer: +20 lust, -1 hunger
- Goblin ale: +30 lust, -3 hunger
- Wine: +30 lust, -5 hunger
- Sweet Lips wine: +200 lust, -15 hunger
- Lust potion: +200 lust
- Minotaur sperm: +100 lust, -10 hunger, lactation if breasts.
- Elven futa sperm: +100 lust, -4 hunger
- Snu-snu fruit: -4 hunger; no direct lust gain, but increases lust gain with 50% for three days (the current and the next two).

Decreasing lust:

- Ancient urn: single-use Item, you can have more than one. Using it releases a ghost girl who gives you a blowjob for -50 lust [image scene].
- Slime jar: in Key Items; can be [used] to summon Lizzy outside of combat. If you have any lust and don't have anything repelling slimes, you can Feed her your semen or Titfuck her. Each option has its own short [image scene] and results in -50 lust.
- Soothing tea: -200 lust.

One-off events

Events that can happen only once and are not a part of a quest or a dungeon or hunt event.

- Tentacles nest: In the "ruined passage" that connects the north-west exit of the forest to the mountain region, stepping on one of the cracked tiles results in Krowly falling into a cave full of tentacle monsters.
  - If Krowly has learned the Return spell, he can Struggle (see below) or Teleport back home (no MP cost or requirement, unlike normal use?), only pulling a single tentacle monster along with him.
    - If you win: Krowly remarks about the dangers of traveling in the mountains.
    - If you lose: the monster fills all his holes; [sprite animation], -100 lust, -7 hunger, [advances time].
  - If Krowly cannot or does not teleport, all the tentacle monsters in the cave have their way with him ([sprite animation], -300 lust, -20 hunger, [advances time], larger than usual increase in sex statistics).

Any time of day

- Fap skill → (lust ≥ 200) Yes → standard masturbation [image scene], but with fantasies (random lines of flavor text that depend on Krowly's sex history and certain relationships); -50 lust.
- Meditation skill → -50 lust, +30 MP, +5 hunger, [advances time].
- Going to bed → [advances time to morning] on the next day. Better do it last thing at night.
  - Fap before bed: normally -50 lust, if anything else doesn't happen.
    - (random chance) Jill drunkenly comes in and Krowly finishes all over her (random scene variations, [portrait image]).
      - (random chance, very high lust) Jill thinks Krowly's a stripper (+10 gold) and offers him money for a show. You can either refuse or Cum for Jill → right into her mouth (no illustration, +10 gold).
      - (random chance) Lizzy comes out and eats Krowly's ass ([sprite animation], -100 lust)
    - (random chance, Astra ≥ 25) Astra bursts into the house and demands that Krowly stops appearing in her wet dreams (+50 lust)
    - At the turn of day, automatic +5 lust gain.
    - In the morning, random chance, if lust ≥ 100 (independent chance, mutually exclusive):

- (Jill ≥ 20 and she lives in the house) Jill wakes Krowly up with a titjob ([\[animated scene\]](#), -50 lust, +3 Jill, [\[covers Jill's face and breasts\]](#)).
- (Samantha ≥ 20 and she lives in the house) Samantha wakes Krowly up with a blowjob ([\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust, +3 Samantha).
- Fina bukkake painting: on the 2nd floor of Fina's house. Looking at it gives +5 lust; if you have enough lust, Fap → -50 lust [\[image scene\]](#). There's a random chance of Astra surprising Krowly in the act – he ejaculates all over her instead of onto the painting ([\[covers Astra\]](#)).
- Fina gangbang painting: given to Krowly if he has fapped enough times to the bukkake painting \(>10?\) and talked to Fina about it. Looking at it gives +5 lust and [\[image\]](#).
- Portrait of young Fina (on the table in Eric's room) → +10 lust [\[image\]](#).
- Goddess statue in the church: +10 lust. See also the morning and night options.
- Summoning circle, after Krowly gets it going:
  - Summon Jimm: random chance of seeing the imp having anal sex with a blonde succubus in a random forms of hers (ordinary, pregnant, futa). +20 lust [\[image\]](#).
  - Summon Meril:
    - Handjob → short [\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust; increases MP maximum for the day and proportionally increases current MP.
    - Cowgirl → short [\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust; increases HP maximum for the day and proportionally increases current HP.
- Sexy trees: in various places in the forest and the elven forest. All count as a single interaction.
  - +10 lust just for looking.
  - Breasts tree, ass tree: Fup → different text for each, masturbation [\[portrait image\]](#), -50 lust.
  - Pregnant tree: Suck → breast sucking text scene, -2 hunger.
- (after quest) "Wild" slime girl in the slime cave where you found Lizzy:
  - if you win: Feed her → nipplefuck [\[animated scene\]](#), -50 lust.
  - If you lose: brief [\[sprite animation\]](#) of her fucking Krowly, -100 lust, [\[advances time\]](#).
- (if discovered) Melissa is (almost) always in her room. Flirt:
  - Stare → she flashes her magically summoned penis (+10 lust [\[portrait image\]](#), +1 Melissa)
  - Eat pussy → Go down ([\[image scene\]](#), +100 lust, +1 Melissa) or Not now (-1 Melissa)
  - Suck dick → Go down ([\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust, -3 hunger, +1 Melissa) or -1 Melissa.
  - (if Melissa ≥ 50) both the above gain options to Bring her to orgasm to finish as above, or Change pose → anal cowgirl [\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust, +5 Melissa instead.
- Elven forest voyeurism: sprite animations that appear at random in the elf glade.
  - Futa elf on female orc → +15 lust.
  - Male orcs double-teaming a futa elf → +15 lust; Help her → Krowly ends up facefucking her ([\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust).
- Sacrifice to the goddess: in the ruined temple (up north in the mountains), Pray and then Offer sacrifice → the Priestess sucks Krowly off with her nipplemouth ([\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust, all HP and MP recovered).

Morning

In the village, when it's not raining:

- Peeping at bather: Rose (except Thursdays; [\[image\]](#), +10 lust)
  - If high enough lust, option to fap (-50 lust); scene variant with Juliet.
- Alice is doing her washing. Flirt → blowjob [\[image scene\]](#) (-50 Lust, +2 Alice) → Cum in mouth or Cum on face ([\[covers her face\]](#))
- Grandma Agnieszka is grazing her sheep. Flirt:
  - Show me your boobs (+20 lust, [\[portrait image\]](#), +3 Agnieszka)
  - Handjob → handjob/boobjob in Agnieszka's lap ([\[image scene\]](#), -50 lust, +3 Agnieszka, [\[covers her breasts\]](#), [\[advances time\]](#)).
  - Let me fuck you → old woman doggy-style ([\[image scene\]](#), -100 lust, +5 Agnieszka, [\[advances time\]](#)).
- (if quest completed) Taisha is in or around Derek's house. Flirt:

- Cleavagefuck → [image scene], -50 lust, +2 Taisha, [covers her breasts].

In the village, only if it's raining:

- Grandma Agnieszka and Jason are at home. [Soothing tea] request → Give the tea → +3 Agnieszka, 3 x [Bread] and, if Agnieszka ≥ 10, handjob [image scene] (-50 lust, [covers her breasts]).

In the village, regardless of weather:

- (if in town, not Sunday) Samantha is cooking breakfast. Join → she asks Krowly for a random cooking ingredient (any option [advances time]):
  - If you have it and Give her the ingredient, or tell her to Wait, get the ingredient and give it to her before noon → +3 Samantha (as of 0.353, bugged), +20 EXP, +3 cooking, 1 × [Good dinner] item.

Party member scenes

Scenes available when other characters have joined Krowly's party, typically during hunting and dungeon exploration. In all cases, the scenes are accessible through the game menu → Talk to party → (select character) → Let's have sex. New options are typically unlocked by progressing the relationship with that character, though other conditions also exist. Most options reuse scenes and images originally used elsewhere.

Juliet: She temporarily joins the party if you talk to her in the pub in the morning or daytime → Come with me.

- (Juliet > 30) Titjob → even if it's in the middle of the village; [image scene], -50 lust, +3 Juliet.

Eric: Unsurprisingly, most of these scenes are unavailable if the GAY SCENES setting is ON.

- (Eric ≥ 30) Blowjob → Eric sucks Krowly's dick, M/M [image scene], -50 lust, -50 Eric's lust, options to Cum in his mouth or Cum on his face ([covers him]).
  - If you do it on Juliet's glade, she starts masturbating while she's watching ([sprite animation]).
- (Eric ≥ 30) Fuck my boobs (if Krowly has breasts) → M/M [image scene], -50 lust, -50 Eric's lust, +2 Eric, +1 hunger.
- (Eric ≥ 50) Anal → (if the second option is not unlocked, this is the first scene by default)
  - Fuck me → Krowly is anally fucked in missionary. M/M [image scene], -100 lust, -100 Eric's lust, +2 Eric.
  - (if unlocked) I will fuck you → Krowly anally fucks Eric. M/M [image scene], -100 lust, -100 Eric's lust, +5 Eric.
  - Same note as the blowjob above.

Eric also has a couple of options that appear when his personal lust counter reaches maximum and he's no longer able to fight. There are no relationship requirements. Talk to him and choose to Help Eric:

- Use my dick and Use my ass are the same as the respective scenes above.
- Use your hand → "Think about Astra making out with Fina", [image] of bottomless, erect Eric, -50 Eric's ### lust.

- Lizzy will help you (if not at home) → slime girl feeding [image scene], -50 Eric's lust, +1 Lizzy SP.

Jaina: Unsurprisingly, most of these scenes are unavailable if the GAY SCENES setting is ON.

- (Jaina ≥ 5) Use my mouth → Krowly deepthroats Jaina. Futa/M [image scene], -50 lust, -50 Jaina's lust, +2 Jaina, -3 hunger.
- (Jaina ≥ 10) Use my boobs (if Krowly has breasts) → reused [image scene], -50 lust, -50 Jaina's lust, +3 Jaina, +1 hunger. Futa/M, or does this count as Futa/Futa?
- (Jaina ≥ 15) Use my ass → Jaina fucks Krowly's ass from behind. Futa/M [image scene], -100 lust, -100 Jaina's lust, +3 Jaina.

If Jaina has reached maximum lust, you can talk to her and choose to Help Jaina:

- Just masturbate → "Think of tight goblin butts." [image] of bottomless, erect Jaina, -50 Jaina's lust.
- Same options as above.

Rose:

- (Rose ≥ 20) Blowjob → reused [image scene], -50 lust, -50 Rose's lust, +2 Rose, [covers her].
- (Rose ≥ 50, unlocked) Vaginal → missionary; [image scene], -100 lust, -100 Rose's lust, +3 Rose.
  - Unlocked if Krowly has fucked Rose during her potion experiments.

If Rose has reached maximum lust, you can talk to her and choose to Help Rose:

- Blowjob → same as above.

Professions

They are called that way in the main menu. Those are skills that Krowly uses outside of combat, at particular locations. Each one has three ranks (beginner, apprentice, master), and Krowly progresses by doing the particular activity (30 times for apprentice, 60 for master). This always [advances time].

Gardening

Progressed by Krowly working in his garden ("Tend to plants?" → Yes), which can produce [Ingredients] items that can be sold to Sebastian. Krowly's gardening rank influences the chance of successfully collecting the plants and mushrooms that can be found all over the place. Wild plants occasionally drop seeds that you can plant in the garden.

You can work only if there's at least one fully grown plant in the garden. You can't work at night or when it's raining. Working costs +1 hunger and [advances time].

There are 10 plant slots/tiles in the garden, but only 4 tiles are free in the beginning. The rest have to be cleared up (action button → Clear the field → [advances time], no hunger cost???) . To plant a seed, you need to dig a hole in that tile first ("Prepare the ground for planting?" → Yes → +1 hunger). Afterwards, interacting with the hole allows you to choose a seed. Plants grow for every day that they are watered, either with the bucket by the well, or by rain, and don't need anything else. After the gardening rework in 0.352, collecting [Ingredients] for sale seems to be the only point of tending to the plants (aside from increasing the gardening level to influence wild drops, but that's not obvious).

Harvesting a plant in the garden gives you that plant and at least one seed for it. The number of mature plants in the garden affects the drop rate and number of [Ingredients] items produced by working. You need at least three plants for a guaranteed [Ingredients] item, and getting more above that number is also influenced by Krowly's Gardening skill/rank (??? TODO). TODO: Check if it still drops random herbs?

Cooking

Progressed by Krowly cooking in his house (or helping a certain character). Cooking Something simple consumes a cooking ingredient item of any kind, produces a simple food item, and can be done only once per day. The results depend on rank:

- Beginner → [Dinner] (-4 hunger when consumed). It can also be bought from Sebastian's store.
- Apprentice → [Tasty dinner] (-7 hunger)
- Master → [Good dinner] (-10 hunger)

Some ingredients can be bought from specific people in the village; some are random drops by enemies. They can also be eaten without being cooked, but for little gain (-2 or -1 hunger, depending on type).

Krowly can also Use a recipe to cook a meal that requires more than one ingredient. All starting recipes are nutritionally equivalent to a [Tasty dinner] (-7 hunger).

Special recipes

In addition to the common recipes that Krowly knows by default, you can obtain more complex recipes, for dishes that produce special effects. As of 0.353, there are only two:

- [Goblin stew] - dropped by thick goblins (after the quest either in a certain dungeon or the western branch of the old goblin caves). Requires: apprentice rank, 3 x [Blue mushroom], [Elven milk], [Goblin ale], 2 x [Wild carrot]. Effects: -20 hunger, +3 MaxMP.
- [Soothing tea] – can be found during a certain quest. Requires beginner rank. Effects: -200 lust.

Alchemy

Progressed by Krowly brewing potions in his basement laboratory. Brewing a potion requires an empty [Bottle] and the ingredients specific for that potion. Rank appears to affect only the size of health and mana potions, but no other potions:

- Beginner → [Health potion] (+100 HP), [Mana potion] (+60 MP). Can also be bought from Sebastian.
- Apprentice → [Good health potion] (+200 HP), [Good mana potion] (+120 MP)
- Master → [Strong health potion] (+300 HP), [Strong mana potion] (+180 MP).

Potions

Potion recipes are unlocked in various ways:

- Health potion – unlocked from the very beginning. Also heals poison.
- Mana potion – unlocked from the very beginning.
- Lust potion – a bookshelf in the Ironheart Manor.
- Clear mind potion – the front room bookshelf in the Church.
- Slime repellent – an old book on the floor of the slime cave.
- Boobs potion – from Melissa during the appropriate quest.
- Reducto potion – obtaining it is a small quest of its own.
- Big load potion – learned from a book found during a quest. Its effects last for three days. As of 0.353, the characters supported by the cum inflation system are Agnieszka, Carla and Juliette.

Leveling and skills

Krowly doesn't gain experience by defeating regular enemies. The only ways of gaining EXP are:

- Studying at his desk in the evenings (+2 EXP, [advances time]).
- Completing quest objectives.
- Going on hunts and exploring dungeons with Eric.

Leveling up not only raises Krowly's stats, but it also unlocks new skills (and some quests). Unlike other games, Krowly does not automatically obtain the skills on reaching a new level. Instead, he has to research those skills at home, at his desk, and other conditions may also apply. (The tiny, almost invisible candle at the desk is supposed to serve as a visual indicator whether there are new things to learn.) Skills are researched in the sequence below – you learn the lower level skills first even if you have the level requirements for the higher ones. As you can study only once per day, you can also learn only one new skill per day. Learning a new skill typically gives a +5 EXP bonus instead (or in addition?).

- Level 1 (0 / 0 EXP):
  - Krowly's starting skills (no research required):
    - (non-combat) Fap → allows Krowly to masturbate at any time, if he's very aroused.
    - (non-combat) Meditation → -50 lust, +30 MP, +5 hunger, [advances time]. It can't be used inside certain quest-related dungeons.
    - Fire Arrow – magical fire attack.
  - (non-combat) Clear feelings → displays numerical hunger and lust levels.
  - (non-combat) Mindreading → for a brief period of time, the relationship values of characters (if they have any) are displayed when Krowly talks to those characters.
  - Protective circle – boosts defensive stats for a few turns. It can be cast outside of combat, as a preparation – in this case, it lasts until you move.
- Level 2 (+50 / =50 EXP):
  - Fireball – a more powerful fire spell that can set enemies on fire, but it can also miss; it can improve with practice, upgrading to Fireball+ and then, Fireball++.
  - Sleep – to learn it you need some [Fairy dust] in your inventory and the process [advances time to morning].
- Level 3 (+112 / =162 EXP):
  - Icy needles – to learn it you need a [Beer] in your inventory.
  - Concentration – MP cost of spells is cut in half for a few turns. It can be cast outside of combat, as a preparation – in this case, it last until you move 30 steps.

- Krowly mentions heroes meditating under waterfalls when he's studying. After that, interact with the base of the village waterfall (unless it's occupied...) to learn the spell.
- Level 4 (+204 / =366 EXP):
  - Freezing – a more powerful ice spell that can paralyze enemies, but it can also miss; it can improve with practice, upgrading to Freezing+ and then, Freezing++.
    - To learn it you need a [Snowball potion] (sold by Rose) in the inventory.
- Level 5 (+329 / =695 EXP):
  - Darkness – dark magic attack against all enemies. Deals more damage at night or when targeting sleeping opponents.
    - Requires completing the Contract quest. While studying, Krowly mentions Jimm never teaching him dark magic. After that, summon the demon to make him help with the spell.
  - Wicked mind – TODO
    - Requires completing the Contract quest. While studying, Krowly mentions that Meril can teach him some succubus tricks. After that, summon her and choose the Chat option.
  - Magic shield – until the end of the turn, reduces the damage of enemy spells, increases the chances of evading them or reflecting them back at the attacker.
    - Requires Jill's presence in town.
- Level 6 (+485 / =1180 EXP):
  - Dark thoughts – TODO
    - Requires having talked to the magic eye. Krowly says that he has to try the spell in his magic circle, so go to the basement and do it.
- Level 7 (+672 / =1852 EXP):
  - Vampire touch – drains HP from the targeted enemy; Krowly also gains +15 lust.
    - As of 0.353, placeholder scene – the developer has said that in the future, this skill will be learned from a character that's not yet added to the game.

A small note about status effects: 0.350.2 introduced some complications. Both the characters and the enemies become wet if combat starts outside in the rain. Wet things are more vulnerable to cold and electricity and less vulnerable to fire; they can't be set aflame but they can be more easily frozen, and fire spells remove the wet state when they hit. Burning things are less vulnerable to ice and water and they can't be frozen, but ice spells extinguish them. Frozen things are more vulnerable to ice, less vulnerable to fire, and they can't be set aflame, but fire spells thaw them out. Sticky things (Rose's skill) always can be set on fire with Fireball.

Skills learned elsewhere

Some skills can be obtained from other sources:

- Return – obtaining it is a small quest of its own. It can't be used in battle or in certain quest-related dungeons, even if Krowly is alone.
- Ritual of rain – as of 0.353, it's learned from the same magical tome as the succubus summoning spell. It can be performed only in Krowly's basement, and makes it start or stop raining.
- Eye of [the] beholder – (level 4) learned by repeatedly studying the tome in Melissa's laboratory. It allows Krowly to see the invisible for some time, for example the doors to hidden sections of some dungeons (TODO secret locations section). The effect lasts until you move 50 steps.

Monster girl skills

These are Special skills gained by befriending the respective character and have no level requirement:

- Lizzy: Heal – she heals an ally for 150 HP, but they also gain +30 lust.
- Meril: Voice – her... flirting debuffs the physical and magical defense of all enemies; each one has a chance of becoming Confused.

Each use of these skills consumes one unit of the special internal "resource" of the respective character. Those points are replenished by having sex with that character.

Clothing and equipment

You can equip Krowly, and his party members if he has any, with various items, though some equipment slots are locked. Most items are found as random loot from chests and boss monsters in dungeons. Some equipment items can be equipped only by specific characters (see below).

Krowly's sprite and portrait image reflect what he's wearing (i.e. what's equipped in the Bodygear slot). This can be his normal clothes, a hooded [Cloak], some feminine [Black lingerie] and just being naked. The latter two options show his erection when he's aroused enough, and going around naked produces amusing comments from the villagers he interacts with and can trigger a scene with Jaina in the pub in the evening. If he's under the influence of the Boobs potion, you can use the [Cleavage switcher] key item to choose whether or not his clothes show cleavage.

As of 0.340.1, all characters that can join the party are supported by the same clothing system – Eric, Jaina, Juliet, and Rose (they can be clothed, in lingerie, or naked).

Rough inventory of equipment items, so people can know if they've missed something: TODO update this.

- Main hand:
  - Krowly and Rose: [Trowel] (Krowly's starting equipment), [Shovel], [Hoe]
  - Eric's slot is locked, but he can be given a [Mighty sword] by the Priestess in a dungeon.
- Off hand:
  - Everyone: [Copper ring], [Silver ring], [Golden ring], [Sapphire ring], [Cursed emerald ring]
  - Krowly: [Fire crystal], [Blue fire crystal]
  - Eric and Jaina: [Round shield], [Rune shield] (both allow the Bash special move in combat)
- Headgear: nothing changeable so far.
- Accessory:
  - Everyone: [Green necklace], [Pretty chain], [Red gem amulet], [Sea talisman]
  - Krowly and Rose: [Slimes' terror] (~~found in the mini-dungeon in the elven forest~~)
  - Krowly: [Butt plug] (stops some anal attacks), [Red gag] (boosts magical and physical defense, prevents use of magic)

Enemies

Hostile things that want to fight Krowly and Co when the adventurer(s) bump(s) into them, except those already described in the other sections.

Global map encounters

TODO: Formatting/data organization, extend the list.

Things that roam the main map and its submaps that can be encountered when Krowly is exploring alone (i.e. not in places that are accessible only during hunt events and dungeon exploration). If Krowly wins and has high enough lust, he's given an option to fuck some enemies; declining (or not having sufficient lust) sometimes results in a lust gain. Losing in such an encounter typically [advances time]. Enemies marked with a ♥ can use lust attacks.

Slimes

A group of two to four slimes. [Forest], [Slime cave], a number of dungeons. Notes: Very weak to ice.

- Win: Random drops: [Piece of slime]
  - Fuck slime → Krowly uses a slime as a fleshlight. -50 lust [image scene].
- Loss: Krowly is covered and fucked anally by the slime ([sprite animation], -100 lust), unless he has the Buttplug equipped

Fairies ♥

A trio of fairies. Larger groups can be encountered in dungeons. [Fairy glade]; events: generic hunts, cockflowers glade. Notes: weak physical attack, can blind.

- Win: Random drops: [Fairy dust].
  - Shoo away → +50 lust or Fuck the fairy:
    - Anal → stomach inflation, -100 lust [image scene].
    - Fairybang → triple fairy blow/boobjob [image scene]; -100 lust.
- Loss: triple fairy boobjob [image scene]; -100 lust.

Common goblin ♥

A solitary female goblin armed with a wicked-looking blade. In dungeons, they often come in groups of three or more, sometimes supporting more unusual variations. [Goblin tunnels], a number of dungeons. Notes: powerful physical attacks; weak to ice.

- Win: Random drops: [Goblin ale], [Vegetables], [Fish].
  - If not enough lust or Let her run away → +50 lust.

- Loss: She rides Krowly before stealing all his money ([sprite animation]; -100 lust, [advances time]).

Mini-bosses

Singular enemies that can also be found on the global map, but are much stronger than the ordinary ones. They are usually related to some special event or quest, and after being defeated return in some form.

TODO: I'm still unhappy with this section...

Flower-girl

Initially resides in the fairies' glade. Relevant for the succubus summoning quest. Notes: she uses sleep and lust attacks. Tips: She's vulnerable to fire, use the Clear mind potion to prevent falling asleep.

- In elven forest, close to the southern end.

Busty slime

She haunts the old tower at night. Defeating her is necessary to gain access to Melissa. Notes: she has some resistance to physical attacks and can drain mana; Ghost Force powers up for an ice attack on the next turn.

Tips: recommended level 5 for the Magic shield skill - use it when she powers up to survive the ice spell.

- If you lose: the ghost sucks off Krowly until he loses consciousness ([image scene], -50 lust, [advances time to morning]).
- If you win: the ghost thanks Krowly for freeing her and disappears...

After being defeated, the same (?) busty ghost starts haunting the village cemetery at night. According to Melissa's lectures, such ghosts may not be actual ghosts at all, just spirits that have taken the form of ghosts. Busty ghosts also show up in pairs in some dungeons. TODO

Dungeon encounters

Roaming enemies that can be encountered in places accessible only during hunt events and dungeon exploration. The list includes only fights that haven't been described elsewhere. Some global map enemies are re-used in dungeons, either as separate encounters or as part of larger groups. In all cases, scenes tend to be different, as Krowly has company on his adventures - at the very least, Eric, but also sometimes Jaina and Rose (see party member scenes).
