Attachments: Sunnyside Deed of Trust - Executed.pdf

Hello Kim!

It has been a while!

It has been recommended to Fawn and I, for liability purposes, that we hold title to our home as "Tenancy by the Entirety".

I know very little about this, but here is an explanation that I found online:

Tenancy by the Entirety: a special form of joint tenancy when the joint tenants are husband and wife -- with each owning one-half. Neither spouse can sell the property without the consent of the other. Words in the deed such as "Bill and Mary, husband and wife as tenancy in the entirety" establish title in tenancy by the entireties. This form of ownership is not available in all states. (http://jtlehmanlaw.com/lawyer/Nashville-TN\_fq314.htm)

Can you please tell me how our title is held currently at 1986 Sunnyside Drive, Brentwood, 37027? (You facilitated our closing.) I have a copy of our Deed of Trust (attached), but I can't figure out if this is titled as "Tenants in Common", "Joint Tenancy", or "Tenancy by the Entirety".

Is there a document that you can provide me which shows exactly how our property is titled?

Thanks for your help with this!

31.1 TENANCY BY THE ENTIRETY

When real property is acquired by individuals who are husband and wife at the time of the conveyance, then title is jointly held as an indivisible whole with right of survivorship unless the granting instrument expressly states that title is not to be held as a Tenancy by the Entirety. Upon divorce, a Tenancy by the Entirety is destroyed and absent some decree by the Divorce Court, the interest of the former spouses is converted into a Tenancy in Common with each owning a one-half interest.

31.2 TENANTS IN COMMON

When real property is acquired by two or more individuals who are not married at the time of the conveyance, or a Tenancy by the Entirety is destroyed through a divorce, title is held as Tenants in Common. In cases where the property is owned by Tenants in Common, each owner has a certain defined share in the property. Unless the instrument states otherwise, when there are two owners, each will automatically be presumed to own one-half each; if three, a third each, and so on. However, the shares between Tenants in Common do not need to be equal. The parties can decide what share of the property belongs to each owner. For example, if two individuals named Sam and Mark buy a property together, but if Sam contributes more to the purchase price than Mark, this could be reflected in the respective shares each acquires in the property. The deed into these individuals could state that Sam receives 70% interest in the property and Mark is entitled to 30%. The important point is that each of the Tenants in Common owners always owns his or her share of the property, and is only entitled to that same percentage of the sale proceeds. For example, if Sam dies, then his share of the property will be administrated as part of Sam's estate. Mark will continue to own his 30% after Sam's death. Unlike in a Joint Tenancy with a Right of Survivorship, it does not automatically pass to Mark.

When property is held as Tenants in Common, each of the individuals have a right to enter the common estate and take possession of the whole, subject to the equal right of the co-tenants to share in possession of the whole; and one co tenant's occupation or possession of the property can never be deemed adverse to the other co-tenants.
