How are you? I have been falling apart, crying off and on all day. I wish things were better, for both of us.

Hello Tootles!

Ok, here's what I've figured out:

We can communicate in the language of cute critters, but for any other sort of communication, we need either an independant third party to help ground us both, to find our commonalities, and differences, to work through our differences in a way that is caring and fair, and to help us each recognize what is our own funk (ADHD & OCPD for me, Depression & Hopelessness for you) so that we can each work on our own bagage, without clobbering the other with it.

For our personal relations, the independant third party could probably be a good counselor (Terry could recommend), they may also be able to help us with the terms of our divorce and house sale, or maybe we would need Sandy for that part.

So in my opinion, we should stick to the language of 'cute critters', instead of repeatedly bombarding each other with our resentments, without making any headway.

I do still want to communicate with you, and I appreciate the fact that you have been more responsive to my texts and calls, instead of blowing me off for days or a week, or never addressing my attempts to communicate at all.

I believe that we BOTH have a "BLIND SPOT" though, which we need professional help to learn to recognize and take ownership of, rather than continuing to abuse the other with it.

The old adage of, "you can be right, or you can gave relationship" also comes to mind. I THINK that we both value maintaining a relationship at some level, be that friends or with a WHOLE LOT of healing, and a touch from God, something more.

Right now I'd just like to work on the challenge of being FRIENDS!

I love to communicate with you, when you are sharing from the heart, or being light-hearted, playful or goofy, sharing with me about your work or family, or anything besides US, terms of property division and alimony, along with any other challenges which still FACE us (collectively), because then your entire posture changes, and you become Warrior Chickie", who believes that there are no fair compromises and that you need to fight for your life or be bulldozered over.

Certainly there have been times in your life when that has been true, but in my opinion that has been the exception rather than the rule. Either way. "Warrior Chickie" brings out "Hyde", and the two of them just verbally hurt each other, without really yielding any progress, resulting in more resentments and hurt feelings, and is otherwise completely unproductive in my point of view.

F Yes, let's not talk about relationship crap. It never works, neither of us can hear the other. Stick to cute critters is good.

Is there anything FUN that you'd like (or be willing) to do with me this weekend, for an hour or two? (With the understanding that we leave "Warrior Chickie" and "Hyde" at home, keep it light hearted, and just have FUN?)
