To need to spend 12-16 hours every day, sifting through remnants of the life that was stolen from you, just to get free... do you know how inhumane that is? I have wasted over 4,000 hours of my life this past year, seeking the smallest drop of justice.

3/13/18, 6:42 PM to Fawn Fenton

So are you blaming me in the papers, or simply seeking a fair no fault divorce?

3/13/18, 6:43 PM to Fawn Fenton

Please put yourself in my shoes, and ask how you would survive this, if you were me.

3/13/18, 6:48 PM from Fawn Fenton

I know, I'm so sorry. I've tried to put up with the conflict for years, because I knew how devastated you would be if we broke up, and I didn't want to do that to you. But I just can't keep going, it's killing me inside.

3/13/18, 6:49 PM from Fawn Fenton

"Irreconcilable Differences."

3/13/18, 6:54 PM to Fawn Fenton

Conflict is always a choice. You can never have conflict without at least two people trying to dominate each other with their opinions.

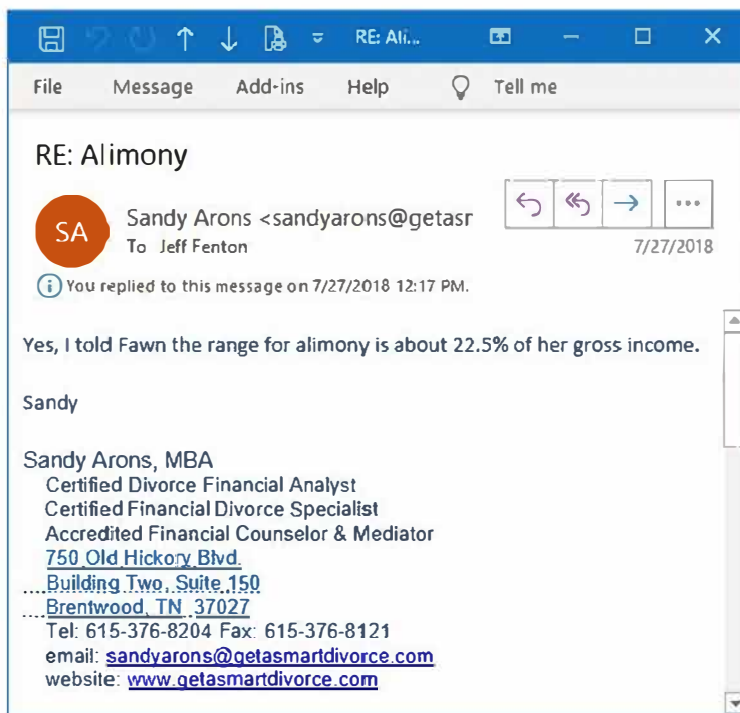

Without two people committed to changing each other's minds, more than they are committed to the other PERSON.

You know a divorce isn't God's will for us, or the reason that he brought us together.

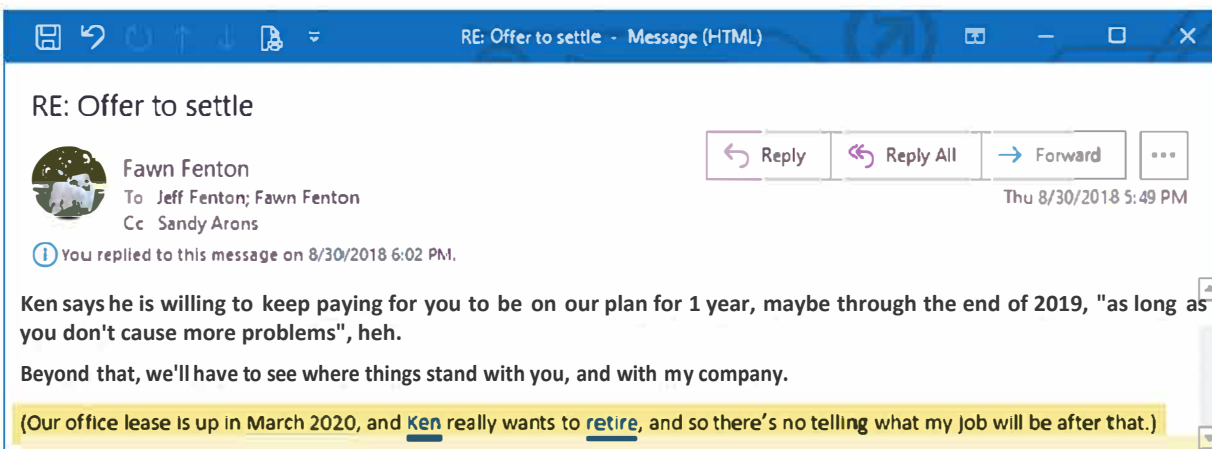

You want to keep all the good and throw away all the bad, when EVERYONE is a mixture of both good and bad.

That's what you could never accept. That your feelings aren't always accurate. That you are an emotional roller-coaster, especially since menopause began five years ago. You are relationally unable to commit to any path of progress, to believe there is ANY hope, to visualize and walk toward the light.

That breaks my heart! Since there isn't a dang thing that I can do about that!

Please forgive the fact that much of this was not written for "public release", it was a rough draft, choppy in places, and written for the free legal help website, as well as for the Board of Professional Responsibility and the Board of Judicial Conduct, whom I'll also forward this to, so please likewise download the files to have the evidence to proceed with my complaints.

Hopefully the Tennessee Supreme Court can resolve this minor issue of imminent importance, without which I can't work due to my mother's immunity disorder. Hence, I need to work all day every day at somehow getting Williamson County's noose off from around my neck. Through some sort of "peaceful protest", political or legal action, or toward a cure of some humanitarian nature. If this fails, then I need to escalate this to the United States Court of Appeals, because I can't wait years longer to be able to work, and I believe that I have a better shot with them than the federal court in Tennessee.

The only downside is that the only federal portion which has been heard so far by the Tennessee federal courts, is Ms. Fenton's bankruptcy. So, my best chance is to file for bankruptcy fraud in the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Then I believe that I'll be able to add the "color of law", 14th Amendment, HUD violations, ADA exploitation and abuse. I've spoken with the FBI and I'm hoping to possibly have the "bad players" prosecuted under the RICO Act, since this has created a financial burden upon another state's financial resources and welfare system, totally without need.

I'd hate to risk the potential criminal consequences for Ms. Fenton to appeal her bankruptcy for fraud, by not disclosing my equal or greater financial investments, interests, and ownership of our equally deeded marital residence, as "tenants by the entirety". As well as me being the owner of almost all the personal property inside, as stated in Attorney Story's divorce complaint. Her team had the federal bankruptcy court make judgments about my personal property, under horribly bad, manipulative faith, to strategically supersede the State of Tennessee's "Protected Income and Assets" (Affidavit of Claim Exemptions), which I had properly filed.

Thanks!

I was just reading about the 2018 tax code...

Have you figured out the Income tax ramifications of having no mortgage interest deduction (because you will live in an apartment), plus no spousal dependant (another lost $12k write-off), plus not being able to write-off the alimony you pay me, combined with the new 2018 tax laws? (Not to mention the loss of the 'business in home' and other MM write-offs)?

Seriously, I'm concerned for how you have and continue to set yourself-up for your future.

It looks to me, like you will have double the taxable income that you previously had, which won't likely change for 5-10 years, until you can afford to purchase another condo and complete paying my alimony.

Have you really ran the numbers on all of this and considered for a moment if maybe there is some way for you to mitigate your tax losses?

It looks to me like you have created and are walking into the worst possible scenario tax wise, which will largely defeat much of the vocational success you've reached in recent years.

Am I missing something, misreading something, not understanding anything correctly? Have you discussed options with a CPA or even your brother, or someone with an MBA, or at least a tax professional?

I hate to see you screw yourself, especially to solely benefit Uncle Sam

Is there no better way of doing this?

Dec 22, 2018

Correct, my tax situation is going to suck for a very long time.

Fawn Fenton (mobile) • Dec 22, 2018

Is there nothing we can do h

To help that?

Dec 22, 2018

Not that I know of.

Fawn Fenton (mobile) • Dec 22, 2018

Have you talked to your brother about it or asked an accountant?

Dec 22, 2018

Yes I've talked to mark and my dad, No haven't talked to an accountant, 90k gross - 31k taxes - 21k alimony = 38k net. Plus or minus.

Fawn Fenton (mobile) • Dec 22, 2018

Didn't your dad or Mark have any suggestions to bring down those insane taxes?

Dec 22, 2018

Nope. This is why I cannot afford to keep house, and need sale to help pay down debts.

Fawn Fenton (mobile) • Dec 22, 2018

Yet the house would save you how much in taxes?

Debts are all from this year... how did we fall so far so fast?

Dec 22, 2018

Someday when alimony is done, I can get a job making only $43k gross and have same net of +/- $38k.

Fawn Fenton (mobile) • Dec 22, 2018

That is crazy... their must be a smarter way to spend all that you've worked for?

The Moment I KNEW!

No Incentive to Earn!

The Goal :(

I really don't know which is worse, Attorneys Story, Yarbrough, and Ausbrooks committed so many felony crimes and gross violations of professional conduct in this case. They intentionally manipulated bankruptcy fraud to solely injure the highly disadvantaged, disabled, unemployed, and currently unemployable spouse. While the bankruptcy was staged, having known a year in advance when Ms. Fenton's employer planned to retire (as documented in this case). Every motion in the chancery court was not only fraudulent, it was literally a "decoy divorce". Intentionally planned as three separate but simultaneous high-value attacks, to strategically exploit my known and fully documented disabilities. While the specific exploits targeted and leveraged against me by Story's crew, just happen to be my ex-wife's pet peeves about my disabilities. That I'm too slow and that I am psychologically incapable of effectively multi-tasking significant concurrent tasks. While Ms. Story refused to allow me to take my personal property, to only try to discard it later, through a federal court order to supersede my protections under Tennessee State law. That is about as unconscionable as it gets.

Then to slap me with default judgments, as if the court found it reasonable to only read part of a sentence, rather than reading the whole sentence in context. It was completely unreasonable to assume that after working myself tirelessly and filing 250+/- pages of evidence & sworn testimony on 8/29/2019, that I just quit caring and decided not to bother participating or defending myself further. That was not true. In all honesty, since Story and Binkley decided to revoke my freedom interest, rendering me literally unemployable, I should have been provided an attorney and certainly heard, with full due process of law. But they refused. Story filed an unreasonably fraudulent affidavit, upon which, without confirmation, judge Binkley ruled to omit me from further participation in the litigation, while ruling harsh punitive default judgments against me.

Just two 30-minute hearings between close family friends, without due process or any opportunity to save my property interests, in either my income or my home. "Under color of law", pretending that the exact opposite of the law happens to be "legal".

I held out good for my raccoon buddy in my hand tonight, and he touched both his cold little nose and his paw to my hand.

I've interacted with him a ton through the glass, and a little outdoors, but that was the first time that we touched each other. He was super gentle, with his warm soft little tongue eating out of my hand, with never the slightest nip!

This case is blatant & clear criminal misconduct. Every day that I can't work, I get a little more of my evidence sorted out. Eventually I will be able to clearly articulate the crimes against me, while organizing my evidence good enough to publish it. Then I'll be able to distribute the truth to people throughout state and federal government as well as the courts, from Tennessee to Michigan to Washington DC.

I know that my ex-wife told Story, who in turn told Binkley, that I have a reputation for successfully exposing criminal misconduct against our family over the Internet. This happened when our home suffered significant damages by a negligent roofing contractor, who after we sued them and won a judgment, they still refused to pay us.

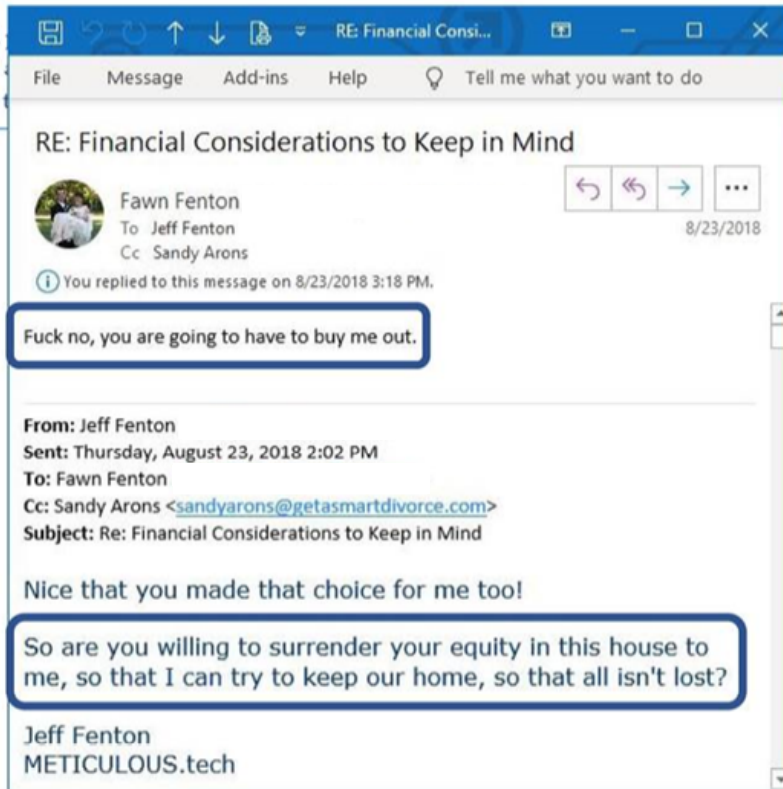

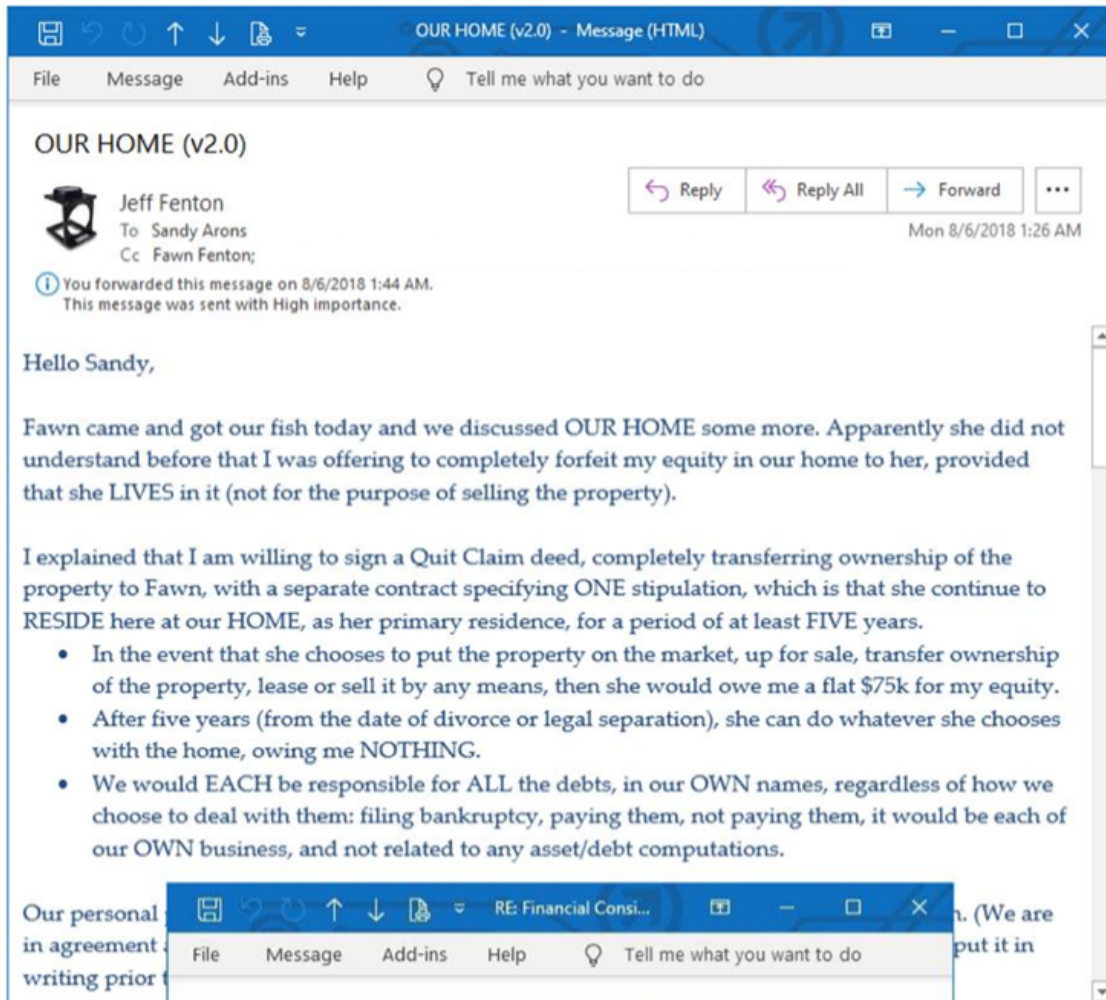

After which it wasn't until I exposed two billion dollar insurance companies along with the roofing contractor that anybody began taking us seriously and finally paid for our damages. Exposing the truth is the only thing that anyone has ever had to "fear" about me. That is the real purpose of their fraudulent "order of protection" against me, to extort my silence about the criminal misconduct by the courts and counsel.

NOTE IN HINDSIGHT: When I saw the KnoxNews article in 2021 showing Judge Michael W. Binkley shaming the Tennessean Newspaper while he read the riot act to attorneys, during one of his rants from the courthouse bench, I finally understood. There are few things which Judge Michael Binkley hates or fears more than people exposing his criminal misconduct in the media. Captured on video, Judge Binkley is shown threatening and extorting both attorneys and the public alike, while he levied his vengeance and retaliation "under color of law" against Attorney whistle blower Brian Manookian. Allegedly Attorney Manookian was responsible for leaking Binkley's arrest during a prostitution sting back in 2010, which corrupt Judge Casey Moreland was persuaded to both dismiss and expunge from the court's records, "in a highly unusual fashion." Notably, Binkley hired Moreland's own attorney to represent him in that matter. Still Binkley put on a show fit for theater, while spewing about how he had never turned in an attorney [for misconduct] in his life, but vowing that Attorney Brian Manookian would be the exception. Binkley claimed that he had 70 examples of misconduct by Manookian, which he relished in reporting to the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility. Afterwards they suspended Attorney Manookian's law license.

In contrast, Judge Binkley helped attorney Virginia Lee Story commit an obscene number of state and federal felony crimes against me in "his" court, in addition to non-stop violations of the State of Tennessee's Rules of Professional Conduct. A judge is not allowed to pick and choose who he reports for misconduct. The Board of Professional Responsibility, the very same board leveraged by Judge Binkley to "punish" whistle blower Brian Manookian, is the same board which has repeatedly refused to file, vet, and take action upon my many complaints directly to Chief Disciplinary Counsel Sandy Garrett, against Attorneys Virginia Story, Kathryn Yarbrough, Mary Beth Ausbrooks, Clerk & Master Elaine Beeler, Judge Michael Weimar Binkley, along with other attorneys involved in extreme misconduct in my case.

2018-08-06 OFFERED TO GIVE MS. FENTON MY EQUITY FOR FREE!
(Regretfully She Declined)

The bankruptcy fraud in this case was simple, attorneys Story and Ausbrooks worked together to use the same fraudulent narrative, both in state and federal courts, that my ex-wife was the owner of our Brentwood marital residence when that was false. The attorneys as well as the bankruptcy trustee had a responsibility to check the property deed and tax records, to verify the property ownership, where my name was clearly listed on both, as an equally deeded property owner with Ms. Fenton, as "tenants by the entirety".

They counseled my ex-wife to secretly default upon our mortgage payments. Then they secretly filed a fraudulent bankruptcy petition on her behalf, lying about our property ownership, while specifically requesting to sell our marital residence, without notifying me about any of it.

Jeff:

There is no definite date certain by which I agreed with Ms. Story to file an Answer & Counter-Complaint. However, until there is an Order entered relieving us as counsel in this matter, you should not file anything pro se.

Thanks. have a good evening.

Thanks Marty.

Can you simply inform me of any critical dates which I need to self-represent by, as I can not afford further representation:

For example, when did you get the ANSWER & COUNTER COMPLAINT extended to?

Any other time critical dates would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks.

Per the F.R.B.P. Rule #7001 and 11 U.S.C. § 363(h)(3) the bankruptcy court could not legally sell our property, because it didn't meet their requirements. Neither could the Chancery Court, because the federal courts had both original and exclusive jurisdiction. The only way this was physically possible was by corruption, deprivation of rights under color of law, and similar federal and state crimes.

For the record, I wanted to be done communicating with Ms. Story because she unconscionably abused me repeatedly, which there are two "smoking guns" of evidence documenting in this case. But never did I want or plan to give up my right to protect myself or participate in ongoing litigation against me. My note offered to sacrifice the money lost in our home and the alimony which they "beat the system" to criminally cheat me out of. Never, ever, ever did I offer to forfeit my rights as a United States Citizen or to allow any judge who wasn't even willing to hear me, prior to the start of discovery, to end the divorce with default judgments against me. That is felony coercion & obstruction!

Attorney Marty Duke told me that Ms. Story agreed to a deadline extension for filing my divorce answer and counter complaint, since he and attorney Mitchell Miller were brought on to my case as emergency replacement counsel only a few days prior to my first hearing. Ms. Story and subsequently judge Binkley refused to give my counsel an extension for addressing the forced sale of my home (though they had no lawful jurisdiction, because the federal courts had both original and exclusive jurisdiction). Yet taking my home was clearly Attorney Story's priority during both hearings, but she did agree to an extended deadline for answering the divorce complaint. Unfortunately attorney Brittany Gates, whom I hired first, negligently failed to perform, promising me drafts of my divorce answer/counter complaint day after day, with my whole life hanging in the balance, until I was able to contact attorney Mitchell Miller, at which point I fired attorney Gates.

Meanwhile, I have never abused Ms. Fenton. She was in counseling when I met her, we went to counseling both separately and together multiple times throughout our marriage. We were involved in a few small church groups, home fellowships, with an unlimited amount of transparency and an open invitation to speak into our lives. Yet never once in my life, had I heard Ms. Fenton, a counselor, a friend, a pastor, or a church leader mention the word "abuse" related to our relationship, in any way. We both brought our own baggage into the relationship, which we each still have. However, the multiple acts of fraud which the court and counsel helped Ms. Fenton commit and become a party to, is by far the heaviest weight hanging around her neck, dragging down her physical health, while she has also had a horrible time with menopause for the past 7-documented years. Now her hormone therapy for menopause has been seriously conflicting with her "Xyrem", the mediation she successfully took for narcolepsy for over a decade (which cost insurance $11,000 per month, so I don't know if she still has access to it, since her boss retired.) Hormone therapy has prevented her from sleeping more than an hour or two at a time, waking up to constantly drenched sheets, which she had struggled with for years before moving out, to a lesser degree.

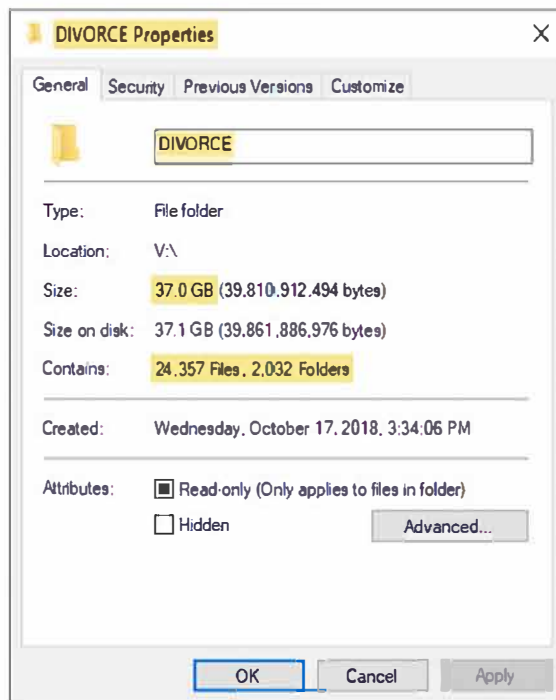

Ms. Fenton and her brother Mark at Front Sight Firearms Training Institute in Pahrump, Nevada, were they had life memberships.

We didn't sell the house because Ms. Fenton changed her mind and refused to commit on paper to the $1,750 per month in alimony, for a duration of 6-years, as we had both previously agreed in our "settlement agreement". Hence the false claims made by Attorney Story in an attempt to justify the forced sale of our marital residence was all "abuse by process" and fraudulent. The "no trespassing" signs which Ms. Story used to smear my name before the court were designed by Ms. Fenton at her work, using their CAD software, which I revealed in the Court of Appeals. Upon which Story was required to withdraw or disaffirm her fabricated evidence per Tenn. R. Sup. Ct. 3.3(g), yet she refused. I also included texts showing that Ms. Fenton's mother liked both our signs and security cameras, because they made her feel like Ms. Fenton was safe.

As for the “op” based upon non-threatening text messages and emails, which at the advice of her counsel, my wife decided in hindsight, that she no longer wanted to receive, though having never terminated communication with me. All that Ms. Fenton needed to do was click “block” on her cell phone. I’m not a mind reader. Clearly I had some extremely legitimate reasons for contacting her and being distressed, as she sabotaged our lives financially and then secretly filed bankruptcy, requesting to forfeit our home, yet denying me notice. Followed by incorrectly calling her credit card debts mine, when I had them almost all paid off before she decided to get divorced. Ms. Fenton used her credit cards to financially and legally bully me, hiring counsel repeatedly for malicious actions in multiple courts. I have proof of everything, but so far nobody has cared about the truth. Obviously, I had no control over any of that.

The fraudulent “op” made a ton of outrageously false claims which couldn't be further from the truth. For example, I was falsely alleged to claim that I was a “member of the extraction team”. Never in my life had I said those words before I read that statement absurdly woven into Story's fraudulent narrative, to assassinate my character before I ever entered the court. That is one of countless violations of professional conduct by Attorney Story.

We haven't covered 1/10th of my real evidence yet.

Attorney Story and Judge Binkley have manipulated the “op” to use Ms. Fenton as a “human shield” in an effort to protect themselves from public exposure for their own criminal misconduct, such as that which brought two billion dollar insurance companies and a multi-million dollar Nashville roofing company to the table, with their top-tier corporate attorneys to draft up a mutually agreeable settlement with me and my wife. They paid us our judgment plus interest, plus an additional $10,000 to remove the dedicated YouTube Channel and WordPress blog which exposed both their horrible workmanship as well as their fraudulent and negligent business practices. Let me be clear, this exposure of their bad business practices filled 95% of the first four to six pages of Google when searching for their company. Despite my many attempts to mitigate both of our damages by trying to encourage them to pay our judgment before I had to invest more time trying to “make them”, yet they refused. Unfortunately we both experienced exponentially greater losses as a result, which almost drove both our family and the roofing company into bankruptcy.

At the same time, Ms. Fenton had the Davidson County Sheriff's Office levy five of the roofing company's work trucks, including the owner's personal truck, to be auctioned off to pay our judgment. While they still had the audacity to hire an arrogant corporate bankruptcy attorney to try to smash “ma and pa Fenton” with a motion to quash while we represented ourselves pro se, with only a one or two day notice. Their bankruptcy attorney's game was that the trucks were the personal property of the owner, not business property. Fortunately I had already taken high resolutions photos at the impound lot, showing each truck in all its glory, outfitted with ladder racks, shingles, and shovels in the rear beds. Along with corporate logos on every side. We showed that the company was using deceptive business practices, with their assets in their personal names and their debts in their business name, while playing games with their operating capital, co-mingling funds, moving money from one bank to another. We pierced their corporate veil and they were ordered to pay our judgment or their trucks would be auctioned as scheduled.

Tennessee courts and counsel cannot "legally" deny me public redress for honest and incidentally criminal actions taken to forcefully deprive me of everything in my life. While even being inhumane enough to keep a fraudulent noose around my neck, from 600 miles away, without notice or hearing, preventing me from even being able to work for $10-$15 per hour from home, to help pay for my most basic essential and critical living expenses. Such as shelter/housing, soap, shampoo, shaving supplies, toilet paper, mental and physical health care, prescriptions, car insurance, auto maintenance, gas, etc... for years. That is not only inhumane and a violation of every oath of office, code of conduct, judicial canons, state and federal constitutions, civil and criminal laws, but it is also highly discriminatory ADA abuse, financial exploitation, coercion, harassment, extortion, retaliation, and interference of unconscionable proportions, which no state actors have immunity from.

Even the Bible says, that what is done in secret, shall be brought into the light. While this is 100% irrefutable evidence why there should be increased transparency and accountability in every court room, civil or otherwise. Why do you think it is, that the wealthiest county in the State of Tennessee, keeps no records or even cheap audio recordings of their civil hearings for transparency and protection of the people, from exactly this sort of collusion and corruption?

This is also definitive proof that no judge should hear an argument by an attorney whom they are "friends" with. There can be no justice in a court of "friends." This case was just two quick trials, a very complicated marriage and subsequent divorce, none of which the court or counsel cared to address, opting instead for a "decoy divorce", to take more, more quickly, than the truth would ever allow. As they say with every case of malicious litigation and judicial corruption, this is a "case within a case". The inside case of my marital relationship is hardly worth rehashing. All that is there is more loss for both of us. But the outer case of how the court and counsel unconscionably violated a multitude of state and federal laws, constitutional and otherwise, along with their oaths of office, and every level of ethical care, without the slightest appearance of "impartiality". Zero "equal and due process" or even providing a means by which I could literally survive this divorce without becoming homeless, had my mother not intervened at the age of 50. When I owned a highly desirable $500k Brentwood home, which I had my life, my pre-marital 401k retirement savings, and around $20k leveraged from the equity of my own per-marital duplex and home invested into the purchase of our equally deeded marital residence as "tenants by the entirety".

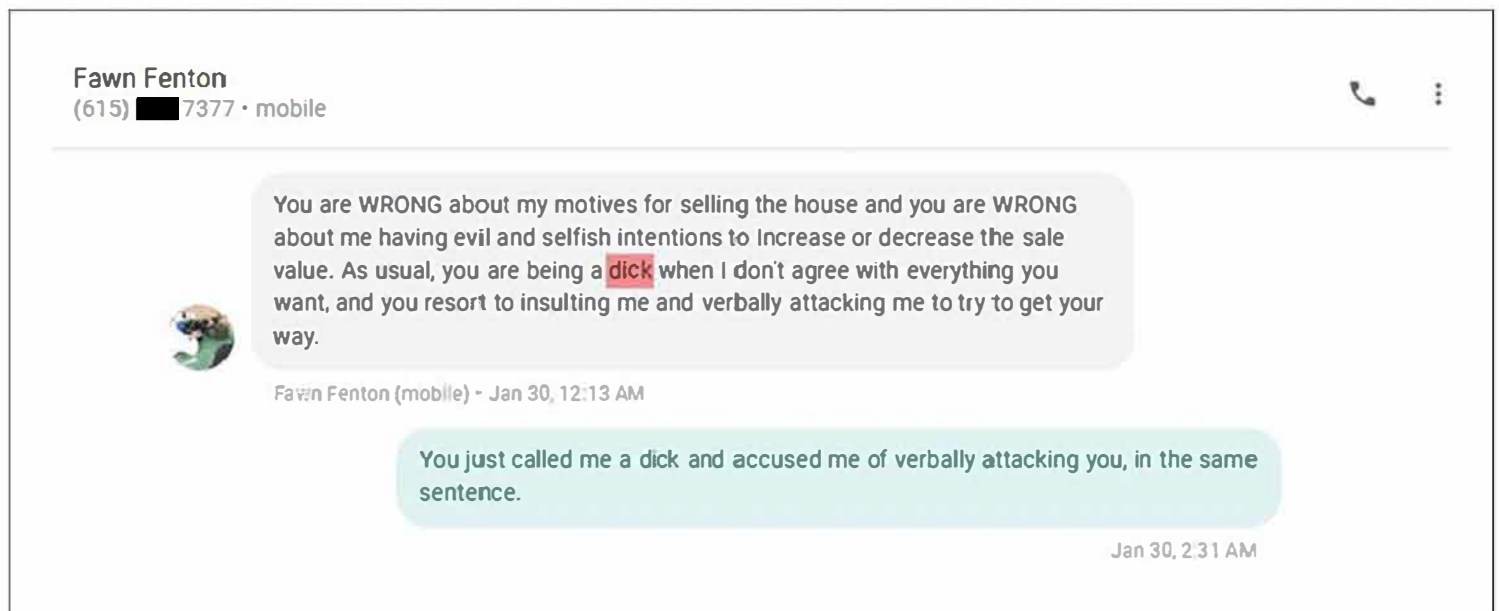

If it looks like a duck, if it quacks like a duck....

It is outrageously absurd to even pretend that the outcome of this case could have been caused by anything less than "close trusting friends". The damages caused by Attorney Story and Judge Binkley form the perfect argument and example for why the State of Tennessee must erect protections for the people, between those who decide the law and those who argue the law in their courts.

Their greed became insatiable, their cruelty unfathomable, their conduct unconscionable, and their orders inhumane.

I hope they are both disbarred and find themselves in prison cells beside Casey Moreland. They have proven him to be a stand-up guy in comparison. While that's not an easy thing to do.

I hope that the state or federal courts, and/or public outcry, holds the bad actors in this case fully accountable, so they can feel what I have felt at their abusive hands.

Whether in state or federal court, in Tennessee or afar, as long as Williamson County Chancery Court, Judge Michael Weimar Binkley, Attorney Virginia Lee Story, and Elaine Beaty Beeler keep a fraudulent noose around my neck, without equal or due process of law, all that I can literally do each day is fight to expose their corruption, while working toward common sense legal reform throughout the state of Tennessee. Such as not allowing adversarial counsel to write court orders against pro se litigants, without even allowing them to participate in the proposed/agreed order process, as is allowed in some of the more ethical judicial districts in Tennessee. It's time to turn past the page of "plantation law" in Tennessee. (Based on the master/servant relationship, instead of equality, with the goal of justice.)

Right before the storm came through Two hard years of fighting, to get repaired and partially compensated.

Based upon the malicious litigation & judicial corruption evident in this case, I see the following changes as both justified and needed. I see no reason other than corruption to not implement these changes, which I am suggesting to the Tennessee Supreme Court:

- Be friends with whomever you want, but no one should be allowed to hear an argument by a "friend". Although Judge Binkley claimed that he can "separate" or compartmentalize opposing interests in his mind, he in fact did not. Not only did he fail to do so, he never came close. He lied to the people of Tennessee while Attorney Story publicly supported his unreasonable claims. Now through her greed, Attorney Story unmistakably revealed the truth. Judge Binkley & Attorney Story have perverted the judicial integrity of Williamson County. I can see no justification for the state of Tennessee continuing to "play with fire" on this issue. Without an impartial tribunal, the entire judicial system is of no value to the people of Tennessee. It becomes an overwhelming evil power yielded by a select few, who were chosen to serve the people, but instead serve themselves along with undisclosed interests.
- It is time to quit asking a man "if he can fly", when by simple human nature none of us "can fly". Judges are not "super humans". If they tell us that they are, we need to send them in for psychological evaluations, question their motives for such irrationalness, caring more about their own entertainment and recreation than the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary throughout our state and country. That is a clear violation of the judicial canons, and I don't know why it hasn't been fixed yet. But now I believe they have pushed the issue into absurd clarity.

- The Williamson County Chancery Court told me on a recorded phone conversation that the only reason there is an ADA number at the bottom of their court summonses, is in case someone needs a wheelchair brought out curbside to help them get from their vehicle into the courthouse. Insisting that beyond that, no other ADA modifications are available or provided. That is a stark violation of Tennessee's Administrative Policy Index #2.07, along with the American with Disabilities Act.
- Chancery told me in the same recorded phone call, that there aren't any forms or information available for pro se parties. Repeatedly recommending that I hire an attorney instead. I think that is a wonderful idea, but my wife secretly blocked me out of all of our active marital income and credit lines. Repeatedly recommending that someone do something which is not within their means is not helpful.
- I believe that the literature, signage, about the "justice for all" program, TNCourts.gov, and ADA forms should be uniform in every courthouse in the state of Tennessee.
- Furthermore, I do not believe that judicial districts should be allowed to make any "rules" which could in turn discriminate against a people group. Whether that is "socioeconomic" (it seems that I've read that term somewhere), due to disability, or just because they don't want to lose their life's savings to someone who charges 25x more per hour than they can earn.
- I came up with a nifty little tag line, "where transparency and accountability are stifled, corruption thrives." If I have my way, then Attorney Story will have created her own worst nightmare, by improving the judicial integrity of the state of Tennessee.
- Along with another common sense saying (no "sense" is "common"), "there can be no justice in a court of friends".
- Catchy, eh?
- Ok, I've got to get this on its way. Please forgive the magnitude by which I'm overwhelmed, but then I have disabilities, which have been intentionally exploited by multiple compromised members of high repute, power, and authority. I may be expected to write a brief and stand up against another man or woman, but surely I'm afforded some protections from corruption under the laws of this great land. (If not, that needs to change.)
- Let's finish this up here, fairly and justly. Never again inside a Williamson County Courtroom. If this matter must be escalated to federal district court for bankruptcy fraud or Attorney Story's other crimes against me "under color of law", then she will have really made herself out to be a rank member of the court, working in the exact opposite of her fiduciary duties and her client's best interests, solely to continue abusing the disadvantaged and disabled party which she has unconscionably harassed, stalked, and abused.

Patient Name: Marsha Fenton
Visit Date: 7/2/2020

Thank you very much for letting me participate in the management of Marsha Fenton, who was seen by telephone consultation on 07/02/20. Marsha states that her IgA deficiency has been stable. She denies any upper or lower respiratory tract infection. She has been following strict avoidance measures from exposing to the COVID-19 infection. She is wearing the mask. She is staying home. Her son also stays with her, who is not working at this time. She denies any fever, chills, or rigors. She denies any upper or lower respiratory tract infection.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION: Deferred at this time since this was done by telephone consultation.

IMPRESSION: Ms. Marsha Fenton has:

1. IgA deficiency, and
2. Chronic rhinosinusitis.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Marsha is prone to develop recurrent infections. Therefore, I advised her to follow strict isolation measures from exposure to COVID-19 infection.
2. Since her son stays with Marsha, I strongly recommend that her son should do his work from home since it will reduce significantly the risk of exposure of Ms. Fenton to the COVID-19 virus.
3. A follow-up appointment has been scheduled in one year but I advised her to contact me as soon as the pandemic is over for further evaluation and treatment.

THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF Human Rights

WHEREAS recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,

WHEREAS disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people,

WHEREAS it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by the rule of law,

WHEREAS it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations among nations,

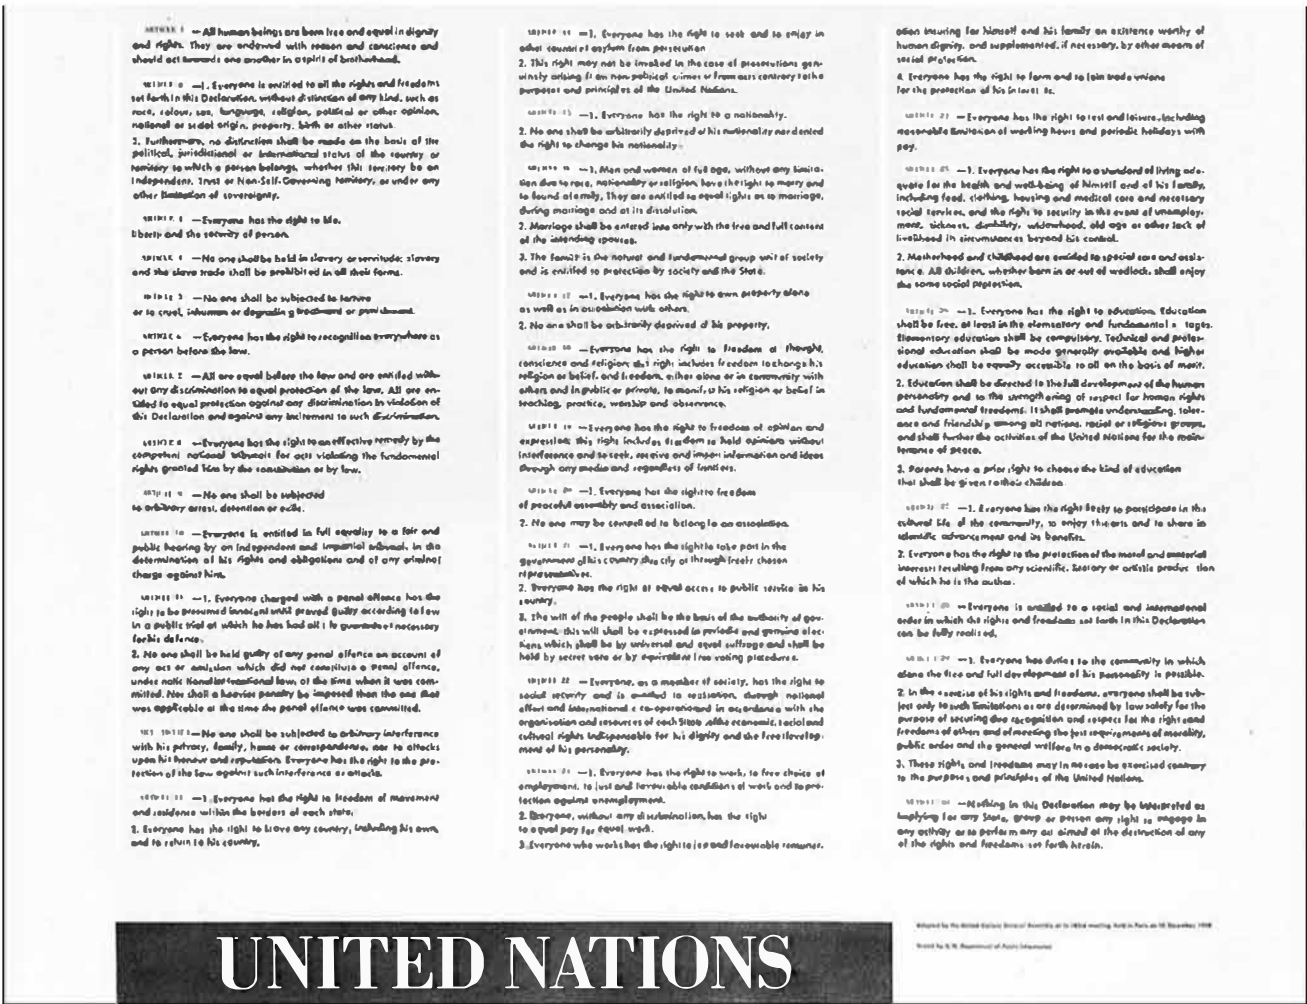

WHEREAS the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

WHEREAS Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in co-operation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

WHEREAS a common understanding of these rights and freedoms is of the greatest importance for the full realization of this pledge,

NOW THEREFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY PROCLAIMS this Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations, to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance, both among the peoples of Member States themselves and among the peoples of territories under their jurisdiction.

Truly,

Jeff Fenton

Brian Manookian is the attorney whistle blower who first reported the misconduct of Judge Casey Moreland to the Tennessee Board of Judicial Conduct, before the FBI arrested him. If Attorney Manookian is also the party who reported that Judge Michael W. Binkley lied to the public when he ran for office, then Brian Manookian deserves an award for integrity and should be protected by the State of Tennessee and the Tennessee Supreme Court as a whistle blower (if either cares at all about honesty & integrity in Tennessee's judiciary).

The message this sends currently to the Middle Tennessee legal profession is both unmistakable and a stark violation of Tennessee's own constitution, "don't turn in corrupt members of the court, especially judges, or the State of Tennessee's legal apparatus will retaliate against you and revoke your license to practice law."

That is unconscionable and near "treason" by those running Tennessee and her courts to allow. Not correcting such criminal racketeering through branches of the Tennessee Supreme Court, devalues the integrity of the institution with each day and mocks the very purposes for which our courts exist and are trusted to serve in society. This further reinforces the view that our courts are beyond reasonable reform or repair, proving to the public that those in power cherish their power more than any common good or service to the people.

If private attorneys can't get justice and instead remain under the thumbs of unconstitutionally oppressive government corruption, for fear of losing their own livelihoods, then there is no cure left. Law enforcement is overwhelmed and refuses to pursue or prioritize public integrity/corruption cases, while refusing to even allow victims to file criminal complaints against corrupt members of government and the courts. Now the high court's boards of conduct have been infiltrated by people who are sympathetic to, actively involved in, or afraid to confront corruption instead of being devoted to fighting corruption in alignment with their oaths of office. That's unacceptable.

This case seeks a jury trial to hold the State of Tennessee accountable for mis-allocating public resources toward the protection, cover-up, and advancement of criminal agendas, power structures, and enterprises, while betraying public trust.
