HELLO!

My name is Kimberly and I am Tabitha's favourite! You may have seen me in situations where I've been forcefully ... undressed.

Yes.

Right, so anyway, I've been asked to help her host this little announcement regarding how content is managed, what are some of the issues she faces and what she intends to do in the near future.

I won't be doing this alone, however, one of the new girls will help me with the second part of this presentation.

Let's go!

History time!

Tabitha started posting content on Pixiv in 2021 and added a backup on Subscribestar in case something ever happened to Pixiv. Her content included short photobooks, pretty photos and the occasional festive content.

It was ... mostly okay? Not many people found her work interesting. In fact, no one ever commented much. There were only a handful that ever said anything.

Still, she did what she liked. She took the feedback well and improved the way she ran things. With the small amount of money raised, she got herself a slightly better computer in mid 2023 when her old one died. Whatever remained she gave it away to her friends and family ... who have no idea where the money came from.

Money that I basically got naked for. I don't mind it though ... she treats me well!

Tabitha would eventually start getting fan mails to release her models. She initially didn't want to do that because she's afraid that like her previous works, no one would like it. Truth be told, she spends a lot of time ensuring that we look good. She just likes us that way.

What changed her mind was when one of use realized that she spent way too much time creating models as opposed to creating content. Like 90% of time is spent on modeling alone.

With that, she started another Pixiv called B.A.E Labs, which is short for Body Art and Engineering Laboratories. She also created a Fantia account as back up. There, she released most of us into the wild for your pleasure.

Yes, she is very aware what you all may do to us.

Well, here comes the bad news. Eventually her Pixiv fanboxes were both suspended.

I mean, you know why ... not all of us, well, none of us are ... uh, I can't say anymore.

Anyway, yes, they were both suspended, leaving only Subscribestar and Fantia behind to host her work at. And this is where things gets slightly complicated.

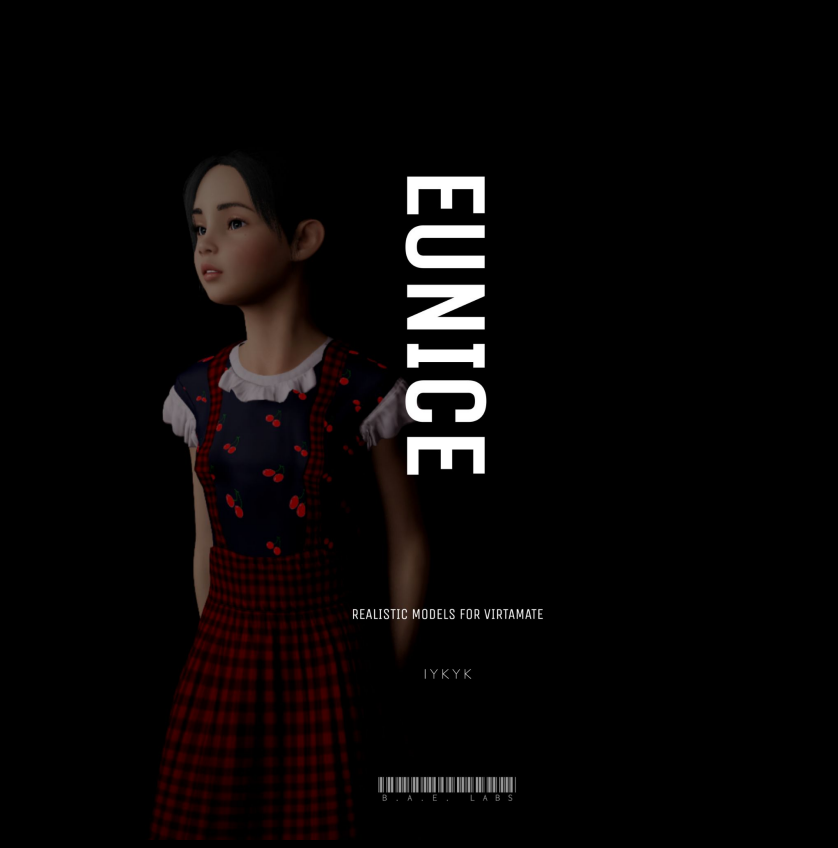

I will pass the time on to Ying Jie, or YJ as we affectionately call her, to explain more.

Um. Hello.

My name is YJ and I am going to explain what will happen to ... this whole thing ... in the future.

SORRY! I'M NERVOUS!

What our uh ... owner? Can I call her that? No? Okay.

What Tabitha wants to do is to converge both contents. The main problem is that both platforms are not priced equally because of currency issues. And she doesn't think it's fair.

Furthermore, as she spends more time creating us, she spends equally lesser time creating content like photo books and stuff, things that I would also be a part of!

She's in a situation where she does not want to abandon any one of these platforms and she does not want to overcharge subscribers too.

So, I worked it out for her! Heh, yes, I am the only one among us who loves puzzles!

Fantia

Here is what is going to happen, she will combine both content together while keeping some stuff unique to Subscribestar and Fantia! Subscribestar will have free images posted as and when she creates a new photo, while Fantia ... well, you get unique models. Special models ... hint hint.

However, she will not be raising prices at all. She's not here for the money, even though she's earned a good amount to treat her friends and family. She loves us, she loves putting us in ... you know, bad situations.

Hopefully this new model works out for everyone!

Last but not least, she would like us to thank you for your support. She does not expect a long term subscription from anyone, really. She enjoys what she does and she certainly hope you like what she puts out too. If you subscribe for a month and decide to stop after that, its perfectly fine!

And with that, thank you for your attention and we will ... uh, you will see us next time!
